“Freedom from all obligations is declared from Allāh and His Messenger to those of the mushrikīn with whom you made a treaty”

Sūrat At-Tawbah: 1

A DECLARATION OF BARĀ'AH

To the Pharaohs of this Era, and to their regimes, and their agents
To the ministers, bishops, and rabbis of the Tawāghūt
To all of them we say:
“We do not worship that which you worship,
To you is your religion, and to us is our Dīn
We disbelieve in you and in your gods, legislations, and your constitutions
And we have rejected your parliaments which you worship along with Allāh
And there has emerged between us and you
Hostility and Hatred forever-
Until you return to Tawhīd, and apply His Legislation Alone
And accept it with full submission.”

Preface

All praise and thanks are due to Allāh, the One Who does not forgive shirk, yet forgives anything less than that for whomsoever He wills. And whosoever commits shirk, then he has indeed invented a tremendous sin,¹ - and whosoever commits shirk, then he has indeed strayed far away.²

And peace and blessings be upon Muhammad Ibn 'Abdillāh, the Imām of the Muwabbhidīn, the one who was ordered in the Qur'ān to follow the Path of Ibrāhīm, and follow the Da'wah of all the Mursalīn in calling to the Tawhīd of Rabb Al-'Ālamīn, and ordered to declare Barā'ah from the mushrikīn. Wa Ba'd.

Know! O Servants of Allāh! That Allāh did not create you for mere jest, as Allāh says,

“Did you assume that We had created you in play (without any purpose), and that you would not be brought back to Us?”³

Rather, Allāh (Most High) has created you for an extremely important goal, which many people have forgotten,

“And I did not create the Jinn and mankind, except that they should worship Me (Alone).”⁴

And the goal is not to merely “worship Allāh”- for indeed many kuffār worship Allāh, while worshipping others along with Him also- as the mushrikūn of Quraysh did. So the actual goal is to “Direct all the types of Tbādab (worship) to none but Allāh Alone”. That is why the scholars said that “except that they should worship Me” means “except that they should single Me out with all forms of Tbādab”.⁵

And there can be no validity for any form of Tbādab- until there exists along with it, Kufr Bit-Taghūt (Disbelief and Rejection of the Taghūt). As Allāh says,

³ Al-Mu'minūn: 115

⁴ Ath-Thāriyāt: 56

⁵ This saying was mentioned by Al-Qurtubī in his Tafsīr of this Āyah, and also from Al-Kalbī. Look to “Ma'arīj Al-Qubūl Sharh Sullam Al-Wusūl Ilā 'Ilm Al-Usūl” by Imām Hāfith Ibn Ahmad Al-Hakamī, (1/82) for more definitions of Tbādab in this Āyah.

“Verily, the Right Path has become distinct from the wrong path. So, whosoever disbelieves in the Tāghūt, and believes in Allāh- then he has grasped the firmest handhold that will never break.”⁶

So Kufr Bit-Tāghūt comes before “Belief in Allāh”. And from the necessities of Kufr Bit-Tāghūt is the obligation of Barā'ah, 'Adāwah, Baghdhā', and Takefir against the mushrikein and their Tawāghūt.

And this is the reason for which this book has been compiled and translated; since many people have forsaken the methodology of the Prophets in this matter, all under the guise of calling to Salafīyyah- yet Salafīyyah is free from them, just as 'رضي الله عنه Alī is free from the Shi'ah.

Most of these are actually Jahmī-styled *Murji'ah*⁷, they claim that every Nullification of Islām has to be referred back to what lies in the “heart”. So the person who slanders the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم is not a kāfir apostate, as long as that person claims with his mouth that he “loves” Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم. And when regimes compete in rejecting the Legislation of Allāh, then these Murji'ah argue on their behalf saying that there can be no Takefir as long as these regimes, with their mouths claim,⁸ that they “love” Allāh’s Legislation; and as long as they use the terminology “Legally Permissible” and not “Islāmically Halāl”, then they can not be accused of doing Istihlāl of kufr.

But the topic of this book, Inshā' Allāh, is regarding Al-Walā' and Al-Barā', and the obligation of Hostility and Hatred against the kuffār. And the Murji'ah have not spared this even. They have injected their poison here also; claiming that no matter how much someone collaborates with the enemies of Allāh, the Zionists, Crusaders and the Tawāghūt, no matter how many Muslim lands the “Wulāt Al-Amr” help the Crusaders occupy and destroy- no matter how many Muslims are tortured, raped and butchered by the direct assistance of “Moderate Muslims”- No matter how much, none of those collaborators are apostates, as long as they claim with their mouths “we love Islām”. So they directly oppose the Fatāwā of the Salaf, since they unanimously issue the verdict, “The Ulamā of Islām are united upon the fact that whosoever aids the kuffār against the Muslims, or collaborates with them with any type of assistance- then that person is a kāfir just like them.”⁹

⁶ Al-Baqarab: 256

⁷ The Murji'ah are those who claim that actions (A'māl) by themselves have nothing to do with Īmān nor kufr. And there are many other types of Murji'ah also. They claim that actions are not a part of Īmān, and that actions are not a part of kufr. They claim that as long as the “heart is okay”, then a person is a Mu'min. And they claim that no matter what type of kufr is done, “as long as the heart is okay” that person is not an apostate. And the closest type of the past Murji'ah to the Murji'ah of today are the followers of Bishr Al-Marīsī. Refer to the books of the Salaf regarding the Murji'ah. And also refer to the books of Shaykh Abū Muhammad Al-Maqdisī regarding the Murji'ah; “Imtā' An-Nathar Fī Kashf Shubuhāt Murji'at Al-'Asr”, and “Tabsīr Al-'Uqala' Bi-Talbisāt Abl At-Tajabbum Wal-Irjā'”. In English, refer to “A Decisive Refutation of Salafi Publications” Parts 1 and 2, by At-Tibyān Publications

⁹ Refer to “Majmū' Fatāwā Ibn Bāz” (1/274).

But these Murji'ah claim no matter how much assistance is given to the Zionists and Crusaders to kill and mutilate the Muslims- this action is never apostasy. How convenient for the Tawāghīt and how pleasing to their ears and eyes to hear such words and see such “green-lights”...

Which reminds us of the words of Imām Ibn Kathīr رحمه الله when he reported from the Salaf, “On the authority of Ibn ‘Asākir, from An-Nadhr Ibn Shumayl رحمه الله, that he said:

I entered upon Al-Ma'mūn, so he said: “How have you awoken O Nadhr?” So I said: “Fine, O Amīr Al-Mu'minīn!” Then he asked: “What is Irjā'?”¹⁰ I replied: “A religion that agrees with the kings- they gain from the worldly matters with it, and loosen from their Dīn.”¹¹ He replied: “You have spoken the truth.”¹²

And the Brothers should also turn away from Taqīd, and following righteous Shuyūkh even when they err in a particular Fatwā. Rather, they should make following the texts of the Qur'ān and Sunnah their Manhaj, even if the texts contradict some opinions of some Shuyūkh. And that is why all the Pious Predecessors (As-Salaf As-Sālib) use to say, “Every human’s words can be either accepted or rejected- except the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, since all of his words have to be accepted.”

And Imām Al-Awzā'ī رحمه الله once beautifully said, “Stick to the Āthār (Sunnah) of those who have preceded (Salaf), even if the people reject you. And beware of the opinions of men, even if they beautify it for you with speech.”¹³

Imām Sulaymān Ibn ‘Abdillāh Al-Ash-Shaykh رحمه الله said, “Rather, the obligatory (Fardh) and binding necessity upon the Mu'min is, that when the Book of Allāh and the Sunnah of His Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم reaches him and he understands its meanings- no matter what ruling the text is about - he has to act upon it - no matter who opposes him. And this is what our Lord and His Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم have commanded us with- and all the Ulamā

¹⁰ Irjā' is the ideology of the Murji'ah.

are agreed upon this (obligation).¹⁴ And the only ones who contradict this view are the ignorant blind-followers (Juhāl Muqallidīn); and Ibn 'Abdil-Barr رحمه الله and others have narrated Ijma' that such people are not from the People of Knowledge."¹⁵

And Imām 'Abdur-Rahmān Ibn Hasan Āl Ash-Shaykh رحمه الله also said, "It is obligatory (Wājib) upon every single person, when the proofs from the Qur'ān and Sunnah reach him and he understands its implications- (it is Wājib) to stop following others, and to obey the proofs- no matter who opposes him... So it is obligatory upon the sincere person - whenever he reads the books of the scholars - to compare their verdicts to that which is contained in the Kitāb and Sunnah."¹⁶

Imām 'Abdur-Rahmān Ibn Hasan رحمه الله also said while explaining the Verse,

"And if you obey them (the kuffār), then you would indeed be mushrikūn";¹⁷

He explained, "And many people today have done exactly this- by blindly following those who they are following; And by not showing the evidences when it contradicts their leaders- and this is from this type of shirk (mentioned in this Verse).¹⁸ And then there are those who go beyond this, by thinking that acting upon the evidences is prohibited- and they are increasing this fitnah (shirk) by claiming "This scholar is more knowledgeable than us regarding the evidences."¹⁹

And Imām Abā Batīn رحمه الله said, "And when a person realizes the Truth, he will not be bothered by the lack of people who follow the Truth, and the plentiness of people who oppose them,²⁰ especially in these last days. And as for the saying of the ignorant people, "If ¹⁴ So O Brother of Tawhid! You have indeed been ordered by Allāh, His Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم, and all true scholars- to obey the evidences from the Qur'ān and Sunnah, no matter who opposes you; So when you follow the textual proofs, even when other scholars are opposing you, such as Abū Hanīfah or Al-Madkhalī- keep on following the textual evidences. So make the Dalīl (textual evidence of the Qur'ān and Sunnah) your Manhaj and Tariqah - and abandon Taqīd.

¹⁶ Refer to "Fat'h Al-Majīd" (387-388).

¹⁷ Al-An'am: 121

¹⁹ Refer to "Fat'h Al-Majīd" (391).

²⁰ Allāh says,

"Say: Evil (khabiṭh) and Righteousness (Tayyib) are not equal, even though the abundance of evil (khabiṭh) may attract you. So fear Allāh- O men of understanding, in order that you may be successful." [Al-Mā'idah: 100].

this was actually the truth, then why doesn't so-and-so Shaykh know about it?" - This is the same excuse used by the kuffār,²¹ when they exclaimed,

“Had it (actually) been something good, they would not have preceded us to it!”²²
and,

“Is it these whom Allāh has favored from amongst us?”²³

And indeed ‘Alī رضي الله عنه said, *“Know the Truth, and then you shall know its people.”*²⁴ But as for those who are confused and lost, then every argument (of the heretics) deceives him. And indeed, if most of the people today were upon the Truth, then Islām would not be Gharīb (strange);²⁵ And Islām, verily is today - By Allāh - in the depths of strangeness.”²⁶

²¹ So remember the reality of this evil excuse- for indeed, when many brothers are given sincere advice from the texts of the Qur’ān and Sunnah, they reply, “If this was correct, then why aren’t the ‘scholars’ saying this?” So remember that the Truth is within the texts, whether or not the scholars are preaching it. And when a brother says this excuse, then remember that it is the same evil excuse of the kuffār.

²² Al-Abqāf: 11, and also in a Verse the kuffār claimed the excuse,

“We never heard such a thing among our ancient fathers!” [Al-Mu’minūn: 24].

And this same evil excuse was exclaimed by Fir’awn when encountered by Mūsā عليه السلام , “Then what about the previous generations?” [TāHā: 51].

They all claimed that since their Shuyūkh, elders, chiefs, rulers, and governors were upon a religion and methodology, then that was the only correct thing. And Allāh says regarding those who forsake the proofs for the sake of Taqīd,

“On the Day when their faces will be turned over in the Fire, they will say “O! If only we had obeyed Allāh and obeyed the Messenger!” And they will say, “Our Lord! Verily, we obeyed our chiefs and great ones, and they misled us from the Right Way. Our Lord! Give them double torment and curse them with a mighty curse!” [Al-Abzāb: 66-68].

²⁴ So after the Truth is known, only then is it possible to know its supporters and helpers- its people. And it is not the other way around- meaning that the Truth is not known by a certain group of people.

²⁶ “Ad-Durar As-Saniyyah” (400-401)

And refuge is sought with Allāh.

The original intention was to only translate the book “Ad-Dalā'il” by Imām Sulaymān Āl Ash-Shaykh رحمه الله; but it was then realized that it would be hard for the many English-speaking brothers to grasp its meanings firmly, without having some supplementary material- so the related writings were translated as well.

And for the brothers reading this, the most benefit would be derived if the sections are read in the following order (but the book is not arranged in this order), after reading this preface-

- 1) The Foundation of Islām and Its Principle
- 2) Millat Ibrāhīm: The Path (Part One)
- 3) The Border in Between Muwālāt and Tawalli
- 4) The Evidences for the Ruling Regarding Alliance with the Infidels
- 5) The Verdict of Imām Ahmad Shākir
- 6) Refraining From Making Takfīr of a Kāfir
- 7) The Muwahhidūn are Not Khawārij
- 8) Millat Ibrāhīm: The Obstacles (Part Two)
- 9) The Imāms of Najd - Vs. - the Murji'ah
- 10) Conclusion

And this has only been compiled with the intention of acting upon the Verse,

“And help you one another in virtue and piety, and do not help one another in sin and transgression.”²⁷

In the main text of this book, and its footnotes, I have followed the methodology and style used by the martyred Shaykh Abū ‘Abdir-Rahmān Sultān Al-‘Utaybī Al-Atharī رحمه الله, in his book “Al-Haqq Wal-Yaqīn Fī ‘Adāwat At-Tughāt Wal-Murtaddīn: Min Kalām A’immat Ad-Da’wah An-Najdiyyah”; in which he speaks to the readers and connects to them. And it has been proven that this methodology of his was very unique and effective amongst the brothers.

Some of the statements of the scholars of the government have been used here, even though they are deviant in many other aspects of the Dīn, but some of their words are valid and strong against the Murji'ah – so those words have been brought here and used to support the refutations against the Murji'ah.

²⁷ Al-Ma’ādab: 2

If this book is a means for righteousness and Taqwā, then it has come from the Virtue of Allāh, the only Rabb, the true Ma'būd. But if there is any mistake within it, it is only from us and Shaytān; and Allāh and His Messenger are free from it.

“I only desire reform to the best of my power. And my guidance cannot come except from Allāh, in Him I trust, and unto Him I repent.”²⁸

The Foundation of Islām and Its Principle ²⁹

WHAT IS THE FOUNDATION AND PRINCIPLE OF ISLĀM? ³⁰

“Worship Allāh (Alone) and avoid the Tāghūt” ³¹

- a) “Asl Dīn Al-Islām Wa Qā'idatuhū”- By the Mujaddid, Imām Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdil-Wahhāb رحمه الله. Found in “Ad-Durar As-Saniyyah” (2/22).
- b) The Sharh of the above treatise, by the second Mujaddid, Imām ‘Abdur-Rahmān Ibn Hasan Ibn Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdil-Wahhāb رحمه الله. Found in “Ad-Durar As-Saniyyah” (2/202-211).
- c) “Asl Dīn Al-Islām”- the book of Shaykh ‘Alī Al-Khudhayr (may Allāh hasten his release from prison), which is an in-depth explanation of the two treatises mentioned above. This book is the first part of the series of books by the Shaykh entitled “Silsilat Al-Ajzā' Fī At-Tawhīd Wa Al-'Aqīdab”.
- d) “Millat Ibrāhīm”- by Shaykh Abū Muhammad Al-Maqdisī (may Allāh hasten his release from prison). Note: After the original completion of this book, “Millat Ibrāhīm” was released in English by At-Tibyān Publications, and is available on their website.

So for a firmer understanding of this matter, refer to those books.

But as for “thinking” things which have Tbādab directed at them- then there exists an extra condition- “every entity which has any type of Tbādab directed at itself- other than Allāh- and is satisfied with it”. This extra condition is placed to exclude people such as ‘Īsā Ibn Maryam عليه السلام, and ‘Alī Ibn Abī Tālib رضي الله عنه from being labeled as “Tāghūt”. For indeed ‘Īsā عليه السلام never ordered anything upon his people except to direct all of their Tbādab to Allāh Alone. And on the Day of Resurrection, he will reject the people who worshipped him and be their enemy, just as he had declared them as denizens of the Fire (refer to Al-Mā'idab: 72-78, and 116-117, and Al-Ahqāf: 6). And similar is the case with the Companion ‘Alī Ibn Abī Tālib رضي الله عنه. So even though there is no enmity, nor hatred, nor Takfir against ‘Īsā عليه السلام and ‘Alī رضي الله عنه - these are obligatory against those who worship such people.

But as for those who are pleased with being worshipped, then no doubt that they are Tawāghūt. Such as Asb-Shaytān Ar-Rajīm, those who distort the laws of Allāh, those who rule with other than the Shari'ah, those who claim to possess Knowledge of the Unseen, those who call to worship other than Allāh, etc. Such as Fir'awn, rabbis, priests, pirs, sorcerers, nuns, fortunetellers, Ka'b Ibn Al-Ashraf, etc. Imām Ibn Al-Qayyim رحمه الله said regarding the Tāghūt, “It is everything in which man exceeds his limits, whether it being worshipped, followed, or obeyed. So the Tāghūt of every community is he from whom judgment is sought, instead of what Allāh and His Messenger have ruled; or those whom they worship besides Allāh; or whom they follow without a proof from Allāh; or whom they obey, while not knowing if it is in accordance to the Judgment of Allāh. So these are the Tawāghūt of the world; if you were to contemplate regarding them and see the conditions of the people with them, you would see that most of them have turned away from worshipping Allāh Alone, to worshipping the Tāghūt; away from seeking judgment from Allāh and His Messenger, to seeking judgment from

The foundation of Islām is based in two matters: Affirmation (Itbbāt) and Negation (Nafī).³²

And as was said by Imām Muhammad Ibn 'Abdil-Wahhāb At-Tamīmī An-Najdī رحمه الله:

“The foundation and principle of the Dīn of Islām is in two matters-

Firstly. Commanding the worshipping (directing of every type of Tbādah) to Allāh Alone without any partner, encouragement upon this, making friendship for its sake, and making *Takefīr*³³ of whosoever leaves it.

the Tāghūt; away from obeying Him and following His Messenger, to obeying and following the Tāghūt.” Refer to “ʿIlām Al-Muwaqqiʿīn” (1/50).

The scholars of Najd have also said, “Tāghūt includes everything which is worshipped other than Allāh. And every leader of misguidance, everyone who calls to evil and beautifies it (is also a Tāghūt). It also includes every person who is set up by the people to judge between them with laws which are not in accordance with the Decision of Allāh and His Messenger, and these are all laws of Jābiliyyah. And Tāghūt also includes the soothsayer, sorcerer; the caretakers of the idols, those who call to the worshipping of the buried people, and such people who narrate stories which misguide the ignorant people. And the base of all these types of Tāghūt is Shaytān- for he is the greatest Tāghūt.” “Ad-Durar As-Saniyyah” (2/301).

Shaykh Sālīh Al-Fawzān says in his explanation of Kitāb At-Tawhīd regarding the Tāghūt, “It means Shaytān, since he is the leader of all the Tawāghūt- may Allāh curse him. It also refers to a sorcerer, fortuneteller, the ruler who governs with other than the Revelation of Allāh, and whoever tells people to follow him in other than obedience to Allāh.” “ʿĀnat Al-Mustafīd Bi-Sharh Kitāb At-Tawhīd” (1/27).

For further knowledge regarding the Tāghūt, refer to the book “At-Tāghūt” by Shaykh Abū Basīr, and “Al-Idhāb Wat-Tabyīn” of Shaykh Ahmad Ibn Hamūd Al-Khālīdī (may Allāh hasten his release from prison).

“The meaning of “Singling out Allāh” obligates two things:

- 1) Negating Tbādah (worship) for everything and everyone. (Lā Ilāha- None is worthy of being worshipped)
- 2) Affirming it for Allāh Alone. (Illā Allāh- Except Allāh)

Nothing is “singled out” (Ifrād) until it contains both a Negation (Nafī) and an Affirmation (Itbbāt).

For example if you said, “Qāma Muhammad” (Muhammad stood up): In this phrase you have affirmed Qiyām (standing up) for Muhammad, but you have not “singled him out”, because there is still a possibility that there is someone standing with him.

But if you said, “Mā Qāma Illā Muhammad” (No one stood up except Muhammad): Here you have singled out Muhammad. How? By bringing the Negation (Nafī), which is “No one stood up”, and then following it up with the Affirmation (Itbbāt), which is “except Muhammad.”

Thus, one who prostrates to Allāh and then afterwards sacrifices (Thabb) to other than Allāh, or worships Allāh and then legislates a law (other than Allāh's) - this person has not singled out Allāh with worship.”

Secondly: Abandoning shirk (joining partners) in Tbādab to Allāh and warning from it, being severely harsh upon this, being hostile for its sake, and making *Takfīr*³⁴ of whosoever does it.”³⁵

Imām ‘Abdur-Rahmān Ibn Hasan An-Najdī Āl Asb-Shaykh رحمه الله said regarding this, “And the proofs for this (foundation/principle) in the Qur’ān are so many that it cannot be enumerated.”³⁶

And this foundation of Islām is the Millat Ibrāhīm.³⁷

So the first thing mentioned by the Imām is the Affirmation, and the second is the Negation. Each of the two, the Affirmation and the Negation, has four requisites. And the first of the requisites is the greatest and most important requisite, and then the second requisite, and then the third, and then the fourth.

1) The Affirmation: It consists of Four Requisites- The first two regarding Tawhīd itself, and the last two regarding the People of Tawhīd.

a) The First Requisite- Commanding the worshipping of Allāh Alone without any partner.

As Allāh (Most High) has ordered, the Dīn... And indeed Shaytān has misled many in this regard; so there are such people who consider a person to be Muslim, but the texts of the Qur’ān, Sunnah and Ijmā’ prove that he is a kāfir, and then there are others who make Takfīr of those who are actually Muslim according to the Qur’ān, Sunnah, and Ijmā’.” Refer to “Ad-Durar As-Saniyyah” (8/217). Also see the next note.

³⁴ Mark this in your heart, O Brother of Tawhīd! Unlike the Murji’ah, the Imām has clarified that doing Takfīr of the apostates is from amongst the foundations and bases of Islām. But what do we see today from the Murji’ah of this era? We see nothing except warning against making Takfīr of the apostates. And anyone who does Takfīr of the apostates is branded as a “Takfīrī”, and “Khārijī”. And it has gone beyond this to such a degree, that if someone calls Bush a “Tāghūt” and “kāfir” publicly, he is branded as “Khawārij”- since, in their opinion, Bush cannot be labeled as a Tāghūt unless he declares his own legislations to be Islāmīchly Halāl. Yā Subhān Allāh! Let the people open up the books of history, and read what the musbrikūn had branded the Scholars of Najd with- let your eyes find the musbrikūn calling the Mujaddid with the exact same disgusting terms, “Takfīrī”, “Khārijī”, etc. And refuge is sought with Allāh. Refer to the appendix “The Muwahhidūn Are Not Khawārij”.

³⁶ “Ad-Durar As-Saniyyah” (2/203)

³⁷ Millat Ibrāhīm عليه السلام : It can be translated as “the Religion of Ibrāhīm”, “the Faith of Ibrāhīm”, “the Path of Ibrāhīm”, “The Dīn of Ibrāhīm”. It is also known as Al-Hanfiyyah. The one who follows the Millat Ibrāhīm is known as Hanif; the plural of which is Hunafā’. Every true Muslim is a Hanif and Muwahhid (a person who firmly believes in Tawhīd and acts strictly upon it, and follows it sincerely in all matters in life), and vice-versa. Also refer to the Appendix “Millat Ibrāhīm”.

“Say (O Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم): ‘O people of the Scripture! Come to a word that is just between us and you; That we worship none but Allāh (Alone), and that we associate no partners with Him, and that none of us shall take others as lords besides Allāh.’ Then, if they turn away, say: ‘Bear witness that we are Muslims?’”³⁸

And also the Commandment of Allāh,

“And your Lord has decreed that you worship none but Him (Alone).”³⁹

And,

“The judgment (Hukm) is for none, except Allāh; He has commanded that you worship none, except Him. That is the Straight Religion, but most men know not.”⁴⁰

And also,

“Alif-Lām-Rā. (This is) a Book, the Verses of which are perfected, and then explained in detail from (Allāh, the) One Who is All-Wise, Well-Acquainted (with all things). (Saying:) Worship none, except Allāh. Verily, I (Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم) am unto you a warner and a bringer of glad-tidings, from Him.”⁴¹

And Allāh has notified us that the Da'wah of all the Messengers was:

“O my people! Worship Allāh (Alone)! You have no *Ilāh*⁴² other than Him.”^{43, 44}

³⁸ Al Imrān: 64

³⁹ Al-Isrā': 23

⁴⁰ Yūsuf: 40

⁴¹ Hūd: 1-2

⁴² Ilāh: synonymous to Ma'būd. Meaning anyone “who is worshipped with any type of Tbādab”. In the Kalimah of Tambīd it actually means “The one who is worthy of being worshipped with every type of Tbādab”.

Shaykh Sālih Al-Fawzān elaborates: “So “Lā Ilāh Illā Allāh” means “None has the right to be worshipped, except Allāh”. But if you were to say, “It means- None is worshipped, except Allāh” then you have made everything which is worshipped into Allāh; you have transformed the statues, graves, zodiac constellations, and everything else which has Tbādab directed at it, into being Allāh- and this is a dangerous mistake. And this is the Math'hab of W'abdatul-Wujūd (The oneness of all in existence). So it is necessary to bring the condition of “worthiness to be worshipped”. Because indeed, everything that is worshipped is divided into two categories:

a) One who is worthy of being worshipped- and this is Allāh Alone.

And this First Requisite is the greatest of the requisites in Affirmation.

b) The Second Requisite- Encouragement upon this.

As Allāh (Most High) says,

“And who is better in religion than one who submits his face to Allāh (by acting upon Tawhīd), and is a Muhsin,⁴⁵ and follows the Millat Ibrāhīm, as a Hanīf? And Allāh did take Ibrāhīm as an intimate friend!”⁴⁶

And,

“Allāh has promised the Mu'minīn, men and women- Gardens under which rivers flow therein forever, and beautiful mansions in the Gardens of Eden. But the Greatest Bliss is the Pleasure of Allāh. That is the supreme success.”⁴⁷

And His saying,

b) One who has no right to be worshipped, and this is everything which is worshipped besides Allāh.”

Summarized from I'ānat Al-Mustafīd (1/61).

This Verse should be understood as “O my people! Worship Allāh Alone! Make all of your Tbādab purely for Him, since there is none besides Him having the right to be worshipped by you.” And this is equivalent to the Kalimah of Tawhīd.

⁴³ Imām ‘Abdur-Rahmān Ibn Hasan رحمه الله explains this Verse: “So the Kalimah has been clarified by this- “That we worship none, but Allāh (Alone)”. So the part “That we worship none” stands for “Lā Ilāh”, and this requires negating every Tbādab to other than Allāh; and “but Allāh (Alone)” reflects “Illā Allāh”, this is excluding Allāh from this Negation in the Kalimah, and an Affirmation of all types of Tbādab for Him. And there are many Verses similar to this. Like the Verse:

“And your Lord has decreed that you worship none but Him (Alone)” [Al-Isrā': 23].

So these are two Verses whose meaning is one. So the part “And your Lord has decreed that you worship none” contains the meaning of “Lā Ilāh”; and “but Him (Alone)” refers to “Illā Allāh”.” The meaning of the Imām's words in “Ad-Durar As-Saniyyah” (2/203).

⁴⁴ Al-A'rāf: 59, 65, 73, 85; Hud: 50, 61, 84; Al-Mu'minun: 23, 32.

⁴⁷ At-Tawbah: 72

“This is a Message for mankind, in order that they may be warned by it, and that they may know that He is the Only One Ilāh- and that men of understanding may take heed.”⁴⁸

And the Verses,

“And He is Allāh, none has the right to be worshipped except He, all praises and thanks be to Him in (both) the first (in this world) and in the last (in the Hereafter). And the Judgment is His, and to Him shall you all be returned. Say (O Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم): ‘Tell me! If Allāh made the night continuous upon you till the Day of Resurrection- which of those worshipped, besides Allāh, could bring you sunlight? Will you then not hear?’ Say (O Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم): ‘Tell me! If Allāh made the day continuous upon you till the Day of Resurrection- which of those worshipped, besides Allāh, could bring you night wherein you (could) rest? Will you then not see?’ And it is out of His Mercy that He has made for you the night and the day, that you may rest therein (during the night), and may seek of His Bounty (during the day)- and so that you may be grateful.”⁴⁹

And it is known from the biographical records of the of the Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم, that he used to go to the places of ritual-sacrifice, marketplaces, and gatherings, and call the people and uphold Tawhīd and encourage it- by saying “Testify that “None is worthy of being worshipped, except Allāh” and you shall be successful.”⁵⁰

c) The Third Requisite- Making friendship for its sake.

This is apparent in the statement of Allāh,

⁴⁸ Ibrāhīm: 52

⁴⁹ Al-Qasas: 70-73

⁵⁰ This was narrated by Imām Ahmad in his “Musnad” from Rabi’ah Ibn ‘Ubād Ad-Daylī and Imrah Ibn Az-Zubayr that they heard in the market of Thī Al-Majāz, a man saying: “O You People! Say Lā Ilāha Illā Allāh, then you will be successful” The general event, with its different phrasings and details was authenticated by Ibn Hazm in “Al-Muhallā” (9/112), Ibn Al-Mulqīn in “Al-Badr Al-Munīr” (3/54), and Al-Wādi’ī in “Al-Jamī’ As-Sabīb” (1/50), and others, and “As-Sabīb Al-Musnad” (516).

“And the Mu'minūn, men and women, are Awliyā'”⁵¹ of one another.”⁵²

And also the Verse,

“The Mu'minūn are nothing else than brothers.⁵³ So make reconciliation between your brothers- and fear Allāh, so that you may receive mercy.”⁵⁴

As Allāh has said,

“He is the One Who has supported you (O Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم) with His Help, and with the Mu'minīn. And He has united their hearts. If you had spent all that is in the earth, you could not have united their hearts (in such a way), but Allāh has united them. Certainly, He is All-Mighty, All-Wise.”⁵⁵

And as He (Most High) has said,

“And hold fast, all of you together, to the Rope of Allāh,⁵⁶ and be not divided among yourselves, and remember the Favor of Allāh upon you; for you were enemies one to another, but He joined your hearts together, so that by His Grace, you became brethren. And you were on the brink of a pit of Fire, but He saved you from it. Thus Allāh makes His Signs clear to you, that you may be guided.”⁵⁷

⁵² At-Tawbah: 71

⁵⁴ Al-Hujurat: 10

⁵⁶ The Rope of Allāh: Ibn Kathīr رحمه الله says that this means the Qur'an, holding on to the Qur'an, and uniting upon it. This refutes those who call to unite upon false desires, and fabricated man-made legislations, and alliance with the infidels.

⁵⁷ Al-Imrān: 103

And as Allāh ordered,

“And help you one another in virtue and piety, and do not help one another in sin and transgression.”⁵⁸

And asking for the Forgiveness of Allāh for fellow Muslims is also included here,

“And those who came after them, say: Our Lord! Forgive us and our brethren who have preceded us in Īmān, and put not in our hearts any hatred against those who have Īmān. Our Lord! You are indeed Full of Kindness, Most Merciful.”⁵⁹

As the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم had said, “The Mu'min to another Mu'min is like a building whose different parts enforce each other.” The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم then demonstrated this by clasping his hands with his fingers interlaced.⁶⁰

And as Allāh says,

“Verily, Allāh loves those who fight in His Cause in rows as if they were a solid structure.”⁶¹

And the Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم also clarified, “None of you have Īmān until you love for your brother that which you love for yourself.”⁶²

⁵⁹ Al-Hashr: 10

⁶⁰ Narrated by Abū Mūsā Al-Ash'arī. Recorded in Al-Bukhārī (6026), and Muslim (2585), and An-Nasā'ī, At-Tirmithī and Ahmad. This might be understood better with this explanation from Shaykh Abū Muhammad Al-Maqdisī فك الله أسره from his book Millat Ibrahim, pages (54-55), “So a Muslim to a (fellow) Muslim is, as Shaykh Al-Islām pointed out, like two hands- one washes the other. And sometimes it might happen that to remove the dirt or filth, some severity is needed, but still the severity is praiseworthy (since it is removing the filth). Because the goal is to let the two hands be clean and safe. We can not let it be permissible to completely abandon a Muslim; because the Muslim has a right of friendship upon his brother, and this right is not disconnected except by apostasy and exiting from the fold of Islam. And Allāh has made this affair something very great, as He said,

“If you do not do so, there will be fitnah on earth and a great corruption.” [Al-Anfāl: 73].”

⁶¹ As-Saff: 4

⁶² Narrated from Anas Ibn Mālik. Recorded by Al-Bukhārī (13), and Muslim (45), and An-Nasā'ī, At-Tirmithī, Ibn Mājah, Ad-Dārimī and Ahmad. And Allāh describes the Muslims in a part of a Verse, that they,

And he صلى الله عليه وسلم also said, "Be slaves of Alāh and fellow-brothers. A Muslim is the brother of a Muslim- he neither wrongs him, nor humiliates him, nor looks down upon him."⁶³

And also the Hadīth, "You will see the Mu'minīn- in regard to their mutual love, affection, and compassion- like the example of a single body; when any limb aches, the whole body aches."⁶⁴

And as Allāh states,

"Verily, your *Walī*⁶⁵ is none other than Allāh, His Messenger, and those who believe- those who perform As-Salāt, and give Az-Zakāt, and they are Rākī'ūn.⁶⁶ And whosoever takes Allāh, His Messenger, and those who Believe as (their) Awliyā'- then the Party of Allāh will be the victorious."⁶⁷

And this is the Third Requisite of Affirmation; and its importance comes directly after the Second Requisite.

d) The Fourth Requisite- Doing Takfīr of whosoever leaves it.

Just as Allāh (Most High) has ordered,

"Say: O You Kāfirūn, I do not worship that which you worship."⁶⁸

And Allāh has stated,

"... love those who emigrate to them, and have no jealousy in their breasts for that which they (fellow Muslims) have been given, and give them (fellow Muslims) preference over themselves, even though they were in need of that. And whosoever is saved from his own greed- such are they who will be the successful." [Al-Hasbr: 9].

⁶³ On the authority of Abū Hurayrah. Al-Bukhārī (2442), and Muslim (2580). Also narrated by Ahmad.

⁶⁴ Narrated by An-Nu'mān Ibn Bashīr. Refer to Al-Bukhārī (6011), and Muslim (2586). Also narrated with a similar phrasing by Ahmad.

⁶⁵ Singular form of Awliyā': Walī- friend, guardian, supporter, helper, protector, etc.

⁶⁸ Al-Kāfirūn: 1-2

“And they set up rivals to Allāh (in Tbādah), in order to mislead others from His Path. (So) Say: ‘Take pleasure in your kufr for a while- surely you are of the denizens of the Fire.’”⁶⁹

And,

“Certainly you (O kāfirūn) and that which you are worshipping besides Allāh,⁷⁰ are but fuel for Hell. Surely, you will enter it.”⁷¹

And as Allāh has said,

“And who is more astray than one who invokes besides Allāh, such as will not answer him till the Day of Resurrection, and who are even unaware of their invocations (Du'ā) to them. And when mankind are gathered (on the Day of Resurrection)- they (i.e. the worshipped ones)⁷² will become their enemies and will deny their worshipping.”⁷³

And Allāh has announced,

“And whosoever seeks a religion other than Islām, it will never be accepted of him- and in the Hereafter he will be one of the losers.”⁷⁴

And as Allāh extols the Millat Ibrāhīm,

“There has indeed been an excellent example for you in Ibrāhīm and those with him, when they said to their people: ‘Verily, we are free from you and whatever you

⁶⁹ Aḥ-Zumar: 8

⁷¹ Al-Anbiyā': 98

⁷² This is referring to those who are worshipped like ‘Īsā عليه السلام and ‘Alī رضي الله عنه - they will be enemies of the Christians and the Shi'ab. And as for Fir'awn and others who were pleased with being worshipped, they are the ones referred to in the Verse in Al-Anbiyā': 98.

⁷³ Al-Abqāf: 5-6

worship besides Allāh. We have rejected you ⁷⁵ and there has emerged between us and you, hostility and hatred forever, until you believe in Allāh Alone!" ⁷⁶

And Allāh has clarified,

“So what else is there after the Truth, except misguidance?” ⁷⁷

And this is why Ibn Taymiyyah رحمه الله had said, “Every person that does not worship Allāh Alone, is undoubtedly a worshipper of other than Allāh. And there exists no third category in the Children of Ādam. So either he is a Muwabbid, or if not, then he is a mushrik.” ⁷⁸

Imām ‘Abdur-Rahmān Ibn Hasan رحمه الله says, “Thus, a person cannot become a Muwabbid, except by rejecting shirk, being completely free from it, and declaring Takfīr ⁷⁹ upon whosoever does it.” ⁸⁰

He also said, “So Tawhīd is not fulfilled, except by turning completely away from the mushrikīn, hostility towards them, and announcing Takfīr upon them.” ⁸¹

And this is the Fourth Requisite of the Affirmation, and its importance comes directly after the Third Requisite. ⁸²

2) The Negation: It consists of Four Requisites- The first two regarding Shirk itself, and the last two regarding the People of Shirk.

a) The First Requisite- Abandoning shirk (joining partners) in ‘Ibādah to Allāh and warning from it.

As Allāh (Most High) had ordered His Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, ⁷⁵ Kafarnā Bikum. It can be translated as “We have rejected you” or also “We have disbelieved in you”. This Verse is used as Dalīl by the Imāms of Abl As-Sunnah Wal-Jamā’ah regarding making Takfīr of the mushrikīn and it being part of Islām and the Millat Ibrāhīm.

⁷⁷ Yūnus: 32

⁷⁸ Slightly modified from “Majmū’ Al-Fatāwā” (14/282-284).

⁷⁹ Note in your memory- O Brother of Islām! - How the Imām has made ‘Takfīr of disbelievers’ a condition to be a Muwabbid.

⁸⁰ “Ad-Durar As-Saniyyah” (2/204)

⁸¹ “Ad-Durar As-Saniyyah” (11/434)

“Say: I am commanded only to worship Allāh (Alone), and not to commit shirk with Him. To Him (Alone) I call, and to Him is my return.”⁸³

And also,

“Say: I invoke only my Lord (Alone), and I associate none as partners along with Him.”⁸⁴

And ‘Abdullāh Ibn Mas’ūd رضى الله عنه asked the Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم, “What is the greatest sin?” So the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, “That you set up a rival unto Allāh (in Tādāb), even though He created you.”⁸⁵

And as Allāh said regarding the Call of the Prophets صلى الله عليهم وسلم to their people,

“I have come to you as a plain warner: That you worship none, except Allāh. Indeed, I fear for you the torment of a Painful Day.”⁸⁶

And also the Verse,

“And remember (Prophet Hūd) the brother of ‘Ād, when he warned his people in Al-Ahqāf.⁸⁷ And surely, there have passed away warners (Messengers) -before him and after him (saying): Do not worship, except Allāh; Truly, I fear for you the torment of a Mighty Day.”⁸⁸

And also Allāh orders the Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم to say,

“So flee towards Allāh (away from His Torment to His Mercy). Verily I am, from Him, a plain warner to you. And set up no object of worship along with Allāh. Verily I am, from Him, a plain warner to you.”⁸⁹

⁸³ Ar-Ra’d: 36

⁸⁴ Al-Jinn: 20

⁸⁵ Narrated by Al-Bukhārī (6001), and Muslim (86). Also narrated by An-Nasā’ī, At-Tirmithī, Abū Dāwūd and Ahmad.

⁸⁶ Hūd: 25-26

⁸⁸ Al-Ahqāf: 21

⁸⁹ Ath-Tharīyat: 50-51

And Allāh (Most High) has also ordered him to say,

“Say: Do you order me to worship other than Allāh, O you fools?”⁹⁰

And Allāh has informed us,

“And indeed it has been revealed to you (O Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم), as it was revealed to those (Messengers) before you: If you commit shirk, then indeed all of your deeds will be cancelled- and certainly you will be among the losers. Nay! So worship Allāh (Alone), and be amongst the grateful.”⁹¹

And Allāh has notified us,

“Verily, whosoever commits shirk with Allāh- then Allāh has forbidden Paradise upon him, and the Fire will be his abode. And the Thālimīn have no helpers.”⁹²

This is the First Requisite of Negation, and it is the greatest and most important requisite within it.

b) The Second Requisite- Being severely harsh upon this.

As Allāh (Most High) commanded,

“So slay the mushrikīn wherever you find them, take hold of them, encircle them and lie in wait to ambush them on each and every path.”⁹³

And His order,

“And fight them until there is no more fitnah (shirk), and the religion (worship) will all be for Allāh⁹⁴ (in the whole of the world).”⁹⁵

⁹⁰ Aḥ-Zumar: 64

⁹¹ Aḥ-Zumar: 65-66

⁹² Al-Mā'idab: 72

⁹³ Al-Tawbah: 5

And as Allāh ordered His Beloved Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم,

“O Prophet! Wage Jihād against the kuffār and the hypocrites- and be harsh against them. And their abode is Hell, and worst indeed is that destination.”⁹⁶

And Allāh (Most High) announces,

“I will cast terror in the hearts of those who have disbelieved - So strike them over their necks, and smite from them all their fingers and toes.”⁹⁷

And Allāh also commands the Mu'minīn,

“O you who believe! Fight those of the kuffār who are close to you- and let them find harshness in you. And know that Allāh is with those who fear Him (and obey Him).”⁹⁸

And it is forbidden to ask Forgiveness for the mushrikīn,

“It is not befitting for the Prophet, nor those who have Īmān, to ask for Forgiveness (from Allāh) for the mushrikīn- even though they are their closest kin, after it has become clear to them that they are the denizens of the Fire.”⁹⁹

⁹⁴ Ibn Jarīr At-Tabarī رحمه الله in his Tafsīr (2/194-195) of the Verse in Al-Baqarab: 193, explains this Verse as such, “Fight the mushrikīn until there is no shirk- until there is none worshipped except Allāh; until all Tbādab and obedience is for Allāh Alone, and none else.” And as the Messenger ﷺ had said, “I have been ordered to fight the people, until they testify that “There is none worthy of being worshipped, except Allāh”.

⁹⁵ Al-Anfāl: 39; also similar in Al-Baqarab: 193

⁹⁶ At-Tawbah: 73; At-Tabrīm: 9

⁹⁷ Al-Anfāl: 12. Shaykh ‘Abdur-Rahmān Ibn Nāsir As-Sa’dī رحمه الله says in his Tafsīr of this Verse, after saying that the order could be directed towards the Angels, “Or it could be an order for the Mu'minīn, by which Allāh is encouraging them, and teaching them how to kill the mushrikīn- and that they should not be merciful to these mushrikīn.” Refer to Tafsīr Al-Karīm Ar-Rahmān (278).

⁹⁸ At-Tawbah: 123

⁹⁹ At-Tawbah: 113. Imām Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdil-Wahhāb رحمه الله explained this Verse excellently, in his “Sittatu Mawādhī' Min As-Sīrah”: “The Fourth Episode- The Case of Abū Tālib. Whoever realizes this with a good understanding, will realize that he (Abū Tālib) believed (in his heart) in Tawhīd, and called the people to it, and ridiculed the intellects of the mushrikīn; and he who realizes what love he (Abū Tālib) had for those who embraced Islam and abandoned shirk; and realizes how he spent his

Imām Muhammad Ibn 'Abdīl-Wahhāb رَحْمَهُ اللهُ said, "Indeed Allāh has ordered the killing of the mushrikīn, besieging them, and waiting for them at every place of ambush- until they repent from shirk, establish the Salāt, and give the Zakāt. And all the scholars from each and every Math'hab are united (Ijmā') upon this ruling."¹⁰⁰

And the Imām رَحْمَهُ اللهُ has also said, "And the meaning of "Disbelieving in the Tāghūt" requires that you free yourself from everyone who worships other than Allāh- whether a Jinn, human, tree, stone, or anything else; and that you make Takfīr of them, and declare them deviants, and hate them- even if they are your own fathers or brothers. As for he who says, "I do not direct my Tbādab to anyone, except Allāh. But I do not oppose the (so-called) "masters" and tombs and such things." Then such a person is a liar in his claim to "Lā Ilāh Illā Allāh"- for he has neither believed in Allāh, nor disbelieved in the Tāghūt."¹⁰¹

This is the Second Requisite of Negation, and its importance comes directly after the First Requisite.

c) The Third Requisite- Being hostile for its sake.

Just as the Imām of the Hunafā', the Messenger Ibrāhīm عَلَيْهِ السَّلَام, said,

"Do you see that which you have been worshipping- you and your ancient fathers? For verily, they are (all) enemies to me- except the Lord of the worlds."¹⁰² life, wealth, children, relatives- everything to help the Messenger صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ; and how he patiently bore the extreme pressure and open hostility (from the mushrikīn)- until the day he died. But - even after all this - he did not enter Islam, nor did he free himself from his former religion- Thus he did not become a Muslim. He used the excuse that this would be equivalent to insulting his father, 'Abdul-Muttalib, and Hāshim (his grandfather), and others from amongst his Shuyūkh (elders). And since he was so close to the Prophet صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ, and always aided him- the Prophet صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ asked Allāh to forgive him; Thus Allāh immediately sent down the Verse,

"And it is not befitting for the Prophet, nor those who have Īmān, to ask for Forgiveness (from Allāh) for the mushrikīn- even though they are their closest kin, after it has become clear to them that they are the denizens of the Fire."

And now think, if a man from some cities is known to love the Dīn and Muslims, most people think that he is with the Muslims- even though that man never helped the Dīn, neither physically nor with his wealth, nor does he have any of the excuses that Abū Tālib had. So if you grasp the Case of Abū Tālib, and realize the reality of most of these people who claim to be upon the Dīn- then you will clearly see the Light from the darkness, and will recognize the deteriorating condition of their intellects. And Allāh is sought for help."

¹⁰⁰ "Fatāwā Al-A'immah An-Najdiyyah" (2/472)

¹⁰¹ "Ad-Durar As-Saniyyah" (2/121-122), and also "Majmū'at Ar-Rasā'il Wal-Masā'il An-Najdiyyah" (4/33-34).

¹⁰² Asb-Shu'arā': 75-77

And our Prophet Ibrāhīm عليه السلام had also said,

“And I shall turn away from you, and from those whom you invoke besides Allāh.”¹⁰³

And just as our Father Ibrāhīm عليه السلام and all the Messengers told the mushrikūn,

“Verily, we are free from you and whatever you worship besides Allāh. We have rejected you and there has emerged between us and you, hostility and hatred forever, until you believe in Allāh Alone.”¹⁰⁴

And Allāh (Most High) notifies the People of Tawbīd,

“O you who believe! Verily, the mushrikūn are najas (impure, filthy).”¹⁰⁵

And Allāh informs us regarding the Tāghūt-worshippers,

“Say (O Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم): Shall I inform you of something worse than that, regarding the recompense from Allāh: Those who earned the Curse of Allāh and His Wrath, whom He transformed into monkeys and swine, and worshipped the Tāghūt- such are the worst in rank (in the Hell-Fire), and the furthest astray from the Right Path.”¹⁰⁶

And as Allāh has said,

“Verily, the worst creatures before Allāh are those who commit kufir, so they shall not believe.”¹⁰⁷

¹⁰³ Maryam: 48

¹⁰⁴ Al-Mumtahinah: 4

¹⁰⁵ At-Tawbah: 28

¹⁰⁶ Al-Mā'idah: 60

¹⁰⁷ Al-Anfāl: 55

And He (Most High) orders us with regards to the mushrikīn,

“So take hold of them, and kill them wherever you find them, and take neither friends nor helpers from them.”¹⁰⁸

And after the previous commandment, Allāh stresses this commandment once more, saying,

“So take hold of them and kill them wherever you find them. In their case, We have provided you with a clear warrant against them.”¹⁰⁹

And as Allāh has said regarding those who oppose Tawhīd,

“The only recompense of those who wage war against Allāh and His Messenger, and do mischief in the land- is that they shall be slaughtered or crucified, or their hands and feet will be cut off from opposite sides, or be exiled from the land. That is their disgrace in this world, and a great torment is theirs in the Hereafter.”¹¹⁰

And Allāh has also commanded,

“Fight against them so that Allāh will punish them through your hands, and (He will) disgrace them.”¹¹¹

And Allāh (Most High) has commanded the Mu'minīn to strike terror into the hearts of the mushrikīn,

“And make ready against them all you can of power, including steeds of war¹¹²- to terrorize¹¹³ the enemy of Allāh and your enemy.”¹¹⁴

¹⁰⁸ An-Nisā': 89

¹⁰⁹ An-Nisā': 91

¹¹⁰ Al-Mā'idah: 33

¹¹¹ At-Tawbah: 14

¹¹² Shaykh 'Abdur-Rahmān As-Sa'dī رحمه الله says in the Tafsīr of this Verse: This means everything that you are able to make ready, from intellectual strength to physical strength; and all types of

Shaykh 'Alī Al-Khudhayr فـك الله أسره mentions various types of hostility, “This includes declaring the musbrikēn as deviants (Tadhliī), renouncing them ('Ayl), reviling them (Taqbīh), cursing them (Sabb), insulting them (Shatm), killing them (Qatl), fighting them (Qital), imprisoning them (Sijn), and expelling them (Mutāradab).”¹¹⁵

And Allāh (Most High) ordered His Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم,

“Say (O Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم): O you mankind! If you are in doubt regarding my Dīn, then (know that) I will never worship those whom you worship, besides Allāh. But (know) that I worship Allāh, (the One) Who causes you to die. And I am commanded to be from the Mu'minīn.”¹¹⁶ weaponry which will help in combating against them; and this includes various types of skills by which artillery and defenses can be produced; machine guns and bullets, airplanes, land vehicles and water vehicles, tanks, trenches, and defense systems; advice and politics which counter the evil plans of the enemies and help advance the Muslims; encouraging target-practice, bravery and courage, and teaching planning skills and organizational skills... And if these cannot be fulfilled except by learning these skills, then it becomes obligatory to learn them- (as one of the Usūl of Fiqh) “Whatever is necessary to fulfill an obligation (Wājib), then it too is an obligation”. Refer to Taysīr Al-Karīm Ar-Rahmān (285-286).

¹¹³ Shaykh 'Abdullāh 'Azzām رحمه الله once said in a speech, “And we are terrorists, and terrorism is a Farīdhab (obligation) according to the Kitāb and Sunnab- and let the East and the West bear witness that we are terrorists “And make ready against them all you can of power, including steeds of war- to terrorize the enemy of Allāh and your enemy”- so terrorism (Irbāh) is an obligation (Farīdhab) in the Dīn of Allāh.” And whosoever refuses to believe in a Fardh, is a kaḥfīr according to Ijmā'. Imām 'Abdul-Qādir Ibn 'Abdul-'Azīz فـك الله أسره said in his last Bayān before being imprisoned, entitled “Hāthā Bayānun Lin-Nās: Al-Irbabu Min Al-Islām Wa Man Ankara Thalika Faqad Kafar” pg. 3: “Firstly: Terrorism is from Islām, and whoever rejects that then he has disbelieved. And that is due to His (Most High)’s Saying: “And make ready against them all you can of power, including steeds of war to terrorize the enemy of Allah and your enemy” [Al-Anfāl] So terrorizing the kaḥfīr enemy is a Shar'i obligation by the clear text of this Āyah, and whosoever rejects that then he has disbelieved, due to His (Most High)’s Statement: “and none but the disbelievers reject Our Āyāt” [Al-'Ankabūt] And the Juhd (mentioned in the Arabic of the Āyah) is the rejection and belieing upon the tongue. And He (Most High) said: “And who does more wrong than he who invents a lie against Allah or denies the truth, when it comes to him? Is there not a dwelling in Hell for the disbelievers” [Al-'Ankabūt]. So whosoever says that Islām is free from terrorism or wants to differentiate between the two, then he has disbelieved. So terrorism is from Islām. And with this, you know that the ones who say that they want to wage war against terrorism, they only want to wage war against Islām in reality. And that the combatting against terrorism is the combatting against Islām- and they are only covering up the facts from the ignorant ones.”

¹¹⁵ The Shaykh mentioned this under the chapter “Wat-Taghlīth 'Alā Thalīk” regarding shirk, in his book “Asl Dīn Al-Islām”.

¹¹⁶ Yūnus: 104

And Shaykh Al-Islām Muhammad Ibn 'Abdil-Wahhāb رحمه الله said, “And O you- upon whom Allāh has blessed with Islām, and has realized that there is no such thing that has a right to be worshipped, except Allāh: Do not think that if you were to say “This (Tawhīd) is the Truth and I have abandoned shirk, but I do not oppose the mushrikūn, nor do I speak against them”- Do not think that this will allow you to be in Islām. On the contrary, it is binding that you hate them, and also that you hate whosoever likes them, and to insult them, and to have enmity against them. Just as your Father Ibrāhīm عليه السلام and those (Prophets and their followers) along with him said,

“Verily, we are free from you and whatever you worship besides Allāh. We have disbelieved in you and there has emerged between us and you, hostility and hatred forever, until you believe in Allāh Alone.” ¹¹⁷

And also as Allāh has said,

“So whoever disbelieves in the Tāghūt, and believes in Allāh- then he has grasped the firmest handhold that will never break.” ¹¹⁸

And as He has said,

“And verily, We sent to every community a Messenger (proclaiming): ‘Worship Allāh (Alone) and avoid the Tāghūt.’” ¹¹⁹

So if a person were to say, “I follow the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and I testify that he is upon the Truth, but I do not oppose (the idols) “Al-Lāt” and “Al-Uzza”, nor do I oppose Abū Jahl and his likes”- then such a person’s Islām is invalid.” ¹²⁰

And this is the Third Requisite of Negation, and its importance and greatness comes directly after the Second Requisite.

d) The Fourth Requisite- Doing Takfīr of whosoever does it.

As Allāh has ordered the Takfīr,

¹¹⁸ Al-Baqarah: 256

¹¹⁹ An-Nahl: 36

¹²⁰ “Ad-Durar As-Saniyyah” (2/109)

“And they set up rivals to Allāh, in order to mislead others from His Path. (So) Say: ‘Take pleasure in your kufr for a while- surely you are of the denizens of the Fire’”¹²¹

And Allāh commands,

“Tell those who commit kufr: You will be defeated, and gathered together in Hell- and worst indeed is that place of rest.”¹²²

And as Ibrāhīm عليه السلام, the intimate friend of Allāh, made Takfīr of the mushrikīn,

“There has indeed been an excellent example for you in Ibrāhīm and those with him, when they said to their people: ‘Verily, we are free from you and whatever you worship besides Allāh. We have disbelieved in you and there has emerged between us and you, hostility and hatred forever, until you believe in Allāh Alone’”¹²³

And He (Most High) also ordered His Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم:

“Say: O Kāfirūn! I do not worship that which you worship. Nor are you worshippers of that which I worship. And I am not a worshipper of that which you are worshipping. Nor are you worshippers of that which I worship. To you be your religion, and to me my Dīn.”¹²⁴

Imām ‘Abdur-Rahmān Ibn Hasan رحمه الله said, “And Allāh has labeled the people of shirk with ‘kufr’ in countless Verses. Thus it is obligatory to do Takfīr of them, since this is a requisite of Lā Ilāh Illā Allāh, the Kalimah of Ikblās; its meaning is deficient without doing Takfīr of whosoever associates a partner in Tbādab to Allāh. As is in the Hadīth, “Whosoever says, ‘None is worthy of being worshipped, except Allāh’, and disbelieves in whatsoever is worshipped other than Allāh, then his wealth and blood are protected, and his reckoning is with Allāh.”¹²⁵ So the saying of the Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم “and disbelieves in whatsoever is worshipped other than Allāh”- this is an emphasis of the Negation Part (of the Kalimah). So a person’s blood and property are not protected without it ¹²⁶- and if he doubts or hesitates (in Takfīr), then his blood and wealth are not protected- for these are matters which are related to the completeness of Tawhīd.” ¹²⁷

Imām Sulaymān Ibn 'Abdillāh An-Najdī Āl Ash-Shaykh رحمه الله said regarding those who refuse to do Takfīr of those mushrikīn who pronounce the Kalimah, “And if he says “They are not kuffār, but those other than them are”- then this is a ruling from him that they are Muslims, since there is no midway between kufīr and Islām. So if they are not kuffār, then they are Muslims; and whosoever calls kufīr ‘Islām’, or calls the kuffār ‘Muslims’- then such a person becomes a kāfir.” ¹²⁸

And Imām Abā Batīn رحمه الله said regarding those who call upon the graves and sacrifice for the dead saints, “Whosoever does this is a kāfir. And those who do these acts of Tbādab at the graves, they are kuffār without a doubt. And the claim of the ignorant people “You are doing Takfīr of Muslims”- whoever says this has not understood Islām nor Tawhīd; Rather, what is apparent regarding this ignorant person is that his Islām is invalid. ¹²⁹ For whosoever does not prohibit (Inkārah) the actions which the mushrikūn are doing today, and doesn't see it as evil- then he is not a Muslim.” ¹³⁰

Imām Abā Batīn رحمه الله also said, “The Muslims are at consensus (Ijmā') upon the infidelity of the person who doesn't make Takfīr of the Jews and Christians, and also united upon the (infidelity of the) one who doubts the kufīr (of the Jews and Christians). And we are certain that most of such people (who refrain from their Takfīr) are ignorant.” ¹³¹

Shaykh Al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah رحمه الله said, “Whosoever curses the Sahābah رضي الله عنهم, or one of them, and also claims that ‘Alī رضي الله عنه has a right to be worshipped, and that Jibrīl عليه السلام was in error- then there is no doubt in such a person's kufīr- And not only this, there is not doubt in the kufīr of the one who does not make Takfīr of that person.” ¹³²

Imām Is'hāq Ibn Rāhawayh رحمه الله said, “And from those upon whom the scholars have united (Ijmā') upon their Takfīr, and ruled upon them just as they have ruled upon the denier (of Tawhīd)- is upon the person who believes in Allāh, and in what He has sent (Revelation), but then kills a Prophet, or assists in the killing of a Prophet- even if he believes (in the Prophet), and admits “Killing Prophets is Harām”- such a person is a kāfir. And the same case is for whosoever reviles a Prophet.” ¹³³

¹²⁷ Refer to “Ad-Durar As-Saniyyah” (2/205-206).

¹²⁸ “Ad-Durar As-Saniyyah” (8/161)

¹²⁹ Remember this - O Brother of Islām - note this verdict from the Imām regarding those who say this disgusting phrase “You are doing Takfīr of Muslims”, even though the reality is that we are doing Takfīr of mushrikīn and apostates.

¹³⁰ Refer to “Majmū'at Ar-Rasā'il Wal-Masā'il An-Najdiyyah” (1/654-655), and “Ad-Durar As-Saniyyah” (10/416).

¹³¹ “Ad-Durar As-Saniyyah” (12/69)

¹³² Refer to “Ad-Durar As-Saniyyah” (12/69), and ‘Aqīdah Al-Muwahhidīn (23).

¹³³ Refer to “Ta'thīm Qadr As-Salāt” (2/930).

And Imām 'Abdur-Rahmān Ibn Hasan رحمه الله said, "And if someone were to realize the meaning of "None is worthy of being worshipped, except Allāh", then he would also realize that whosoever doubts the kufr of those who join partners with Allāh- that, that person has not disbelieved in the Tāghūt." ¹³⁴

And this is the Forth Requisite of Negation, and its importance comes directly after the Third Requisite.

So this Affirmation and Negation together are what is known as the Foundation of Islām and its Principle- which is also known as Millat Ibrāhīm.

And this Affirmation and Negation was the Da'wab of all the Messengers, as Allāh said,

"And verily, We sent to every community a Messenger (proclaiming): 'Worship Allāh (Alone) and avoid the Tāghūt'." ¹³⁵

And in summary of the Millat Ibrāhīm, Shaykh Al-Islām Muhammad Ibn 'Abdil-Wahhāb رحمه الله said in a letter to some of the Muwahhidīn:

"I swear by Allāh! By Allāh! O Brethren! Hold tightly onto the Foundation of your Dīn, its beginning and its end, its base and its head: And it is the testimony 'Lā Ilāh Illā Allāh'. So recognize it, know its meaning- love its people and make them your brothers, even if they are far away; and disbelieve in the Tāghūt, be hostile against them, and despise anyone who loves them, or argues in favor of them, or doesn't declare them kuffār, or says "I am not bothered by them" or says "Allāh has not given me any duty in their regard"- Indeed, such a speaker has fabricated a lie against Allāh! On the contrary, Allāh has given him a duty against them, and He has obligated (Fardh) disbelieving in them and forsaking them- even if they are his blood-brothers and sons. I swear by Allāh! For the sake of Allāh! Hold fast to the Foundation of your Dīn- so that you can meet your Lord without having committed shirk against Him. O Allāh! Take us away as Muslims, and gather us with the righteous." ¹³⁶

HOW IS THE FOUNDATION AND PRINCIPLE OF ISLAM KNOWN?

It is known by the Da'wab of all the Prophets to it, and the unity of all of them upon it.

As Allāh (Most High) has informed us,

"And verily, We sent to every community a Messenger (proclaiming): 'Worship Allāh (Alone) and avoid the Tāghūt'." ¹³⁷

¹³⁴ "Ad-Durar As-Saniyyab" (11/523)

¹³⁵ An-Nabl: 36

¹³⁶ Refer to "Ad-Durar As-Saniyyab" (2/119-120).

¹³⁷ An-Nabl: 36

So all the Prophets and Messengers came to their people and commanded them with, “Worship Allāh (Alone) and avoid the Tāghūt”.

And as He (Most High) has said,

“Those who avoid the Tāghūt, by not worshipping them, and turn to Allāh (Alone) - for them are glad tidings; So announce the good news to My slaves.”¹³⁸

And Allāh says,

“Have you seen those (hypocrites) who claim that they believe in that which has been sent down to you, and that which was sent down before you, and they wish to go for judgment (in their disputes) to the Tāghūt while they have been ordered to reject them. But Shaytān wishes to lead them far astray.”¹³⁹

And as Allāh has promised,

“Verily, the Right Path has become distinct from the wrong path. So, whosoever disbelieves in the Tāghūt, and believes in Allāh- then he has grasped the firmest handhold that will never break.”¹⁴⁰

¹³⁸ Aḥ-Zumar: 17

¹³⁹ An-Nisā': 60. And this is clear shirk in Allāh's Sole Right to Legislate. And this type of shirk is widespread throughout the world. So Hākimiyyah, Allāh's sole right to rule and legislate and His Sovereignty, is a part of “Tawhid in Belief” and “Tawhid in Action”- as Allāh says

“And He makes none to share in His Decision and His Rule.” [Al-Kahf: 26].

“The judgment is for none, except Allāh; He has commanded that you worship none, except Him. That is the Straight Religion, but most men know not.” [Yūṣuf: 40].

Notice how there is a Negation and then an Affirmation- This proves that this is an essential part of Tawhid- so do not let the present-day mushrikīn fool you. And this is why Shaykh Muhammad Nāsiruddīn Al-Albānī رحمه الله said in the sixth volume of “As-Silsilat As-Sabīḥah” (2507), “And from the foundations (Usūl) of Ad-Da'wah As-Salafīyyah [the Salafī Da'wah], is that Hākimiyyah is for Allāh Alone.”

¹⁴⁰ Al-Baqarah: 256

And these Verses contain the explanation of the Kalimah of Tawhīd.

It contains a Negation and an Affirmation. The Negation being, “whosoever disbelieves in the Tāghūt”- which explains “None is worthy to be worshipped”; and the Affirmation being, “and believes in Allāh”- which explains “Except Allāh Alone”.¹⁴¹

And this is the meaning of the Kalimah of Tawhīd, “Lā Ilāha Illā Allāh”. As is clarified in the Verse,

“And We did not send any Messenger before you (O Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم), except that We revealed to him: None has the right to be worshipped except I (Allāh), so worship Me (Alone and none else).”¹⁴²

As the Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, *“Whosoever says, “None is worthy of being worshipped, except Allāh”, and disbelieves in whatsoever is worshipped other than Allāh, then his wealth and his blood are protected, and his reckoning is with Allāh.”*¹⁴³

So every single Prophet and Messenger was sent with this Negation (None has the right to be worshipped) and Affirmation (except Allāh Alone). And this is the Kalimah of Tawhīd; which is equivalent to *“Worship Allāh (Alone) and avoid the Tāghūt”*. And this is the Pillar of Islām.

And He (Most High) has also said,

“He has ordained for you the same religion which He ordained for Nūh, and that which We have revealed to you (O Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم), and that which We

And Shaykh Sālih Al-Fawzān says the same thing, *“Disbelieving in the Tāghūt must come before Belief in Allāh.”* “Tānat Al-Mustafīd” (1/104).

Because merely believing in Allāh, without rejecting the Tāghūt, still renders the person as a mushrik; as Allāh has clarified, have ordained for Ibrāhīm, Mūsā, and 'Īsā- (saying) that you should establish the Dīn and do not be divided; intolerable to the mushrikīn is that (Tawhīd) to which you call them to.”¹⁴⁴

“Most of them do not believe in Allāh, except while being mushrikūn.” [Yūsuf: 106].

¹⁴³ Narrated by Muslim in his Sahīh (23). From Abū Mālik, from his father Tāriq.

So the Messenger Nūh عليه السلام said,

“And I have been commanded to be of the Muslims.”¹⁴⁵

Just as was said by the intimate friend of Allāh, our Father Ibrāhīm عليه السلام,

“When his Lord said to him, “Submit (be a Muslim)!”- he said: I have submitted myself (as a Muslim) to the Lord of the Worlds.”¹⁴⁶

And this is exactly what Ibrāhīm عليه السلام and Ya'qūb عليه السلام commanded their children with;

“And this was enjoined by Ibrāhīm and Ya'qūb upon their sons, saying: O my sons! Allāh has chosen for you the Dīn, so die not except as Muslims.”¹⁴⁷

And this is also the same creed as Mūsā عليه السلام;

“And Mūsā said, “O my people! If you have believed in Allāh, then put your trust in Him, if you are (true) Muslims.”¹⁴⁸

And this is the Faith of Al-Masīb 'Īsā Ibn Maryam عليها السلام, just as his original disciples said to him,

“We are the helpers of Allāh, we believe in Allāh, and bear witness that we are Muslims.”¹⁴⁹

¹⁴⁴ Asb-Shūrā: 13

¹⁴⁵ Yūnus: 71-72

¹⁴⁶ Al-Baqarab: 131

¹⁴⁷ Al-Baqarab: 132

¹⁴⁸ Yūnus: 84

¹⁴⁹ Al 'Imrān: 52

And so Shaykh Al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah رحمه الله said, “So Islām is the religion of all the Prophets and Messengers, and all those who truly followed them throughout the various nations- as Allāh has mentioned that in more than one place in His Book. So He has stated that Nūh عليه السلام, Ibrāhīm عليه السلام, and Ya'qūb عليه السلام were all Muslims, as were the followers of Mūsā عليه السلام, and 'Īsā عليه السلام, and others. So Islām means surrendering to Allāh Alone, and none other than Him; worshipping Him Alone, without associating any partners with Him; to put complete reliance upon Him Alone, to hope from and fear from Him Alone; to love Him with a perfect and complete love, the likes of which nothing from the creation is loved. So whosoever dislikes worshipping Allāh Alone, then he is not a Muslim; and whosoever directs Tbādab to other than Allāh - along with Allāh - then he is not a Muslim.”¹⁵⁰

And this is also embodied in the goal of the Message of Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم, “I have been ordered to fight the people, until they testify that “There is none worthy of being worshipped, except Allāh”. So if they say this, then their blood and property are protected from me, except for its (the Kalimah's) rights, and their reckoning is with Allāh.”¹⁵¹

¹⁵⁰ “Kitāb An-Nubunwāt” (127)

¹⁵¹ Narrated from Ibn 'Umar, Anas Ibn Mālik, Abū Hurayrah, Mu'āth Ibn Jabal and Aws. Recorded by Al-Bukhārī in his “Sabīh” (1399), Muslim in his “Sabīh” (33, 35), At-Tirmithī (3341), Ibn Mājah (3928). Also narrated by An-Nasā'ī, Abū Dāwūd, and Ahmad.

Millat Ibrāhīm¹⁵²

The Path¹⁵³

Allāh (Most High) says,

“And mention in the Book about Ibrāhīm. Verily, he was a man of truth, a Prophet.”

¹⁵⁴

And again,

“And recite to them the news of Ibrāhīm.”¹⁵⁵

And Allāh (Most High) says after ordering to wage Jibād against shirk,

“It is the religion (Millah) of your Father, Ibrāhīm.”¹⁵⁶

And the Prophet Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم said, “The most beloved Dīn to Allāh is the Lenient Hanīfyyah (Islām).”¹⁵⁷

Shaykh Abū Muhammad Al-Maqdisī فـك الله أسره wrote,¹⁵⁸ “And Allāh (Most High) says regarding Millat Ibrāhīm:

¹⁵⁵ Asb-Shu'arā': 69

¹⁵⁶ Al-Hajj: 78

¹⁵⁷ Narrated by Al-Bukhārī in Mu'allaq form (Without the Sanad). Also narrated by Imām Ahmad from Ibn 'Abbās, that it was said to the Messenger of Allāh صلى الله عليه وسلم, “Which of the religions is most beloved to Allāh?” He said: “Al-Hanīfyyah As-Samḥab”. It has also been narrated with the phrase: “Verily I have been sent with Al-Hanīfyyah As-Samḥab (Lenient)”. Some of the different phrasings were declared acceptable by Ibn Hajar in “Fat'h Al-Bārī” (1/116), and in “Kashf As-Sitr” (1/37), by As-Sakhāwī in “Al-Maqāsīd Al-Hasanah” (136), by Ash-Shawkānī in “Al-Fat'h Ar-Rabbānī” (6/3207), and by Al-Albānī in “Sabīh Al-Jāmi” (160). This phrase “Al-Hanīfyyah As-Samḥab” has also come in several other Abādīth which are acceptable as well.

“And who is it that turns away from Millat Ibrāhīm, except one who fools (wrongs) himself?!” ¹⁵⁹

And He (Most High) says speaking to His Prophet, Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم:

“Then, We have sent the revelation to you (that): Follow the Millat Ibrāhīm as a Hanīf; and he was not of the mushrikīn.” ¹⁶⁰

So with such clarity and expression, Allāh has explained to us the correct methodology (Manhaj) and path (Tarīq). So the correct path and upright methodology is none other than Millat Ibrāhīm- there is no obscurity or doubt regarding this. And whoever doesn't follow this Millat Ibrāhīm, then he is a fool (as Allāh has described such people).

And Allāh has extolled (Tazkiyyah) Ibrāhīm as such,

“And We indeed bestowed aforetime on Ibrāhīm his guidance, and We were Well-Acquainted with him.” ¹⁶¹

And He has also said regarding Ibrāhīm,

“And truly, We chose him (as an intimate friend) in this world, and verily, in the Hereafter he will be among the righteous.” ¹⁶²

And Allāh has extolled his Da'wah for us, and commanded the Last of the Prophets and Messengers to follow Ibrāhīm; and He has described those who do not follow the methodology and path of Ibrāhīm, as fools.

And the Millat Ibrāhīm is just as the Shaykh Muhammad Ibn 'Abdil-Wahhāb explained, “The foundation and principle of the Dīn of Islām is in two matters- Firstly: Commanding the worshipping (directing of every type of Tbādah) to Allāh Alone without any partner, encouragement upon this, making friendship for its sake, and making Takfīr of whosoever leaves it.

¹⁵⁹ Al-Baqarah: 130

Secondly: Abandoning shirk (joining partners) in Tbādab to Allāh and warning from it, being severely harsh upon this, being hostile for its sake, and making Takfīr of whosoever does it.”¹⁶³

And this was the Tawhīd that each and every single Messenger preached, may the salutations and blessings of Allāh be upon all of them. And this is the meaning of Lā Ilāh Illā Allāh. Being free from shirk (Iklās) and Tawhīd; and singling out Allāh (Most High) with Tbādab, alliance to His Dīn and Awliyā', and rejecting and abandoning every entity worshipped besides Him, and hostility against His enemies.

It is Tawhīd in both Belief (I'tiqādī) and Action ('Amalī) together. Sūrat Al-Iklās is an evidence for the Tawhīd of Belief; and Sūrat Al-Kāfirūn is an evidence for the Tawhīd of Action.”

Shaykh Sālih Al-Fawzān says explaining the Verse,

“And I am not of the mushrikīn”¹⁶⁴

“This is Barā'ah (announcement of disavowal) from the Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم from the mushrikīn, just as the intimate friend of Allāh, Ibrāhīm عليه السلام (did),

“Verily, Ibrāhīm was an *Ummah*¹⁶⁵, *Qānit*¹⁶⁶ for Allāh, and Hanīf and he was not one of the mushrikīn.”¹⁶⁷

“Then, We have sent the Revelation to you (that): Follow the Millat Ibrāhīm as a Hanīf; for he was not of the mushrikīn.”¹⁶⁸

¹⁶³ Refer to “Ad-Durar As-Saniyyab” (2/22).

¹⁶⁴Allāh orders the Messenger Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم to say this in Yūsuf: 108. And this was also said by Ibrāhīm عليه السلام in Al-An'ām: 79.

¹⁶⁵ Shaykh Sālih Al-Fawzān explains these terms in “Tānat Al-Mustafīd” (1/77-78). “And some of the qualities of Ibrāhīm عليه السلام are mentioned in this Verse-

- 1) He was an Ummah: which means (here) an exemplar and a leader in excellence.
- 2) He was a Qānit for Allāh: he was firm in obedience to Allāh, and sincere in his deeds to Allāh.
- 3) He was a Hanīf: Accepted only Allāh Alone, and rejected everything else for worship.
- 4) He was not one of the mushrikīn: meaning that he completed Barā'ah from them and their religion.

¹⁶⁷ An-Nabl:120

¹⁶⁸ An-Nabl:123

So these Verses contain a declaration of Barā'ah (disassociation) from the mushrikīn; (Barā'ah) means- Cutting off

- a) love (Maḥabbah),
- b) care (Mawaddah),
- c) and aiding (Munāsarah) between yourself and the mushrikīn.

For they are the enemies of Allāh and His Messengers, thus it is not permissible to be affectionate towards them with your heart, nor cooperating with them, nor defending them.

Allāh says,

“There has indeed been an excellent example for you in Ibrāhīm and those with him, when they said to their people: ‘Verily, we are free from you and whatever you worship besides Allāh. We have disbelieved in you¹⁶⁹ and there has emerged between us and you, hostility and hatred forever, until you believe in Allāh Alone.’”¹⁷⁰

“You will not find any people who believe in Allāh and the Last Day, making friendship with those who oppose Allāh and His Messenger- even if they are their fathers, their sons, their brothers, or their kindred.”¹⁷¹

“O you who believe! Do not take My enemies and your enemies as Awliyā', showing affection towards them.”¹⁷²

“O you who believe! Do not take the Jews and Christians as Awliyā'. They are but Awliyā' of each other. And if any amongst you takes them as Awliyā', then surely he is one of them. Verily, Allāh guides not those people who are the Thālimīn.”¹⁷³

¹⁶⁹ Kafarnā Bikum. It can be translated as “We have rejected you” or also “We have disbelieved in you”. This Verse is used as Dalīl by the Imāms of Abl As-Sunnah Wal-Jamā'ah regarding making Takfīr of the mushrikīn and it being part of Islām and the Millat Ibrāhīm.

¹⁷¹ Al-Mujādīlah: 22

¹⁷² Al-Mumtahinah: 1

¹⁷³ Al-Mā'idah: 51

So these Verses establish the obligation to announce Barā'ab from the mushrikīn. And from the principles (Usūl) of Da'wah to Allāh- is Barā'ab from the mushrikīn. And as for the Dā'i (preacher, caller, scholar) that does not announce Barā'ab from the mushrikīn, then he is not a Dā'i in reality- neither is he upon the path of the Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم, no matter how much he claims that he is doing Da'wah to Allāh. Because indeed, “Disbelieving in the Tāghūt” (Kufr Bit-Tāghūt) must come before “Belief in Allāh” (Īmān Billāh). Just as Allāh has declared,

“So whoever disbelieves in the Tāghūt, and believes in Allāh- then he has grasped the firmest handhold.”¹⁷⁴

So this makes it binding to announce Barā'ab from the mushrikīn.”¹⁷⁵

And this “rejection of the Tawāghūt” was one of the earliest Revelations [fourth revelation to be exact] that came to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, even before the commandment of Salāt,¹⁷⁶

“O you (Muhammad) enveloped in garments! Arise and warn (from shirk)! And magnify your Lord (by calling to and acting upon Tawhīd sincerely)! And purify your garments (your actions from the filth such as *kuf*r and shirk)! And Keep away from the idols [Kufr Bit-Tāghūt]!”¹⁷⁷

And the Imāms of the Da'wah of Najd clarified the Verse

“There has indeed been an excellent example for you in Ibrāhīm and those with him, when they said to their people: ‘Verily, we are free from you and whatever you worship besides Allāh. We have disbelieved in you and there has emerged between us and you, hostility and hatred forever, until you believe in Allāh Alone’.”¹⁷⁸

They explained it as thus, “There are five matters necessitated by negating worship from other than Allāh in this Verse, it is as thus:

- 1) Verily, we are free from you

¹⁷⁴ Al-Baqarab: 256

¹⁷⁵ Refer to “I'ānat Al-Mustafīd” (1/103-104).

¹⁷⁶ Ever since the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم received Prophethood, at the age of 40, he called people to Kufr Bit-Tāghūt, and Īmān Billāh- until the age of 50, when Salāt was first prescribed by Allāh during the Isrā' and Mi'raj. So this shows the importance of Millat Ibrāhīm.

¹⁷⁷ Al-Muddath'thir: 1-5

¹⁷⁸ Al-Mumtahinab: 4

- 2) and whatever you worship besides Allāh
- 3) We have disbelieved in you
- 4) and there has emerged between us and you, hostility
- 5) and hatred forever.”¹⁷⁹

Imām Hamad Ibn ‘Atīq An-Najdī رحمه الله said explaining the Verse:

“His saying “There has indeed been an excellent example for you in Ibrāhīm...” is just like His commandment

“Then, We have sent the revelation to you (that): Follow the Millat Ibrāhīm”.¹⁸⁰

So Allāh has ordered us to establish ourselves upon the model of Ibrāhīm Al-Khalīl (the intimate friend of Allāh), and those who followed him from the Messengers, in saying “Verily, we are free from you...” to the end of the Verse.

So if this is Wājib (obligatory) for a Muslim to say this to his own people, those in the midst of whom he is living (and thus they are capable of harming him)- Then it is even more apparent and obvious that it is Wājib to say the same to those who are distant (and cannot harm him).

And right here, there is a delicate jewel- in the saying, “Verily, we are free from you and whatever you worship besides Allāh.”

And this jewel is that Allāh (Most High) has commanded Barā'ah from the musbrikān - those who worship other than Allāh - before commanding Barā'ah from the *Tawāghīt*¹⁸¹ which are worshipped besides Allāh. This is so, because the first is more essential than the second. Since it is possible that a person rejects the idols, but does not reject the people who are worshipping them; and thus he is not fulfilling the obligation which is upon him. However, if he does reject the musbrikān, that implies that he has already rejected their Tawāghīt.

And this is similar to the Verse,

“And I shall turn away from you, and from those whom you invoke besides Allāh.”¹⁸²

So Allāh ordered to abandon the musbrikān before abandoning their Tawāghīt.

¹⁷⁹ “Fatāwā Al-A'immah An-Najdiyyah” (1/428)

¹⁸⁰ An-Nabl: 123

¹⁸¹ The actual word is “Anthān” and then “Ma'būdāt”.

¹⁸² Maryam. 48. This is also a saying of Ibrāhīm عليه السلام .

“So when he had turned away from them, and from those whom they worshipped besides Allāh.”¹⁸³

And also,

“And when you withdraw from them, and that which they worship, except Allāh”¹⁸⁴

So it is upon you that you grasp this jewel firmly, for it will open the doors for having hostility against the enemies of Allāh. For indeed, how many people there are that do not commit any shirk- but yet they are not hostile against the mushrikīn, and thus they are not Muslims as they have forsaken the Dīn of all the Messengers.¹⁸⁵

Then He mentions (regarding the statement of Ibrāhīm), “We have disbelieved in you and there has emerged between us and you, hostility and hatred forever”.

“Has emerged”- means “perceptible, and made visible”.

And also ponder upon how Allāh has commanded for the ‘Hostility’ before the ‘Hatred’. And this is because the first is more essential than the second. For it is possible that a person hates the mushrikīn, yet he does not treat them with hostility- and in such a case, he would not be fulfilling the obligation which is upon him; until both conditions, hostility and hatred, are met by him. And it is indisputable that the ‘Hostility and Hatred’ both have to ‘emerge’- meaning that both have to be perceptible and visible.

And know! That even though ‘Hatred’ is connected to the heart, it is of no benefit until its signs are made apparent, and its indications are noticeable. And it cannot be as such, until it is conjoined with ‘Hostility’ and Muqāta’ab (Boycotting) - for only then can hostility and hatred be visible. But if Muwālāt and association exists (between the Muslim and mushrik), then this proves that there is no hatred (in the heart). So it is upon you to comprehend this matter- for it will indeed clarify for you many Shubuhāt (doubts).¹⁸⁶

¹⁸³ Maryam. 49. Allāh is referring to Ibrāhīm عليه السلام .

¹⁸⁴ Al-Kahf. 16. The young men of the Companions of the Cave said this to one another.

¹⁸⁵ This last statement by the Shaykh must be understood within the light of these Verses,

“And had they believed in Allāh, and in the Prophet, and in what has been revealed to him- they would have never taken them (the kuffār) as Awliyā’.” [Al-Mā'idah: 81], and

“You will not find any people who believe in Allāh and the Last Day, making friendship with those who oppose Allāh and His Messenger” [Al-Mujādilab: 22].

¹⁸⁶ Refer to “Sabil An-Najātī Wal-Fikāk” (43-45). And may Allāh grant Imām Hamad Ibn ‘Atīq the intercession of the Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم, and resurrect him along with him and his Companions.

And just as Allāh asks,

“And who is it that turns away from Millat Ibrāhīm except one who fools (wrongs) himself?!”¹⁸⁷

He asks,

“And who is better in religion than one who submits his face to Allāh (by acting upon Tawhīd), and is a Muhsin,¹⁸⁸ and follows the Millat Ibrāhīm, as a Hanīf? And Allāh did take Ibrāhīm as an intimate friend!”¹⁸⁹

And Ibrāhīm عليه السلام was also described by Allāh as,

“Verily, Ibrāhīm was a leader, obedient to Allāh, and a Hanīf- and he was not one of the mushrikīn; (he was) thankful for His Favors. He chose him (as an intimate friend) and guided him to a Straight Path. And We gave him good in this world, and in the Hereafter he shall be of the righteous. Then, We have sent the revelation to you (O Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم): Follow the Millat Ibrāhīm as a Hanīf, for he was not of the mushrikīn.”¹⁹⁰

And Allāh (Most High) not only told the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to follow the Millat Ibrāhīm, but He also ordered him صلى الله عليه وسلم to announce to his Companions to follow the Millat Ibrāhīm-

Indeed, just as the Shaykh said, it reveals the reality of the doubts and misinterpretations made by the Murji'ab. Just read this statement “this proves that there is no hatred”. And as the Shaykh said earlier, hatred is connected to the heart. So, again, this is a refutation of the Jabmī-styled Murji'ab, who claim that it is possible to collaborate with the enemies of Allāh against the Allies of Allāh, and yet “love” Islam, and “hate” the enemies of Allāh. So grasp this point well- O Brother of Tawhīd- and read it again if you need to; because it is upon you to comprehend this matter- for it will indeed clarify for you many doubts.

¹⁸⁷ Al-Baqarab: 130

¹⁸⁹ An-Nisā': 125

¹⁹⁰ An-Nabī:120-123

“Say: Allāh has spoken the truth, so follow the Millat Ibrāhīm as a Hanīf, for he was not of the mushrikīn.”¹⁹¹

And this is a general commandment for all Muslims, not only the Companions رضي الله عنهم.

And this Khalīl of Allāh, Ibrāhīm the Hanīf عليه السلام, said to his father and people:

“Do you see that which you have been worshipping- you and your ancient fathers? For verily, they are all enemies to me- except the Lord of the worlds.”¹⁹²

And Allāh also says,

“And (remember) when Ibrāhīm said to his father and his people, “Verily I am Barā’ from what you worship- except Him (Allāh) Who did create me, for verily He will guide me.” And he made it a Word lasting among his offspring, that they may turn back (to Tawhīd).”¹⁹⁴

All the Mufasssīrīn have explained this Verse “Verily I am Barā’ from what you worship- except Him” as equivalent to the Kalimah of Tawhīd- Lā Ilāh Illā Allāh. And this is what is meant by “And he made it a Word lasting among his offspring”.¹⁹⁵

And this “Lasting Word” was the Da’wah of all the Messengers and Prophets. As Allāh said,

“And verily, We sent to every community a Messenger (proclaiming): ‘Worship Allāh (Alone) and avoid the Tāghūt.’”¹⁹⁶

And,

¹⁹¹ Āl ‘Imrān: 95

¹⁹² Asb-Shu’arā’: 75-77

¹⁹³ Barā’: One who acts upon Barā’ab. As Shaykh Al-Fawzān explains it to mean to “cut off love (Mahabbah), care (Mawaddah), and aid (Munāsarah)” between the individual and the mushrikīn. Imām Is’hāq Ibn ‘Abdir-Rahmān رحمه الله explained, “The foundation of Barā’ab is in disassociation, which must originate from the heart, tongue, and body.” “Ad-Durar As-Saniyyab” (8/305).

¹⁹⁴ Aḥ-Zukhruf: 26-28

¹⁹⁵ Note how both the Verses contain a Negation and Affirmation. Refer to the section, “The Foundation of Islām and its Principle”.

¹⁹⁶ An-Nahl: 36

“And We did not send any Messenger before you (O Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم), except that We revealed to him: None has the right to be worshipped except I (Allāh), so worship Me (Alone and none else).”¹⁹⁷

And the meaning of this Kalimah of Tawhīd is clarified even more when understood in the light of what Ibrāhīm and those with him said to their people,

“Verily, we are free from you and whatever you worship besides Allāh. We have disbelieved in you and there has emerged between us and you, hostility and hatred forever, until you believe in Allāh Alone.”¹⁹⁸

Imām ‘Abdur-Rahmān Ibn Hasan رحمه الله said after mentioning this Verse, “So whosoever reflects deeply over this Verse, then he will recognize the Tawhīd for which Allāh sent His Messengers for, and revealed the Scriptures for; and he will also be able to see the reality of those who oppose that which the Messengers and their followers were upon- (the reality of) the opponents which are ignorant, deceived, and the most despicable.”¹⁹⁹

And as for the question, “Why is it called, “Millat Ibrāhīm”, specifying only Ibrāhīm عليه السلام - even though all the Messengers and Prophets were upon the same creed and path?”

Then Shaykh ‘Alī Al-Khudhayr فاك الله أسره answered this saying, “The reason for this specification to Ibrāhīm عليه السلام was because the Messenger Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم came to such factions and groups, all of which claimed that they were following Ibrāhīm عليه السلام. All of them attributed themselves to Ibrāhīm عليه السلام; such as the Quraysh used to say “We are upon the Millat Ibrāhīm, and we are most deserving of him”, and the Jews and Christians came to them and alleged that they were upon the Millat Ibrāhīm, and they claimed that he was their father. So this is why this clarification came in the Revelation, explaining what the Millat Ibrāhīm actually is, and who is worthy of attributing themselves to him.”²⁰⁰

And Allāh says regarding His Khalīl,

“Ibrāhīm was neither a Jew nor a Christian- but he was Hanīf and a Muslim, and he was not of the mushrikīn.”²⁰¹

¹⁹⁷ Al-Anbiyā': 25

¹⁹⁸ Al-Mumtahinah: 4

¹⁹⁹ “Ad-Durar As-Saniyyah” (8/93), the section on Jihād.

²⁰¹ Āl 'Imrān: 67

“And they say, “Be Jews or Christians, then you will be guided.” Say (to them O Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم): Nay! Only the Millat Ibrāhīm, as a Hanīf, and he was not of the mushrikīn.”²⁰²

And as Allāh clarifies,

“Verily, among mankind who have the best claim to Ibrāhīm – are those who followed him, and this Prophet (Muhammad), and those who have Īmān. And Allāh is the *Walī*²⁰³ of the Mu'minīn.”²⁰⁴

And how can someone claim to follow Ibrāhīm عليه السلام, without walking the same path as he did- without behaving the way he did?

And Allāh says regarding the ordeal of Ibrāhīm Al-Khalīl Al-Hanīf:

“(Ibrāhīm said:) “And I swear by Allāh, I shall plot a plan to (destroy) your idols, after you have gone away and turned your backs.”²⁰⁵ So he broke them (all) to pieces²⁰⁶, except the biggest of them, that they might turn to it.

They said “Who has done this to our gods (Ālihah)? He must indeed be one of the Thālimīn.”²⁰⁷ They said “We heard a young man talking against them, (he is one) who is called Ibrāhīm.” They said “Then bring him before the eyes of the people, that they may testify.” They said “Are you the one who has done this to our gods, O

²⁰² Al-Baqarab: 135

²⁰³ Walī: friend, guardian, caretaker, supporter, helper...

²⁰⁴ Āl 'Imrān: 68

²⁰⁵ So this shows that the Hunafā' are to secretly plot for the destruction of the Tawāghūt and mushrikīn.

²⁰⁷ And Allāh is witness that His Khalīl was not a Thālim whatsoever- but rather the mushrikūn are the Thālimūn. Just as today, the Muwabbidūn are not the Thālimūn, but the mushrikūn are themselves the Thālimūn. It is a Sunnah of the mushrikūn, that they declare the Muwabbidūn to be Thālimūn. But Allāh is a Witness against them- and He is the Walī of the Muwabbidūn.

Ibrāhīm?” (Ibrāhīm) said: “Nay, this one, the biggest of them (idols) did it. Ask them, if they can speak!” So they turned to themselves and said: “Verily, you are the Thālimūn (polytheists and wrong-doers).” Then they turned to themselves (their first thought and said): “Indeed you (Ibrāhīm) know well that these (idols) speak not!” (Ibrāheem) said: “Do you then worship besides Allāh, things that can neither profit you, nor harm you? Fie upon you! And upon that which you worship, besides Allāh! Have you then no sense!” They said “Burn him, and help your gods- if you are willing to take action.”²⁰⁸

And,

“They said: Build for him a furnace, and throw him into the blazing fire!”²⁰⁹

Regarding “a young man talking against them”- the scholars of Tafsīr have explained that this means that Ibrāhīm عليه السلام insulted the Tawāghūt, mocked them, reviled them, and cursed them (and finally he demolished them).²¹⁰

Shaykh ‘Abdur-Rahmān Ibn Nāsir As-Sa’dī رحمه الله explains the Verse “Fie upon you...” as, “What thing can be more astray than you; more defeated than you (by ignorance); more vile than you? You and all that you worship other than Allāh. You should try to realize this sickening condition of yours. Because when you lost your intellects, and perpetrated things of ignorance and misguidance rather than (preferring) the Truth- that’s when the beasts became better than you.”²¹¹

And Allāh (Most High) says regarding Ibrāhīm عليه السلام and his father,

²⁰⁸ Al-Anbiyā’: 57-68

²⁰⁹ As-Sāffāt: 97

“They are like cattle- Nay! Even more astray (worse)!” [Al-A’raf: 179].

“O my father! Verily there has come to me of the knowledge that which came not unto you. So follow me, I will guide you to a Straight Path. O my father! Do not worship Shaytān! Verily, Shaytān has been a rebel against Ar-Rahmān. O my father! Verily! I fear lest a torment from Ar- Rahmān overtake you, so that you become a companion of Shaytān.”He (the father) said, “Do you reject my gods, O Ibrāhīm! If you do not stop, I will indeed stone you (to death)! So stay away from me!” Ibrāhīm replied “Peace be upon you! ²¹² I will ask for the Forgiveness of my Lord for you. Verily, He is unto me Ever Most Gracious.”²¹³

But Allāh later forbid asking Forgiveness for the mushrikīn forever,

“And it is not for the Prophet, nor those who have believed, to ask for Forgiveness (from Allāh) for the mushrikīn- even though they are their closest kin, after it has become clear to them that they are the denizens of the Fire. And Ibrāhīm’s invoking for his fathers forgiveness was only because of a promise he (Ibrāhīm) had made to him (his father). But when it became clear to him that he is an enemy of Allāh, he dissociated from him. Verily, Ibrāhīm was Awwāh,²¹⁴ and was forbearing.”²¹⁵

And after this, he said to his people, including his father,

“Verily, we are free from you and whatever you worship besides Allāh. We have disbelieved in you and there has emerged between us and you, hostility and hatred forever, until you believe in Allāh Alone.”²¹⁶

Shaykh Abū Muhammad Al-Maqdisī فك الله أسره says:

“There are some people who think that the actualization of the Millat Ibrāhīm عليه السلام in this era is being done by the mere studying of Tawhīd and its three branches, and pondering over it theoretically- while being silent towards the musbrikīn, without announcing and displaying enmity to them and their shirk. So we say to the likes of these- If the Millat Ibrāhīm was like that- Why did his people throw him into the fire for it?

He could have spoken kindly with them, and been silent with regards to their shirk. He wouldn't have put the gods of his people to shame, nor would he have demonstrated hostility towards them.

It would have been enough for him to teach a “theoretical” Tawhīd to his followers, which wouldn't require any practical action, like Al-Walā' (Alliance to anyone upon Tawhīd), Al-Barā'ah (Disavowal from the musbrikīn), Al-Hubb (Loving the people of Tawhīd), Al-Bughdh (Hatred towards the musbrikīn and their shirk), Al-Mu'ādāt (Hostility against the musbrikīn), Al-Hijrān (Dissociating/Abandoning the musbrikīn)?”²¹⁷

Imām ‘Abdul-Latīf Ibn ‘Abdir-Rahmān رحمه الله said, “It is not possible for someone to realize Tawhīd and act upon it, and yet not be hostile against the musbrikīn. So anyone who isn't hostile against the musbrikīn, then it can't be said that he acts upon Tawhīd, nor that he realizes it.”²¹⁸

Shaykh Abū Muhammad Al-Maqdisī فاك الله أسره continues: “And verily, Ibrāhīm عليه السلام did Barā'ah from the person that was closest to him (his father), after it was clear to him that his father was rigidly upon shirk and kufr- “But when it became clear to him that he is an enemy of Allāh, he dissociated from him”. And this was after he had called his father with wisdom and fair preaching; this is why you find him saying before,

“O my father! Verily I fear lest a torment from Ar-Rahmān should overtake you- so that you (then) become a companion of Shaytān.”²¹⁹

And similar to this was Mūsā عليه السلام towards Fir'awn; after Allāh sent Mūsā عليه السلام to him, Allāh ordered,

“And speak to him mildly, perhaps he may accept admonition or fear (Allāh).”²²⁰

So Mūsā عليه السلام started to call Fir'awn to Tawhīd with gentle words, obeying Allāh's initial commandment; so he said,

²¹⁸ “Ad-Durar As-Saniyyah” (8/167), the section on Jihād.

²¹⁹ Refer to Maryam: 41-50.

²²⁰ TāHā: 44

“Would you purify yourself (from kufr and shirk by becoming a Muslim)? And that I guide you to your Lord, so that you should fear Him?” ²²¹

And he showed Fir'awn various signs and evidences.

But when Fir'awn displayed rejection, haughtiness and stubbornness upon bātil- then Mūsā عليه السلام said as Allāh has mentioned,

“Verily, you know that those (Signs) have been sent down by none other than the Lord of the Heavens and the Earth. But I think you are, indeed - O Fir'awn - doomed to destruction.” ²²²

Then finally, Mūsā عليه السلام invoked Allāh against Fir'awn, saying,

“Our Lord! You have indeed bestowed on Fir'awn and his chiefs splendor and wealth in the life of this world- our Lord! - that they may lead men astray from Your Path. Our Lord! Destroy their wealth, and harden their hearts, so that they will not have any Īmān until they see the painful torment.” ²²³

So those who unrestrictedly keep on repeating the texts on lenience and mildness, and carry it upon a distorted meaning, and put it in other than its actual place- They should halt at this issue for a long time, and ponder upon it, and grasp it with a firm understanding; if they are sincere.”

And similar was the first Messenger, Nūh عليه السلام. And the Da'wah of all the Prophets and Messengers was one- towards Hanifiyyah, ²²⁴ as Allāh says,

²²¹ An-Nāzi'āt: 18-19

²²² Al-Isrā': 102

²²³ Yūnus: 88

²²⁴ As Allāh says,

“Allāh has ordained for you the same religion which He ordained for Nūh, and that which We have revealed to you (O Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم), and that which We have ordained for Ibrāhīm, Mūsā, and 'Īsā- (saying) that you should establish the Dīn and make no divisions in it; intolerable to the mushrikīn is that (Tawhīd) to which you call them to.” [Ash-Shūrā: 13]

“Salām be upon Nūh (From Us) among the Worlds (mankind and the Jinn, and all that exists). Verily, thus We rewarded the righteous. Verily, he was one of Our slaves with Īmān. Then we drowned the others (mushrikīn). And, verily, among those who followed his (Nūh’s) way, was Ibrāhīm.”²²⁵

And Nūh عليه السلام said regarding his son who did not accept Hanfiyyah,

“O my Lord! Verily, my son is of my family! And certainly, Your Promise is true,²²⁶ and You are the Most Just of the judges.” He (Allāh) replied, “O Nūh! Surely, he is not of your family; verily, his work is unrighteous (shirk), So ask not of Me that of which you have no knowledge! I admonish you lest you should be of the ignorant.”²²⁷

And Nūh عليه السلام, the first Messenger, invoked Allāh against his mushrik people, saying,

“And indeed they have led many astray. And (O Allāh!): Grant no increase to the Thālimīn, except misguidance... My Lord! Do not leave (even) one of the kāfirīn on

²²⁶ Shaykh ‘Abdur-Rahmān As-Sa’dī says in his Tafsīr (pg. 338) of this Verse, “Your Promise is true, for you told me “Embark therein (in the ship), of each kind two (male and female), and your family” [Hūd: 40].

It is possible that Nūh عليه السلام was being sympathetic towards his family, and thought that Allāh had promised that He would save his entire family- thinking that the promise was general- both the believers and the infidels from his family. So this is why he made this supplication. But still, he returned the matter to Allāh, by saying “and You are the Most Just of the judges”. That Verse actually completes as “Embark therein (in the ship), of each kind two (male and female), and your family- except him against whom the Word has already gone forth” [Hūd: 40].

²²⁷ Hūd: 45-46. See how this is similar to the case of Ibrāhīm عليه السلام and his father, and Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم and Abū Tālib.

the earth! If You leave them, they will mislead Your slaves, and they beget none except wicked kuffār.”²²⁸

And resembling the declaration of the Imām of the Hunafā' عليه السلام to his people with Hostility and Hatred, Allāh says,

“And recite to them the news of Nūh. When he said to his people: O my people! If my stay (with you), and my reminding (you) of the lessons of Allāh, is unbearable to you- then I put my trust in Allāh; So devise your plot, you and your partners (whom you worship along with Allāh) - and let not (the severity of) your plot be a concern for you. Then pass your sentence upon me, and give me no respite.”²²⁹

And similar was said by all the Prophets, following the Millat Ibrāhīm and Nūh.

Just as Allāh notifies us about Prophet Hūd عليه السلام, initially he called them with fair preaching, saying,

“O my people! Worship Allāh (Alone)! You have no Ilāh, other than Him. Certainly, you do nothing but invent lies... Ask forgiveness from your Lord, and then repent to Him...”²³⁰

But when his people disobeyed him and rejected him, Hūd عليه السلام said,

“I call Allāh to witness, and (all of you to also) bear witness, that I am *Barī'*²³¹ from that which you associate (with Allāh). So conspire all of you (together) against me, and give me no respite. I put my trust in Allāh, my Lord and your Lord! There is not a moving creature, except that He has the grasp of its forelock. Verily, my Lord is upon the Straight Path.”²³²

And since Allāh ordered His Messenger Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم to follow the Millat Ibrāhīm- He also ordered him,

²²⁸ Nūb: 24-27

²²⁹ Yūnus: 71

²³⁰ Refer to Hūd: 50-60.

²³¹ Barī': synonym of Barā'.

²³² Hūd: 54-56

“Say: Call your partners, and then plot against me, and give me no respite! Verily, my Walī is Allāh, and He protects the righteous.”²³³

And Allāh also commanded His Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم,

“Say: O you mankind! If you are in doubt regarding my Dīn, then (know that) I will never worship those whom you worship, besides Allāh. But (know that) I worship Allāh, (the One) Who causes you to die. And I am commanded to be one of the Mu'minīn.”²³⁴

Imām Hamad Ibn 'Atīq An-Najdī رحمه الله said while explaining the above Verse, “So Allāh commanded His Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to announce to the mushrikīn: O you people! If you are confused about the Dīn which I am upon- then be aware that I have nothing to do with the religion which you are upon. And I have been ordered to be from amongst the Mu'minīn, the people which are your enemies; and I have been prohibited from being amongst your Awliyā', the mushrikīn.”²³⁵

And similar to his predecessors from amongst the Messengers, the Last Messenger was ordered to announce Barā'ah from the kuffār.

“Say: O kāfirūn! I do not worship that which you worship. Nor are you worshippers of that which I worship. And I am not a worshipper of that which you are worshipping. Nor are you worshippers of that which I worship. To you be your religion, and to me my Dīn.”²³⁶

Imām Hamad Ibn 'Atīq رحمه الله said while explaining Sūrat Al-Kāfirīn, “So Allāh had ordered His Messenger to say to the kuffār: The religion that you are upon- I have nothing to do with it; and the Dīn which I am upon- you have nothing to do with it.

The meaning is to demonstrate to the mushrikūn that they are infidels, and that he صلى الله عليه وسلم has nothing to do with them, nor with their religion. And whosoever is a follower of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, then it is obligatory for him to declare likewise- or else, he will not have practiced his Dīn. And this is the reason that when the Sahābah رضي الله عنهم acted upon this, they were attacked- and thus the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم ordered them to emigrate (Hijrah) to Abyssinia. But if the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم found it permissible to stay silent with the mushrikān- Why, then, did he command them to exile to a distant foreign land?"²³⁷

And Imām Hamad Ibn 'Atīq رحمه الله also said in a letter which he sent to 'Abdullāh Ibn Sālih:

"So let the one possessing intellect think carefully, and the let the sincere one search deeply- to find which reason (Sabab) caused the Quraysh to expel the Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم and his Companions رضي الله عنهم from Makkah, even though it was the most virtuous place (in the world). Then it will be known that the Quraysh did not expel them, until they (the Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم and his Companions) cursed their (Quraysh's) religion, and declared their forefathers to be astray; and the Quraysh wanted the Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم to stop these things, or else they would expel him and his Companions."²³⁸

"And We have not sent you {O Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم} except as a mercy for all that exists." Al-Anbiyā': 107] – and this point is mentioned by Shaykh Al-Islām in his "Sittatu Mawādhibi Min As-Sirābi". After he mentioned the Verse,

"You will not find any people who believe in Allāh and the Last Day, making friendship with those who oppose Allāh and His Messenger- even if they are their fathers, their sons, their brothers, or their kindred. For such (people), He has written Īmān in their hearts, and strengthened them with the light from Himself." [Al-Mujādilah: 22].

The Shaykh then says, "If you have understood this (Verse) with a firm and correct understanding, then you will realize that many of those who claim (to be in this) Dīn do not understand this. What else was the reason which caused the Muslims to be patient under such torture, captivity, suffering and exile to Abyssinia; all the while remembering that the Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم was the most compassionate of mankind, yet he did not permit them (to befriend the mushrikān). And indeed, if he knew it to be permissible to do otherwise, undoubtedly he would have allowed them to do so." "Majmū'at At-Tawhīd" (19).

²³⁸ Some ignorant people claim that the Sabābah رضي الله عنهم were attacked, tortured, and expelled only because they worshipped Allāh Alone and rejected to worship anyone else. But this is an evil fabrication. Indeed there existed many more Hunafā' who rejected the gods and worshipped only Allāh, such as Warāqah Ibn Nawfal رضي الله عنه and Zayd Ibn 'Amr Ibn Nufayl رضي الله عنه and many others. Yet, none of the kuffār expelled them nor attacked them, nor threatened them; And this is due to the fact that they did not display Hostility and Enmity and Barā'ah against the kuffār- and so they were treated in a manner other than the Sabābah. Why? Because the Sabābah were following the Millat Ibrāhīm firmly based upon the Revelation, under the guidance of the Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم. But if they had not done this, they would not have been tormented at the hands of the kuffār, like Warāqah Ibn Nawfal. So O Brother of Islām! Know the methodology of the Sabābah, and follow it sincerely- for verily, it is the path of wisdom, the path to Jannah.

And at the same time, his Companions would come to him and complain to him about the severity of the torture and suffering they were facing at the hands of the musbrikīn; but he ordered them to be patient and firm, as those before them (of the previous Prophets) were also tortured, and they endured patiently throughout. He never said to them “(It’s okay to) Stop renouncing their religion, and mocking their ideals”- On the contrary, he preferred exile along with his Companions, and preferred forsaking his native soil, even though it was the most noble place on the face of the earth; And “Indeed you have, in the Messenger of Allāh, a good example for whosoever hopes (for the Meeting with) Allāh and the Last Day, and remembers Allāh much.”²³⁹”

- End of the words of Imām Hamad Ibn ‘Atīq رحمه الله.²⁴⁰

Imām ‘Abdur-Rahmān Ibn Hasan رحمه الله said commenting upon how the Companions of the Cave were upon Millat Ibrāhīm, “And if you desire to know what Allāh has obligated (Fardh) upon His servants, from what has preceded- then ponder upon His Statement regarding the Companions of the Cave,

“And We made their hearts firm and strong²⁴¹ when they stood up, so they said: Our Lord is the Lord of the Heavens and the Earth, never shall we make Du’ā’ to any Ilāh other than Him; if we did, we would indeed have uttered an enormity in disbelief... (they said to one another) And when you withdraw from them, and that which they worship, except Allāh- then seek shelter in the Cave; your Lord will open a way for you from His Mercy and will make easy for you your affair.”²⁴²

²⁴⁰ This letter can be found in “Ad-Durar As-Saniyyah” (8/199).

²⁴¹ Shaykh Taqiyyuddīn Al-Hilālī and Shaykh Muḥammād Muhsin Khān commented upon this strength and firmness, “With the light of Faith in Allāh bestowed upon them, patience to bear the separation of their kith and kin and dwellings.”

²⁴² Al-Kahf: 14-16. And as Allāh promises,

“And he who emigrates (does Hijrah) in the Path of Allāh, will find on earth many dwelling places and plenty to live by. And whosoever leaves his home as an emigrant (Muhājir) unto Allāh and His Messenger, and then death overtakes him- his reward is then surely incumbent upon Allāh.” [An-Nisā’: 100].

So they knew that their Dīn was not valid without separating from the mushrikīn, and separating from their Tawāghūt. And they knew that they had to do this even if they could not find any place to go to except a cave inside a mountain along the shore.

So did they say, “Where are we supposed to emigrate to... There is no country of Islām... We have no Imām... We have no supporters”?? Did they complain about these things, as these ignorant people, who have preferred the worldly life over the Dīn, complain?”²⁴³

And the Messenger Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم informed us, “Indeed Allāh has taken me as an intimate friend (Khalīl), just as he took Ibrāhīm as an intimate friend (Khalīl).”²⁴⁴

So Allāh (Most High) ordered His Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم to follow the Millat Ibrāhīm, as has already preceded- and he did as he was commanded.

Just as Ibrāhīm Al-Khalīl عليه السلام cursed and reviled the Tawāghūt of his people- Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم followed.

As Allāh (Most High) mentions,

“And when those who commit kufir see you (O Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم), they take you only as a mockery (saying) “Is this the one who talks (badly) about your gods?”²⁴⁵

The scholars of Tafsīr have mentioned that this “one who talks (badly) about your gods” means that the Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم cursed, reviled, and ridiculed their gods.²⁴⁶ And this is apparent in the Verses such as,

²⁴⁵ Al-Anbiyā': 36

²⁴⁶ As for what is meant by the Verse,

“And insult not those whom they worship besides Allāh, lest they insult Allāh wrongfully without knowledge.” [Al-An'am: 108].

This Verse only prohibits reviling their gods without wisdom, and using improper language. But as for reviling them with wisdom, in order to make them realize Tawbīd, as all the Messengers did, then this is an obligation. As the Allāh Ta'āla commented about the deities of the mushrikīn, “Verily, those whom you call upon besides Allāh, cannot even create a fly- even if they combine together for the purpose. And if the fly snatches away a thing from them, they will have no power to release it from the fly.” [Al-Hajj: 73],

“Do you see that which you have been worshipping- you and your ancient fathers? For verily, they are all enemies to me- except the Lord of the Worlds.” ²⁴⁷

Just as Ibrāhīm, the Imām of the Hunafā', said,

“You worship besides Allāh only idols, ²⁴⁸ and you only invent falsehood.” ²⁴⁹

and ,

“Those whom you call upon besides Him, cannot help you- nor can they even help themselves!” [Al-A'raf: 197], and as Ibrāhīm عليه السلام cursed the musbrikin saying,

“Verily, you and your fathers have been in manifest error!” [Al-Anbiyā': 54].

Similarly today, it is not permissible to revile the Tawāghūt without wisdom. Rather, we should curse them in such manners by which the people will realize how the Tawāghūt are indeed apostates and thus should be abandoned; by revealing their collaboration with the kuffār against Muslims, by revealing their deficiencies and their torture against the Mujāhidīn. And when the Murji'ah use this Verse as an excuse to praise the Tawāghūt- then it must be remembered that the man upon whom this Verse was revealed- he was the same man who killed the Tawāghūt, and shattered the idols. Can it be said that he did not understand this Verse? And even the musbrikin described the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم as the man who, “... Mocked our elders, cursed our forefathers, criticized our religion, divided our community, and attacked our gods”. So can it be said that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did not understand the meaning of this Verse? Rather, he perfectly understood it- and the Qur'an does not contradict itself. This Verse only prohibits unwise ridiculing of the Tawāghūt, for its effects can be negative. But as for using wisdom in mocking and reviling their Tawāghūt- then this will cause the musbrikin to ponder upon the futility of shirk and kufr. And as Ibrāhīm عليه السلام said,

“Fie upon you! And upon that which you worship, besides Allāh! Have you then no sense!” [Al-Anbiyā': 67]

Can it be said that none of the Prophets صلى الله عليهم وسلم understood? And refuge is sought with Allāh.

²⁴⁷ Editor's Note: Asb-Shu'arā': 75-77

²⁴⁸ In the Sharī'ah, any entity, person or thing, which has Tbādab directed to it other than Allāh, can be labeled as an “idol”. So in this sense, “idol” is synonymous to Tāghūt. And the proof for this is the Hadīth narrated by Abū Hurayrah رضى الله عنه, that the Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, “O Allah! Do not make my grave into an idol which has Tbādab directed at it.” Recorded by Imām Mālik in “Al-Muwatta'” (414), Imām Ahmad in “Al-Musnad” (7352), Ibn Sa'd in “At-Tabaqāt” (2/241-242), and Abū Nu'aym in “Al-Hilyah” (7/317). Authenticated by Imām Ibn 'Abdil-Barr in “At-Tamīd” (5/41), Shaykh Al-

Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم also said,

“They are but names which you have named- you and your fathers- for which Allāh has sent down no authority.”²⁵⁰

And the Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم reviled their Tawāghīt to such an extent that the musbrikūn said, “He would have nearly misled us from our gods, had it not been that we were patient and constant in their worship!”

And the aristocrats of the musbrikīn had complained about the Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم, saying, “We never tolerated a man like the way we did Muhammad... He has mocked our elders, cursed our forefathers, criticized our religion, divided our community, and attacked our gods! We indeed have been very patient with him regarding a grave matter.” And after they had said this, the Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم replied in their faces, “Listen (to these words) - O assembly of Quraysh! I swear by Him in Whose Hand lies the soul of Muhammad! Verily, I have come to you, to slaughter you.”²⁵¹

Just as the intimate friend of Allāh, Ibrāhīm عليه السلام said,

“The love between you is only in the life of this world, but on the Day of Resurrection, you will disown each other, and curse each other- and your abode will be the Fire- and you shall have no helper.”²⁵²

Also Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم, the intimate friend of Allāh, said simply, Albānī in “Ghayat Al-Marām” (126), “Mishkāt Al-Masābīb” (715), “Fiqh As-Sirab” (53), and Ibn Taymiyyah mentioned that it is “Thabit” (confirmed) in “Huqūq Al-Al-Bayt” (58).

²⁴⁹ Al-Ankabūt: 17

²⁵⁰ An-Najm: 23

²⁵¹ Narrated by Imām Ahmad ibn Hanbal رحمه الله in his Musnad (11/203, # 7036). Imām Ahmad Shākir رحمه الله declared its chain to be authentic, and said, “Tsnāduhu Sabih.” He also mentioned that it is narrated by Ibn Hajar al-Haythamī in Mujma' Az-Zawā'id (6/15-16), and was pointed to by Ibn Hajar al-Asqalānī in Al-Fat'h (7/128), and Ibn Kathīr mentioned that it was narrated by al-Bayhaqī in At-Tarikh (3/46). On the authority of ‘Abdullāh Ibn ‘Amr Ibn Al-‘Ās. And Shaykh Al-Albānī declared it “Hasan” in “Sabih Al-Mawā'id” (1404). This is the Hadith known as “Laqad Ji'tukum Bith-Thabb”.

“Nor does he (Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم) speak of his own desire. It is only a Revelation revealed.” [An-Najm: 3-4].

“Take pleasure in your kufr for a while- surely you are of the denizens of the Fire.”²⁵³

And let us return to how Ibrāhīm عليه السلام destroyed the Tawāghūt of his people- and then mocked them even more after killing their Tawāghūt.²⁵⁴ Similarly, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم killed many Tawāghūt during the Makkan Period.²⁵⁵

As is in the following Hadīth narrated by ‘Alī Ibn Abī Tālib رضي الله عنه, “The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and I went to the Ka’bah, and then the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم ordered me, “Crouch down.” He then got upon my shoulders, and I lifted him up; but then the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم realized that I was weak (and unable to lift him up high enough). So he got down, and then he crouched down- and he told me, “O ‘Alī! Get on my shoulders.” So I then got upon his shoulders, and he lifted me up so high that I felt that if I wanted to reach the sky, I would have been able to do so. So then I got on top of the Ka’bah, and there were some statues. There were devotees surrounding them to the right and left, in front of them and behind them. So then the Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم ordered me, “Throw them!” So when I struck them, they shattered as if they were made of delicate glass. So then I got down from the shoulders of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, and we both set off swiftly, lest some of the people (mushrikūn) would see us.”²⁵⁶

And in another narration, “There used to be idols on top of the Ka’bah; so I hoisted the Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم up (to break them), but I was not capable. So he hoisted me up, and then I broke them (all).”²⁵⁷ And in another narration there is, “And they were never put up there again.”²⁵⁸

²⁵³ Az-Zumar: 8

²⁵⁴ The term “killing the Tawāghūt” is proper since the Yabūdī Ka’b Ibn Al-Ashraf was termed as a Tāghūt- and the Companions were ordered by the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to assassinate him. So it is also proper to say “Assassinating the Tawāghūt” is from the Millat Ibrāhīm. Refer to Shaykh Abū Jandal (Fāris Az-Zahrānī) Al-Azdī’s book, “Tabriḍh Al-Mujāhidīn Al-Abtāal ‘Alā Ihyā’ Sunnat Al-Igḥtiyāl”.

²⁵⁷ “Musnad Ahmad” (1/151)

²⁵⁸ Recorded by Al-Haythamī in “Mujma’ Az-Zawā’id” (6/23), chapter of “Taksīrūhu Al-Asnām”. He then commented that all the narrators are trustworthy.

So this was how the Muslims practiced their Tawbīd during the Makkan Period. And it is well-known how the Madanian Period was in regards to Hanīfiyyah :

“So slay the mushrikīn wherever you find them, take hold of them, encircle them and lie in wait to ambush them on each and every path” ²⁵⁹

and,

“Then take hold of them and kill them wherever you find them. In their case, We have provided you with a clear warrant against them.” ²⁶⁰

And after all this, let us mention what the Father of the Hunafā' believed was peace and security. This is important since many people today have false ideas about the meaning of safety, and they do not realize who is actually working to establish safety.

The Hanīf, the Khalīl, the Father of the Muslims said

“O my Lord! Make this city one of peace and security, and keep me and my sons away from worshipping idols.” ²⁶¹ O my Lord! They have indeed led astray many among mankind.” ²⁶²

So see with your eyes, and hear with your ears- How this Messenger has attached security with Kufr Bit-Tāghūt (Disbelieving in the Tāghūt) and Tawbīd... And glance towards the Verse again- And do you see that he has clarified that the Tawāghūt are the ones who misguide mankind, and that they are the ones that rip away security from mankind?

And this is why Imām Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdil-Wahhāb رحمه الله said while explaining the Hadīth regarding this matter, ²⁶³ “So this is one of the greatest things which clarifies the meaning of Lā Ilāh Illā Allāh. Because verily, Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم has not made the

²⁵⁹ At-Tawbah: 5

²⁶¹ Remember from what was mentioned previously- idol is synonymous to Tāghūt.

“pronunciation” of this Kalimah enough to protect one’s blood and wealth; Rather, he has not even made “knowing the meaning” of this Kalimah enough; ²⁶⁴ Rather, he has not even made “Belief” in this Kalimah enough; Rather, he has not even made the fact that a person “worships none but Allāh Alone” enough to secure his life and property. ²⁶⁵ On the contrary- the Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم has not given protection to anyone’s blood and wealth- until they have fulfilled Kufr Bit-Tāghūt. And whosoever doubts or hesitates (to do Kufr Bit-Tāghūt), then his blood and wealth are not secure.” ²⁶⁶

And it is known, there are only two factions- Awliyā' Ar-Rahmān against Awliyā' Ash-Shaytān. The Brigades of Tawbīd, or the troops shirk. The followers of Mūsā عليه السلام, or the followers or Fir'awn. The Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم and his followers, or the followers of Abū Lahab and Abū Jahl. The Sabābah against Musaylamah Al-Kath'thāb. The followers of Ahmad Ibn Hanbal against the Jahmiyyah. The army of Ibn Taymiyyah against the Tātār. The Imāms of Najd against the Ottomans. The Muwahhidūn against the kuffār and apostates. ²⁶⁷

And this Millat Ibrāhīm is what distinguishes the two factions.

And it is only due to this blessed Tawbīd, with its Negation before its Affirmation, which split the people apart into two separate factions. As Allāh has informed us,

“And We sent to Thamūd their brother (and Prophet) Sālih (saying): “Worship Allāh (Alone, and avoid the Tāghūt!)” ²⁶⁸ Then look- they became two parties, quarrelling with each other.” ²⁶⁹

And He also says,

²⁶⁵ This is a refutation of those who call to the Tibādah of Allāh Alone- the Second Pillar of Tawbīd (Ithbāt), but do not call to the First Pillar, Kufr Bit-Tāghūt (Nafī).

²⁶⁶ Refer to “Ad-Durar As-Saniyyah” (8/103). It is as if the Shaykh was talking about today. May Allāh benefit all the Muslims through his wisdom and writings. And may Allāh make the Imām from amongst those who are under the Shade of Allāh, on the Day that there is no shade except His. If this was to be said by one of us today- we would have been immediately labeled as “Khawārij” since we are not doing blind Taqīd of the Qusūriyyah (palace-worshippers).

²⁶⁷ And today it is as clear as the sun itself- the Jews, Christians, Hindus, Qaddiyānisits, munāfiqūn, and the apostates are all on one side against the Muwahhidūn. And everyone will be able to admit this- except someone who is insanelly in love with the Tawāghūt.

²⁶⁹ An-Naml: 45

“And invoke Him only, making all your worship purely for Him (only, and not for the Tawāghūt). As He brought you (into being) in the beginning, so shall you be brought into being (on the Day of Resurrection). A group He has guided, and a group deserved to be in error.”²⁷⁰

And,

“In order that Allāh may distinguish the wicked from the righteous.”²⁷¹

And it is known that the Da'wab of the Prophets was not to call only to the worship of Allāh- and whosoever says this, is ignorant of the Da'wab of the Prophets. It is well known from the Qur'an that most of the musbrikūn to whom Allāh had sent His Prophets- they were already worshipping Allāh²⁷² (along with the Tawāghūt), and they also already believed that He was the only Rabb, Khaliq, Rāziq, Mālik of everything that exists.²⁷³ But what caused the separation was the fact that the Messengers صلى الله عليهم وسلم called to Kufr Bit-Tāghūt - to forsake and reject all the Tawāghūt. The musbrikūn said to the Messengers,

“Have you come to us so that we worship only Allāh alone [Īmān Billāh]?! And forsake what our fathers used to worship [Kufr Bit-Tāghūt]?!”²⁷⁴

And Allāh describes these musbrikeen as,

“Truly, when it was said to them ‘Lā Ilāha Illā Allāh’- they puffed themselves up with arrogance (kibr). And they said: “Are we going to abandon our gods for the sake of a mad poet?”²⁷⁵

And He clarified that it was this Negation and Affirmation of Tawhīd which divided the people into two groups,

²⁷⁰ Al-A'raf: 29-30

²⁷¹ Al-Anfāl: 37

²⁷² Refer to Al-An'ām: 40-41, 63-64, Yūnus: 12, 22-23, Al-Isrā': 67, Al-Ankabūt: 65, Ar-Rūm: 33, Luqmān: 32, Aḥ-Zumar: 38; “Sabīb Muslimī” in the book of Hajj (2671). Also refer to “Kashf Ash-Shubuhāt” and its explanations.

²⁷³ Refer to Al-Anfāl: 48, Yūnus: 31, Al-Isrā': 102, Al-Mu'minūn: 84-89, Al-Ankabūt: 61-63, Luqmān: 25, Aḥ-Zumar: 38, Aḥ-Zukhruf: 9 and 87, Al-Hasbr: 16, Yūsuf: 106. And a check to any of the Tafsīrs of the Salaf of the Verses Al-Ankabūt: 61-63 will verify that the vast majority of the musbrikūn never believed that anyone other than Allāh was the Creator, Sustainer, Owner, Administrator.

²⁷⁴ Al-A'raf: 70

²⁷⁵ As-Sāffāt: 35-36. So the statement of the musbrikūn “Are we going to abandon our gods for the sake of a mad poet”- shows that the Kalimah consists of Kufr Bit-Tāghūt.

“And verily, We sent to every community a Messenger (proclaiming): ‘Worship Allāh (Alone) and avoid the Tāghūt’. Then from them were some whom Allāh guided, and some who deserved to be in error.” ²⁷⁶

And those who were guided were the people upon Millat Ibrāhīm, announcing Barā'ah from the Tawāghūt; and as for those who were led astray- they did not forsake the Tawāghūt, but rather made them the rulers of their communities, referred back to them in disputes, and loved them very much. And besides this difference, both groups were worshipping Allāh.

And when you realize this- you will be able to understand why Kufr Bit-Tāghūt comes before Īmān Billāh. ²⁷⁷

And this is a Sunnah of Allāh in His creation- That there will be two factions opposing one another. Allāh taught this Sunnah to the first Prophet Adam عليه السلام - as Allāh says,

“O Ādam! Verily, this (Shaytān) is an enemy to you!” ²⁷⁸

And this is a Sunnah of Allāh with all those who follow the Da'wah of the Prophets صلى الله عليهم وسلم, as He said,

“Thus We have appointed for every Prophet an enemy among the mujrimīn (criminals). But Sufficient is your Lord as a Guide and Helper.” ²⁷⁹

And,

“So We have appointed for every Prophet enemies- Shayātīn among humans and Jinn, inspiring one another with adorned speech as a delusion. If your Lord had so willed, they would not have done it- so leave them and their fabrications.” ²⁸⁰

²⁷⁶ An-Nahl: 36

²⁷⁷ It is as Allāh has said,

“Most of them do not believe in Allāh, except while being mushrikūn.” [Yūsuf: 106]

²⁷⁸ TāHā: 117

²⁷⁹ Al-Furqān: 31

And Allāh orders mankind in general,

“Surely, Shaytān is an enemy to you- so treat him as an enemy.”²⁸¹

And this is why the Angels described the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم as, *“Muhammad is a Divider between mankind.”*²⁸² So when he صلى الله عليه وسلم was sent, the whole world was divided into two factions: Believers and disbelievers. And he صلى الله عليه وسلم, with the Permission of Allāh, separated the father from the son, and a man from his brother- and they came face to face on the battlefield- both eager to kill the other. And Allāh revealed,

“O you who believe! Do not take your fathers and brothers as Awliyā' if they prefer kuf above Īmān. And whoever of you does so, then he is one of the Thālimūn.”²⁸³

And He revealed,

“You will not find any people who believe in Allāh and the Last Day, making friendship with those who oppose Allāh and His Messenger- even if they are their fathers, their sons, their brothers, or their kindred. For such (people), He has written Īmān in their hearts, and strengthened them with the light from Himself. And He will admit them to Gardens (Paradise) under which rivers flow, to dwell therein (forever). Allāh is pleased with them, and they are pleased with Him. They are the Party of Allāh. Verily, it is the Party of Allāh that will be successful.”²⁸⁴

Ibn Kathīr رحمه الله explained, “It is narrated that the portion of the Verse “even if they are their fathers”- was revealed regarding Abū 'Ubaydah رضي الله عنه who killed his own father on the Day of Badr, and “their sons” was revealed regarding Abū Bakr As-Siddīq رضي الله

²⁸⁰ Al-An'ām: 112

²⁸¹ Fātir: 6

²⁸² Refer to “Sahīh Al-Bukhārī” (6852), the Book of “Al-I'tisām Bil-Kitābi Was-Sunnah”.

عنه who wanted to kill his own son 'Abdur-Rahmān;²⁸⁵ and “their brothers” was revealed regarding Mus'ab Ibn 'Umayr رضي الله عنه who killed his own brother 'Ubayd Ibn 'Umayr that day; and “or their kindred” was revealed regarding 'Umar رضي الله عنه who killed one of his family members that day- it is also said that it was revealed regarding Hamzah رضي الله عنه, and 'Alī رضي الله عنه, and 'Ubaydah Ibn Al-Hārith, and they had killed 'Utbah, Shaybah and Al-Walīd Ibn 'Utbah that day also- and Allāh knows best... And Allāh's saying, “Allāh is pleased with them, and they are pleased with Him”- means extreme happiness since they despised their kith and kin for the Sake of Allāh- and Allāh rewarded them with His Good Pleasure, and He made them pleased with Him.”²⁸⁶

So now, would anyone claim that the period before Islām, the Days of Jābiyyah- when fathers and sons were together - were better and more peaceful than the Days of Islām - when fathers and sons were killing each other²⁸⁷- other than a kaḥfīr of course?! Will anyone claim that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم caused “fitnah”? And refuge is sought with Allāh against such apostasy.

So let us return to that question, “What is real Amn (peace and security) according to the two Khalīls, Ibrāhīm عليه السلام, and Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم?”

²⁸⁶ “Tafsīr Al-Qur'ān Al-'Athīm” (4/330-331)

²⁸⁷ Maybe the well-known ordeal of 'Abdullāh Ibn 'Abdillāh Ibn Ubayy Ibn Salūl needs to be reminded here. It was reported that the Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم called for Abdullāh - the son of Abdullāh Ibn Ubayy Ibn Salūl (the chief of hypocrites at Al-Madīnah) - and said, “Do you not see what your father said?” Abdullāh asked. “What did he say!? May my father and mother be sacrificed for you!” The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, “He is saying: If we return to Medina (from the battle), indeed the more honorable one (i.e. 'Abdullāh Ibn Ubayy Ibn Salūl) will expel the one who is despised (i.e. the Messenger of Allāh).” Abdullāh then said, “By Allāh! O Messenger of Allāh! He has spoken the truth! You are the most honored one, and he is the one who is despised! O Messenger of Allāh! The people of Yathrib know that before you came to Al-Madīnah, no one was more obedient to his father than I was. But now, pleases Allāh and His Messenger that I come to you with his (decapitated) head, then I shall do so.” The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, “No”. When the Muslims returned to Al-Madīnah, Abdullāh stood at the gate with his sword drawn over his father's head, and said to him, “Did you say that if we return to Al-Madīnah then indeed the more honorable one will expel the one who is despised? By Allāh, now you shall indeed find out whether honor is for you, or for the Messenger of Allāh! By Allāh, never will you enter Al-Madīnah, except with the permission of Allāh and His Messenger!” Ibn Ubayy Ibn Salūl cried aloud and said, “O People of Khazraj! My son prevents me from my own home! O People of Khazraj! My son prevents me from my own home!” So 'Abdullāh said (again), “By Allāh! You will not get refuge in it, except with the permission of the Messenger.” So some men gathered around and began pleading with Abdullāh, so he replied, “By Allāh! He will not enter it except with Permission from Allāh and His Messenger.” So they went to the Prophet and reported this incident to him. He ordered them, “Go to him ('Abdullāh), and tell him to let go of his father and his home.” So they informed 'Abdullāh of this, so he said (to his father), “Since the command of the Prophet – salutations and peace be upon him - has arrived, then yes (you can enter now).” For the whole incident, refer to “Tafsīr Al-Qur'ān Al-'Athīm” by Ibn Kathīr (8/159), and “Sirat Ibn Hishām” (2/292).

As has preceded, Ibrāhīm عليه السلام said,

“O my Lord! Make this city one of peace and security, and keep me and my sons away from worshipping idols. O my Lord! They have indeed led astray many among mankind.”²⁸⁸

So this Du'ā from Ibrāhīm عليه السلام shows his worry and care for the security of his children. Hence, he taught his sons to hold firmly to the Foundation of Islām, as Allāh mentioned,

“And this was enjoined by Ibrāhīm upon his sons, and by Ya'qūb: “O my sons! Allāh has chosen for you the Dīn, so die not except as Muslims.”²⁸⁹

And indeed many of his sons continued to walk upon Millat Ibrāhīm, as Prophet Yūsuf عليه السلام said to his two companions who were imprisoned with him,

“Verily, I have abandoned the path of the people that do not believe in Allāh and are disbelievers in the Hereafter- and I have followed the Millah of my fathers, Ibrāhīm, Is'hāq, and Ya'qūb- and never could we attribute any partners whatsoever to Allāh. This is from the Grace of Allāh to us and to mankind; But most of mankind are ungrateful. O two companions of the prison! Are many different lords better- or Allāh, the One, the Irresistible?”²⁹⁰

And Ibrāhīm عليه السلام further elaborated upon the reality of security; when he declared in the face of the mushrikān regarding their Tawāghit,

²⁸⁸ Ibrāhīm: 35-36

²⁸⁹ Al-Baqarab: 132

²⁹⁰ Yūsuf: 37-39

“O my people! I am Barī' from all that you join as partners (i.e. your Tawāghīt). Verily, I have turned my face as a Hanīf towards Him Who created the Heavens and the Earth. And I am not of the mushrikīn.” And his people disputed with him. (So) he replied, “Do you dispute with me concerning Allāh, even though He has (indeed) guided me! And I do not fear those whom you associate with Him (in worship as Tawāghīt). (Nothing can happen to me) except when my Lord wills something. My Lord comprehends in His Knowledge all things. Will you not then remember? And how could I fear those whom you associate (in worship as Tawāghīt), while you don't fear that you have associated with Allāh that which He has not sent down to you any authority? So which of the two factions has more right to be in security? If you but knew! It is those who have Īmān, and do not cover their Īmān with Thulm (tyranny, oppression, wrong) - For them (only) there is security, and they are the guided.”²⁹¹

So the Father of Muslims, Ibrāhīm Al-Hanīf عليه السلام, has clarified in explicit words the meaning of security- and he has also demonstrated who the People of Security are- Those who are waging Jihād against the Tawāghīt, not fearing the blame of the blamers, fighting to make the Tawbīd of Allāh supreme and highest, and to extinguish shirk- for these are the people who are truly establishing security and peace - those who respond to the Command of Allāh:

“So fight the leaders of kuff”²⁹²

-which is a direct reference to the Tawāghīt.

And the Last Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم clarified this even better. When these Verses were revealed “It is those who have Īmān, and do not cover their Īmān with Thulm,” the Companions رضي الله عنهم asked, “Which one of us hasn't wronged himself?” So the Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم replied, “It (Thulm) is not as you assume. Do you not bear what the righteous servant of Allāh (Luqmān) said, “O my son! Do not commit shirk! Verily, committing shirk with Allāh is a Great Thulm indeed.”²⁹³

So the two Khalīls have explained two things- That Tawbīd is the only path to security, and that only the Hunafā' are worthy of security; and that the greatest tyranny is shirk.

²⁹¹ Al-An'ām: 78-82

²⁹² At-Tawbah: 12

²⁹³ Luqmān: 13. The Hadīth is recorded by Al-Bukhārī (32, with repetitions), Muslim (197, 198), and Ahmad (1/378). Also narrated by At-Tirmithī, all with similar phrasings. All from Ibn Mas'ūd except for one of Ahmad's narrations, which is from Jarīr Ibn 'Abdillāh.

And this shirk is further explained by Allāh in the Qur'an. Allāh describes shirk as a “fitnah”²⁹⁴ in many Verses that is worse than murder and bloodshed. As Allāh orders the Hunafā',

“And kill them wherever you find them, and drive them out from where they drove you out. And fitnah is more severe (Ashadd) than killing.”²⁹⁵

And Allāh stresses the point that shirk is worse than killing once more, saying,

“And fitnah is greater (Akbar) than killing.”²⁹⁶

And He says,

“And those who commit kufir, are Awliyā' (allies) of one another; and if you (Muslims) do not do so,²⁹⁷ there will be fitnah on the earth, and a great corruption (fasād).”²⁹⁸

Al-Hāfiṭh Ibn Kathīr رحمه الله explains “and if you (Muslims) do not do so” as, “If you do not reject the musbrikīn, and ally yourselves with fellow Mu'minin, then fitnah will spread. And “corruption” means confusion regarding the affairs- which happens because of the mixing of the kuffār amongst the Muslims, and thus evil spreads.”²⁹⁹

And Imām ‘Abdul-Latīf Ibn ‘Abdir-Rahmān Al Ash-Shaykh رحمه الله explained the Verse as, “And this fitnah is none other than shirk. And the “great corruption” is the deteriorating of the ‘Aqābah of Islām and Tawhīd, and the neglecting of the laws and orders of the Qur'an.”³⁰⁰

²⁹⁵ Al-Baqarab: 191. Imām At-Tabarī explains, “This means that committing shirk is worse than murder.” Refer to his Tafsīr (2/197).

²⁹⁶ Al-Baqarab: 217. Shaykh Al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah said, “Even though killing people is not good-kufir and its people, and the victory of the kuffār are worse than mere killing. So the lesser of the two things is used to prevent the greater of the two.” Refer to “Majmu' Al-Fatāwā” (10/513).

²⁹⁷ i.e. Become allies as one united block

²⁹⁹ Refer to “Tafsīr Al-Qur'an Al-'Athīm” by Ibn Kathīr (2/331).

³⁰⁰ This is a refutation of those who claim that Īmān is only “Belief” and do not enter actions (A'māl) into its realm. And this refutation is obvious because of the Shaykh's words right before this, “And what has come in the Qur'an regarding the prohibition and severe harshness of torment upon befriending and allying with the kuffār- this proves that the mother of all foundations (Asl Al-Usūl, i.e. ‘Aqābah and Tawhīd) has no stability nor firmness- until there exists (along with it) the boycotting of the kuffār, battling against them, waging Jibād against them, declaring Barā'ah from them, and seeking nearness to Allāh (Taqarrub) by loathing them and reviling them.” Refer to “Ad-Durar As-Saniyyah” (8/324-326). And obviously this is a long shot from the Murji'ah, who neither boycott the

And also Allāh orders,

“And fight them until there is no more fitnah (shirk), and the religion (worship) will all be for Allāh (Alone in the whole of the world).”³⁰¹

So it is very clear then, that the two Khalīfs ε have explained: shirk and the following of Tawāghīt is the greatest tyranny that exists, and there is nothing more oppressive than shirk, it is the worst fitnah, and thus it is worse than bloodshed and murder³⁰² - Rather, we are ordered to shed the blood of the musbrikin and Tawāghīt - firmly upon Millat Ibrāhim - until shirk ceases to exist in any form. And at the same time – the two Prophets صلى الله عليهما وسلم ε have taught us that there can be no security, nor safety, nor peace, without Tawhīd. So Amān is firmly tied together with Īmān.

And when you have understood this, then you should also know that those Tawāghīt and apostates who crave for security while sinking in shirk, left, right, and center - you will realize that they are only dreaming in mirages. And when they call the militaries of the apostate Tawāghīt as “Rijāl Al-Amn”³⁰³ - then you know that they are only deceiving the ignorant.

They think that they will be able to have security even while fighting to establish shirk! And when our brethren fight them for the sake of establishing Tawhīd- they shout out, “fitnah”. And Allāh has said something about people like them, kuffār, nor battle them, nor wage Jihād against them, nor declare Barā'ah from them- and declare it “unwise” to loathe the kuffār and to revile them. Wa Lā Hawla, Wa Lā Quwwata, Illā Billāh.

³⁰¹ Al-Anfāl: 39; also similar in Al-Baqarab: 193.

³⁰² And regarding unlawful murder, Allāh has said,

“That if anyone killed a person not in retaliation of (a previous) murder, or to spread mischief in the land, it would be as if he killed all mankind.” [Al-Mā'idab: 32].

So if this is regarding murder- something which Allāh is always willing to forgive- then what about kufr and shirk- and it is clear from the Qur'an that Allāh forgives everthing except kufr and shirk! So indeed, kufr and shirk is incomparable to mere bloodshed: So remember this O Brother of Tawhīd!

³⁰³ Some of these extremist Murji'ah and Jahmiyyah even dare to call these militaries “Mujāhidīn”. How can they be Mujāhidīn- They are protecting the Zionist Crusaders, helping the Zionist Crusaders kill Muslims, and these apostate militaries have never killed one kāfir anywhere in the world, and they facilitate the occupation of the Jewish Crusaders in the Arabian Peninsula (in an act of defiance against the orders of the Messenger of Allāh- in a desire to show “Who is worthy of being obeyed, Muhammad or Fahd!”), let alone the topic of killing for the sake of not being governed by the Shari'ah. And all their operations (against the Brigades of Islam) are praised by Al-Umam Al-Muttahidah Al-Mulhidah (the United Atheist Nations)? --- So how can it be said that these are Mujāhidīn? Rather say - murtaddīn, musbrikin.

“And among them is he who says “Grant me departure and do not put me in fitnah.” Surely, they (already) have fallen into fitnah! And verily, Hell is surrounding the kāfirīn.”³⁰⁴

And this indeed is how it is today- some people think that killing and spilling the blood of the Tāghūt and apostates is fitnah- but surely, they already have fallen into shirk- which is worse than bloodshed. And we are only fighting to abolish this shirk- as Allāh has ordered “Fight them until there is no more fitnah”. So if these heretics falsely label the Jihād and Qitāl which is meant to eradicate fitnah, as “fitnah”- then is there anyone that will doubt their deviancy?

And Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Sahnān رحمه الله once said regarding all this, “When you have realized that Tabākum (seeking judgment) from the Tāghūt is kufr- then you should also know that Allāh has mentioned in His Book that kufr is worse than bloodshed. As He said,

“And fitnah is more severe (Ashadd) than killing”³⁰⁵

“And fitnah is greater (Akbar) than killing.”³⁰⁶

And fitnah is none other than kufr. Thus, if the village and the city were to wage war against each other, till the point that they all die - This would undoubtedly be better than setting up a Tāghūt upon earth, governing in contradiction to the Shari'ah of Islām, the Legislation with which Allāh sent His Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم.³⁰⁷

It is not a matter of debate - Millat Ibrāhīm is simply a relentless Jihād against the mushrikīn and their Tawāghūt, with the sole intention of establishing Tawhīd all over the world³⁰⁸- so that

³⁰⁴ At-Tawbah: 49

³⁰⁵ Al-Baqarah: 191

³⁰⁶ Al-Baqarah: 217

³⁰⁷ Refer to “Ad-Durar As-Saniyyah” (10/509-511). May Allāh enter the Shaykh into Jannāt Al-Firdaws. How many scholars, let alone ordinary people- are willing to abide by this Fatwā? And perhaps then you will recognize who the Hunafā' and Ghurabā' are...

³⁰⁸ Shaykh Abū Muhammad Al-Maqdisī رحمه الله says in “Hidāyat Al-Halīm Ilā Anna Ahamm Al-Muhimmāt Fī Millati Ibrāhīm” that Khilāfah is but a means to spread and establish Tawhīd and eliminate shirk. But Khilāfah is not the goal within itself, thus- it is not proper to go soft on shirk and kufr for the sake of Khilāfah; since the goal of the Khilāfah is to spread Tawhīd in the first place. Allāh says in the Qur'an, only Allāh (Most High) is worshipped Alone, and that none is worshipped with any form of 'Ibadah- from Tawakkul, to Khashyah, to Du'ā', to Tabakum, to Istighāthah, to Rukū', to Qital.³⁰⁹ It is to live for Allāh Alone, to love for the Sake of Allāh Alone, to hate for the Sake Allāh Alone, to kill for the Sake of Allāh Alone, and to sacrifice one's own life for Him Alone,³¹⁰ and to die for Allāh Alone.

“Say: Truly, my Lord has guided me to a Straight Path, an upright Dīn, the Millat Ibrāhīm, as a Hanīf and he was not of the mushrikīn. Say: Verily, my Salāt, my sacrifice, my life, and my dying are for Allāh (Alone) - the Lord of the worlds. He has no partner. And I have been commanded with this, and I am the first of the Muslims.”³¹¹

And in ending this, I would like to rephrase a statement that was said by one of the enemies of Millat Ibrāhīm from amongst the heads of the Murji'ah in one of his books: “Study any of the other Da'wahs of the sects and groups- other than that of those who follow Millat Ibrāhīm- do you see this methodology or any trace of it in their schooling, their rulers, or their meetings? Then show it to me if you are truthful. As for myself I do not find in these sects and groups except that they wage a fierce war against this methodology and its “Verily, Allāh will help those who help His (Cause). Truly, Allāh is All-Strong, All-Mighty. Those who, if We give them power in the land, (they) establish the Salāt, and pay the Zakāt, and they enjoin Ma'rūf (righteousness), and forbid Munkar (evil). And with Allāh rests the end of (all) matters.” [Al-Hajj: 40-41].

And the greatest Ma'rūf is Tawbūd and waging Jihād to make it supreme; and the worst Munkar is shirk and kufir. So the Khilāfah is but a means to destroy the Tawāghūt- it is not the goal within itself.

³⁰⁹ Yes, Qital is a form of worship. As Allāh says,

“Those who have believed, fight in the Cause of Allāh; and those who commit kufir, fight in the cause of Tāghūt. So fight (O Muslims!) against the allies of Shaytān. Ever feeble indeed is the plot of Shaytān.” [An-Nisā': 76].

It is known that those who fight in the Cause of Allāh are in 'Ibadah, and that Jihād and Qital are two of the greatest forms of worship to Allāh, and the greatest signs that one truly loves Allāh. Thus, those who wage war for other than the Cause of Allāh- such as nationalism, tribalism or to please the Crusaders, etc.- then they have worshipped other than Allāh. And this was clarified thoroughly by Shaykh Abū Basīr in his book “At-Tāghūt”.

³¹⁰ As Allāh says,

“And of mankind is he who would sell himself, seeking the Pleasure of Allāh (Alone). And Allāh is full of Kindness to His slaves.” [Al-Baqarab: 207].

³¹¹ Al-An'am: 161-163

adherents. I do not see except belittlement and mockery of this methodology and its people. I do not see except enmity and hostility against this methodology and its people, and I do not see except warm greetings and respect from them for the deviant and misguided people, and the Zionists and Crusaders, the apostates, and the Tawāghūt themselves.”

“And who is it that turns away from Millat Ibrāhīm, except one who fools himself?...³¹²

Ad-Dalā'il Fī Hukm Muwālāt Ahl Al-Isbrāk

About the Author

He is Imām Sulaymān Ibn ‘Abdillāh Ibn Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdil-Wahhāb رحمه الله - the grandson of the Mujaddid, Shaykh Al-Islām Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdil-Wahhāb رحمه الله. He is notably known for his outstanding book “Taysīr Al-‘Azīz Al-Hamīd Sharh Kitāb At-Tawhīd”.

He was born in the year 1200 at Ad-Dir'iyyah, the capital of the Salafīyyah, while it was filled with great scholars.

He memorized the Qur'ān and studied the Farā'idh (the laws of inheritance) from Shaykh ‘Abdur-Rahmān Ibn Khumīs.

Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn ‘Abdillāh was extraordinary in his knowledge, and was a symbol of memorization and brilliance. He had a deep understanding of the sciences of Hadīth, its narrators, its chains, its Sahīb, Hasan, and Dbā'if to such a degree that it used to be said, “He is the most knowledgeable of the narrators of Hadīth compared to the others in his country.” He was an ‘Alīm, Faqīh, Mufasssīr, and Usūlī. And his calligraphy was so beautiful that none was compared to him during his time.

And the Shaykh رحمه الله was renowned for his severity for the Truth, and his ordering the righteous deeds and forbidding the evil deeds, and he was well-known for his Ghīrah (pride) for the Dīn.

There are a great many books and treatises written by the Shaykh, a few to mention would be,

- “Ad-Dalā'il Fī Hukm Muwālāt Ahl Al-Isbrāk” (which is in front of you)
- “Anthaq 'Urā Al-Īmān” (The Firmest Handhold of Īmān). Regarding the obligation and virtues of Alliance to the Mu'minīn, and loyalty to them, and loving them, and aiding them.
- “Hāshiyat 'Alā Al-Muqni' Fī Al-Fiqh”, in three large volumes.
- “At-Tawdhīb 'An Tawhīd Al-Kballāq”³¹³

In the year 1233, after Abraham Pasha the Grecian- the son of Mahomet Ali the Grecian- invaded the lands of Arabia and launched an offensive against the Muwahhidīn, and after the Ottomans rampaged the capital of the Muslim scholars in Ad-Dir'iyyah; some people collaborated with Abraham Pasha and betrayed the Muwahhidīn. So Abraham Pasha summoned for the Shaykh, and then brought him out in front of a large assembly. He ordered for various immoral and evil things to be brought in front of the Shaykh, in order to ³¹³ This book has been attributed by some to Imām Sulaymān رحمه الله, but this might be wrong. What is correct is that it was written by his father along with two other scholars together; refer to the book “Da'āwā Al-Munāwī'm”.

aggravate the Shaykh and infuriate him. And finally Abraham Pasha ordered his troops to nail the Shaykh to a cross,³¹⁴ and then to open fire upon him. And his troops fired their bullets into the Shaykh, while he patiently endured, until they had torn his body into shreds. Afterwards, his head was sent as a gift to the Ottoman capital in Istanbul.³¹⁵

“Among the Mu'minīn are men who have been true to their covenant with Allāh- of them some have fulfilled their obligations, and some of them are still waiting, but they have never changed in the least.”³¹⁶

We ask Allāh to accept the Imām as a Shahīd in His Cause.³¹⁷

Introduction to the Treatise “Ad-Dalā'il”

This translation of “Ad-Dalā'il” is based upon the Tabqīq of Shaykh Al-Walīd Ibn ‘Abdir-Rahmān Ibn Muhammad Al Furyān رحمه الله. He says in the introduction of his Tabqīq, “Al-Walā' and Al-Barā' are two great foundations from the principles of Islām. And it is a manifestation of the difference between Ahl As-Sunnah Wal-Jamā'ah from other groups. And this follows the fact that it is from the most important requirements of Lā Ilāh Illā Allāh.”

And this treatise is specifically about those who assist the kuffār against the Muslims. It was written by Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn ‘Abdillāh رحمه الله when the Kāfir Ottoman Empire and their Egyptian allies invaded the lands of the Muwahhidīn inside the Arabian Peninsula.

Shaykh Nāsir Ibn Hamad Al-Fahd فكه الله أسره says in At-Tibyān, “Between the years 1226 and 1233, the armies (of the Ottomans) launched an onslaught against the lands of Najd, seeking to end the Da'wah of Tawhīd. And during that period, many of those who ascribed themselves to Islām assisted these infidel armies against the Muslims. So the scholars of Najd issued the verdicts that whosoever helps the kuffār (against the Muslims), then they are apostates. Then Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn ‘Abdillāh Al Ash-Shaykh رحمه الله compiled the treatise “Ad-Dalā'il”. And in this treatise he established that anyone who collaborates with the kuffār is an apostate. And he mentioned twenty-one evidences upon that.”³¹⁸

³¹⁴ Either Pasha was doing this from his own enmity of Tawhīd and Islām, or he did it because he was ordered by his British masters. See the section “The Muwahhidūn are Not Khawārij”.

³¹⁵ For a full biography of the Imām رحمه الله, refer to “Ulamā Najd” (1/293), and “Al-A'lām” (3/129), and also “Unwān Al-Majd Fī Tārīkh Najd”.

³¹⁶ Al-Ahḡāb. 23

³¹⁷ And it is for this reason, his execution, that the Imām left this world without having completed his Sharh of “Kitāb At-Tawhīd”.

³¹⁸ Refer to “At-Tibyān Fī Kufri Man A'an Al-Amrikān” (pg.66-67) by At-Tibyān Publications. And about fifty years after Shaykh Sulaymān wrote his treatise, the Ottomans once again launched an invasion against the Da'wah of Tawhīd- and that is when Shaykh Hamad Ibn ‘Atīq رحمه الله wrote

And regarding the subject of Muthābarah (helping the kuffār against the Muslims), no book has preceded it, nor after it, with such clarity. And the 'Imāms of Najd used to advise the Tullāb Al-ʿIlm (students of knowledge) to memorize this treatise by heart, as if it was on the tip of their tongues.³¹⁹ And this is why Shaykh Al-Walīd Al-Furyān رحمه الله said, “Shaykh Al-Mu’ammār ‘Abdul-‘Azīz Al-Murshad recited it by heart many times to Imām ‘Abdullāh Ibn ‘Abdil-Latīf Al-Asb-Shaykh رحمه الله. And the fact that this (memorization of this treatise) was a fundamental concern by the ‘Ulamā of Najd, is obvious in the words of Shaykh Ibn Qāsīm in “Ad-Durar As-Saniyyah” (12/48), and Shaykh Ibrāhīm Ibn Muhammad Al-Asb-Shaykh رحمه الله in the introduction to “Taysīr Al-‘Azīz Al-Hamīd” (13).”

As this treatise had become widespread throughout the circles of knowledge, the students referred to this treatise as merely “Ad-Dalā'il - The Evidences.”

another book clarifying the ruling upon those who cooperate with the mushrikīn against the Muslims; and he also makes Takfīr of all the collaborators. The book is “Sabīl An-Najāti Wal-Fikāk”. These two books are the main books regarding the topic of collaboration written by the Salaf: “Ad-Dalā'il” and “Sabīl An-Najāti”.

³¹⁹ The actual term used in Arabic is “Alā Thabr Al-Qalb”-meaning “on the back of the heart”.

By the Imām, Muwabbid, Muhaddith, Faqih, Mujāhid, Shāhid
Shaykh Al-Islām
Sulaymān Ibn ‘Abdillāh Ibn Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdil-Wahhāb

-May Allāh Have Mercy Upon Them and Upon All the People of Tawhīd-

In the Name of Allāh, The Most Gracious, The Most Merciful
All Praise belongs to Allāh, the Lord of the Worlds.

[REGARDING THOSE WHO FORSAKE MILLAT IBRĀHĪM] ³²⁰

Know, may Allāh have mercy upon you, that:

If a person displays Muwāfaqah ³²¹ with the mushrikīn regarding their Dīn ³²² -- out of Khanf from them, ³²³ Mudārāb ³²⁴ towards them, or Mudābanah ³²⁵ to repel their evil: then verily, he

³²⁰ As Allāh has said,

“There has indeed been an excellent example for you in Ibrāhīm and those with him, when they said to their people: ‘Verily, we are free from you and whatever you worship besides Allāh. We have rejected you and there has emerged between us and you, hostility and hatred forever, until you believe in Allāh alone.’” [Al-Mumtāzinab: 4]

³²¹ Muwāfaqah: harmony, compliance, agreement.

³²² In this context, Dīn is meant as “way of life” or “desires”; and Imām Hamad Ibn ‘Atīq An-Najdī رحمه الله in his book “Sabīl An-Najātī Wal-Fikāk” clarifies this with many evidences. For example, the Verse, “Never will the Jews nor the Christians be pleased with you (O Muhammad! صلى الله عليه وسلم), until you follow their religion. Say: ‘Verily, the Guidance of Allāh (Tawhīd) - that is the only Guidance.’ And if you (O Muhammad! صلى الله عليه وسلم) were to follow their desires after what you have received of Knowledge (i.e. Qur’ān), then you would have against Allāh neither any protector nor any helper.” [Al-Baqarab: 120].

And Imām Hamad brings many more Verses that prove that what is meant by “following their Dīn” is actually “following their desires”- for the religion of the kuffār is nothing but their desires. As Allāh says, is a kaḥfīr just like them,³²⁶ even³²⁷ if he despises their religion and hates them, and loves Islām and the Muslims.

This is if nothing came from him except that; So what if he was in a land of rebellion {against the Muwābbidān}, and submits to them, and enters into their obedience, and shows harmony with their false religion, and helps them upon it with assistance and wealth,³²⁸ and allies himself with them and breaks the alliance between himself and the Muslims, and “So judge among them by what Allāh has revealed, and do not follow their vain desires.” [Al-Mā'idah: 49].

Meaning follow the Sharī'ah of Tawhīd, and not the legislations of shirk, kufr, nifāq, and riddah. So refer to “Sabīl An-Najāb”.

³²³ Khanf: fear, cowardice.

³²⁵ Mudābanāb: compromising, flattery, adulation, hypocrisy, deceit.

³²⁶ The Imāms differentiated between Mudārāb and Mudābanāb. Displaying Mudārāb to the musbrīkīn is excusable if there are specific excuses, which are mentioned in the Nusūs (Texts). Refer to “Ad-Durar As-Saniyyab” (5/35). And also “Al-Ghurābā” (70) of Al-Ājurrī.

The word Mudābanāb is used in the following Verse with the meaning “compromise”:

“So (O Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم) do not obey the deniers (of Tawhīd). They wish that you would compromise with them, so they (too) could compromise with you.” [Al-Qalam: 8-9]

Al-Hāfīth Ibn Hajar Al-‘Asqalānī says in “Fat’h Al-Bārī” (10/454): “Al-Qurtubī said, following ‘Iyyādh: The difference between Mudārāb and Mudābanāb is- Mudārāb includes sacrificing a worldly matter for the uprightness of either another worldly matter or a matter of Dīn, or both together. And Mudābanāb is forsaking a matter of the Dīn for the stability of the worldly matters.” And in (10/528), he mentions: “Ibn Battāl said: Mudārāb is the respect of the Muslims (towards fellow Muslims), and being courteous to the people, by speaking to them politely, and avoiding talking harshly with them- and this is one of the strongest ways to stay united. Some people think that Mudārāb is Mudābanāb, but this is incorrect... The difference is that Mudābanāb derives itself from Dihān (deceit, lit. rubbing oil) - in the sense that one displays something (of behavior), while hiding what is really inside him. And the scholars have explained it with the like of ‘companionship with a fāsiq (rebellious, disobedient, sinful person) and outwardly displaying satisfaction with what he is upon, without prohibiting him from that’. As for Mudārāb, it is being soft with an ignorant person while teaching him, or with a fāsiq (who is Muslim) when prohibiting him, and not being harsh upon him with either speech or action- especially if it can lead to unity.”

³²⁷ This is a refutation of the Murji’ab, who say that if the collaborator “hates kufrī” and “loves Islām”- then such a person is still a Muslim.

³²⁸ Shaykh Ibn Bāz رحمه الله says in his “Majmū’ Al-Fatāwā” (1/274), “The ‘Ulamā of Islām are united upon the fact that whosoever aids the kuḥfār against the Muslims, collaborates with them with any type of assistance, then that person is a kaḥfīr just like them.”

becomes from the soldiers of shirk and the *Qibāb*³²⁹ and its people³³⁰ - after he was from the Soldiers of *Ikbālā*³³¹ and Tawhīd and its people?

Regarding such a person, no Muslim will doubt that such is a kaḥfīr- from amongst the most severe of people in their enmity against Allāh and His Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم. And none is an exception to this, except the Mukrah.³³²

[WHO IS THE MUKRAH?]³³³

And he is the one who has been captured by the mushrikūn, then they say to him “Commit kufr! Or do such and such... If you don't, we will do such and such to you and kill you.” Or they take him and torture him until he agrees with them. So it is permissible for him to agree with them with the tongue, while the heart is calm upon Īmān.³³⁴

³²⁹ Domes (on top of graves, tombs, or mausoleums, or on the top of palaces and government buildings). The singular form is- Qubbah, meaning -dome.

³³¹ Sincerity, Purity from shirk and its people and being far removed from them.

³³² Derived from “Ikrāb” meaning “force, coercion, compulsion, etc.” “Mukrah” literally means “one who is forced, coerced...” Only this type of person is excused because of the Verse:

“Whoever commits kufr against Allāh after his Īmān (in Allāh), excluding he who is forced thereto while his heart is at rest with Īmān; but such who open their breasts to kufr, on them is wrath from Allāh, and theirs will be a great torment. That is because they loved and preferred the life of this world over that of the Hereafter. And Allāh does not guide the people who are kāfirīn.” [An-Nahl: 106-107]

Imām Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdil-Wahhāb رحمه الله says regarding this Verse, “[After mentioning the Verse] So Allāh did not excuse anyone except the Mukrah whose heart is firm upon Īmān and Tawhīd. And it is known by necessity that it is impossible to coerce someone to change his beliefs; but it is possible to change his speech and actions. So this Verse has clarified that whoever utters a word of kufr, or does an action of kufr- then he has indeed become a kaḥfīr- with the exclusion of the Mukrah who is firm upon Tawhīd in his heart. And as mentioned in the Verse, he became a kaḥfīr because he preferred the worldly life (Dunyā), not because he changed his beliefs.” See “Tārīkh Ibn Ghannām” (344).

³³³ Also see Shaykh Abū Basīr’s “Hālāt Yajūzu Fihā Ith’bār Al-Kufr”, “The Situations in which it is Permissible to Display Kufr”. And one of these situations was when the Companion Muhammad Ibn Maslamah رضي الله عنه had to say things which were derogatory to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم in order to get close enough to kill the Tāghūt, Ka’b Ibn Al-Ashraf. So the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم allowed him to say these statements in order to deceive the mushrikīn into thinking that he (Ibn Maslamah) was actually one of them (the kuḥfār)- and when the moment came, he completed the mission for which he was sent (i.e. to assassinate the Tāghūt). Also see “Tabrīdh Al-Mujāhidīn Al-Abtāl ‘Alā Ihyā’ Sunnat Al-Igthiyāl” by Shaykh Abū Jandal (Fāris Az-Zahrānī) Al-Azdī فلك الله أسره.

³³⁴ It is permissible, not obligatory. It is better and more virtuous (Afdhal) for the Mukrah to be patient and stand unwaveringly upon Tawhīd- especially if he is a person of ‘Ilm, so as to be a model for others. As is mentioned in the Hadīth of Abū Ad-Dardā’, “My friend (the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم)

And the Ulamā have formed consensus upon the fact that whoever utters a word of kufir jokingly, that he has disbelieved. So what would the ruling be regarding the one who displays kufir because of fear and greed for worldly gains?³³⁵

And I shall mention some of the evidences upon that, with the assistance of Allāh and His Aid.

[THE EVIDENCES AGAINST THE COLLABORATOR]

* The First Evidence *

The Statement of Allāh (Most High):

“And never will the Jews nor the Christians be pleased with you, until you follow their religion.”³³⁶ advised me with ‘Do not commit shirk, even if you are dismembered or burned?’ Narrated by Ibn Mājah, Al-Bayhaqī, see ‘Sahih At-Targhib’ (566). Also the famous Hadith, ‘Three types of people will taste the sweetness of Imān... and (among these three is) the one who hates to return back to kufir, just as he would hate to be thrown into a blazing fire.’ Narrated by Al-Bukhārī and Muslim.

³³⁵ Shaykh Sālih Al-Fawzān says: “So in summary, those who commit kufir do not exceed out of four situations:

- a) He believes in his heart in what he says. There is no doubt about his kufir (disbelief/infidelity/ apostasy).
- b) He does not believe in his heart in what he says, but he was not forced to say it. Rather he said it because of greediness for the worldly life, or to please the people and be in harmony with them. So indeed this person is a kāfir according to the Verse of the Qur’an

“That is because they loved and preferred the life of this world over that of the Hereafter”.

And likewise is the ruling on the person who commits kufir or shirk, so that he can be in harmony with his people- even if he does not like kufir nor shirk, and does not believe in it; but only does it because of his love for his country, wealth, or relatives.

- c) He utters words of kufir jokingly, for amusement- as was seen from the troops mentioned before. [see the Tafāsīr of the Verse in At-Tawbah: 65-66.]
- d) He says (or commits) kufir because he was coerced, not because of his own choice, while his heart is firm upon Imān and Tawhīd. So this is someone who will be pardoned, because he was under coercion.

As for the first three situations, the person becomes a kāfir, as is clear from the Verses. And this refutes those who say that no one can be declared a kāfir, even if he speaks with kufir or does actions of kufir, until what it is in his heart is known. And this is an evil saying which contradicts the Qur’an and Sunnah. Rather, this saying is from the heretical Murji’ah.” “Sharh Kashf Ash-Shubuhāt” (163-164).

³³⁶ Al-Baqarab: 120

So He (Most High) has informed that the Jews and the Christians, and likewise the mushrikūn, would never be satisfied with the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم until he would follow their religion, and bear witness that they are upon the Truth.

Then He said,

“Say: ‘Verily, the Guidance of Allāh - that is the (only) Guidance.’ And if you were to follow their desires after what you have received of Knowledge (i.e. Qur’ān), then you would have against Allāh neither any protector nor any helper.”³³⁷

And in another Verse:

“...Then indeed you will be one of the *Thālimīn*³³⁸ (wrong-doers).”³³⁹

So if the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم followed their religion - only externally, without the belief of the heart,³⁴⁰ rather out of Khanf from their evil and out of Mudābanah - he would have been one of the Thālimīn. So what about the one who displays to the worshippers of the *Qubūr*³⁴¹ and the Qibāb, that they are upon Truth and correct guidance? Indeed, they wouldn't be satisfied except by this!

³³⁷ Al-Baqarab: 120

³³⁸ This word means “those who do Thulm”- which means oppression, wrongdoing, etc. And the worst form of Thulm is mentioned in the Verse

“Verily, committing shirk is a Great Thulm.” [Luqman: 13]

And also in the Verse

“And invoke not besides Allāh any such thing that will neither profit you nor harm you; but if (in case) you did so- you shall certainly be one of the Thālimīn.” [Yunus: 106]

And also in the Verse

“And whosoever does not judge by that which Allāh has revealed, such are the Thālimūn.” [Al-Mā'idab: 45].

³³⁹ Al-Baqarab: 145

³⁴⁰ Since he has received knowledge from Allāh, it would be impossible for the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to believe in other than Islām.

³⁴¹ Graves, tombs, mausoleums, etc.

 The Second Evidence ***

The Statement of Allāh (Most High):

“And they will never cease fighting you until they turn you back from your Dīn (Islām), if they can. And whosoever of you turns back from his Dīn, and dies as a kāfir, then his deeds will be lost in this life and in the Hereafter. And they will be the dwellers of the Fire. They will abide therein forever.”³⁴²

So He (Most High) informs that the kuffār will never cease fighting the Muslims until they turn them back from their Dīn- if they are able to so.

And He did not permit harmonizing with the kuffār out of fear for one's life, wealth, and sanctity. Rather, He has informed about whoever harmonizes with them after they have fought him - in order to repel their evil - that he is a murtadd (apostate). So if he dies upon his Riddah (apostasy) after the mushrikūn have fought him, then he is from the People of the Fire who will eternally be in it.

So what about the person who harmonizes with the mushrikīn without even being fought? So if there is no excuse for the one who harmonizes with them after he has been fought – then you know that the ones who go to them and rush to be in harmony with them - without any fear or fighting - that they are even less worthy of having an excuse; and that they are kuffār, murtaddīn.

 The Third Evidence ***

His - (Blessed and Most High is He) - Statement:

“Let not the Mu'minūn take the kāfirīn as Awliyā'”³⁴³ instead of the Mu'minīn - and whosoever does that then he will never be helped by Allāh in any way, except if you indeed fear a danger from them.”³⁴⁴

So He (Glory Be to Him) has prohibited the Mu'minīn from taking the kāfirīn as Awliyā', friends, and companions instead of the Mu'minīn - even if they are afraid of them. And He informed that whosoever does that “then he will never be helped by Allāh in any way”: in other words, he will never be from the Awliyā' of Allāh who are promised salvation in the ³⁴³ Awliyā': friends, allies, supporters, helpers, protectors, etc. The singular form is Walī: friend, etc.

³⁴² Al-Baqarab: 217

³⁴⁴ Al 'Imrān: 28

Hereafter. “Except if you indeed fear a danger from them”: and it is that the person is subjugated by them, and is not capable of being hostile against them, and thus displays companionship towards them,³⁴⁵ while his heart is still firm upon Baghdhā' and 'Adāwab,³⁴⁶ waiting for the preventative factor to cease - and once it ceases, he returns back to 'Adāwab and Baghdhā'.

So how about the one who takes them as Awliyā' instead of the Mu'minīn without any excuse - except that he preferred the life of this world rather than the Hereafter, and because he feared the mushrikīn, rather than fearing Allāh? Allāh has not made “Khawf” (fear) from them an acceptable excuse. Rather, He (Most High) has said:

“It is only Shaytān that suggests to you to fear his Awliyā' (i.e. mushrikūn); so fear them not, but fear Me (Alone), if you are Mu'minīn.”³⁴⁷

³⁴⁵ But this does not mean that it is allowed to help the kuffār against the Muslims (Muthābarab). For Ikrāb (coercion), if it is truly coercion, then it is permissible to say words of kufri, and do actions of kufri- as long as it does not involve hurting another Muslim; and if it does involve hurting another Muslim, then it is not permissible according to Ijmā'- for he is not allowed to kill another brother for the sake of his own life. An-Nawawī رحمه الله says, “As for killing (a Muslim), then it is not permissible even under Ikrāb- according to Ijmā'.” [Al-Minhāj Sharh Sahīb Muslim Ibn Al-Hajjāj 18/16-17]. Ibn Rajab Al-Hanbalī رحمه الله said, “The scholars are united upon the fact that if someone is (being) coerced to kill a Muslim- then it is (still) not permissible to kill him. Because he has actually chosen to kill that other person in order to save his own life from being killed. And this has Ijmā' of the scholars that it is transgression.” [Jāmi' Al-Ulūmi Wal-Hikam 2/371]. Shaykh Al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah رحمه الله said regarding those who are coerced by the Tatārs to help them against the Muslims, “Even if he is coerced to fight (against the Muslims) in this time of tribulation, it is still not permissible for him to fight. Rather, it is obligatory that he destroys his weapons, and be patient until he is martyred... There is no doubt that it is obligatory upon him that, if he is forced to be present (on the battlefield), that he does not fight- even if the Muslims end up killing him... Indeed it is not permissible for him to kill another Muslim according to consensus. So if he is coerced and threatened that he will be killed unless he kills another Muslim- then it is still not permissible for him to kill someone for the sake of not being killed himself. It is not permissible to oppress someone for the sake of not being killed himself.” [Majmū' Al-Fatāwā 28/538-539]. Also refer to the end of the Sharh by Shaykh 'Alī Ash-Khudhayr on “Kashf Ash-Shubuhāt”, entitled “At-Tawdbīb Wa At-Tatimmāt”, for he has explained this thoroughly.

³⁴⁶ Baghdhā': Hatred. 'Adāwab: Hostility, Enmity. As appears in the Verse:

“There has indeed been an excellent example for you in Ibrāhīm and those with him, when they said to their people: ‘Verily, we are free from you and whatever you worship besides Allāh. We have rejected you and there has emerged between us and you, hostility and hatred forever, until you believe in Allāh alone.’” [Al-Mumtāhīn: 4]

³⁴⁷ Al 'Imrān: 175. And He also says,

 The Fourth Evidence ***

The statement of Allāh (Most High):

“O you who Believe! If you obey those who disbelieved, they will send you back on your heels, then you will turn back (from Īmān) as losers.”³⁴⁸

So He (Most High) informed that if the Mu'minīn obey the kuffār, then there is no doubt that they would turn them back on their heels away from Islām. Because indeed, they are not satisfied with them with anything less than kufr.

And He informed that if they do that, they would become losers in this world and in the Hereafter, and he did not permit harmonizing and obeying them due to Khanf from them.

And this is the current situation - they are not content with those who agree with them unless they testify that they are upon the Truth, display Hostility and Hatred against the Muslims, and cut off assistance to them.³⁴⁹

Then He states:

“Nay, Allāh is your Mawlā,³⁵⁰ and He is the Best of helpers.”³⁵¹

So He (Most High), informs that Allāh is the Mawlā of the Mu'minīn and their Helper, and that He is the Best of Helpers. So in allegiance to Him and being under His obedience is enough provision and (it) is sufficient against obedience to the kuffār.

Alas for the slaves! Those who knew Tawhīd and were raised upon it and took it as their Dīn for a time; How they departed from the allegiance of the Lord of the Worlds, the Best of “Therefore do not fear men, but fear Me- and do not sell My Verses for a miserable price.”

[Al-Mā'idab: 44].

This is a clear refutation from the Qur'an against those who allow selling the Verses of Allāh for the sake of fear and worldly desires. And keep on repeating this paragraph many times, and you will understand the evilness of the Qusūriyyah and the Murjī'ah.

³⁴⁸ Āl 'Imrān: 149

³⁴⁹ And this is the current situation - the Zionists and Crusaders are not content with the Muslims, unless they testify that the Zionists and Crusaders are upon infinite justice, display Hostility and Hatred against the Mujāhidīn, and cut off assistance to them. Thus, becoming apostates, out of the fold of Islām.

³⁵⁰ Patron, Lord, Helper, Protector

³⁵¹ Āl 'Imrān: 150

Helpers - to the allegiance of the Qibāb and its people; and were satisfied with it in exchange of the Allegiance of the One in Whose Hand is the sovereignty of everything?!

“What an evil exchange for the Thālimīn!” ³⁵²

 The Fifth Evidence ***

His - (Most High is He) - Statement:

“Is the one who follows the good Pleasure of Allāh, like the one who draws on himself the Wrath of Allāh? And his abode is Hell- and worst, indeed, is that destination!” ³⁵³

So He (Most High) has informed that not equal is the one who follows the Pleasure of Allāh and the one who follows the Wrath of Allāh and whose destination will be the Fire on the Day of Resurrection.

And there is no doubt that directing Tbādab to Ar-Rahmān ³⁵⁴ Alone, and supporting it, and the fact that the individual is from its people, is from the Pleasure of Allāh. And (there is no doubt) that directing Tbādab to the Qibāb and the dead people, and supporting it, and being from amongst its people is from that which angers Allāh. ³⁵⁵

So not equal with Allāh are those who support His Tawbīd, and His Da'wab with Iklās, and are from the Mu'minīn; and those who support shirk and (support) the supplicating to the dead, and are from the mushrikīn.

So if they say, “(Our excuse is that) we were scared!” It will be said to them, “You have lied.” And also, “Allāh has not made Khanf (fear) an excuse to follow that which angers Him and abandoning that which pleases Him. And many of the People of Falsehood only forsake the Truth because of fear that their worldly things will leave them; otherwise, they still recognize the Truth and believe ³⁵⁶ in it ³⁵⁷ - but despite this, they were not Muslims.”

³⁵² Al-Kahf: 50. Alas for mankind! How the ones who once understood Tawbīd and were raised upon it and took it as their Dīn for such a long time; How they departed from the Protection of the Lord of the worlds, the Best of helpers, and went to the protection of the cross and its crusaders... What an evil exchange for the murtaddīn...

³⁵⁴ One of the Names of Allāh, meaning “The Most-Compassionate, Merciful, Gracious”.

³⁵⁵ And along with this, there is no doubt that directing Tbādab to the rulers and the Zionists and Crusaders, helping these people, and siding with them against the Muwabbhidīn- this is something which angers Allāh.

³⁵⁶ The Arabic word used is “Ya'taqidūn”- derived from the words 'Aqīdah and I'tiqād.

³⁵⁷ As Allāh mentions regarding Fir'awn rejecting Mūsā and Hārūn (peace be upon both of them):

 The Sixth Evidence ***

His - (Most High is He) - Statement:

“Verily! As for those whom the Angels take (in death) while they are wronging themselves {as they stayed among the mushrikīn even though emigration³⁵⁸ was obligatory for them}, they (Angels) say (to them): ‘In what (condition) were you?’³⁵⁹

In other words “Which group were you in? In the faction of the Muslims, or in the faction of the mushrikīn?”

So because they were not in the faction of the Muslims, they put forth the excuse that they were weak and oppressed; but the Angels did not excuse them - and they said to them:

“Was not the Earth of Allāh spacious enough for you to emigrate therein?” Such men will find their abode in Hell- and what an evil destination!”³⁶⁰

And no one with intellect will doubt that the people of the countries that have rebelled against the Muslims – (those people) are with the mushrikīn, in their group and in their community (Jamā'ah).

This, even though the Verse was sent down regarding some people of Makkah who had embraced Islām, but did not emigrate (i.e. did not do Hijrah).³⁶¹ So when the mushrikūn went out to Badr, they forced these Muslims to join their ranks; so, out of fear, they went out.

“And they belied them wrongfully and arrogantly - even though their own selves were convinced (had Yaqīn) thereof. So see what was the end of the Mufsidīn (kuffār, evil-doers) [An-Naml: 14]

³⁵⁸ Hijrah

³⁵⁹ An-Nisā': 97

³⁶⁰ An-Nisā': 97. And another relevant Verse,

“O My slaves who believe! Certainly, spacious is My Earth- therefore worship Me Alone.” [Al-'Ankabūt: 56]

³⁶¹ As in the verse:

“And as for those who have believed but did not emigrate, you owe no duty of protection to them until they emigrate.” [Al-Anfāl: 72]

So the Muslims (who had emigrated to Madīnah) killed them on the Day of Badr; and after they found out that they had killed them they became regretful, and said, “We have killed our own brothers!” So Allāh revealed this Verse regarding them.³⁶²

So what about the people of the countries, those who used to be upon Islām, then removed its yoke from their necks and showed harmony to the people of shirk regarding their Dīn, and they entered under their obedience, and they gave them shelter and supported them; and they abandoned the People of Tawhīd, and followed other than their path; and they declared them to be mistaken, and it became wide spread amongst them (the mushrikeen) the swearing at them (the Muslims), insulting them, shaming them, ridiculing them; and mocking them because of the fact that they are firm upon their Tawhīd and in their patience upon it and upon Jihād in its cause; and they aided them against the People of Tawhīd - voluntarily, not out of coercion; willingly, and not out of compulsion!?

So those ones are more deserving of being labeled with “kuffr”- and worthier of being thrown into the Fire - than those who did not do Hijrah because of their extreme attachment to their homeland and out of fear from the kuffār, and who went out in their army under compulsion and fear.

And if someone were to ask, “Wasn’t *Ikrāh*³⁶³ an excuse for those who were killed on the Day of Badr, for them to go out (along with the mushrikeen against the Muslims)?”

Then it shall be replied, “It was not accepted because they had no excuse in the beginning of the matter, when they had (chosen to) settle themselves amongst the kuffār; so they are not excused after that due to Ikrāh, because they (themselves) are the reason for that (i.e. they were the ones who chose to be amongst the mushrikeen in the beginning), as they resided with them and abandoned the Hijrah (due to their own decision).”

 The Seventh Evidence ***

His - (Most High is He) - Statement:

“And it has already been revealed to you in the Book (Qur’ān) that when you hear the Verses of Allāh being denied and mocked, then do not sit with them, until they engage in a talk other than that; (but if you stayed with them) certainly in that case you would be (just) like them.”³⁶⁴

³⁶² Narrated by Al-Bukhārī (4596, 7085), An-Nasā’ī in his “As-Sunan Al-Kubrā” “Kitāb At-Tafsīr”, as is in “Tuhfat Al-Asbrāf” (5/166), At-Tabarī in his Tafsīr (5/234), Al-Bayhaqī in his “As-Sunan Al-Kubrā” (9/12), At-Tabarānī in “Al-Ansāl” and Ibn Rāhawayh and Al-Ismā’īlī and Ibn Al-Munthir as is in “Fat’h Al-Bārī” (8/263), Ibn Abī Hātim and Ibn Mardawayh as is in “Ad-Durr Al-Manthūr” (2/206), Al-Bazzār in his “Musnad” as is in Al-Haythamī’s “Mujma’ Aḥ-Zawā’id” (7/10).

³⁶⁴ An-Nisā’: 140

So He (Blessed and Most High is He) mentioned that He has sent down a Command upon the Mu'minīn, in the Book, ³⁶⁵ that when they hear the Verses of Allāh being denied and ridiculed, that they should not sit with them until they discuss something else; and that whosoever sits with those disbelieving in the Verses of Allāh and mocking them, at the time of their kufr and mockery, then that person is just like them. And He did not differentiate between the *Khā'if*³⁶⁶ or other than him- except the Mukrah.

This was when they were all in one single country, during the dawn of Islām. So what about the one who is in the spaciousness, dignity, and various countries of Islām - and then he invites the kāfirīn and mockers of the Ayāt of Allāh, to come to his countries, and accepts them as allies, companions, and associates; and he hears their kufr and their mockery and consents to it - and expels the People of Tawhīd, and keeps them far away?! ³⁶⁷

 The Eighth Evidence ***

His - (Most High is He) - Statement:

“O you who believe! Do not take the Jews and Christians as Awliyā'. They are but Awliyā' of each other. And if any amongst you takes them as Awliyā', then surely he is one of them. Verily, Allāh guides not those people who are the Thālimīn.^{368, 369}”

³⁶⁵ “The prohibition that this Verse is referring to is:

‘And when you (O Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم) see those who engage in a false conversation about Our Verses (of the Qur'ān by mocking at them), then stay away from them until they turn to another topic. And if Shaytān causes you to forget, then after the remembrance, do not sit in the company of those people who are the Thālimīn.’ [Al-An'ām. 68]”

Refer to “Tafsīr Al-Qur'ān Al-'Athim” by Ibn Kathīr (1/567).

³⁶⁶ Someone with Khanf.

³⁶⁷ SubhānAllāh! It is as if the Imām was speaking about today - regarding those who beg the Zionists and Crusaders to come to the Land of Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم, and beg them to occupy the Peninsula, and beg them to kill the Mumabhidīn...

³⁶⁸ The Companion Huthayfah رضي الله عنه said, “Each of you should fear that he might become a Jew or Christian while not even knowing it,” and then he recited “And if any amongst you takes them as Awliyā', then surely he is one of them”. Refer to “Ad-Durr Al-Manthūr” (3/100).

³⁶⁹ Al-Mā'idah: 51. In Verse 52-53, Allāh clarifies even more,

“And you see in those in whose hearts there is a disease (of hypocrisy), they hurry to their friendship, saying: ‘We fear lest some misfortune of a disaster may befall us.’ ... And those

So He (Glory be to Him) has forbidden the Mu'minin from taking the Jews and Christians as Awliyā'.

And He informed that whosoever from amongst the Mu'minin allies himself with them, then he is one of them.³⁷⁰ And likewise is the ruling upon whosoever allies himself with the kuffār, from the Majūs and idol worshippers – then he is one of them.

And if someone was to argue, that directing Tbādah to the Qibāb and calling upon the dead saints is not shirk - and that its people are not mushrikūn; Then his matter has become apparent³⁷¹ -and his arrogance and kufr have become clear.

And He (Blessed and Most High is He) has not differentiated between the Khā'if and other than him. Rather, He (Most High) informed³⁷² that those who have a disease in their hearts do that out of fear of calamity.³⁷³

And likewise is the condition of those murtaddīn - they were afraid of calamity. And whatever remained in their hearts of Īmān in the Truthful Promise of Allāh, to give Victory to the People of Tawhid was removed.³⁷⁴ So they went quickly and raced to the people of shirk, out of fear of calamity.

He (Most High) said, who have Īmān will say, “Are these the men (hypocrites) who swore their strongest oaths by Allāh that they were with you (O Muslims)?” All that they did has been in futility, so they have become losers.”

³⁷⁰ Regarding the Verse “And if any amongst you takes them as Awliyā' {Tawallā}, then surely he is one of them” [Al-Mā'idah: 51]- Al-'Allamah Ibn Hazm رحمه الله said in “Al-Muhallā” (11/138): “It is correct that this Verse is only to be taken literally, meaning that he is a kāfir from the group of the kuffār; and this is the Truth, not even two Muslims will disagree on this issue.”

³⁷¹ By arguing on behalf of those who worship other than Allāh, he has become from amongst their Awliyā'.

³⁷² In Al-Mā'idah: 52, Allāh has informed regarding them,

“And you see in those in whose hearts there is a disease (of hypocrisy), they hurry to their friendship, saying: ‘We fear lest some misfortune of a disaster may befall us.’”

³⁷³ Again, the Imām clarifies that fear and Khawf are not excuses, rather the collaborator still apostatizes, which is a clear refutation against the neo-Murj'iah...

³⁷⁴ And it is known that coercion does not ever change the beliefs in the heart (such as loving Islām, hating kufr, etc.)- so it must be even more obvious that mere ‘fear’ does not change the beliefs of the heart. So the one who is afraid of the kuffār still might “love Islām” and “hate kufr”- but yet the Imām describes them as “murtaddīn” since their Īmān ceases to exist- when they collaborate with the kuffār against the Muslims.

“Perhaps Allāh may bring a victory or a decision according to His Will. Then they would become regretful for what they have been keeping as a secret in themselves.”

 The Ninth Evidence ***

His - (Most High is He) - Statement:

“You see many of them taking those who have disbelieved as Awliyā'. Evil indeed is that which their ownelves have sent forth before them; for that (reason) Allāh's Wrath fell upon them, and in the Torment they will abide forever.” ³⁷⁶

So He (Most High) has made clear that merely having Muwālāt ³⁷⁷ with the kuffār, necessitates the Wrath of Allāh and eternity in torment, ³⁷⁸ even if the person is Khā'if. (None is excused from this ruling) except the Mukrah, with its (real) conditions.

So what if this was combined with clear, open kufr, and it is hostility towards Tawhid and its people, cooperating and assisting to eradicate the worshipping of Allāh only, and to establish the worshipping of other than Him? ³⁷⁹

 The Tenth Evidence ***

His - (Most High is He) - Statement:

³⁷⁵ Al-Mā'idab: 52

³⁷⁶ Al-Mā'idab: 80

³⁷⁷ Linguistically: Friendship, Befriending, Alliance, Loyalty, etc.

³⁷⁸ Although there is small difference linguistically, the Imāms have differentiated between “Tawallī” and “Muwālāt”. See “Awthaq 'Urā Al-Īmān” (133), and “Ad-Durar As-Saniyyab” (5/201).

The Muwālāt mentioned in this last sentence is in its linguistic meaning, not its Shar'i (legislative) meaning. In the Shar'ah, the Imāms have distinguished the meanings of the two- Tawallī means “loyalty, alliance, etc.”; while Muwālāt means “friendship, befriending, etc.”

Thus, Muwālāt is more general, while Tawallī is more specific. It should be noted that every type of Tawallī is Muwālāt; but not every type of Muwālāt is Tawallī. Also refer to the Appendix at the end of this translation, entitled “The Dividing Border Between Muwālāt and Tawallī”. Note: There is an opinion that this type of terminology is incorrect, and that the sayings and actions that have been deemed to be Muwālāt Sughbrā, or minor allegiance, are not actually allegiance at all. Those who take this opinion say that when people started calling these actions Muwālāt or Tawallī, then there was a need to differentiate them from the sayings and actions that remove one from Islām, so the differentiation between Tawallī and Muwālāt was introduced. A further discussion on this will be mentioned in the section entitled “The Dividing Border Between Muwālāt and Tawallī”.

³⁷⁹ And what about cooperating and assisting to eradicate His Legislation Alone - the Qur'an and Sunnah - and helping to establish the legislations which oppose His- such as the fabricated man-made laws, or the Yāsiq?

“And had they believed in Allāh, and in the Prophet, and in what has been revealed to him- they would have never taken them (the kuffār) as Awliyā'. But many of them are Fāsiqūn.”³⁸⁰

So He (Most High) mentioned that Muwālāt of the kuffār is something which invalidates Īmān in Allāh, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, and that which was revealed to him. Then He informed that the reason for that (that they took the kuffār as Awliyā') is because of the fact that many of them are fāsiqūn. And He did not differentiate between the one who feared calamities, and the one who didn't fear. And similar is the condition of many of the murtaddeen (today) - before their apostasy, many of them were fāsiqūn. So that (fīsq/rebellion) dragged them into allying with the kuffār, and riddah from Islām. We seek refuge with Allāh from that.

 The Eleventh Evidence ***

His - (Most High is He) - Statement:

“And certainly, the Shayātīn (devils) do inspire their Awliyā' (from mankind) to dispute with you, and if you obey them, then you would indeed be mushrikūn.”³⁸¹

And this Verse was sent down when the mushrikūn said to the Muslims “You eat from that which you killed, but you don't eat from which Allāh has killed!?” So Allāh revealed this Verse.³⁸²

So if the one who obeyed the mushrikūn by permitting Maytab [a dead animal], became a mushrik - without any differentiation between the Khā'if and other than him, except the Mukrab; then what about the one who obeys them in permitting their Muwālāt,³⁸³ being with them, aiding them, bearing witness that they are upon the Truth, permitting the (spilling of the) blood of the Muslims and (the seizing of) their wealth, and leaving the Faction of the Muslims, and joining the faction of the mushrikūn!?

Indeed those ones are more deserving of kufir and shirk, compared to those who agreed with them in permitting the Maytab.

³⁸⁰ Al-Mā'idah: 81

³⁸¹ Al-An'ām: 121

³⁸² Narrated by Ibn 'Abbās رضي الله عنهما, see Abū Dāwūd in his “Sunan” (2818), An-Nasā'ī in “Al-Mujtabā'” (7/237), At-Tirmithī in “Al-Jami'” and he said: “Hasan Gharīb” (3069), Al-Hākim in “Al-Mustadrak” (4/233), At-Tabarī in his Tafsīr (8/17), Al-Bayhaqī in “As-Sunan Al-Kubrā'” (9/241); and Al-Furyābī, Ibn Abī Shaybah, 'Abd Ibn Humayd, Ibn Al-Munthir, Ibn Abī Hātim, An-Nuhās, Abū Ash-Shaykh, Ibn Mardawayh, and At-Tabarānī as appears in “Ad-Durr Al-Manthūr” (3/43).

³⁸³ So remember this question and its answer- O Brother of Tawhīd! What is the ruling regarding those who allow Muthāharah to the kuffār for the mere sake of “Khanf”?

 The Twelfth Evidence ***

His - (Most High is He) - Statement:

“And recite to them (O Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم) the story of him to whom We gave Our Verses, but he threw them away; so Shaytān followed him up, and he became of those who went astray.”³⁸⁴

And this Verse was revealed regarding a devout and pious ‘Alim (scholar) during the time of the Children of Isrā’īl, whose name is accounted as Bal’ām.³⁸⁵ He used to know Al-Ism Al-A’tham.³⁸⁶

Ibn Abī Talhah³⁸⁷ reported on the authority of Ibn ‘Abbās رضي الله عنهما: “When Mūsā عليه السلام came to them – in other words upon the Jabbarīn,³⁸⁸ the children of his uncles and his people came to him and said, “Indeed Mūsā عليه السلام is a very strong man, and he has with him many warriors. And if he were to conquer us, he will destroy us. So call upon Allāh and ask Him to turn Mūsā and those with him away from us.” So Bal’ām replied, “Indeed, if I supplicate to Allāh against Mūsā عليه السلام, I would lose in this world and in the Hereafter.” But they kept on urging him until he supplicated for them. So Allāh cast him away from what (righteousness) he was upon; and that is His saying, “...but he threw them away; so Shaytān followed him up, and he became of those who went astray.”³⁸⁹ And Ibn Zayd

³⁸⁴ Al-A’raf: 175

³⁸⁵ Bal’ām Ibn Bā’ūrā’, and in other accounts as “Bal’am” without the Alif. And in another account, Bal’ām Ibn ‘Āmir. See At-Tabarī in his Tafsīr (13/257), and Al-Hākim in “Al-Mustadrak” (2/325).

³⁸⁶ Literally “The Greatest Name” (of Allāh).

³⁸⁷ He is Abū Al-Hasan ‘Alī Ibn Sālim, a servant of Ibn ‘Abbās رضي الله عنهما. He died in the year 143. See “At-Taqrīb” (402).

³⁸⁸ Literally “people of great strength”. These people are mentioned in the Verses of Al-Mā’idah: 20-26.

³⁸⁹ Narrated by Ibn Al-Munthir, and Ibn Abī Hātim, as appears in “Ad-Durr Al-Manthūr” (3/145), on the authority of Ibn ‘Abbās رضي الله عنهما. Al-Hāfiṭh Ibn Kathīr رحمه الله says in his Tafsīr (2/65), “This is what is prominent regarding the reason (Sabab) this noble Verse was sent down. And strange, rather far off, rather mistaken is the claim of the person that says “He was given Prophethood, but then he threw that away.” Note: The chain that includes ‘Alī Ibn Abī Talhah from Ibn ‘Abbās is considered weak, as ‘Alī Ibn Abī Talhah never met Ibn ‘Abbās. Ibn Hajar said in “Taqrīb At-Tab’thīb” (4754): “‘Alī Ibn Abī Talhah Sālim, he was the servant of the children of Al-‘Abbās, he lived in Homs. He narrated from Ibn ‘Abbās as Mursal and he did not meet him.” He also mentioned in “Tab’thīb At-Tab’thīb” (474), when mentioning those who narrated from Ibn ‘Abbās, he said: “And ‘Alī Ibn Abī Talhah as Mursal.” Also, Ibn Hajar رحمه الله said in “Fat’h Al-Bārī” (7/189), “And Ibn Mardawayh narrated with a strong chain, from ‘Abdullāh Ibn ‘Amr Ibn Al-‘Ās that he said about His Statement: “And recite to them (O Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم) the story of him to whom We gave Our Verses, but he threw them away” He said: ‘It was revealed regarding Umayyah Ibn Abī As-Salt.’”

³⁹⁰ said, “His whims and desires were with his people,” - meaning the ones who fought against Mūsā عليه السلام and his people.

So He (Most High) has mentioned the affair of this traitor who forsook the Verses of Allāh; after Allāh had given it to him, even though he understood it and was from its people- but then “he threw them away”, meaning he abandoned acting upon it. And it was mentioned that his “abandonment of the Verses of Allāh” means- assisting the mushrikīn and supporting them with his opinion, with the Du'ā against Mūsā عليه السلام and his followers that Allāh turn them away from his people, due to his Khanf and sympathy for his people; even though he knew the Truth and was sure of it, spoke with it, and testified for it, and worshipped (Allāh). But his obedience to his people and his relatives and his desires, and his clinging to the Earth, kept him from acting upon it - and this was “abandonment of the Verses of Allāh”.

And this is what is present in those murtaddīn, and even worse. Because verily Allāh has bestowed upon them His Verses which contain the commands of His Tawhīd, and calling upon Him Alone without any partners; and the prohibitions against shirk with Him and calling upon other than Him; and the commandment for Muwālāt with the Mu'minīn, loving them and aiding them, holding fast to the Rope of Allāh all together, being with the Mu'minīn; and the commandment for the hostility against the mushrikīn, hating them, waging Jihād against them, and abandoning them; and the commandment for the demolition of the statues, the elimination of prostitution, homosexuality, and all abominable things. And they recognize and accept that (these orders are from Allāh), but yet then they abandon all of that. Surely, they are more worthy of being labeled with “abandoning the Verses of Allāh”, more deserving of being labeled with kufr and riddah than Bal'ām- or (at the very least) they are exactly like him. ³⁹¹

 The Thirteenth Evidence ***

His - (Most High is He) - Statement:

“And do not incline toward those who do wrong (Thulm), lest the Fire should touch you- and you have no protectors other than Allāh, nor would you then be helped.” ³⁹²

So He (Most High) mentioned that inclination toward the wrong-doers from the kuffār and the Thalimīn necessitates touching the Fire; and He did not differentiate between the one from them who is in Khanf or otherwise- except the Mukrah.

So how about the person who takes inclination towards them as his way of life, or as a good idea; and assists them with whatever he can from wealth and advice; and he desires to see an end to Tanbīd and its people, and (to see) the people of shirk conquering them?! Indeed, this is from the most severe kufṛ and inclination (towards the mushrikīn).

³⁹⁰ He is 'Abdur-Rahmān Ibn Zayd Ibn Aslam Al-'Adawī. He died in the year 182. See “At-Taqrīb” (340).

³⁹² Hūd: 113

 The Fourteenth Evidence ***

His - (Most High is He) - Statement:

“Whoever commits kufṛ against Allāh after his Īmān (in Allāh), excluding he who is forced thereto while his heart is at rest with Īmān; but such who open their breasts to kufṛ ³⁹³ then on them is wrath from Allāh, and theirs will be a great torment. That is because they loved and preferred the life of this world over that of the Hereafter. And Allāh does not guide the kāfirīn.” ³⁹⁴

So He (Most High) has made a judgment that is unchangeable- That whosoever turns back from his Dīn to kufṛ, then he is a kāfir. Regardless of whether he had the excuse of Khawf for his life, wealth, family, or not; and whether he committed kufṛ both internally (with his heart) and externally (through actions), or only externally and not internally (i.e. only through actions, without the heart); and whether he committed kufṛ through his actions and his speech, or with just one of the two and not the other; and whether or not he committed kufṛ because of his desire to attain some worldly benefit from the mushrikīn; he becomes a kāfir in each and every situation - except for the Mukrab. And he is the ‘Maghsūb’ in our language. ³⁹⁵

So if a person is forced to do kufṛ; and it is said to him “Commit kufṛ! Or else we shall kill you- or we will torture you”; or the mushrikīn take him and beat him (severely) - and it is not possible for him to be rid (of this torment) except by agreeing with them; then it is permissible for him to agree with them externally (through actions or speech) - with the condition that his heart rests upon Īmān - meaning firmly established upon it and believing in it. But as for him agreeing with them with his heart, then he is a kāfir- even if he is a Mukrab.

³⁹³ Shaykh Al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah رحمه الله said regarding this, “Whoever utters kufṛ without being forced to, he has indeed opened his breast to kufṛ.” “Majmū' Al-Fatāwā” (7/599). And in (7/220) he says, “Whoever commits kufṛ without being forced to do so, he has indeed opened his breast to kufṛ.”

³⁹⁴ An-Nabl: 106-107

³⁹⁵ Derived from “Ghasaba Yaghsibu”- which implies the meanings of “coerce, compel, force, extort, seize unlawfully, conquer, subdue, rape, etc.” And Maghsūb is the one who is “coerced, compelled, forced, subdued, etc.” According to classical linguists: “Someone who is forced to do something he dislikes by means of subjugation and compulsion.” See “Lisān Al-'Arab” (3/526), and “Al-Misbāb Al-Munir” (2/729).

And what is apparent from the words of Imām Ahmad رحمه الله³⁹⁶, is that in the first situation, he would not be a Mukrab- unless the mushrikūn had tortured him. Because when Yahyā Ibn Ma'in³⁹⁷ entered upon him while he was ill,³⁹⁸ he (Yahyā) greeted him with Salām- but he (Imām Ahmad) did not return his Salām. So Yahyā began to appeal to him saying: "The Hadīth of 'Ammār³⁹⁹ (O Ahmad)! And Allāh said "excluding he who is forced thereto while his heart is at rest with Īmān"." So Ahmad turned his face to the other side; so Yahyā exclaimed, "He does not accept an excuse?!" So when Yahyā was leaving, Imām Ahmad said, "He uses the Hadīth of 'Ammār as proof, and the Hadīth of 'Ammār is 'I passed by them (the mushrikīn) while they were insulting you (O Messenger of Allāh) - so I forbid them (to say such things), so then they tortured me...' And you, it is said to you 'We want to torture you'."⁴⁰⁰ So Yahyā said, "I swear by Allāh! I have not seen anyone under the surface of the Sky of Allāh who understands the Dīn of Allāh better than you."⁴⁰¹ ³⁹⁹ His incident is recorded by At-Tabarī (14/184), Al-Hākim in "Al-Mustadrak" (2/357) and declared "Sahīh" by Ath-Thahabī, Al-Bayhaqī in "As-Sunan Al-Kubrā" (8/208), Abū Nu'aym in "Al-Hilyab" (1/140), Ibn As-Sa'd in his "At-Tabaqāt" (3/249), 'Abdur-Razzāq on the authority of Is'hāq Ibn Rāhawayh as appears in "Nasb Ar-Rāyab" (4/159), Ibn Abī Hātim, Ibn Mardawayh, Ibn Al-Munthir and Ibn 'Asākīr as appears in "Ad-Durr Al-Manthūr" (4/132), and his "Al-Matalib Al-'Āliyah" (3/347), 'Abd Ibn Humayd, Al-Fākihī, Ibn Sīrīn, Abū Al-Mutawakkil and Qatādah as reported by Al-Hāfīth Ibn Hajar in "Fat'h Al-Bārī" (12/312), and Al-Hāfīth said in "Al-Isābah" (7/65), "It is agreed that the Verse of "excluding he who is forced thereto while his heart is at rest with Īmān", was revealed regarding 'Ammār." A summarization of all of the above references is found in the translation of the book "Rijāl Hawl Ar-Rasūl- Men Around the Messenger" (166-167): "Ammār did not feel utterly ruined except on that day when his executioners employed all their devilry in crime and injustice. They burned his skin with fire, laid him on the heated sands of the desert under the burning stones, dunked him in water until he could hardly breathe and until his wounds and gashes were skinned. On that day, when he fell unconscious under the effect of that horror, they said to him, "Say something good about our gods." They kept saying things, which he repeated without being conscious of what he was saying.

³⁹⁶ He is the Shaykh Al-Islām, Abū 'Abdillāh, Ahmad Ibn Muhammad Ibn Hanbal Ibn Hilāl Ibn Asad Ash-Shaybānī Al-Marwazī. He settled in Baghdād, and died in the year 241. See "At-Taqrīb" (14).

³⁹⁷ He is Abū Zakariyyā Yahyā Ibn Ma'in Ibn 'Awn Al-Ghatfānī, the Imām of Jarb and Ta'dil. He died in the year 233. See "At-Taqrīb" (597).

When he became slightly conscious after he had fainted due to their torture, he remembered what he had said and was angry about it. This slip became so concrete to him that he saw it as an unforgivable sin, which could not be atoned for. In a few moments his feeling of guilt made him suffer so much that the torture of the polytheists seemed to him a blessing and a balm." And then Allāh later revealed these Verses regarding the pardoning of the Mukrab.

⁴⁰⁰ Meaning that 'Ammār رضي الله عنه was actually tortured, and Imām Ahmad was saying that they themselves were not in that condition yet, but rather were merely being threatened. So mere threats are not a valid Ikrāh which would permit kufr. Refer to the words of Imām Hamad Ibn 'Atīq رحمه الله in the section "The Imāms of Najd -Vs. - the Murji'ab".

⁴⁰¹ This incident is recorded by Ibn Abī Ya'lā in his "At-Tabaqāt" (1/404), and Ibn Al-Jawzī in "Manāqib Al-Imām Ahmad" on the authority of Abū Bakr Al-Marwathī (474).

Then He (Most High) informed that those murtaddīn, who opened their hearts to kufr, even though they are sure of the Truth; and that they said “We did not do this except because of Khanj” - but still “on them is wrath from Allāh, and theirs will be a great torment.”

Then He (Most High) informed that the reason for this kufr and eternal punishment - is not because they believed in shirk; nor because of ignorance about Tawhid; nor because of hatred for the Dīn; nor because of love for kufr-- Rather, the reason is merely because of a bit from the bits of the Dunyā (worldly life), which he preferred above the Dīn and the Pleasure of the Lord of the Worlds.⁴⁰²

So He said,

“That is because they loved and preferred the life of this world over that of the Hereafter. And Allāh does not guide the kāfirīn.”⁴⁰³

So He (Most High) has made Takfīr of them.⁴⁰⁴ And He informed that He will not guide them, even though they try to excuse themselves with the plea that they (only did it out of) lust for the Dunyā.⁴⁰⁵

Then He (Most High) informed that these are murtaddīn, because they preferred the life of the Dunyā rather than the Hereafter; they are the ones whose hearts, hearing, and sight Allāh has sealed, and that they are the oblivious ones; then He informed (us of their) confirmed reality:

“That in the Hereafter, they will be the losers.”⁴⁰⁶

 The Fifteenth Evidence ***

His - (Most High is He) - Statement:

“Indeed, if they overcome⁴⁰⁷ you - they will stone you (to death), or turn you back to their religion; and in that case, you will never be successful.”⁴⁰⁸

⁴⁰² Just another refutation against the Murji'ab who claim that “loving Islām” and “hating kufr” are barriers from Takfīr of the collaborators. And these evil deviants claim that as long as the reason for Muthābarah is solely for a “worldly reason”, there can be no Takfīr.

⁴⁰³ Al-Nahl: 107-109

⁴⁰⁴ Meaning that Allāh has declared such people to be kuffār- as is in the part of the Verse “And Allāh does not guide the kāfirīn”.

⁴⁰⁵ And maybe you will realize why these neo-Murji'ab are also Qusūriyyah...

⁴⁰⁶ An-Nahl: 109

So He (Most High) mentioned about the People of the Cave, that they mentioned about the mushrikīn, saying, “If they subdue you and overpower you, then they will do either of two things:

- i) They will stone you. This means that they will kill you in the worst way, execution by stoning.
- ii) Or they will return you to their path and their Dīn; and then in that case, you will never be successful. This means: And if you harmonize with them regarding their Dīn after they subdue you and overpower you, then in that case, you will never be successful (enter Jannah).”⁴⁰⁹

So this is the condition of the one who agrees with them after they overpowered him. So how about the one who harmonizes with them and sends them delegates from far away; and answers them in whatever they seek from him- without any subjugation or coercion?!? And on top of this, they “think that they are guided”!⁴¹⁰

 The Sixteenth Evidence ***

His - (Most High is He) - Statement:

⁴⁰⁷ Derived from “Thabara Yath'haru”. It can also be translated as “come to know of”, as was done by Hilālī/Khān.

⁴⁰⁸ Al-Kahf: 20

⁴⁰⁹ Imām Ash-Shanqīṭī رحمه الله said in his Tafsīr of this Āyah: “Some of the scholars have taken from this Noble Verse, that the excuse of Ikrāb is from the specific characteristics of this Ummah, because His Statement about the People of the Cave: “Indeed, if they overcome you- they will stone you (to death), or turn you back to their religion” Is clear regarding their compulsion and them doing it involuntarily, and despite this, He Said about them: “...and in that case, you will never be successful.” So that indicates that Ikrāb is not an excuse. And this meaning is beared witness to by the Hadīth of Tāriq Ibn Shihāb regarding the one who entered the Fire due to a fly which he sacrificed while under Ikrāb through fear of being killed, because they killed his companion who refused to sacrifice anything, even a fly. And this is also supported by the “Dalīl Al-Khitāb” in other words, the “Mafhūm Al-Mukhālafah” in the Prophet’s statement: “Verily, Allāh has excused for me off of my Ummah, mistakes, forgetfulness, and that which they are compelled to do.” So it is understood from his statement: “...has excused for me off of my Ummah...” that other than his Ummah from the Ummahs, He did not excuse that off of them. And this Hadīth, even if Imām Ahmad and Ibn Abī Hātim have mentioned that it is defective, the early and late scholars have met it with acceptance, and it has confirmed supports in the Great Qur’ān and the Authentic Sunnah. As for this Ummah, then Allāh (Most High) has clearly mentioned their excuse of Ikrāb, in His Statement: excluding he who is forced thereto while his heart is at rest with Īmān...” “Adhwā’ Al-Bayān”: 4/72-73 The Hadīth of the three excuses is narated by Ibn Mājah, Al-Hākim, Al-Bayhaqī, Ad-Dāraqutnī, At-Tabarānī in “Al-Kabīr” and in “As-Saghir”. Declared “Hasan” by Imām An-Nawawī as is mentioned in “Jāmi’ Al-Ulūmi Wal-Hikam”: pg. 350 and Al-Albānī authenticated it in his footnotes on “Al-Mishkāt” (6264) and in “Irwā’ Al-Ghalīl” (82). As well as being authenticated by Ahmad Shākir in his Tabḥīq of “Al-Abkāmī” by Ibn Hazm (5/149).

⁴¹⁰ Taken from the Verse in Al-A’raf: 30

“And among mankind is he who worships Allāh as if he were upon an edge (of doubt): if good befalls him, he is content therewith; but if a trial befalls him, he turns back on his face. He loses both this world and the Hereafter. That is the evident loss.”⁴¹¹

So He (Most High) Informs “And among mankind is he who worships Allāh as if he were upon an edge”- meaning wavering upon an edge; “if good befalls him”- like victory, honour, health, spaciousness, safety, relief, and the likes of that; “he is content therewith”- in other words: is steadfast, and he says ‘This is a good religion...we do not see anything in it except goodness’; “but if a trial befalls him”- such as fear, illness, poverty, and the likes of that; “he turns back on his face”- in other words: apostatizes from his Dīn, and returns back to the people of shirk.

This Verse totally matches the condition of the ones who turned back from their Dīn in this period of fitnah.⁴¹² Because indeed, before this Fitnah, they worshiped Allāh on an edge, in other words, wavering on an edge. They were not from those who worship Allāh with certainty and firmness. So when this fitnah befell them, they turned back from their Dīn and displayed Muwāfaqah to the mushrikīn; and they gave them obedience; and they left the group of the Muslims to go to the group of the mushrikīn. So they are with them in the Hereafter - just as they are along with them in this world.⁴¹³ So they lost this world and the Hereafter- and “that is the evident loss.”

This (is how they are), even though many of them are in comfort, and the enemy has not troubled them. Rather, their perception about Allāh is evil. So they assume that “He will give victory to the falsehood and its people, over the Truth and its people”. So they will be annihilated because of their sinister thoughts about Allāh, just as He (Most High) said regarding those who assume about Him with evil assumptions-

“And that thought of yours which you thought about your Lord, has brought you to destruction; so you have become of those utterly lost!”⁴¹⁴

⁴¹¹ Al-Hajj: 11

⁴¹² Literally “dissension, tribulation, strife, trial, etc.” And as the Imām described “fear, illness, poverty, etc”. But in its Shar’i meaning it can also mean shirk, kufr, or bid’ah. See “Tafsīr At-Tabarī” (2/194-195). But the word fitnah here is used in its literal meaning. He is talking about the strife that occurred when the Ottoman Empire occupied the lands of Tawbīd, the Arabian Peninsula.

⁴¹³ Indeed, just as these apostates defend and preserve the Zionist Crusaders in this world- We ask Allāh to make these apostates and kuffār topple upon each other while they all scorch in the Fire.

⁴¹⁴ Fussilat: 23. And similar is in the Verses regarding the Battle of Al-Ahzāb:

So, O you upon whom Allāh has blessed with steadfastness upon Islām- beware lest any type of doubt enters your heart, or any beatification of the affair of those murtaddīn; nor think that showing compliance and obedience to the mushrikīn is a good idea, just for the sake of some people, wealth, or things which are revered. Because indeed, this *Shubhab*⁴¹⁵ is the one which has misguided many of the early ones and also the ones who came after them - into committing shirk with Allāh; but still Allāh did not excuse them with that.⁴¹⁶

Rather, many of them know the Truth and they believe it in their hearts - yet they embrace shirk because of the Eight (Unacceptable) Excuses⁴¹⁷ which have been mentioned by Allāh in His Book. And Allāh (Most High) will not excuse anyone due to any of these excuses, whether all of them are presented or just some... So He declared,

“Say: If [1] your fathers, [2] your sons, [3] your brothers, [4] your wives, [5] your kindred, [6] the wealth that you have gained, [7] the commerce in which you fear a decline, [8] and the dwellings⁴¹⁸ in which you delight- (If these) are dearer to you than Allāh and His Messenger, and Jihād in His Cause- Then wait until Allāh brings His Decision (torment). And Allāh does not guide the people who are fāsiqeen.”⁴¹⁹

 The Seventeenth Evidence ***

His - (Most High is He) - Statement:

“When they (the mushrikūn) came upon you from above you and from below you, and when the eyes grew wild and the hearts reached to the throats, and you were harboring doubts about Allāh. There, the Mu'minīn were tried and shaken with a mighty shaking. And when the hypocrites and those in whose hearts is a disease (of doubts) said, “Allāh and His Messenger promised us nothing but delusion!” [Al-Abzāb: 10-12]

⁴¹⁵ Shubhab: doubt, argument, suspicion, vagueness. Plural: Shubuhāt

⁴¹⁶ And clearly this Shubhab is still being circulated by the Murji'ah and Qusūriyyah- they all claim that committing Muthābarah “just for the sake of some people, wealth, or things which are revered” is not apostasy. Indeed the words of the Salaf seem as if they were talking right in front of us today...

⁴¹⁷ Although there exists more than eight excuses which are unacceptable, these are the most common.

⁴¹⁸ Whether it be a home, village, city, or nation- all these are referred to as “dwellings”.

⁴¹⁹ At-Tawbah: 24

“Verily, those who have turned back (have apostatized as kuffār) after the guidance has been manifested to them- Shaytān has beautified for them (their false hopes), and (Allāh) prolonged their term (age).⁴²⁰ That is because they said to those who hate what Allāh has sent down, “We will obey you in part of the matter.” But Allāh knows their secrets. Then how (will it be) when the Angels will take their souls at death, smiting their faces and their backs? That is because they followed that which angered Allāh, and hated that which pleased Him. So, He made their deeds fruitless.”⁴²¹

So He (Most High) mentioned regarding those who turn back on their heels, that after the Truth had been clear to them- they apostatized upon knowledge. And their knowledge of the Truth along with riddah did not benefit them; and Shaytān deceived them with his seduction and beautification of their actions of riddah.

Similar is the case with the murtaddīn in this fitnah (tribulation). Shaytān has seduced them and tricked them with the illusion that Khanf is an excuse for committing riddah, and that with their knowledge of the Truth, love of it, and testimony to it- their action⁴²² will not harm them. And they have forgotten that a great many of the mushrikīn know of the Truth, love it, and testify to it- but they abandon the following of and acting upon it out of love for the Dunyā, and because of Khanf for the sake of lives, wealth, food, or positions of leadership.”⁴²³ ⁴²⁰ This Verse is clarified by other Verses from the Qur'ān.

“When Our Torment reached them, why did they not humble themselves (believe with humility)? But their hearts became hardened, and Shaytān made fair-seeming to them that which they used to do. So, when they forgot that which they had been reminded of (the warning), We opened for them the gates of every (pleasant) thing- until in the midst of their enjoyment in that which they were given, all of a sudden, We took them (in punishment), and lo! They were plunged into destruction, with regrets and sorrows.” [Al-An'ām: 43-44].

“Do not consider that Allāh is unaware of that which the Thālimūn do; rather He gives them respite up to a Day when the eyes will stare in horror.” [Ibrāhīm: 42].

“We shall punish them gradually from directions they perceive not. And I will grant them a respite; Verily, My Plan is strong.” [Al-Qalam: 44-45].

⁴²¹ Muhammad: 25-28

⁴²² Referring to Muthābarah- cooperation with the mushrikīn against the Muslims.

⁴²³ As Allāh says,

Then He (Most High) said “This is because they said to those who hate what Allāh has sent down: We will obey you in part of the matter.”

So He (Most High) informed that the reason for that which came upon them from apostasy, and the beautification from Shaytān, and the respite given to them - was their saying to those who hated what Allāh has revealed: “We will obey you in part of the matter”.

So if whoever promised limited obedience to the mushrikīn -- those who hate what Allāh has revealed -- becomes a kāfir, even if he doesn't fulfill that which he promised them; Then what about the one who harmonizes with the mushrikīn -- those who hate what Allāh has revealed -- regarding the commandment to direct Tbādah to Him Alone without any partners, and forsaking the Tbādah of other than Him, from amongst the rivals, Tawāghīt, and dead; and then says that they are upon guidance, and the Muvāhhidūn are wrong in their fighting (against the Tawāghīt worshippers); and says that surrendering to them and entering into their false Dīn is the correct path?!

Indeed, such people are more worthy of riddah than those who promised the mushrikīn with limited obedience. Then He (Most High) notifies us of their atrocious condition during their death, as He says, “That is”- referring to the horrid affair during their demise; “because they followed that which angered Allāh, and hated that which pleased Him. So, He made their deeds fruitless.”

No Muslim will doubt that following the mushrikīn and entering into their group; and bearing witness that they are upon the Truth; cooperating with them to eliminate Tanbīd and its people; and assisting the Qibāb, prostitution, homosexuality- is from ‘following that which angers Allāh, and hatred of His Pleasure’ - even if they claim that it is only due to Khanf. Because indeed, Allāh did not excuse the people of riddah because of Khanf. Rather, He has prohibited having Khanf from them.⁴²⁴ So where is this compared to those who say “Nothing (wrong) has come from us - we are (still) upon our Dīn”?⁴²⁵

“Give to the hypocrites the tidings that there is for them a painful torment. Those who take the kāfirīn as Awliyā' instead of the Mu'minīn. Do they seek honor, power, and glory with them? Verily, only to Allāh belongs all honor, power, and glory.” [An-Nisā': 138-139].

And in the Verse,

“But honor, power, and glory belong to Allāh, to His Messenger and to the Mu'minīn. But the hypocrites know not.” [Al-Munāfiqun: 8].

⁴²⁴ As has preceded once before,

“It is only Shaytān that suggests to you the Khawf of his Awliyā' (i.e. mushrikūn); so fear them not, but fear Me, if you are Mu'minīn.” [Al-Imrān: 175]

⁴²⁵ The Mufasssīr of the Era, Imām Ash-Shanqītī رحمه الله said in Adhwā' Al-Bayān, in his Tafsīr of these specific Verses: “Every Muslim should know that in this period of time (Zamān), it is obligatory upon

 The Eighteenth Evidence ***

His - (Most High is He) - Statement:

“Have you (O Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم) not observed the hypocrites who say to their brothers (Ikhwān),⁴²⁶ those who have disbelieved, among the people of the Scripture, “(By Allāh) If you are expelled, we too indeed will go out with you, and we shall never obey anyone against you; and if you are attacked (fought), we shall indeed help you.” But Allāh is Witness that they verily are liars.”⁴²⁷

So He (Most High) has formed the tie of brotherhood between the munāfiqīn and the kuffār. And He informed that they secretly tell them “(By Allāh) If you are expelled, we too indeed will go out with you”- meaning: that if Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم defeats you and expels you from your country, we too will leave along with you; “and we shall never obey anyone against you”- meaning: we will not listen to the word of anyone against you, nor shall we give obedience to anyone against you; “and if you are attacked, we shall indeed help you”- meaning: and if Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم fights against you, we will certainly support you and be with you. Then He (Most High) testifies that they are liars in this saying.

So if secretly promising the mushrikīn to join them, assist them and to go in exile along with them if they are exiled- is kufr and nifāq, even if it is a lie; Then what about those who display this to them truthfully; and go to them, enter into their obedience, and call towards it, and support them, submit to them, become a part of their group, and assist them with wealth and intelligence?!

him to contemplate and reflect upon these Verses of Sūrat Muḥammad - and to be absolutely cautious of the severe threat guaranteed by it. Because many of those who attribute (Intisāb) themselves to Islām, have undoubtedly fallen under this severe threat. The kuffār of the East and West hate what Allāh has sent down to Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم, and that is the Qur'ān and its explanation, the Sunnab. So everyone who says to these kuffār, the haters of what Allāh has sent down: “We will obey you in part of the matter”- then he has entered (Dākhib) the threat of this Verse. And more worthy of the threat of these Verses than the ones mentioned, are the ones who say to the kuffār “We will obey you in part of the matter” by following the Qawānīn Wadh'iyyah (the fabricated man-made laws)-obeying those who hate what Allāh has sent down. So regarding these, no doubt that the Angels will smite their faces and their backs when their souls are being taken. And no doubt also, that they brought upon themselves the Wrath of Allāh, and they hated to please Him. No doubt that Allāh will render all their deeds futile. So beware with every caution from being from the ones who say, “We will obey you in part of the matter.”

⁴²⁶ The word “Ikhwān” actually means “brothers”. Shaykh Abū Muḥammad Al-Maqdisī فلك الله أسره says in his book “Ash-Shihab Ath-Thāqib”, “So ponder over how Allāh has affixed them to the kuffār with the sense of “brotherhood”. So Allāh has declared these collaborators as infidels (Takfīr) for their mere promise to help them (against the Believers).”

⁴²⁷ Al-Hasbr: 11-12

This along with the fact that the munāfiqīn did not do this except out of fear of tragedies, as He (Most High) said,

“So you see those in whose hearts there is a disease (of hypocrisy), they hurry to their friendship, saying: ‘We fear lest some misfortune of a disaster may befall us.’”⁴²⁸

The case of many of the murtaddeen in this time of fitnah are just like that. As the excuse of many of them is this exact excuse which Allāh mentioned about “those in whose hearts there is a disease”- and He did not accept their excuse. Allāh (Most High) said,

“Perhaps Allāh may bring a victory or a decision according to His Will. Then they would become regretful for what they have been keeping as a secret in themselves. And those who have Īmān will say, “Are these the men (hypocrites) who swore their strongest oaths by Allāh that they were with you (O Muslims)?” All that they did has been in futility, so they have become losers.”⁴²⁹

Then He (Most High) said,

“O you who believe! Whoever from among you apostatizes from his Dīn (Islām), Allāh will bring a people whom He will love and they will love Him; humble towards the Mu'minīn, stern towards the kāfirīn...”⁴³⁰

So He (Most High) informed that if murtaddūn exist, then definitely there will also exist Mujāhidīn, Lovers (of Allāh), and Beloved (by Allāh). And He described them as being humble and modest towards the Mu'minūn; and tough, harsh, and severe against the kāfirīn.⁴³¹

⁴²⁸ Al-Mā'idah: 52. Contemplate upon why the Imām has kept on repeating this in different words- “This along with the fact that the munāfiqīn don't do these except because of fear of tragedies”- Why? The answer is- The Imām keenly wants to point out that “fear” is never an excuse for Muthābarah- unlike today's Qusūrīyyah falsely claim.

⁴²⁹ Al-Mā'idah: 52-53

⁴³⁰ Al-Mā'idah: 54. The Verse completes as,

“... waging Jihād in the Path of Allāh, and never fearing the blame of the blamers. That is the Grace of Allāh which He bestows on whom He wills. And Allāh is All-Sufficient for His creatures' needs, All-Knower.”

⁴³¹ As also appears in the Verse,

As opposed to those whose modesty, humbleness, and gentleness⁴³² is directed at the worshippers of the Qibāb, the people of prostitution, and homosexuals; and whose power and harshness⁴³³ is directed at the People of Tawhid and Iklās.⁴³⁴

And this is sufficient as evidence for establishing the kufir of the one who harmonizes with them.

And if he claims that he is a Khā'if, then Allāh has already said “and never fearing the blame of the blamers” - and this is contrary to those who forsake truthfulness and Jihād because of Khawf from the mushrikīn.

Then He (Most High) said “waging Jihād in the Path of Allāh”- meaning: for the sake of His Tawhid, enduring patiently upon that, seeking the Face of their Lord, so that His Word is the Highest.

“And never fearing the blame of the blamers”- meaning: they are not bothered by those who blame them and harm them for their Dīn; rather, they continue upon their Dīn as Mujāhidīn in its path; not looking to the blame of any person from the creation, nor to his anger, nor his pleasure; their only ambition and objective which they ardently seek is the Pleasure of their Sayyid (Master), their Ma'bud, and fleeing from His Anger.

“Muhammad is the Messenger of Allāh. And those who are with him are severe against the kuffār, yet merciful among themselves.” [Al-Fath: 29].

⁴³² Notice how the Imām doesn't say “love” or anything of the internal (Bātin) characteristics. Rather, he mentions characteristics which are shown externally (Thābir). This must be pondered upon carefully since many mistaken people claim that the internal feelings must be considered. Such people also claim that if someone doesn't love kufir, he doesn't become a kāfir even if he supports the kuffār against the People of Tawhid. Also think deeply upon what the Imām mentioned under the Fourteenth Evidence, “Then He (Most High) informed that the reason for this kufir and eternal punishment - is not because they believed in shirk; nor because of ignorance about Tawhid; nor because of hatred for the Dīn; nor because of love for kufir...”

⁴³³ Again, he mentions external qualities. He doesn't mention “hatred” or such internal characteristics. Shaykh Sālih Al-Fawzān said in his Sharh of “Kashf Ash-Shubūhāt”, “And yet, there exists another group who says, “No matter what they do or say, they shouldn't be ruled upon as kuffār or mushrikīn, until what is in their hearts is known.”

Yā Subhān Allāh! O Allāh! Glory be to You! Are we the ones who know what is in their hearts, or is it Allāh? We are only supposed to judge according to the Thawābir (apparent/external); as for the Bawātin (hidden/internal), then that is not known to anyone except Allāh alone. Thus, anyone who acts with shirk will be considered as a mushrik and treated as a mushrik- until he repents to Allāh and grasps Tawhid firmly. Likewise, anyone who acts with Tawhid will be accepted and treated as a Muslim- as long as he doesn't do anything that nullifies Tawhid.”- And supporting the mushrikīn against the Muslims is from amongst the Ten Nullifications of Islam.

⁴³⁴ And this describes the exact state of the apostate regimes today all over the world. So note carefully what the Shaykh says afterwards- “And this is sufficient as evidence for establishing the kufir of the one who harmonizes with them.”

And this is the opposite of those whose ambition and desire is to satisfy the Qibāb-worshippers, and the people of prostitution, and homosexuality- and having hopes in them, and fleeing from whatever angers them! And this is the pinnacle of misguidance and treachery.

Then He (Most High) said “That is the Grace of Allāh which He bestows on whom He wills. And Allāh is All-Sufficient for His creatures’ needs, All-Knower.”- So He (Most High) informed that these great virtues and praiseworthy qualities which are possessed by the the People of Īmān and steadfastness upon their Dīn during times of riddab and fitnabs - they are not able to fulfill this from their own strength and will - but rather it is only the Favor of Allāh which He gives to whomever He Wills; as He said,

“He selects for His Mercy whom He wills- and Allāh is the Owner of the Great Bounty.” ⁴³⁵

Then He (Most High) said,

“Verily, your *Walī*⁴³⁶ is none other than Allāh, His Messenger, and those who Believe - those who perform Salāt, and give Zakāt, and they are *Rākī’ūn*⁴³⁷.” ⁴³⁸

So He (Most High) commanded, in the form of a notification, to have allegiance with:

- 1) Allāh
- 2) His Messenger
- 3) And the Mu’minīn.

And within it there is a prohibition against Mumālāt to the enemies of Allāh, His Messenger, and the Mu’minīn.

And it is not vague as to which of the two parties are closer to Allāh, His Messenger, establishing the Salāt and paying the Zakāt: Is it the people of the idols, Qibāb, prostitution, homosexuality, alcohol, and evil things; or the People of Sincerity, and establishment of the Salāt, and payment of the Zakāt? ⁴³⁹

⁴³⁵ Āl ‘Imrān: 74

⁴³⁶ Singular form of Anlīyā’: Walī- friend, guardian, supporter, helper, protector, etc.

⁴³⁷ Rākī’ūn: Those who bow down and submit themselves with obedience to Allāh in prayer.

⁴³⁸ Al-Mā’idab: 55

⁴³⁹ And it is not vague as to which of the two factions are beloved by Allāh - Those who are waging Jihād against the Zionist Crusaders, fighting to establish the Legislation of Allāh and making His Word the Highest, walking upon Millat Ibrāhīm as Hunafā’; or those who are collaborating with the Zionists, Hindus, and Crusaders to kill the Muslims and occupying Muslim lands, begging them to occupy the Peninsula of Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم, and declaring themselves as legislators along with Allāh.

So the ones who ally themselves to the opposite of them (i.e. the Believers), they put allegiance in other than the place it belongs in. They exchange the Allegiance with Allāh, His Messenger and the Believers - those who establish the Salāt and pay the Zakāt- for the allegiance of the people shirk, idols, and Qibāb.

Then He (Most High) informed that Victory is for His Party and those who ally themselves with them, as He said,

“And whosoever takes Allāh, His Messenger, and those who Believe as Awliyā' - then the Party of Allāh will be the victorious.” ⁴⁴⁰

 The Nineteenth Evidence ***

The testimony of Allāh (Most High):

“You will not find any people who believe in Allāh and the Last Day, making friendship with those who oppose Allāh and His Messenger - even if they are their fathers, their sons, their brothers, or their kindred.” ⁴⁴¹

So He (Most High) has informed that you will not be able to find anyone who has Īmān in Allāh and the Last Day, befriending those who oppose Allāh and His Messenger - no matter how close their blood-relations may be. And that this (Muthābarah) is a nullification ⁴⁴² of Īmān and contradictory to it; and that this (Muthābarah) and Īmān cannot be joined together, except in the same manner in which water and fire are joined together.

And indeed He (Most High) has said in another place,

“O you who believe! Do not take your fathers and brothers as Awliyā' if they prefer *kuf*r above Īmān. And whoever of you takes them as Awliyā', then he is one of the Thālimūn.” ⁴⁴³

⁴⁴⁰ Al-Mā'idah: 56

⁴⁴¹ Al-Mujādilab: 22

⁴⁴² The actual word is- Munāf.

⁴⁴³ At-Tawbah: 23

So in these two Verses, there is an explicitly clear warning- that there is no excuse for anyone to harmonize with kuffr, even if it be due to fear for the sake of wealth, fathers, sons, spouses,⁴⁴⁴ kindred, or other such things which people seek to use as an excuse.

And if He did not permit anyone to show these specific people any loyalty, nor permit taking them as Awliyā' - whether it be due to fearing a harm from them, or for preferring to please them; Then what about the ones who take the far-away and distant kuffār as Awliyā' and companions; And show towards them harmony with their Dīn, because of fearing some of these mentioned affairs, and because of loving them??

And from that which is strange is that they seek to approve⁴⁴⁵ this (friendship), and they consider it be Halāl.⁴⁴⁶ So along with riddah, they also declare a Harām thing to be Halāl.⁴⁴⁷

 The Twentieth Evidence ***

The commandment of Allāh (Most High):

...

“O you who believe! Do not take My enemies and your enemies as Awliyā', showing affection towards them...⁴⁴⁸ And whosoever of you (Muslims) does that, then he has gone (far) astray from the Straight Path.”⁴⁴⁹

⁴⁴⁴ Also in the Verse,

“O you who believe! Verily, among your wives and your children, there are enemies against you, therefore beware of them!” [At-Taghābun: 14].

⁴⁴⁵ Istibsān

⁴⁴⁶ Istiblāl

⁴⁴⁷ And this is exactly what is done by the Murji'ab. And what an excellent refutation this quote is against the modern Murji'ab. Not only did the Imām sperate between the Istiblāl and the Muthābarah - but he also called one Istiblāl and one riddah, so there is no way for he Murji'ab to make Ta'wil on this.

⁴⁴⁸ The Imām رحمه الله did not mention the middle part of the Verse. The entire Verse is,

“O you who believe! Do not take My enemies and your enemies as Awliyā', showing affection towards them, while they have disbelieved in what has come to you of the Truth, and have driven out the Messenger and yourselves (from your homeland) because you believe in Allāh your Lord! If you have come forth to do Jihād in My Cause and to seek My Good Pleasure (then do not take these kuffār and mushrikūn as your friends). You show friendship to them in secret, while I am All-Aware of what you conceal and what you reveal. And whosoever of you (Muslims) does that, then he has gone (far) astray from the Straight Path.”

So He (Most High) has informed that whosoever takes the enemies of Allāh as Awliyā'- even if they are family members- “then he has gone (far) astray from the Straight Path”. Meaning that they have slipped off the Straight Way (As-Sirāt Al-Mustaqīm), and abandoned it to go to misguidance. So where is this - compared to someone who claims that he is still on the Straight Way and actually hasn't deserted it?! Indeed this is rejection of Allāh Himself - and whoever rejects Allāh, is a kāfir. And (it is) a declaration of something which Allāh has declared as Harām - to be Halāl: of allegiance to the kuffār. And whoever declares something Harām to be Halāl, then he is a kāfir.

And then He (Most High) mentions the Shubhab (argument) of those who use the excuse of 'relatives and children', as He said,

“Neither your relatives nor your children will benefit you (against Allāh) on the Day of Resurrection. He will judge between you. And Allāh is the All-Seer of what you do.” ⁴⁵⁰

So He (Most High) did not accept Khawf for the (safety of) 'relatives and children', nor that separating from them is hardship, as excuses. On the contrary, He informed that they will not be of any benefit on the Day of Resurrection, nor be of any use against the eternal Punishment of Allāh to the minutest extent - as He (Most High) said in another Verse,

“Then, when the trumpet is blown, there will be no kinship among them that Day, nor will they ask of one another.” ⁴⁵¹

 The Twenty-First Evidence ***

From the Sunnah, that which was narrated by Abū Dāwūd and others, from Samurah Ibn Jundub رضي الله عنه from the The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم that he said, “Whoever joins the musbrik and lives with him- then he is indeed just like him.” ⁴⁵²

So he, ε in this Hadeeth made (i.e. declared) it that, “Whoever joins the musbrik”- meaning whosoever unites with the musbrikīn, mixes with them, and lives with them- then he is just

⁴⁵¹ Al-Mu'minūn: 101

⁴⁵² Recorded by Abū Dāwūd in his “Sunan” (2787), At-Tirmithī in his “Jāmi” (1605), Ad-Daylamī in his “Musnad” (5756), Al-Bayhaqī in his “Sunan” (9/142), and similar by Al-Hākim in his “Al-Mustadrak” (2/141), and narrated in the manuscript of At-Tabarānī by Marwān As-Samrī, as appears in “Al-Mizān” (4/89), Abū Nu'aym in “Tārikh Ashabān” (1/123), and Shaykh Nāsir Al-Albānī in “Sabīh Al-Jāmi” (6062), and declared “Hasan” by him also in “As-Silsilah As-Sahībah” (2330).

like them. So how about the one who shows harmony with them regarding their Dīn, gives them asylum, and assists them!?

Then if they say, “(Our excuse is that) we were afraid (in Khanf)”- It shall be replied to them- “You have lied”- and also, Khanf is not an excuse. As He (Most High) said,

“Of mankind are some who say: ‘We believe in Allāh’. But if they are made to suffer for (the sake of) Allāh, they consider the fitnah of mankind as the Punishment of Allāh.”⁴⁵⁴

So He (Blessed and Most High is He) did not excuse the one who turns back from the Dīn due to harm being inflicted upon him, nor because of Khanf. So what then for he who has not been inflicted by harm nor Khanf - but rather goes to the bātil (evil) because of love for it and fearing calamities.

CONCLUSION

And the evidences regarding this are many - and this should be sufficient for whomsoever Allāh wishes to guide.

But as for the one for whom Allāh wishes fitnah and misguidance for, then it is just as He (Most High) said, ⁴⁵³ Shaykh Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdīl-Latīf Āl Ash-Shaykh رحمه الله said, “And the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, “Whosoever joins the mushrik and lives with him- then he is indeed just like him.” It should not be thought that anyone who merely stays with and lives with the mushrik is a kāfir; Rather, what is intended (by this Hadīth) is that whoever is incapable of exiting from the midst of the mushrikēn, and they force him to go out with them (to fight the Muslims), then the ruling regarding him is the same regarding them (the mushrikēn), in the permissibility in killing (him) and seizing his wealth - but the ruling is not the same in his Takfīr (he is not a kāfir). But if he goes out with the kuffār to fight the Muslims, out of greed (for the worldly benefits) or due to his own choice (without being coerced); or helps them physically or with his wealth- then there is no doubt in the fact that the ruling regarding his kufur is the same as the mushrikēn.” “Ad-Durar As-Saniyyah” (8/456-457), and “Majmū’at Ar-Rasā’il Wal-Masā’il” (2/135).

⁴⁵⁴ Al-‘Ankabūt: 10. Imām Ash-Shanqīṭī رحمه الله said in his Tafsīr of this Verse “But if they are made to suffer for (the sake of) Allāh, they consider the fitnah of mankind as the Punishment of Allāh”: “Meaning, when they suffer from the harm which is inflicted by the kuffār against the Muslims, they make this ‘fitnah of mankind’ an excuse to apostatize from the Dīn- and all refuge is sought with Allāh- as if it (the harm inflicted upon them) is (worse than) the eternal Punishment of Allāh. “The fitnah of mankind” means the injuries and harm inflicted upon them from the kuffār.” And then the Imām elucidates upon this Verse with the eleventh Verse of Al-Hajj, “And among mankind is he who worships Allāh as if he were upon an edge (of doubt): if good befalls him, he is content therewith; but if a trial befalls him, he turns back on his face. He loses both this world and the Hereafter. That is the evident loss.”

“Truly! Those, against whom the Word (Wrath) of your Lord has been justified, will not be believe - Even if every Āyah came to them - until they see the Painful Torment.”⁴⁵⁵

And we ask Allāh, Al-Karīm (The Generous) Al-Mannān (The Gracious), by His Mercy, that He make us live as Muslims, and that he make us die as Muslims, and that He gather us with the righteous, not being humiliated, nor as those having fallen into fitnah; And He is the Most Merciful of those who show mercy.

And may Allāh shower prayers and many salutations of peace upon our Prophet Muhammad, and on his family and on all of his Companions till the Day of Judgment.
Āmīn - Thumma Āmīn.

End of the words of Imām Sulaymān Ibn ‘Abdillāh Ibn Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdil-Wahhāb, may Allāh show them His Mercy and forgive their sins, and enter them into the Jannāt Al-Firdaws. And may Allāh make their righteous deeds heavy in the Mīzān with their books and teachings of Tawbīd. And may Allāh raise them along with the Prophets صلی الله علیهم و سلم, the Truthful, the Martyrs and the Righteous. And may Allāh grant them the intercession of the Messenger صلی الله علیه وسلم. And may Allāh accept us as Mu'minīn, Muslimīn, Muwabbidīn, Humafā'. Āmīn.

The Dividing Border Between Muwālāt and *Tawallī*⁴⁵⁶

The Noble Shaykh, 'Alī Ibn Khudhayr Al-Khudhayr (may Allāh hasten his release from prison), was asked:

*"What is the dividing border between Muwālāt and Tawallī? And how do we distinguish between the two?"*⁴⁵⁷

The Noble Shaykh answered: "Tawallī to the kuffār is major kufr (kufr akbar),⁴⁵⁸ and there is no Tafsīl in it. And it is of four types:

- 1) Loving (Mahabbah) the kuffār because of their religion.⁴⁵⁹

⁴⁵⁶ This section is originally based upon the short Q/A by Shaykh 'Alī Al-Khudhayr فك الله أسره, "Al-Hadd Al-Fāsil Bayn Al-Muwālāt Wa Tawallī Al-Kuffār". And at the end I have added a brief excerpt from "At-Tibyān" by Shaykh Nāsir Al-Fahd فك الله أسره, and some related material.

⁴⁵⁷ Note: One thing that needs to be kept in mind is that the opinion of there being a difference between Muwālāt and Tawallī isn't a matter which is completely agreed upon. Also, the dividing of Muwālāt into Major and Minor is also something that isn't totally agreed upon. Shaykh 'Abdul-Qādir Ibn 'Abdil-'Azīz discussed this issue in his book "Al-Jamī' Fī Talab Al-'Ilm Ash-Sharīf" (2/706-708). He said: "And the other issue is that there are things which resemble Muwālāt in the image or from its linguistic meaning, which is closeness and nearness, but they are not Muwālāt from in the Shar'i terminology; but rather, in the *Shar'i*ah, they were named with other names. And these issues, from them are those that are permissible in the Shara', and from them are those that are forbidden. But some of the People of Knowledge have included them in the types of Muwālāt, and then from that, the confusion took place, and they divided the Muwālāt to Mukaffīr and non-Mukaffīr. And an example is that which Shaykh Al-Islām Muhammad Ibn 'Abdil-Wahhāb mentioned from the types of Muwālāt, in his Risālah "Awthāq 'Urā Al-Imān", and Al-Qahtānī narrated most of it from him with slight changes in his book "Al-Walā' Wal-Barā' Fī Al-Islāmī" (231-247)...". Then the Imām mentioned seven of the categories that were mentioned by Imām Muhammad Ibn 'Abdil-Wahhāb, and he showed how they aren't technically Muwālāt. Then he said: "So including these things in Muwālāt, as the Shaykh Muhammad Ibn 'Abdil-Wahhāb and others did, while they are permissible sometimes, is not correct. And even if they resemble Muwālāt from the point that they are becoming close to the kuffār, except that Muwālāt is something beyond that." Then the Shaykh mentioned another example that some try to use and try to attribute to Shaykh Al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah, then he said: "And the result is that including many issues that are not considered Muwālāt from the point of the Shar'i terminology, within the definition of Muwālāt, this is what has made some divide the Muwālāt into Mukaffīr and not Mukaffīr, while Allāh has not described the Muwālāt to the kuffār with other than kufr. He (Most High) said: "And if any amongst you takes them as Awliyā', then surely he is one of them." [Al-Mā'idah:51] Just as including many things in the definition of Muwālāt which are not Muwālāt is what made some of the 'Ulamā' of the Da'wah of Najd differentiate between Muwālāt and Tawallī, and they made Muwālāt to be a kabīrah (major sin) which is not Mukaffīr, and Tawallī to be kufr. And this differentiation, no evidence supports it, not from the Shara' nor from the language. As their linguistic origin is one, and it is the closeness and nearness. And due to this, some of the others from the 'Ulamā' of Najd did not differentiate between the two, like the Shaykh 'Abdur-Rahmān Ibn Nāsir As-Sa'dī. And the sayings of the two groups are mentioned by Muhmās Al-Jal'ūd, in his book: "Al-Muwālāt Wal-Mu'ādāt" (1/31-42)." End of the words of Shaykh 'Abdul-Qādir Ibn 'Abdil-'Azīz.

⁴⁵⁸ Kufr Akbar is the kufr which expels a person from the fold of Islām.

Like the one who loves the people of Democracy for the sake of Democracy, and loves the legislating parliamentarians, and loves the modernists and the nationalists and the likes of them, due to their goals and their beliefs. So this one is a kāfir with the kufr of Tawallī.

He (Most High) said,

“O you who believe! Do not take the Jews and Christians as Awliyā'. They are but Awliyā' of each other. And if any amongst you takes them as Awliyā', then surely he is one of them.” ⁴⁶⁰

Because from the meanings of “Walī'” is “Muḥibb” (one who likes, loves); This was said by Ibn Al-Athīr رحمه الله in “An-Nihāyah” (5/228).

2) Tawallī through aid (Nusrāh) and assistance (I'ānah).

So whosoever assists the kuffār against the Muslims, then he is a kāfir, murtadd. Like those who help the Christians and Jews against the Muslims.

He (Most High) said,

“O you who believe! Do not take the Jews and Christians as Awliyā'. They are but Awliyā' of each other. And if any amongst you takes them as Awliyā', then surely he is one of them.” ⁴⁶¹

And whoever wishes a detailed discussion on this matter, then let him return to the book of Shaykh Nāsir Al-Fahd, entitled “At-Tibyān Fī Kufrī Man A'ān Al-Amrikān” ⁴⁶² - for it is indeed from the best of what was written on this topic. And do not let the deception of the People of Irjā' fool you. ⁴⁶³

⁴⁵⁹ This type of Tawallī is kufr within itself (Bi Thātib). This kufr/riddah does not require helping the kuffār against the Muslims, nor does it require lifting a finger against the Muslims- merely this type of love (Ḥubb) is apostasy from Islām. And whosoever makes this a condition for the following three types of Tawallī, then that is a saying from the Followers of Irjā' and Tajabbum.

⁴⁶⁰ Al-Mā'idah: 51

⁴⁶¹ Al-Mā'idah: 51

⁴⁶² Literally translates as, “The Exposition Regarding the Disbelief of the One That Assists the Americans”. Written by the Shaykh during the beginning of the Zionist Crusade in 2001. Note: This book has also been translated by At-Tibyān Publications, and is available in English.

⁴⁶³ The Shaykh is referring to the argument that the People of Irjā' and Tajabbum bring up; they claim “Assisting the infidels against Muslims is not kufr, unless it is done out of love for kufr, or hate

3) Tawallī through alliance (Tabāluḥf).

So whosoever allies himself with the kuffār, and contracts an alliance to support them- even if the support does not actually take place- but he promises it, as well as to back them up, and he forms a contract and a pledge upon that – (then it is as) He (Most High) said,

“Have you (O Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم) not observed the hypocrites who say to their brothers (Ikhwān), those who have disbelieved, among the people of the Scripture: (By Allāh) If you are expelled, we too indeed will go out with you, and we shall never obey anyone against you; and if you are attacked (fought), we shall indeed help you.”⁴⁶⁴

And this pledge was given by the hypocrites to some of the Jews in Madīnah.

And Al-Qāsim Ibn Salām said in “Al-Gharīb” (3/142), “And the Halīf (one who pledges loyalty) is (also) called a Walī.” And Ibn Al-Athīr رحمه الله said (similar words) in “An-Nihāyah” (5/228).

And the like of this is seen in the forming of coalitions to wage war against Jihād and the Mujāhidīn, and it is what they have falsely disguised as “Irbāb” (terrorism).

4) Tawallī through agreement (Mumāfaqah).

Like those who make Democracy as a way of ruling, just like the kuffār; or makes parliaments, just like them; or legislative councils, or committees, or organizations; just like the actions of the kuffār- then this one has made Tawallī to them.

And this was expounded upon by the Imāms of the Da'wah of Najd in the most excellent manner. Books were even compiled regarding this, (specifically) the one who harmonizes with the mushrikīn and kuffār regarding their kufr and shirk. As Sulaymān Ibn ‘Abdillāh Ibn Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdīl-Wahhāb compiled the book “Ad-Dalā'il” which is called “Hukm against Islām - only then is it apostasy. But if it is done for a worldly benefit, then it is not apostasy.” There are many ways to answer this doubt, and the easiest way to reply would be: Even if someone doesn't raise a finger to help the infidels against the Muslims, but merely hates Islām - or loves kufr - then that is apostasy within itself (Bi Thātibi), it does not require actually helping the kuffār, not even with a penny. Nay! O brother who has smelt the sweet fragrance of Imān! Even if someone wages war against the kuffār, and helps the Muslims in every way possible - but his heart hates Islām, or loves kufr - then he is a kāfir with the kufr of Tawallī. Even if he is killed at the hands of the kuffār that he was fighting in battle! So O Brother of Tawhīd! If you have realized this, then you should also have now understood that these Murji'ah do not view Muthābarah (Assisting the kuffār against the Muslims) as a Nullification of Islām. So do not let the affair of the People of Irjā' fool you!

⁴⁶⁴ Al-Hashr: 11

Muwālāt Ablil-Isbrāk”,⁴⁶⁵ and Hamad Ibn ‘Atīq compiled the book “An-Najāti Wal-Fikāki Min Muwālāti Al-Murtaddīn Wa Ablil-Isbrāk”.

And each of these four types of Tawallī, is kufīr within itself (expels from the fold of Islām), it does not matter what the person believes,⁴⁶⁶ unlike what is said by the People of Ijā'.

As for Muwālāt (and this is more wide-ranging than Tawallī), then it is of two types:

- 1) A type that is called Tawallī; and it is the types that we have mentioned previously. And sometimes it is termed, “Al-Muwālāt Al-Kubrā”,⁴⁶⁷ or “Al-Uthmā”,⁴⁶⁸ or “Al-‘Ammal”,⁴⁶⁹ or “Al-Mutlaqal”⁴⁷⁰ - and all these are synonymous to meaning of Tawallī.
- 2) The Minor or Restricted Muwālāh.

And it is everything that glorifies the kuffār; from honouring them, or letting them sit in front in the assemblies; or taking them as employees (instead of Muslims), and such things. So this is a disobedience and from the kabā'ir sins (major sins).

He (Most High) said,

“O you who believe! Do not take My enemies and your enemies as Awliyā', showing affection towards them.”⁴⁷¹

So He labeled “showing affection” as Muwālāt - and He did not declare them kuffār due to it, rather He addressed them with the label of Īmān.⁴⁷²

And these Verses (referring to Al-Mā'idah: 51) were clarified by ‘Umar, about taking a Christian as a scribe, when he rebuked Abū Mūsā Al-Ash'arī.⁴⁷³

⁴⁶⁵ This is the book that has just passed within this volume.

⁴⁶⁶ “Dūn An-Nathar Ilā Al-I'tiqād”.

⁴⁶⁷ The Major Muwālāh

⁴⁶⁸ The Greater Muwālāh

⁴⁶⁹ The General Muwālāh

⁴⁷⁰ The Absolute Muwālāh

⁴⁷¹ Al-Mumtahinah: 1

⁴⁷² Note: There is an opinion from some scholars, that the fact that Allāh addressed them with the label of Īmān doesn't necessarily prove that the action isn't major kufīr. This was clarified by Shaykh ‘Abdul-Qādir Ibn ‘Abdil-‘Azīz in his book: “Al-Jāmi' Fī Talab Al-‘Ilm Ash-Sharīf” His discussion on this issue has been translated into English, and is available within the appendix on the book “Millat Ibrahim”, available from At-Tibyān Publications.

⁴⁷³ Shaykh ‘Alī Al-Khudhayr فك الله أسره is referring to the Hadīth narrated by Abū Mūsā Al-Ash'arī رضي الله عنه, “I said to ‘Umar, “I have a scribe who is Christian.” ‘Umar replied, “What is (wrong) with you? May Allāh curse you (Qatalak Allāh)! Have you not heard Allāh saying “O you who believe! Do not take the Jews and Christians as Awliyā'. They are but Awliyā' of each other.”

And whosoever desires an expansion of knowledge regarding this matter, then he should review the book “Awthaq Urā Al-Imān” by Sulaymān Ibn ‘Abdillāh Ibn Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdil-Wahhāb, in “Majmū’at At-Tawhīd”; and the treatise “Al-Muwālāh” of ‘Abdul-Latīf Ibn ‘Abdir-Rahmān, which is found in his treatises in “Majmū’ Ar-Rasā’il Wal-Masā’il”.

- End of the words of Shaykh ‘Alī Ibn Khudhayr Al-Khudhayr فك الله أسره.

Shaykh ‘Abdullāh Ibn Humayd رحمه الله said, “It is a binding obligation upon every Muslim who is sincere to himself to know what the ‘Ulamā have said regarding the difference between Tawallī and Muwālāt - Muwālāt is, for example, talking gently with the kuffār, smiling at them, cleaning up what they spill, and other things similar to these which are taken for granted; and these, all the while still displaying rejection of them and their religion, and them being aware of this fact - is a kabīrah (major sin) from the most major of sins, and this person is in serious danger.

And as for Tawallī, it includes exalting them, or flattering them, or helping them and aiding them against the Muslims, companionship with them, not forsaking them manifestly- (any of) these is riddah of the person who does it, and it is obligatory to pass the rulings of the murtadd on him - as has been proved from the Kitāb, Sunnah, and the Ijmā’ (consensus) of the Ummah.”⁴⁷⁴

Shaykh Nāsir Ibn Hamad Al-Fahd (may Allāh hasten his release from prison) said, “So interaction (Mu’āmalah) with the kāfir is of three categories:

- 1) The First Category: Interaction which constitutes kufr which expels from Islām.

And some of the ‘Ulamā have termed this category with “Tawallī”. So every type of association which has an evidence proving that it is kufr and apostasy- then it is of this category. And that is like loving the religion of the kuffār, or hoping to see them victorious (over Islām) and other than those from the examples. And from them is this issue of ours, and it is: Assisting (Muthābarah) them against the Muslims.

And if any amongst you takes them as Awliyā’, then surely he is one of them.” Why do you not take a Hanīf (Muslim)?” Abū Mūsā then said, “O Commander of the Mu’minīn! I only need him to write (for me), and his religion is his (i.e. none of my business).” So ‘Umar replied, “Allāh has given them disgrace, so I do not respect them. I do not give them dignity, since it is Allāh that has humiliated them. I do not bring them close (to me), since it is Allāh that has removed them to the furthest limit (from us).” Narrated by Ibn Taymiyyah, and classified as “Sahīh” by him also, on the authority of Imām Ahmad, in “Iqtidbā’ As-Sirāt Al-Mustaqīm” (50), and Al-Bayhaqī in “As-Sunan Al-Kubrā” (10/127).

May Allāh bless Amīr Al-Mu’minīn ‘Umar Ibn Al-Khattāb, and may He resurrect us with ‘Umar and his Two Friends. How beautiful is the harsh reply of ‘Umar upon the one who contradicted the commandment of Allāh! Think upon this incident and then think upon the condition of today. Think upon Amīr Al-Mu’minīn saying “Qatalak Allāh”. And today, if you were to sincerely forbid a fellow brother with the same harshness as done by ‘Umar رضي الله عنه, you would be labeled as one of the “Khawārij” and such. And if you are really hated, you will be called “Bannāwī” and “Qutubī”. Wa Lā Hawla Wa Lā Quwwata Illā Billāh.

⁴⁷⁴ Refer to “Ad-Durar As-Saniyyah” (15/479)

2) The Second Category: Association which is Harām, but does not constitute kufr.

And some of the Ulamā have termed this category as "Muwālāt". So every (type of association) which has evidence showing that it is forbidden- but this forbiddance has not reached kufr- then it is from this category. And that is like preferring them to sit in front at gatherings, giving them greetings first, and showing (a type of) affection to them that doesn't reach the level of Tawallī, and such.

3) The Third Category: Association which is permissible (Jā'iz).

And it is not included in Muwālāt, and it is that which the evidences show its permissibility, like being just with them, and being fair ⁴⁷⁵ with those from them who do not wage war (against the Muslims), ⁴⁷⁶ and keeping relations with kuffār relatives, ⁴⁷⁷ and such.

- End of the words of Shaykh Nāsir Al-Fahd ⁴⁷⁸ فك الله أسره.

⁴⁷⁵ This is actually an obligation. As Allāh has said,

“O you who believe! Stand out firmly for Allāh as just witnesses; and let not the enmity and hatred of a people make you avoid justice. Be just, that is nearer to Taqwā- and fear Allāh. Verily, Allāh is Well-Acquainted with what you do.” [Al-Mā'idah: 8].

And there exists no justice, except in the Legislation of Allāh- not in the fabricated man-made laws, nor the self-claimed “Universal Human Rights” or such kufr and thulm. And whosoever claims that other than the Shari'ah is just or fair or “more humane”, then that is apostasy, as is clear in the Ten Nullifications.

⁴⁷⁶ As in the Verses,

“Allāh does not forbid you to deal justly and kindly with those who did not fight against you for your Dīn, nor drove you out of your lands. Verily, Allāh loves those who deal with fairness. It is only with regards to those who fought against you for your Dīn, and have driven you out of your lands, and helped to drive you out- that Allāh forbids you to take as Awliyā'. And whosoever takes them as Awliyā', then such are the Thālimūn.” [Al-Mumtahinah: 8-9].

⁴⁷⁷ As Allāh says to those whose parents are kuffār,

“But if they strive to make you commit shirk (join partners in 'Ībādah) with Me that which you have no knowledge- then do not obey them, but behave kindly with them in the world; and follow the path of him who turns to Me in repentance and obedience.” [Luqman: 15].

⁴⁷⁸ Refer to “At-Tibyān Fī Kufri Man A'an Al-Amrikān” (41-42). This book has also been translated in its entirety by At-Tibyān Publications, and is available on its website.

And this last category of association has more Tafsīl within it from the books of Fiqh. Some examples should be mentioned here.

Shaykh Al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah رحمه الله said, “The rule is that no business transaction that mankind requires is forbidden, except that which the Book and Sunnah say to be forbidden. Just like no Tbādāt is legislated for them, except that which is ordered in the Book and Sunnah. So the religion is whatsoever has been legislated by Allāh, and whatever Allāh has prohibited, is Harām. Contrary to those whom Allāh has warned- those who prohibit that which Allāh did not prohibit, thus committing shirk, and legislating a religion for which Allāh had given no permission.”⁴⁷⁹

He also says, “So it is permissible for a (Muslim) man to buy from their (the kuffār's) livestock and horses, just as it is permissible to buy from the livestock of the Bedouins, the Turkmen, and the Kurds; and it is permissible to sell them food, clothes, and such things. But as for selling to them that which will help them do Harām- like selling them horses or weapons which they could use to fight (against the Muslims) and do various Harām - then this is forbidden.”⁴⁸⁰ Allāh ordered,

“And help you one another in virtue and piety, but do not help one another in sin and transgression. And fear Allāh- verily, Allāh is Severe in punishment”^{481, 482}

He also said, “It is not permissible to sell to the kuffār (anything that can be used as) a weapon that they would use to fight a Muslim.”⁴⁸³

Ibn Hajar Al-‘Asqalānī رحمه الله narrates that the Salaf viewed, “Transactions with the infidels are permissible, except in selling them that which they could use to help the combatants against the Muslims.”⁴⁸⁴

And there are some conditions for having transactions with the kuffār:

- 1) The transaction should be in things which are Halāl.
- 2) That these things are not of any use to the kuffār against the Muslims.
- 3) That these transactions should not contain anything which degrades a Muslim.⁴⁸⁵

⁴⁷⁹ “As-Siyāsah Ash-Shar‘iyyah” (155)

⁴⁸¹ Al-Mā'idah: 2

⁴⁸² “Al-Masā'il Al-Mārdniyyah” (132-133)

⁴⁸³ Refer to “Iqtidhā' As-Sirāt Al-Mustaqīm” (229).

⁴⁸⁴ “Fat'h Al-Bārī” (4/410)

And Ibn Hajar رحمه الله also narrates that the Salaf viewed, “It is only legislated to visit the kuffār when there is hope that they might answer the call of Islām. But if there is no hope, then it is not permissible to visit them.”⁴⁸⁶

And for those who want further Tafsīl, then refer back to the books of Fiqh.

⁴⁸⁵ Refer to “Fat’h Al-Bārī” (4/452). But as for transactions with the apostates - there is nothing with them, except the sword; Refer to “Abkām Ahl Ath-Thimmah” by Ibn Al-Qayyim (1/67).

⁴⁸⁶ “Fat’h Al-Bārī” (10/119). He then says, “What is apparent is that it depends on the intention and the benefit derived from visiting the kuffār.” So it is not always Harām, nor is it always permissible - depending on the circumstance.

Refraining From Making Takfir of a Kāfir ⁴⁸⁷

Alhamdulillah,
Was-Salātu Was-Salāmu 'Alā Rasūlillāh;
Wa Ba'd.

Indeed the principle “Whosoever does not make Takfir of the kāfir, then he is a kāfir” is a famous, well known principle and it is the Third Nullification from the nullifications of Islām which the Shaykh Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdil-Wahhāb (Rabimabullāh Ta’alā) mentioned, as he said, “The Third: Whoever does not make Takfir to the mushrikīn, or doubts their kufr, or approves of their Math’hab, he has disbelieved”.

But this principle is not unrestricted (as it might appear). Rather there is Tafsīl; and those who are heedless of it, fall into Bātil - either by making Takfir of Muslims, or by not making Takfir of the original kuffār.⁴⁸⁸ So the Tafsīl in this matter is as follows:

Know, firstly, that the basis regarding this principle ⁴⁸⁹ is not from the direction of association with kufr through actions or statements; Rather, it is from the direction that it ⁴⁹⁰ amounts to rejection and Takthīb (belying) of (the meaning of) the texts (of the Qur’an and Hadīth).⁴⁹¹ So whosoever leaves the kāfir without Takfir, then this is a rejection from him of the clear texts which make Takfir of him.

So based on this, it is a must for the text which is narrated in the Takfir to be authentic and agreed upon, and it is necessitated that the one who leaves the Takfir is a rejecter of these texts. And the *Mukaffirāt*⁴⁹² are not merely one, and falling into them isn’t at only one level.

⁴⁸⁷ This section is based upon a short treatise written by Shaykh Nāsir Al-Fahd فک الله أسره, entitled, “Hawla Qā’idab: Man Lam Yukaffir Al-Kāfir Fabuwa Kāfir”.

⁴⁸⁸ Al-Kuffār Al-Asliyyūn: original kuffār- those who are raised upon Judaism, Christianity, Hinduism, Atheism, Zoroastrianism, Qaddiyānism, Bahāism, Secularism, Buddhism, Rāfidhah, Communism, Jainism, Zionism, Democracy, Witchcraft, Sikhism, and other such religions.

⁴⁸⁹ Referring to the principle, “Whoever does not make Takfir to the mushrikīn, or doubts their kufr, or approves of their Math’hab, he has disbelieved”.

⁴⁹⁰ Not declaring an infidel to be a kāfir

⁴⁹¹ The Shaykh is referring to the Verses such as,

“And none reject Our Verses, except the kāfirūn.” [Al-Ankabūt: 47],

and

“Then, who does more wrong than the one who utters a lie against Allāh, and denies the Truth (of this Qur’an) when it comes to him! Is there not in Hell an abode for the kāfirūn?” [Az-Zumar: 32].

⁴⁹² Mukaffirāt: Nullifications of Islām; actions, statements or beliefs, which expel a person from the fold of Islām. Also termed as kufr akbar.

And for elucidation upon this matter, it is necessary to differentiate between them, and this is divided into two types:

1) The First Type: The Original Kāfir (Al-Kāfir Al-Asli)

Like the Jews, Christians, Zoroastrians, and such people. So whosoever does not make Takfir of them, or doubts their kufr, or approves of their Math'hab - then he is a kāfir according to Ijmā' (consensus), as more than one of the People of Knowledge have mentioned.⁴⁹³ Because in this, there is the rejection of the texts which are narrated regarding the falsehood of the 'Aqeedah of other than the Muslims, and the kufr of those who are not upon the Religion of Islām.

2) The Second Type: The Apostate from Islām (Al-Murtadd 'An Al-Islām).

And this is upon two types:

a) The First: One who openly shows his apostasy, and his shift from Islām to other than it, such as Judaism, Christianity, Atheism, and such. So his ruling is the same as the previous category of "The Original Kāfir".

b) The Second: Whosoever perpetrates any Nullification from the Nullifications of Islām, but still claims to be upon Islām and not upon kufr due to this Nullification. And he is of two types:

i) The First: Whosoever commits a clear and unambiguous Nullification which has Ijmā' upon it (Mujma' 'Alayh);⁴⁹⁴ for example, cursing Allāh (Most High) - then he has disbelieved according to Ijmā'.⁴⁹⁵ And only two types of people refrain from making Takfir upon this person:

- The First) The people who accept and believe that cursing (Allāh) is kufr, and that this action is kufr. But they refrain from placing the ruling upon a specific individual because of lack of knowledge (regarding the ⁴⁹³ Al-Qādhi 'Iyyādh رحمه الله also said, "And this is why we make Takfir of anyone who doesn't declare those who follow other religions than Islām to be kuffār, and (we also do Takfir of) whosoever doubts their kufr, or validates their Math'hab - even if he displays Islām and believes in it, and believes in the futility of every Math'hab other than Islām - he is a kāfir (for not making Takfir of the kuffār)."

"Ash-Shifā'" (2/286). Note - O Brother of Islām - that this is almost exactly the same as the words of Shaykh Al-Islām رحمه الله.

⁴⁹⁴ And one of the clear and unambiguous Nullifications which has Ijmā' upon it, is as Shaykh Ibn Bāz رحمه الله said, "The 'Ulamā' of Islām are united upon the fact that whosoever aids the kuffār against the Muslims, collaborates with them with any type of assistance, then that person is a kāfir just like them." "Majmū' Fatāwā" (1/274).

⁴⁹⁵ Refer to "Fatāwā Ash-Shaykh Muhammad Ibn Ibrāhīm" (1/174, 12/195), "Fatāwā Ash-Shaykh Ibn Bāz" (3/165), "Fatāwā Ash-Shaykh Ibn 'Uthaymīn" (1/62). And Shaykh Sulaymān Al-Ash-Shaykh رحمه الله said, "So whosoever ridicules Allāh, or His Book, or His Messenger, or His Dīn - then he becomes a kāfir according to Ijmā', even if he was joking and didn't really mean to ridicule. So whosoever does anything from that, then the scholars are all agreed that he is kāfir." "Taysīr Al-'Aẓẓ Al-Hamīd" (617). And Imām Muhammad Ibn 'Abdil-Wahhāb رحمه الله included it in the Ten Nullifications.

state/condition of the specific individual), or due to a doubt that he has (that that specific individual did not curse Allāh actually) and such. So such people are mistaken, and their statement is false - but such people have not committed kufr, since they haven't rejected any text, nor belied them; and they have accepted what was narrated from the texts and the Ijmā' which mention that cursing (Allāh or anything related to the Dīn) is kufr.

- And the Second) Those who reject the fact that cursing (Allāh) is kufr, so this one disbelieves after Bayan (clarification), because it is a rejection of the texts and the Ijmā'. And this is like those who worship graves from those who ascribe themselves to Islām. So whosoever does not accept that this action (of worshipping graves) is kufr - then he disbelieves, because it is a rejection of the texts and the Ijmā'. And whoever accepts that this action is kufr, but refrains from his Takfīr due to a doubt, then he does not disbelieve (as has preceded).

- ii) Second Category: Whosoever commits a nullification which is differed upon - for example Tark As-Salāt (Abandonment of Salāt). Thus the Takfīr upon this person (who abandons Salāt) is a matter of disagreement. And the one who contradicts in it [i.e. does not declare the one who abandons Salāt to be a kāfir] does not disbelieve, nor are they declared to be upon Bid'ah or Fisq, even though they are mistaken (Khata).

This is the summary of what I have been able to prepare regarding this principle.

Wa SallAllāhu 'Alā Mubammad.

Written by your Brother,
Nāsir Ibn Hamad Al-Fahd

The Verdict of Imām Ahmad Shākir ⁴⁹⁷

The Mufasssīr, Muhaddith, Muhaqqiq, the Salafī Muftī of the Lands of Egypt- Al-'Allāmah Ahmad Shākir (ra, 1309-1377) said:

“As for collaborating (Ta'āwun) with the English (against the Muslims), with any type (of cooperation) from the various types of cooperation, ⁴⁹⁸ regardless of how minute or great: then this is the extreme apostasy (ar-riddah al-jāmiḥah), and undeniable infidelity (al-kufr as-sirāḥ). And there is no acceptable excuse in this regard, nor any beneficial misinterpretation (Ta'wīl), nor does feebleminded patriotism save (anyone) from its ruling, nor any foolish politics, ⁴⁹⁹ nor in order to show courtesy (mujāmalah).

It is Nifāq (the major hypocrisy, which expels from Islām), whether it is from individuals, governments or leaders - they are all equal in kufr and riddah. ⁵⁰⁰

(No one is excused) except he who is unaware (that it might benefit the kuffār) or mistaken (not knowing that he helped them). ⁵⁰¹ Then he becomes aware of his matter, so he repents, and takes the Path of the Mu'minin, then those are people whom Allāh may forgive- if they become sincere to Allāh, not (if they do it) for the (sake of) politics, nor for (showing and pleasing) the people.

And I believe that I have been able to clarify the verdict for fighting the English, and the ruling regarding collaborating with them, no matter what the nature of the cooperation or association may be- so that every Muslim who can read Arabic will be able to grasp it, no matter what class (of society) the person is from, and no matter in what part of the Earth he resides.

And I assume that every reader is no longer in doubt, that it is something which is self-evident and no further explanation or evidence is needed; that the affair of the French in this sense is the same as the English, in accordance to every Muslim on the face of the Earth. For indeed the hostility of the French against the Muslims, and their extreme zeal in their activities to obliterate Islām, and in waging war against Islām, is multiple times more than the zeal of the English and their hostility. Rather, they are feebleminded in nationalism and hostility. And they are killing our Muslim brethren in each Islāmic land in which they have authority or influence. And they perpetrate such crimes and atrocities, that the crimes and ⁴⁹⁷ This section is taken from his book “Kalimatu Haqq” (126-137). This is taken from an extremely lengthy Fatwa from the Shaykh entitled, “An address to the Egyptian Nation specifically, and to the Arabian and Islāmic Nations generally”. This deals with the ruling about cooperating with the English and French, during the period of their occupation and transgression against the Muslims. He is more severe against the French because they were the carriers of the banner of the Crusade in the Egyptian lands, at that time. As today the Americans are. May Allāh have mercy upon the Shaykh, and enter him into Jannah, and benefit the Ummah with his knowledge.

⁴⁹⁹ Meaning those types of politics which are actually Mudābanah to the kuffār.

⁵⁰⁰ Sawā'an A' kān Thalīk Min Afrād Aw Hukūmat Aw Zu'ama'- Kullubum Fī al-kufr Wa ar-riddah Sawā'

⁵⁰¹ Like a slip of the tongue, saying something unintentionally which turned out to be of help to the kuffār. Wallahu A'lam.

savagery of the English seem trivial and dwindle in comparison. So they and the English are equal in the verdict: Their blood and their wealth is Halāl, regardless of where they are.⁵⁰² And it is not permissible for any Muslim, no matter where on Earth he may be, to cooperate with them (against the Muslims) - no matter what type of collaboration it may be. And verily, cooperating with them has the same ruling as cooperating with the English - apostasy and complete exit from Islām; no matter what the colour of the cooperator is, or his type, or his nationality...⁵⁰³

Until he stated:

“...Alas! Let every single Muslim in each and every corner of the world know! That if he collaborates with the enemies of *Islām - those who are enslaving the Muslims - from amongst the English, the French or their various allies and those who resemble them- with any form of cooperation, or shows peace to them and doesn't wage war against them with whatever he is capable of⁵⁰⁴ - let alone assisting them with statements or actions against their brethren in *Dīn; So if anyone does any of these things, then he performs Salāt- then his Salāt is invalid (Bātil); or seeks to purify himself with Wudhū' (ablution), Ghusl (bath), or Tayammum - then his purification is invalid (Bātil); or fasts an obligatory or voluntary Siyam, then his fasting is Bātil; or performs Hajj, then his Hajj is Bātil; or gives the obligatory Zakāt, or gives charity (Sadaqah) voluntarily- then his Zakāt is Bātil, and rejected (and thrown) back to him; or worships his Lord with any form of Tbādab- then his Tbādab is Bātil and rejected back onto him.⁵⁰⁵ There are no rewards for him in anything from that - Rather, (it is) sin and burden against him.⁵⁰⁶

⁵⁰² “Dimā'ubum Wa Amwālubum Halāl Fī Kullī Makān.” This verdict resembles what the Shuyūkh of Tawhīd have in more recent days have issued regarding the Zionists and Crusaders in their colonies all over the world.

⁵⁰⁴ Mark this Fatwā in your heart- O Son of Ibrāhīm عليه السلام !

⁵⁰⁵ Since Allāh does not accept the Tbādab of the kuffār, regardless of original or apostate, no matter how much they worship Him- as He (Most High) said,

“If you commit shirk, then indeed all of your deeds will be cancelled- and certainly you will be among the losers.” [Aḥ-Zumar: 65],

and

“The parable of those who committed kuffr against their Lord, is that their deeds are as ashes, on which the wind blows furiously on a stormy day; they shall not be able to get anything of what they have earned. That is the far astrayness.” [Ibrāhīm: 18],

and

Alas! Let every single Muslim know! That if he rides this faulty vessel (assists the kuffār against a Muslim), then his deeds are invalidated- (meaning) every single Tbādab which he dedicated to his Lord before he tossed himself into the filth of apostasy, which he was satisfied with for himself ⁵⁰⁷- and refuge is sought with Allāh, lest a Muslim who is truly deserving of the great description that he believes in Allāh and His Messenger actually be satisfied with that.

This is because Īmān is a condition for the validity and acceptance of every Tbādab, as is well-known and obvious by necessity in the Dīn - and no one from the Muslims would disagree in this matter.

And this is because Allāh (Glory Be To Him) says,

“And whosoever commits *kuf*r against Īmān, then his deeds are cancelled; and in the Hereafter he will be among the losers.” ⁵⁰⁸

And that is because Allāh (Glory Be To Him) has said,

“We shall turn to whatever deeds they (the infidels, pagans, and apostates) did, and We shall make such deeds as scattered floating particles of dust (fruitless and futile).” [Al-Furqān: 23].

⁵⁰⁶ Remember this O Brother of Hanfiyyah! This is clear from the Imām, as his predecessors also clarified, that there is no stipulation that someone has to “love *kuf*r” or “hate Islām” for the collaborator (Muthābir) - as the Murji'ah claim. The Imām has clarified that even if someone loves Islām, but yet collaborates with the kuffār against the Muslims, then he has apostatized from Islām. This is apparent from the Imām when he is saying that even if someone fasts many voluntarily fasts, and gives lots of charity voluntarily- but still assists the kuffār against the Muslims, then he has exited Islām. For it is unlikely that one who fasts voluntarily, and gives lots of Sadaqah voluntarily, doesn't love Islām. But yet if this person commits Muthābarah- then he has apostatized.

⁵⁰⁷ Just in case the Followers of Irjā' and Tajabbuh try to make Ta'wil of this statement... Let it be clarified by the statement of Imām Ibn Jarīr At-Tabarī رحمه الله in his Tafsīr of the Verse [Al-Mā'idah: 51]: “And if any amongst you takes them as Awliyā', then surely he is one of them”- So whosoever helps [does Tawallī to] the Jews and Christians against the Mu'minin, then he is indeed one of them (Jews and Christians). For verily, whoever does Tawallī to them and assists them against the Mu'minin, then he is indeed from the people of their religion and community. For surely, no one befriends [does Tawallī to] someone, except because he is truly with him, and with his religion, and is pleased with what he is upon; and since he is pleased with him and his religion, that necessitates that he be hostile against what opposes that [and Islām is what opposes *kuf*r] - so the kaḥfīr's ruling and the his ruling is one and the same.” At-Tabarī (6/277). But this stipulation is the opinion of the Mufasssīr رحمه الله. But what is correct is that they were not pleased with *kuf*r, but rather only did it because of fear. As Ibn Taymiyyah رحمه الله said, “The Mufasssīrūn are agreed that these Verses were revealed regarding some people who had the disease of Khanf, fearing that the Muslims might be defeated, thus they helped the Jews and Christians because of the fear in their hearts - not because they thought Muhammad was a liar, nor that the kuffār were truthful.” “Majmū' Al-Fatāwā'” (7/193-194).

⁵⁰⁸ Al-Mā'idah: 5

“And they will never cease fighting you until they turn you back from your Dīn (Islām), if they can. And whosoever of you turns back from his Dīn, and dies as a kāfir, then his deeds will be lost in this life and in the Hereafter. And they will be the dwellers of the Fire. They will abide therein forever.” ⁵⁰⁹

And that is because Allāh (Most High) has said,

“O you who believe! Do not take the Jews and Christians as Awliyā'. They are but Awliyā' of each other. And if any amongst you takes them as Awliyā', then surely he is one of them. Verily, Allāh guides not those people who are the Thālimīn. And you see in those in whose hearts there is a disease (of hypocrisy), they hurry to their friendship, saying: ‘We fear ⁵¹⁰ lest some misfortune of a disaster may befall us.’ Perhaps Allah may bring a victory or a decision according to His Will. Then they will become regretful for what they have been keeping as a secret in themselves. And those who have Īmān will say, “Are these the men (hypocrites) who swore their strongest oaths by Allāh that they were with you (O Muslims)?” ⁵¹¹ All that they did has been in futility, so they have become losers.” ⁵¹²

And that is because Allāh (Glory Be To Him) has said,

⁵⁰⁹ Al-Baqarab: 217

⁵¹⁰ Yet, did Allāh excuse them because of “fear”- as the Murji'ah claim?

⁵¹² Al-Mā'idab: 51-53. So these Verses end with clear-cut Takfir of those who do Tawalli - since only the actions and deeds of the kuffār are invalidated and made to be futile.

“Verily, those who have turned back (have apostatized) after the Guidance has been manifested to them- Shaytān has beautified for them (their false hopes), and (Allāh) prolonged their term (age). This, is because they said to those who hate what Allāh has sent down, “We will obey you in part of the matter.” But Allāh knows their secrets. Then how (will it be) when the Angels will take their souls at death, smiting their faces and their backs? That is because they followed that which angered Allāh, and hated that which pleased Him. So, He made their deeds fruitless. Or do those in whose hearts is a disease (of hypocrisy), think that Allāh will not bring to light their hidden enmity? Had We willed, We could have shown them to you, and you should have known them by their marks; but surely, you will know them by the tone of their speech! And Allāh knows (all) your deeds. And surely, We shall test you till We know the Mujāhidīn from amongst you, and the patient ones (in Jihād); and We shall test your facts.⁵¹³ Verily, those who commit kuf̄r and hinder (people) from the Path of Allāh, and oppose the Messenger, after Guidance has been clearly shown to them, they will not harm Allāh in the least. Rather, He shall make their deeds invalid. O you who Believe! Obey Allāh, and obey the Messenger, and do not wipe your (own) deeds out. Verily, those who commit kuf̄r, and hinder (people) from the Path of Allāh - then die while they are kuffār - Allāh will never forgive them. So do not be weak, and ask not for peace (from the enemies of Allāh), while you have the upper hand. Allāh is with you, and He will never decrease the reward of your good deeds.”⁵¹⁴

Alas! Let every Muslim and every Muslimah know! That those ones who have come out to fight against their Dīn, and are aiding their enemies - that whosoever marries these people, then their marriage is invalid (Bātil)⁵¹⁵, nullified from its very base, and it is not possible to validate it; and not a single thing remains from the wedlock, like affiliation and inheritance and such things. And that whosoever was already married, then their wedlock is annulled.

⁵¹³ Those who are true or liars in their claim to be Muslims.

⁵¹⁴ Muhammad: 25-35

⁵¹⁵ Note - O Brother of Tawhīd - how much the Imām stresses that the wedlock/marriage of an apostate is Bātil, as you shall see... and this is not done, except to show that indeed, such a collaborator is an apostate.

And likewise, those who repent ⁵¹⁶ from amongst them - and return to their Lord and to their Dīn, and wage war against His enemies, and help His Ummah - then the spouses that they married while in a state of apostasy, or whom they were married to at the time of the riddah - they are not their wives, nor are they under their protection. Rather, after the repentance, it is obligatory to renew their wedlock, by performing a new, valid, Shar'ī contract, ⁵¹⁷ as is clear and obvious.

Alas! Let the Muslim women in each and every corner of the world take heed! So that before they marry, they should be sure that those who are offering to marry them are not from this forsaken group that has left the Dīn - in order to protect their own selves and their honor; To preserve themselves from having intercourse with men whom they assume are their husbands, but in reality they are not their husbands - for verily their wedlock is invalid in the Dīn of Allāh.

Alas! Let the Muslim women know! Those whom Allāh has tested by giving them spouses who flung themselves into this filthy apostasy - Let them know that their marriages are nullified (Bātil); and they have become Harām for these men (who have collaborated with the kuffār), and they are no longer their husbands; until they (the collaborators) repent a correct repentance which is acted upon ('Amaliyyah), ⁵¹⁸ and then they marry them with a new, valid marriage.

Alas! Let the Muslim women know! That whosoever from amongst them is pleased to marry a man like this, while knowing that he is such; or is pleased with remaining (in marriage) with this husband whom she knows has this riddah in him - Then she shares the same ruling as her husband in apostasy - they are equal. And may Allāh save the Muslim women from being pleased with anything like that for themselves and for their honor, and the lineage of their children, and their Dīn.

Alas! Indeed the matter is very severe, and it is not a joke. ⁵¹⁹ And what is the benefit of setting laws that punish those who collaborate with the enemy - as indeed, how many ploys there are to dodge the texts of the Divine Laws, and how many paths there are to free the Mujrimīn ⁵²⁰ of any blame- by using fabricated interpretations, and clever ⁵¹⁶ Remember O Ghurabā'- How the Imām defines valid "repentance" as: "and return to their Lord and their Dīn, and wage war against His enemies, and help the Ummah of Islām". As the repentance has to be actualized in action, not mere verbal claims.

⁵¹⁷ Grasp this verdict tightly- O Ghurabā'! For whosoever continues in such a state of apostasy, is only committing Zinā with a murtadd.

⁵¹⁸ This is clear from the Imām. It has to be acted upon, not merely saying with the mouth, "We know we are doing sins and transgressions." And this statement - 'Amaliyyah' - is elucidated upon by the Imām when he said earlier, "those who repent from amongst them, and return to their Lord and their Dīn, and wage war against His enemies, and help the Ummah of Islām".

⁵²⁰ Mujrimīn: criminals, culprits, felons. In this context, the Shaykh is referring to the apostate collaborators.

statements.⁵²¹ But even so, the Ummah is responsible for establishing its Dīn, and to take action in order to aid it, in every moment and era. And the individuals will be questioned, when they are in front of Allāh on the Day of Resurrection, regarding what their hands had sent forth, and what their hearts were doing.

So let every person look into himself, and become a fence (of protection) for his Dīn, to protect it from the abuse of the abusers, and from the treachery of the traitors; for every Muslim is (a vanguard) at a port from the ports of Islām, so let him beware lest Islām will be attacked from his side. And verily, the Victory is only from Allāh. And,

“Surely, Allāh will help those who help His Cause.”⁵²²

- End of the words of Imām Ahmad Shākir Al-Misrī رحمه الله.

Since Imām Ahmad Shākir رحمه الله brought up one of the rulings regarding the apostate, such as the nullification of their marriages, it would be beneficial to mention a few other rulings which are affected also.

Shaykh ‘Alī Al-Khudhayr فكه الله أسره mentions in his book “Al-Haqā'iq Fī At-Tawhīd”, some of the following rulings which become affected and thus become either obligatory, preferred, neutral, disliked, or forbidden,⁵²³ according to the specific circumstance:

And what is meant by ‘Rulings’ is the likes of,

- Munākahab: The marriages of the murtaddīn
- Muwāratbab: Murtaddīn inheriting from Muslims, and Muslims inheriting from them
- Maḥabbab: Loving the murtaddīn
- Muwālāb: Befriending the murtaddīn
- Nusrab: Helping the murtaddīn
- Mu'ādāb: Hostility towards the murtaddīn
- Barā'ab: Disavowal from the murtaddīn
- Salāt Kbalfabu: Praying behind a murtadd
- Salāt 'Alaybi: Praying Janāzah over the murtaddīn
- Musākanab: Staying and/or residing with the murtaddīn
- Du'ā Labu: Making Du'ā for them
- Du'ā 'Alaybi: Making Du'ā against them
- Sabb: Insulting the murtaddīn

⁵²¹ Remember this, as this is exactly what the Murji'ah due for the sake of their kings, and what the Mujrimin due to justify their apostasy.

⁵²² Al-Hajj: 40

⁵²³ Also known as the five rulings of Fiqh: Wājib, Mandūb, Mubāb, Makrūb, and Harām.

- La'n: Cursing them
- Qat: Killing them
- Qitāl: Fighting against them
- Ta'thib: Punishing them
- Hillu Nisā'ihim: The permissibility of their women
- Hillu Thabā'ihim: The permissibility of eating from their slaughtering
- Dafn Wa Maqābir: Burial of the murtaddīn

Whoever wants further details should refer back to the book "Al-Haqā'iq Fī At-Tawhīd". So what has been mentioned above are just some of the rulings which are affected when someone apostatizes - some become obligatory, and some become forbidden, etc.

The Imāms of Najd - Vs. - the Murji'ah ⁵²⁴

Imām Muhammad Ibn 'Abdil-Wahhāb رحمه الله said, "Know: That it is from the Wisdom of Allāh (Most High) that He never sent a Prophet with this Tawhīd, except that He also set up enemies against him. As He (Most High) said,

"So We have appointed for every Prophet enemies- Shayātīn among humans and Jinn, inspiring one another with adorned speech as a delusion." ⁵²⁵

And the enemies of Tawhīd can sometimes have varieties of knowledge, books, and arguments (which they use against the Hunafā'); Just as He said,

"Then when their Messengers came to them with clear proofs, they exulted (in pride) with that which they had of knowledge." ⁵²⁶

- End of the words of Imām Muhammad Ibn 'Abdil-Wahhāb رحمه الله.

Thus it is of utmost importance that the person who intends to follow the Millat Ibrāhīm, knows these arguments along with their refutations...

Many of the sincere English-speaking brothers have been misguided by this Abdul-Muhsin Ubaykān's Fatwā regarding Muthābarah (collaboration with the kuffār against the Muslims). ⁵²⁷ And to this day, many of the Jahmī-styled Murji'ah keep on circulating his Fatwā ⁵²⁸ - even though it is against the Fatāwā of Shaykh Ibn Bāz رحمه الله and Shaykh Sālih Al-Fawzān (not to mention all the Imāms of the Da'wah of Najd).

⁵²⁵ Al-An'ām: 112

⁵²⁶ Ghāfir: 83. Refer to "Kashf Ash-Shubuhāt" by the Imām.

⁵²⁷ But most of those brothers who have read the above mentioned books without bias have returned to the path of Tawhīd and Sunnah and the rest of the Salaf, Wa Lillāh Al-Hamd.

⁵²⁸ And there is another book which is circulated by the Murji'ah, "Al-Walā' Wal-Barā' Bayna As-Samābah Wal-Ghulunn" invented by Dr. Hātim Ibn 'Ārif, an absolute Qusūrī. Not once in his book does he bring up that the Eighth Nullification of Islām is "Muthābarah". Not once does he even mention the Fatāwā of the Imāms of the Salaf regarding the collaborator. But rather he only makes Ijā'-based Ta'wīl of the statements of the scholars regarding various Verses and Abādīth. But he doesn't refer to any of the Tabqīs of the Salaf into the matter of Muthābarah, as Shaykh Nāsir Al-Fahd رحمه الله did in his book "At-Tibyān".

For the sake of shortness, I will briefly mention the doubts and Shubuhāt that this man brings up in his Fatwā, which was translated by the Murji'ah into English as “Muwālāt and Mudhāharah (Loyalty and Support) to the Mushrikeen”:

- 1) He brings quotes from Muhammad Rashīd Ridhā' and Imām Ibn Hazm رحمه الله.⁵²⁹ I will not waste time to refute these, since it is clear that it is not even regarding the topic - and it has been taken out of context to make it seem as if it is relevant.
- 2) The Hadīth regarding Hātib Ibn Abī Balta'ah رضي الله عنه. He makes improper Ta'wīl regarding this Hadīth.
- 3) The Hadīth regarding Abū Jandal. He only mentions it very briefly, because it is obvious that if he mentioned the whole ordeal, then he would be refuting himself.
- 4) He divides Muthābarah into three categories - and he is the first person in history to have done this. Even Shaykh Sālih Al-Fawzān, when asked if there is any Tafsīl regarding Muwālāt (referring to the Muthābarah)⁵³⁰ - he replied that there is not any Tafsīl, rather- Muthābarah is a Nullification of Islām.⁵³¹

And even besides these, 'Ubaykān has fabricated lies against the scholars of Islām - which will be addressed within this section, In Shā' Allāh. So, In Shā' Allāh, let us begin dissecting this man's doubts.

1) Dividing Muthābarah into three categories

First of all - the sincere brethren should know that this division into three categories is a new invention from 'Abdul-Muhsin Ibn Nāsir Al-'Ubaykān⁵³² himself; he has no Salaf with him in this regard, meaning that none of the Pious Predecessors have been as “intelligent” as him. This is a Bid'ah from his own case.

So this is the state-of-the-art breakthrough of 'Ubaykān; his claim is as follows:

⁵²⁹ As for the words of Ibn Hazm رحمه الله - It is regarding the topic of “A Muslim seeks help from a kāfir against another Muslim”. And this has nothing to do with the question, which was about “Helping a kāfir against a Muslim”- which is known to the Salaf as Muthābarah, the Eighth Nullification of Islām. And even for the topic of seeking help from the kuffār- Ibn Hazm mentions two conditions for it: 1) that the Muslims are the superior in power, and 2) that the kuffār are followers of the Muslims in this matter [and not the other way around]. And also the brothers should read the book of Shaykh Hamūd Ibn 'Uqlā' Al-Shu'aybī رحمه الله, entitled “Al-Qawl Al-Mukhtār Fī Hukmi Al-Isti'ānah Bil-Kuffār”. As for the words of Rashīd Ridhā', they are taken out of context, this exposes 'Ubaykān's desire to hide the Truth. And 'Ubaykān knows this very well- but apparently, he just wanted to make it seem as if a lot of scholars are with him, even though the statements are regarding an entirely different topic.

⁵³¹ Refer to the Ten Nullifications of Islām, by Shaykh Al-Islām Muhammad Ibn 'Abdīl-Wahhāb رحمه الله.

⁵³² The man is clearly willing to do anything, to the extent of saying that no scholar ever said that Muthābarah is a nullification of Islām- as you will see.

- 1) Helping the kuffār against the Muslims- while being pleased with kufr. He claims only in this condition does the collaborator exit the Dīn, and become an apostate, murtadd.
- 2) Helping the kuffār against the Muslims- for a worldly reason, without any justifiable reason [according to his new invention], such as (the absence of) Khanf (fear), etc. In this condition, it is a major sin (kabīrah) - not kufr.
- 3) Helping the kuffār against the Muslims- due to a justifiable reason, such as Khanf (fear). In this condition, it is perfectly permissible, no sin, neither minor, nor major - let alone kufr and apostasy.

So this is a summarization of his latest discoveries (may Allāh protect the Muslims from its evil).

But as for the Salaf, and those who follow their Manhaj and 'Aqīdah till today, they were satisfied with the following:

“The Eighth Nullification of Islām: Helping the kuffār and cooperating with them against the Muslims. As Allāh (Most High) has said,

“And if any amongst you takes them (kuffār) as Awliyā',⁵³³ then surely he is one of them (kuffār).”⁵³⁴

And it is well known that all of the Ten Nullifications are a matter of Ijmā' of the scholars.

And Imām Muhammad Ibn 'Abdīl-Wahhāb رَحِمَهُ اللهُ then says at the end of his treatise, “So there is no difference concerning these Ten Nullifications between the one who does it out of jest, or while being serious, or out of fear for his wealth and status (Khā'if); the only one excused is the Mukrah.⁵³⁵ All of these are the greatest danger upon most people. So the ⁵³³ Allies, Supporters, Protectors, Friends, Helpers, etc.

⁵³⁴ Al-Mā'idah: 51

⁵³⁵ But this does not mean that it is allowed to help the kuffār against the Muslims (Muthābarah). For Ikrāh (coercion), if it is truly coercion, then it is permissible to say words of kufr, and do actions of kufr- as long as it does not involve hurting another Muslim; and if it does involve hurting another Muslim, then it is not permissible according to Ijmā'- for he is not allowed to kill another brother for the sake of his own life. An-Nawawī رَحِمَهُ اللهُ says, “As for killing (a Muslim), then it is not permissible even under Ikrāh- according to Ijmā'.” [Al-Minhāj Sharh Sahīh Muslim Ibn Al-Hajjāj 18/16-17]. Ibn Rajab Al-Hanbalī رَحِمَهُ اللهُ said, “The scholars are united upon the fact that if someone is (being) coerced to kill a Muslim- then it is (still) not permissible to kill him. Because he has actually chosen to kill that other person in order to save his own life from being killed. And this has Ijmā' of the scholars that it is transgression.” [Jāmi' Al-'Ulūmi Wal-Hikam 2/371]. Shaykh Al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah رَحِمَهُ اللهُ said regarding those who are coerced by the Tatārs to help them against the Muslims, “Even if he is coerced to fight (against the Muslims) in this time of tribulation, it is still not permissible for him to fight. Rather, it is obligatory that he destroys his weapons, and be patient until he is martyred... There is no doubt that it is obligatory upon him that, if he is forced to be present (on the battlefield), that he does not fight- even if the Muslims end up killing him... Indeed it is not permissible for him to kill another Muslim according to consensus. So if he is coerced and threatened Muslim should beware of these Nullifications, and he should fear for himself in regards to them.”⁵³⁶

So let us firstly mention, as has already been mentioned, that these three categories are a Bid'ah - none of the scholars of the Salaf preceded him in this; and he is the only person to invent this categorization.

So when this is understood- one should ask, “Why did this person create this invention? And who does this invention support?” Did he do it to warn people from that which Allāh has warned from, and to help preach Allāh’s Words to mankind?

Such as,

“And had they believed in Allāh, and in the Prophet, and in what has been revealed to him- they would have never taken them (the kuffār) as Awliyā.”⁵³⁷

Or was ‘Ubaykān trying to say, “And if inside your heart, you love⁵³⁸ Allāh and the Prophet, and what has been revealed to him- then it is okay to take the Zionists and Crusaders as your Awliyā.”⁵³⁹

But Allāh says,

“O you who Believe! If you obey those who do kufir, they will send you back on your heels, and you will turn back (from Īmān) as losers.”⁵⁴⁰ that he will be killed unless he kills another Muslim- then it is still not permissible for him to kill someone for the sake of not being killed himself. It is not permissible to oppress someone for the sake of not being killed himself.” [Majmū’ Al-Fatāwā 28/538-539]. Also refer to the end of the Sharh by Shaykh ‘Alī Ash-Khudhayr on “Kashf Ash-Shubuhāt”, entitled “At-Tawdhib Wa At-Tatimmāt”, for he has explained this thoroughly.

⁵³⁷ Al-Mā’idab: 81

⁵³⁸ Isn’t it amazing how every time some ‘entity’ is perpetrating a Nullification of Islām - These Jahmi-styled Murji’ah pop up and ask regarding what the unseen affairs of the heart are? Like, “Does he consider it Halāl? Does he love kufir? Does he hate Islām? etc...” In Shā’ Allāh, you will soon read a statement from Shaykh Sālih Al-Fawzān regarding this.

⁵⁴⁰ Al ‘Imrān: 149

“And if you obey them (the kuffār), then you would indeed be mushrikūn.”⁵⁴¹

Or was ‘Ubaykān trying to say, “O you who Believe! If you obey those who do kufr, they will not send you back on your heels, rather you can get both riches in this world by helping the kuffār against Muslims, and in the Hereafter you will be victoriously in Paradise.”⁵⁴²

But Allāh says,

“You will not find any people who believe in Allāh and the Last Day, making friendship with those who oppose Allāh and His Messenger- even if they are their fathers, their sons, their brothers, or their kindred. For such (people), He has written Īmān in their hearts, and strengthened them with the light from Himself. And He will admit them to Gardens (Paradise) under which rivers flow, to dwell therein (forever). Allāh is pleased with them, and they are pleased with Him. They are the Party of Allāh. Verily, it is the Party of Allāh that will be successful.”⁵⁴³

Or was ‘Ubaykān trying to say “You will find many people who believe in Allāh and the Last Day, making friendship with those who oppose Allāh and His Messenger - even if they are Zionists, Crusaders, Hindus, or Tawāghūt. For such traitors, He has written Īmān in their hearts, and strengthened them with Crusaders and Jews...”⁵⁴⁴

Allāh clarifies,

“Give to the Munāfiqīn (hypocrites who are actually kuffār pretending to be Muslims) the tidings that there is for them a painful torment- those who take the kāfirīn as Awliyā' instead of the Mu'minīn. Do they seek honor, power, and glory with them?”⁵⁴⁵

⁵⁴¹ Al-An'ām: 121

⁵⁴² Although these are not the exact words of ‘Ubaykān- these meanings are implied in his Fatwā- and anyone who reads his Fatwā will know that it implies that he supports these views also.

⁵⁴³ Al-Mujādilab: 22

⁵⁴⁴ Although these are not the exact words of ‘Ubaykān- these meanings are implied in his Fatwā- and anyone who reads his Fatwā will know that it implies that he supports these views also.

⁵⁴⁵ An-Nisā': 138-139

Yet 'Ubaykān challenges this, "If anyone helps the kuffār in their Crusade against the Muslims for a worldly reason - such as seeking honor, power, and glory with them- Then such a person is not a Munāfiq, but rather a Mu'min - as long as he "loves" Islām." ⁵⁴⁶

But Allāh says,

"So on them is wrath from Allāh, and theirs will be a great torment. That is because they loved and preferred the life of this world over that of the Hereafter. And Allāh does not guide the people who are kāfirīn." ⁵⁴⁷

And Allāh orders,

"Therefore do not fear men, but fear Me- and do not sell My Verses for a miserable price." ⁵⁴⁸

And He warns,

"Then do you believe in a part of the Book and reject the rest? ... Those are they who have bought the life of this world at the price of the Hereafter. So the torment shall not be lightened off of them nor shall they be helped." ⁵⁴⁹

Or was 'Ubaykān trying to protest and argue, "If they prefer the life of this world over the Hereafter- and sell the Hereafter for the glory of this Dunyā, then let them go ahead and kill those Muwahhidīn - join the Zionist club! After all, you will be getting riches and glory! And those Khawārij won't be worrying us or our Zionist brothers anymore! And Allāh will not punish you if you love Him inside your heart. So if you love Him inside your heart, then go ahead and slice and dice those who worship Him Alone! As long as your heart is with the Muslims, and your heart is against the mushrikīn - there is no problem if you kill Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم (but don't forget to love him inside your heart!) and assist Abū Lahab and

⁵⁴⁷ An-Nabl: 106-107

⁵⁴⁸ Al-Mā'idah: 44

⁵⁴⁹ Al-Baqarah: 85-86

Abū Jahl against the Muslims! And whosoever does Takfīr of us - then he is of the ignorant Khawārij, the dogs of Hell!"⁵⁵⁰

So was 'Ubaykān trying to support Allāh's continuous warnings regarding allying with the kuffār?

And is 'Ubaykān helping the Allies of Allāh; or is he supporting the allies of the Tawāghūt?

After you have answered that question- let us then go forward...

Not only is he an inventor of Bid'ah - his new division invention contradicts the verdicts of the Senior Scholars. He says in his Fatwā, "And giving verdict in the likes of these general affairs that are connected to the dealings and interactions between nation states, and between the rulers is not the right of every person from the students of knowledge. Rather, it is the speciality of the Senior Scholars, those who connect with those in authority and who know the reality of the situation, and overwhelmingly, the outwardly displayed matters are opposed to the hidden reality."

So he is calling to forsake the generality of the Verse,

"The Mu'minūn and Mu'mināt are Awliyā' of one another - they enjoin Ma'rūf (righteousness), and forbid Munkar (evil)."⁵⁵¹

And the command from the Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم, "Whosoever amongst you sees something evil, then let him rectify it with his hand (take physical action); then if he is not able to, then with his tongue (speak against it); then if he is not able to, then (hate it)⁵⁵² with in his heart, and that is the weakest of Imān."⁵⁵³

But even so - let us agree with 'Ubaykān for the sake of argument. Then we ask him, "If the Senior Scholars are the ones who know the reality of the affairs - Then why has he opposed them?"

Why does he want to revolutionize the traditional ruling regarding Muthābarah? Why has he divided it into three branches - while the Salaf knew nothing about this division? Why is he reminding us of the Quburiyyah who divide Bid'ah into two branches "good bidah hasanal" and

⁵⁵¹ At-Tawbah: 71

⁵⁵² And make sincere Du'ā' against that evil, despise it, and wait for any moment that he can do the higher two forms mentioned.

⁵⁵³ Recorded in Muslim (49), Abū Dāwūd (1140, 4340), At-Tirmithī (2172), Ibn Mājah (1275, 4013), Ahmad (3/54). And verily, kufr is the worst munkar that exists. All from Abū Sa'īd Al-Khudrī رضي الله عنه, with similar phrasings, and this is the phrasing of Imām Muslim. The hating in the heart was mentioned by Imām An-Nawawī in his explanation of this Hadīth in his Sharh of "Sabih Muslim"

“bad bid'ah sayyi'ah”- Even though the Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said “Every Bid'ah is misguidance”!⁵⁵⁴ And ‘Ubaykān says “Kufr Muthābarah, Sin Muthābarah, and permissible Muthābarah”- Even though the Ijmā' of the Salaf said “Every Muthābarah is kufr”!!

Why does he oppose the Fatwā of Imām Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdil-Wahhāb رحمه الله? Or was the Imām not in contact with the rulers?

And Imām Sulaymān Ibn ‘Abdillāh Āl Ash-Shaykh رحمه الله, and the rest of the Salaf who had contact with the rulers? Or will he claim that Imām Sulaymān رحمه الله and the rest of the Salaf weren't in contact with the rulers?

Or what about Shaykh ‘Abdul-Azīz Ibn Bāz رحمه الله? Will he also claim that he wasn't in contact with the rulers? Maybe ‘Ubaykān should have corrected Shaykh Ibn Bāz when the Shaykh unrestrictedly said, “The ‘Ulamā’ of Islām are united upon the fact that whosoever aids the kuffār against the Muslims, or collaborates with them with any type of assistance - then that person is a kaḥfīr just like them.”⁵⁵⁵

Or maybe Shaykh Ibn Bāz isn't amongst the ‘scholars’ whom Ubaykān claims:

“... the Fuqubā’ did not mention Al-Muwālāt and Al-Muthbarah (loyalty and supporting, aiding) amongst the nullifiers...”

Yes - O Brethren! These are his exact words!!

Yet, Shaykh Ibn Bāz narrated Ijmā' upon this! That means- O Brethren- that ‘Ubaykān doesn't believe that a single scholar existed before himself! Ponder deeply upon this...

And this implies that Al-Mujaddid, Shaykh Al-Islām Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdil-Wahhāb رحمه الله is not a scholar in the sight of ‘Ubaykān - not to mention all of the Imāms of the Da'wah رحمه الله.

And along with all this, Shaykh Sālih Al-Fawzān too issued the verdict, “And from that which is a display of Muwālāt to the kuffār - is helping them and cooperating with them against the Muslims, flattering them and defending them - and all of these are within the ⁵⁵⁴ Narrated by Muslim, An-Nasā'ī, Abū Dāwūd, Ibn Mājah, Ad-Dārimī and Ahmad. Some from Al-'Irbādh Ibn Sāriyah, some from Jābir Ibn ‘Abdillāh and some from ‘Abdullāh Ibn Mas'ūd; may Allāh be pleased with all of them.

⁵⁵⁵ “Majmū' Fatāwā Ibn Bāz” (1/274). Which is similar to the verdict of Shaykh ‘Abdullāh Ibn ‘Abdil-Latīf رحمه الله, “And whosoever assists them with any type of support against the Muslims, then this is obvious apostasy (riddah sarībah).” Refer to “Ad-Durar As-Saniyyah” (8/242 and 10/429). And the verdict of Al-'Allamah Ahmad Shākir, “As for collaborating (Tā'ānun) with the English (against the Muslims), with any type (of cooperation) from the various types of cooperation, regardless of how minute or great: then this is the extreme apostasy (ar-riddah al-jāmībah), and undeniable infidelity (al-kufr as-sirāb).”

“Kalimatu Haq” (126).

(Eighth) Nullification of Islām, and causes of riddah (apostasy from Islām). And we seek refuge with Allāh from these.”⁵⁵⁶

And it is obligatory to realize that ‘Ubaykān has openly opposed the Qur’ān; for he says that “Khanf” (fear, cowardice) is an excuse that makes it perfectly fine to help the Crusaders against the Muslims. So if Allāh refutes this last division, then this automatically refutes his first two divisions.

So Allāh says,

“O you who believe! Do not take the Jews and Christians as Awliyā’. They are but Awliyā’ of each other. And if any amongst you takes them as Awliyā’, then surely he is one of them. Verily, Allāh guides not those people who are the Thālimīn. And you see in those in whose hearts there is a disease (of hypocrisy), they hurry to their friendship, saying: ‘We fear lest some misfortune of a disaster may befall us.’”⁵⁵⁷

So O Murji’ab! O Jahmiyyab! O Qusūriyyab! Has Allāh excused people for being afraid that misfortunes and disasters would fall upon their heads??

And if they claim that another Verse accepts fear as an excuse, and they bring the Verse,

“Let not the Mu’minūn take the kāfirīn as Awliyā’ instead of the Mu’minīn - and whoever does that will never be helped by Allāh in any way, except if you indeed fear a danger from them- And Allāh warns you against Himself.”⁵⁵⁸

Then we would reply with the fact that the Verses of the Qur’ān do not contradict one another; and we would show the Verse,

“Do they not then consider the Qur’ān carefully? Had it been from other than Allāh, they would surely have found therein much a contradiction.”⁵⁵⁹

⁵⁵⁶ Refer to “Al-Irshād Ilā Sabīh Al-I’tiqād” (351).

⁵⁵⁷ Al-Mā’idab: 51-52

⁵⁵⁸ Al ‘Imrān: 28

⁵⁵⁹ An-Nisā’: 82

How can someone claim that this Verse contradicts the Verse in Al-Mā'idah - unless he is a misguided Jāhīl? If they had only looked to the Tafāsīr of this Verse!

Imām Hamad Ibn 'Atīq An-Najdī رحمه الله explains, "The Verse "...except if you indeed fear a danger from them..."⁵⁶⁰ is equivalent to the Verse "excluding he who is forced thereto"⁵⁶¹,"⁵⁶²

Imām Sulaymān Ibn 'Abdillāh Āl Ash-Shaykh رحمه الله said (in the Third Evidence of Ad-Dalā'il), "Except if you indeed fear a danger from them": and it is that the person is subjugated by them, and is not capable of being hostile against them, and thus displays companionship towards them,⁵⁶³ while his heart is still firm upon Baghdhā' and 'Adāwah; waiting for the preventative factor to cease - and once it ceases, he returns back to 'Adāwah and Baghdhā'.

So as it is clear now, In Shā' Allāh, that "fear" (Khawf) is not an acceptable excuse - but rather "coercion" (Ikrāh) – with its conditions - is an acceptable excuse (for Mawālāt, but not Tawallī).

And let us further clarify this with the statements of Shaykh 'Abdul-'Azīz Ar-Rājīhī:

Question: What about someone that aids the disbelievers against the Muslims out of fear for his worldly possessions?

⁵⁶⁰ Āl 'Imrān: 28

⁵⁶¹ Āl-Nahl: 106

⁵⁶² Refer to the book regarding the topic of Muthābarah by the Shaykh, "Sabil An-Najāb".

⁵⁶³ But this does not mean that it is allowed to help the kuffār against the Muslims (Muthābarah). For Ikrāh (coercion), if it is truly coercion, then it is permissible to say words of kufri, and do actions of kufri- as long as it does not involve hurting another Muslim; and if it does involve hurting another Muslim, then it is not permissible according to Ijmā'- for he is not allowed to kill another brother for the sake of his own life. An-Nawawī رحمه الله says, "As for killing (a Muslim), then it is not permissible even under Ikrāh- according to Ijmā'." [Al-Minhāj Sharh Sahīh Muslim Ibn Al-Hajjāj 18/16-17]. Ibn Rajab Al-Hanbalī رحمه الله said, "The scholars are united upon the fact that if someone is (being) coerced to kill a Muslim- then it is (still) not permissible to kill him. Because he has actually chosen to kill that other person in order to save his own life from being killed. And this has Ijmā' of the scholars that it is transgression." [Jāmi' Al-'Ulūmi Wal-Hikam 2/371]. Shaykh Al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah رحمه الله said regarding those who are coerced by the Tatārs to help them against the Muslims, "Even if he is coerced to fight (against the Muslims) in this time of tribulation, it is still not permissible for him to fight. Rather, it is obligatory that he destroys his weapons, and be patient until he is martyred... There is no doubt that it is obligatory upon him that, if he is forced to be present (on the battlefield), that he does not fight- even if the Muslims end up killing him... Indeed it is not permissible for him to kill another Muslim according to consensus. So if he is coerced and threatened that he will be killed unless he kills another Muslim- then it is still not permissible for him to kill someone for the sake of not being killed himself. It is not permissible to oppress someone for the sake of not being killed himself." [Majmū' Al-Fatāwā 28/538-539]. Also refer to the end of the Sharh by Shaykh 'Alī Ash-Khudhayr on "Kashf Ash-Shubuhāt", entitled "At-Tawdbih Wa At-Tatimmāt", for he has explained this thoroughly.

Answer: This person commits disbelief even if he does so out of fear for his worldly possessions, based on the text from the Qur'an:

“That is because they loved and preferred the life of this world over that of the Hereafter.” ⁵⁶⁴

This means he had some worldly reason. This person has disbelieved [become kāfir] because he put his worldly reason above his Dīn. The Dīn of Allāh takes precedence over his worldly benefits – [but] if he places his worldly benefits over his Dīn, then he has committed [major] kufr.” ⁵⁶⁵

The Shaykh also said regarding the difference between Ikrāb (coercion) and Khanf (fear), “So Ikrāb is only if it is said to him “Commit kufr! Or else we will kill you!” Or if someone threatens to kill him, and is really going to kill him - and the person really believes that he will be killed - for example if a king, or if a tyrant threatens him; and if there is no one (to help him escape), and he is ordered “Commit kufr! Prostrate to the idol! Say these words of kufr! ⁵⁶⁶ But if you don't, we will slay you!” (Then such a person is excused) for he is a Mukrah; so if he utters or does kufr, if his heart is firmly upon Īmān - then he is excused.

And as for the case if he is a Khā'if (afraid, under fear), and he is not at the point of Ikrāb (which has just been clarified) - then such a person is not excused, nor does he have any excuse. So the Khā'if is like someone when it is said to him, “Commit kufr! Or else I will seize all your property and wealth! But if you commit kufr, then I will let you have your property and wealth.” Such a person is not excused, nor does he have any excuse. ⁵⁶⁷ He should let him seize his property for the sake of not committing kufr.” ⁵⁶⁸

⁵⁶⁴ An-Nabk: 107. The full Verses are,

“Whoever commits kufr against Allāh after his Īmān (in Allāh), excluding he who is forced thereto while his heart is at rest with Īmān; but such who open their breasts to kufr, on them is wrath from Allāh, and theirs will be a great torment. That is because they loved and preferred the life of this world over that of the Hereafter. And Allāh does not guide the people who are kāfirīn.” [An-Nabk: 106-107] Also refer to the Fourteenth Evidence in “Ad-Dalā'il”.

⁵⁶⁵ Refer to the Shaykh's cassettes in explanation of “Nawāqidh Al-Islām”. The Sharh has been translated into English also by the Murji'ah.

⁵⁶⁶ For example the case of Shaykh 'Alī Al-Khudhayr فاك الله أسره. When he was apparently tortured and drugged - and then he was ordered something like, “Reject your Fatāwā to kill the Zionists and Crusaders and apostate Tawāghūt in our country! But if you don't, we will torture you even more...” So that is why Shaykh Al-Khudhayr is excused from actually having committed kufr. May Allāh forgive the Shaykh, preserve him, and strengthen him with a light from Himself, and destroy the Tawāghūt that have imprisoned him, and hasten the release of the Shaykh.

⁵⁶⁷ Notice how he is repeating this and stressing upon it; Unlike the Murji'ah.

⁵⁶⁸ Refer to the Shaykh's cassettes in explanation of the end of “Kashf Ash-Shubuhāt”.

So why has 'Ubaykān opposed the verdicts of his own "Senior Scholars"? Or are these scholars not in contact with the rulers?

And what a beautiful statement was said by Imām Sulaymān رحمه الله, "So if they say, "(Our excuse is that) we were scared!" It will be said to them, "You have lied." And also, "Allāh has not made Khanf (fear) an excuse to follow that which angers Him and abandoning that which pleases Him." And many of the People of Falsehood only forsake the Truth because of fear that their worldly things will leave them; otherwise, they still recognize the Truth and believe⁵⁶⁹ in it but despite this, they were not Muslims."⁵⁷⁰

And the Imām also said, "Similar is the case with the murtaddīn in this fitnah (tribulations). Shaytān has seduced them and tricked them with the illusion that Khanf is an excuse for committing riddah, and that with their knowledge of the Truth, love of it, and testimony to it - their action⁵⁷¹ will not harm them.⁵⁷² And they have forgotten that a great many of the mushrikīn know of the Truth, love it, and testify to it - but they abandon the following of and acting upon it out of love for the Dunyā, and because of Khanf for the sake of lives, wealth, food, or positions of leadership."⁵⁷³

And let us end this with the words of Imām Hamad Ibn 'Atīq رحمه الله:

“Chapter. Which excuse is acceptable for harmonizing with the mushrikīn, and displaying obedience to them?

Know, that this happens within three situations⁵⁷⁴ -

- 1) He harmonizes with them both externally (in actions) and internally (in the heart, belief, love, etc.); and obeys them externally, and favors them, and befriends them in his heart (also).⁵⁷⁵ So such a person is a kaafir, outside the fold of Islām; whether or not he is coerced to do such. And he is of those people regarding whom Allāh said, ⁵⁶⁹ The Arabic word used is "Ya'taqidūn"- derived from the words 'Aqīdab and I'tiqād.

⁵⁷⁰ Refer to "Ad-Dalā'il", under the Fifth Evidence.

⁵⁷¹ Referring to Muthābarab- cooperation with the mushrikīn against the Muslims.

⁵⁷² And isn't this the same thing 'Ubaykān tries to invent and excuse? Saying that Khanf is an excuse as long as your "heart loves" Islām?

⁵⁷³ Refer to "Ad-Dalā'il", under the Seventeenth Evidence.

⁵⁷⁴ And contrast this with the three categories of 'Ubaykān.

⁵⁷⁵ Know O Ghurabā! That if a regime kills, imprisons, tortures, spies against, expels, "smokes out", and wages a staunch war against the Muwahhidīn- taking all measures to extend the occupation of the Zionist Crusaders upon the land of Muhammad and Ibrāhīm; the land regarding which Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم commanded, "Expel the Jews and Christians from the Arabian Peninsula"- then none but a sick Qusūrī would still say that such a regime still "loves" Islām; so if Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم commanded such (to expel the all the kuffār)- then what about those who beg the hostile armies of the Zionist Crusaders to stay in the Arabian Peninsula? The Hadīth is recorded in various wordings by Al-Bukhārī (3053, 3152), Muslim (1551, 1637, 1767), At-Tirmithī (1606), Ahmad (1/195, 10/144), Ad-Dārimī (2/306), Al-Bukhārī in "At-Tarikh Al-Kabir" (4/57), Al-Bayhaqī in "Al-Kubrā" (18750), and "Al-Muwatta'" of Mālik (3/88), "As-Silsilah As-Sahībah" (1132). Narrated from 'Abdullāh Ibn 'Abbās رضي الله عنهما.

“but such who open their breasts to kufr,⁵⁷⁶ on them is wrath from Allāh, and theirs will be a great torment.”⁵⁷⁷

- 2) That he harmonizes with them, and favors them internally (in his heart), while being against them externally (with speech and actions). Then such is a kaḥfīr also, and he is the munāfiq (hypocrite). But, as long as he acts according to Islām externally (and does not show any kufr), his blood and wealth is protected.⁵⁷⁸
- 3) That he harmonizes with them externally (with speech and actions), while being against them internally (hating them in the heart). And this is further divided into two categories:
 - a) He does that because he is under their might and strength, while he is tortured and imprisoned by them; and they threaten to kill him, and they order him, “Be in harmony with us and obey us - Or else we will kill you.” So only in such a condition, it is permissible to harmonize with them externally, while his heart is firmly upon Īmān,⁵⁷⁹ as happened to ‘Ammār رضي الله عنه for which Allāh revealed

“except he who is forced thereto while his heart is at rest with Īmān”⁵⁸⁰

- which is just like the Verse,

“except if you indeed fear a danger from them”.⁵⁸¹

These two Verses have the same meaning, as was pointed out by Ibn Kathīr in his Tafsīr on the Verse from Āl ‘Imrān.

⁵⁷⁶ Shaykh Al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah رحمه الله said regarding this, “Whoever utters kufr without being forced to, he has indeed opened his breast to kufr.” “Majmū’ Al-Fatāwā’” (7/599). And in (7/220) he says, “Whoever commits kufr without being forced to do so, he has indeed opened his breast to kufr.”

⁵⁷⁷ An-Nabl: 106

⁵⁷⁸ Since it is impossible for the people to know what is actually inside the heart. But obviously, if he is caught doing kufr, such as spying against the Muslims - then he will be dealt with accordingly, as a munāfiq and murtadd.

⁵⁷⁹ And as Shaykh Sulaymān Āl Ash-Shaykh explained it, “while his heart is still firm upon Baghdhā’ and ‘Adāwab’ against the kuḥfār and mushrikān.”

⁵⁸⁰ An-Nabl: 106

⁵⁸¹ Āl ‘Imrān: 28

- b) He does that only externally (in speech or action), while he opposes that internally (in his heart he hates the kuffār) - but he is not under their might nor strength.⁵⁸² And the only reason he did that is because he desired a leadership role⁵⁸³, or money, or extreme attachment to the homeland, or because of responsibilities, or because of fear of some misfortune. So such a person becomes an apostate (murtadd), and his internal hate against kufr will not benefit him a bit.⁵⁸⁴ And such a person is as mentioned by Allāh,

“That is because they loved and preferred the life of this world over that of the Hereafter. And Allāh does not guide the people who are kāfirīn.”⁵⁸⁵

So Allāh has clarified that they didn't apostatize because of being ignorant of the Truth, nor because they hated it, nor because they loved Bātil - but rather, the only reason was because of a worldly desire. So they preferred this material world rather than the Dīn.

And this is the meaning of the words of Shaykh Al-Islām Muhammad Ibn 'Abdil-Wahhāb,⁵⁸⁶ may Allāh have mercy upon him and forgive him.

And as for what many of the people think is an acceptable excuse, then it is from the beautification and seduction of Shaytān. That is because some of the friends of Shaytān scare these people - and this Khawf (fear) is not an excuse - they assume that it is okay to display harmony and give obedience to the mushrikīn.⁵⁸⁷

And then there are others for whom Shaytān beautifies for them their greed for the world, he makes them hallucinate that it is okay for them to harmonize with the mushrikīn for worldly benefits - and the Jubbāl (ignorant people) think that such a person has been coerced

⁵⁸² Supposing that the apostate Taghut regimes actually “hate” the kuffār... So then what about those who are an independent sovereign state, with a military, tanks, jets, intelligence agencies, and nuclear weapons, etc? What about such people then?

⁵⁸³ Or to preserve his own throne and status and to keep on subjugating the Muslims...

⁵⁸⁴ And maybe you will realize why these neo-Murji'ah are also Qusuriyyah...

⁵⁸⁵ An-Nabl: 107. As compared to 'Ubaykān, who argues, “Loving the Dunyā is the an excuse from kufīr!”

⁵⁸⁶ Referring to the words of the Mujaddid at the end of the Ten Nullifications: “So there is no difference concerning these Nullifications between the one who does it out of jest, or while being serious, or out of fear for his wealth and status (Khā'if); the only one excused is the Mukrah. All of these are the greatest danger upon most people. So the Muslim should beware of these Nullifications, and he should fear for himself in regards to them.”

⁵⁸⁷ Examine the invention of 'Ubaykān next to the words of this great Imām of Najd. 'Ubaykān: “That (the loyalty) is shown due to fear of the Kuffār and its likes, so the ruling pertaining to this is that it is permissible.” So these words are from 'Ubaykān.

And the words of the Imām, “it is from the beatification and seduction of Shaytān”.

(by his desires); But the scholars have already mentioned what Ikrāb really means... [Then the Imām quotes a long statement from Ibn Taymiyyah رحمه الله]...

And that which is benefited from this, is that no one is under Ikrāb (to commit kuffr), until he is tormented by torture or captivity. And (it also clarifies) that mere verbal threats are not considered Ikrāb.⁵⁸⁸ And likewise is the fear (Khawf) that the kuffār will separate him from his wife - such things are not real Ikrāb.⁵⁸⁹

So when you have realized this, and have also realized what the many people have fallen into regarding this - then the statement of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم will become obvious to you, “Verily, Islām began as something strange, and it shall return to being something strange (again) - So all glad tidings for the Strangers (Ghurabā).”⁵⁹⁰ And indeed it has become something strange again. And that which is even stranger than Islām, is that person which truly follows it.⁵⁹¹ And success is only from Allāh.”

- End of the words of Imām Hamad Ibn ‘Atīq رحمه الله.⁵⁹²

So I hope that this is enough to open the eyes of those who were blinded by the invention of ‘Ubaykān.

⁵⁸⁸ And this is a point to think about. Since Allāh also Himself has given mankind numerous verbal warnings of the Fire of Hell for those who do Muthābarah. So whose verbal warnings should be listened to- Allāh’s, or the Tawāghit?

“It is only Shaytān that suggests to you to fear his Awliyā’ (i.e. mushrikūn); so fear them not, but fear Me (Alone), if you are Mu’minīn.” [Al ‘Imrān: 175].

So it comes down to the matter of who really acts upon Tawhīd...

“And Allāh warns you against Himself.” [Al ‘Imrān: 28].

⁵⁸⁹ Also refer to the end of the Sharh of Shaykh Al-Khudhayr of “Kashf Ash-Shubuhāt”, “At-Tawdhīb Wat-Tatimmāt” - for he has explained this topic of Ikrāb, and the Tafāsīl within it, thoroughly.

⁵⁹⁰ Narrated by Ahmad (2/389), Al-Khatīb Al-Baghdādī (11/307). Editor’s Note: Also narrated by At-Tirmithī and Ibn Mājah, all with similar phrasings. Some from ‘Abdullāh Ibn ‘Amr Ibn Al-‘Ās, some from Anas Ibn Mālik, some from Sa’d Ibn Abī Waqqās, as well as from other Sabābah.

⁵⁹¹ Ibn Rajab رحمه الله narrates from the Salaf that they used to say, “There is nothing stranger than the Sunnah - and yet even stranger than that, is he who truly follows it.” Refer to his book, “Kashf Al-Kurbah Fī Wasf Hāl Abl Al-Ghurbah” (28-29). And today we can say, the strangest thing is Millat Ibrāhīm - and yet even stranger than that, is the Hanīf.

⁵⁹² This was an entire chapter taken from “Sabīl Al-Najāb”. And in the book “Millat Ibrāhīm” (177) by Shaykh Al-Maqdisī رحمه الله, he says, “Know with certainty that indeed if it was from our words, and not from the great Imāms - it would be said (by the Qusūriyyah) “Khawārij” and “Takefir”! Even though the Āyah is a clear text on this.”

And as for the claim “Assisting the infidels against Muslims is not kufr, unless it is done out of love for kufr, or hate against Islām- only then it is apostasy. But if it is only done for worldly benefit, or Khanf, then it is not apostasy.”

Then stop and consider: “Loving” kufr and the kuḥfār, or hating Islām and the Muslims, or desiring to see the subjugation of Muslims - each of these are apostasy within themselves - meaning by themselves (Bi Thātibi). This type of apostasy does not require for someone to lift a finger against the Muslims. Such a person is a kaḥfīr murtadd before he does any action, or utters any word.

If someone even wages war against the kuḥfār, and assists the Muslims in every way - while at the same time he loves kufr, or hates Islām- then he is still a *kaḥfīr!*⁵⁹³

And no Muslim would disagree with this fact. So after this is established- Then here is the big question to the Murji'ah: “Do you then believe that the action (‘Aml) of Muthāharah (the Eighth Nullification of Islām) is not kufr by itself??”

The answer is obvious - they do not view that Muthāharah is a Nullification by itself, unless it is accompanied by something of the unseen affairs of the heart, such as loving kufr, hating Islām, Istiblāl, etc. And obviously this is in direct contradiction to the Salaf. And the only reason the Murji'ah stipulate these new revolutionary conditions, is only to please the Tawāghūt. And this desire of theirs is not an unseen matter- it is manifestly open.

Maybe we should quote Shaykh Sālih Al-Fawzān here when he was asked, “By what can someone commit the Major kufr (kufr akbar) and apostasy? Is it specific to only beliefs (such as love and hatred), and rejection, and disbelief - or is it more comprehensive than these?”

So he answered, “Kufr and riddah can happen when someone perpetrates any nullification from the Nullifications of Islām, which are well-known to the People of Knowledge. So whosoever commits any of them (Nullifications), while not being in the type of ignorance which is excusable - then he indeed becomes an apostate and an infidel; And it is obligatory that we only judge according to the external displays (Thābir) from his statements and actions. And we have no choice except to only judge according to the external signs (actions). As for the affairs of the heart (such as love, hatred, Istiblāl) - then none knows this except Allāh (Most High) Alone.

Thus, whoever utters kufr, or does an action of kufr - then we decide upon him in accordance to his utterance, and in accordance with whatever is necessitated by his statements or by his actions. So if what he uttered or did was from the actions of apostasy - unless he was a Mukrah or ignorant with the type of ignorance which is excusable - then he is an apostate. And this is regarding the matters of *'Aqīdah*⁵⁹⁴ which are clear in the Kitāb and ⁵⁹³ Similarly, if someone makes Istiblāl of other than Allāh’s Legislation, then he has become a kaḥfīr - even if he judges with only the Shari'ah. So in the opinion of the Murji'ah, none of the Ten Nullifications is kufr and riddah within itself - unless it is agreed with something from the heart - which is the very fundamental principle of Irjā' - in direct opposition to the Abl As-Sunnah.

⁵⁹⁴ Remember that 'Aqīdah includes belief, statements of the tongue, and actions of the limbs.

Sunnah, such as the Major shirk and Major kufr. But as for the subtle and complicated matters, then indeed there needs to be Iqāmat Al-Hujjab in such a manner in which he should be able to understand.”⁵⁹⁵

And also this Shaykh said, “And yet, there exists another group who says, “No matter what they do or say, they shouldn't be ruled upon as kuffār or mushrikīn, until what is in their hearts is known.”

Yā Subhān Allāh! O Allāh! Glory be to You! Are we the ones who know what is in their hearts, or is it Allāh?”⁵⁹⁶

And the statement of his, “So in summary, those who commit kufr do not exceed out of four situations:

- a) He believes in his heart in what he says. There is no doubt about his kufr (disbelief/infidelity/ apostasy).
- b) He does not believe in his heart in what he says, but he was not forced to say it. Rather he said it because of greediness for the worldly life, or to please the people and be in harmony with them. So indeed this person is a kāfir according to the Verse of the Qur'ān “That is because they loved and preferred the life of this world over that of the Hereafter”. And likewise is the ruling on the person who commits kufr or shirk, so that he can be in harmony with his people- even if he does not like kufr nor shirk, and does not believe in it; but only does it because of his love for his country, wealth, or relatives.
- c) He utters words of kufr jokingly, for amusement- as was seen from the troops mentioned before.⁵⁹⁷
- d) He says (or commits) kufr because he was coerced, not because of his preference, while his heart is firm upon Imān and Tawhīd. So this is someone who will be pardoned, because he was under coercion.

As for the first three situations, the person becomes a kāfir, as is clear from the Verses. And this refutes those who say that no one can be declared a kāfir, even if he speaks with kufr or does actions of kufr, until what it is in his heart is known. And this is an evil saying which contradicts the Qur'ān and the Sunnah. Rather, this saying is from the heretical Murji'ah.”⁵⁹⁸

And Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn ‘Abdillāh Al Ash-Shaykh رحمه الله was asked regarding someone who displays signs of Nifāq (hypocrisy)- Can he be labeled as a “Munāfiq” (hypocrite)? So the Shaykh answered, “A person who displays signs which show Nifāq - such as turning away from battle and forsaking them when meeting the enemies, and like those who say “Had we known that fighting will take place, we would certainly have followed you”⁵⁹⁹, and that he seeks refuge with the mushrikeen if they conquer him, and he praises the mushrikīn sometimes, and he allies with them against the Muslims, and such things which Allāh has

⁵⁹⁶ Refer to the Shaykh's Sharh of “Kashf Ash-Shubuhāt”.

⁵⁹⁷ See the Tafāsīr of the Verse in At-Tawbah: 65-66.

⁵⁹⁸ Refer to “Sharh Kashf Ash-Shubuhāt” (163-164).

⁵⁹⁹ Al Imrān: 167

mentioned that they are signs of Nifāq, and the characteristics of the munāfiqīm; Then in such a case, it is okay to unrestrictedly apply the word Nifāq to him, and to label him a “munāfiq”.⁶⁰⁰

And then these People of Irjā' and Tajabhum have claimed that collaborating with the kuffār against the Muslims is not kufr unless the collaborator “loves kufr” or “hates Islām”; and this cult also claims that if he loves Islām and hates kufr, then he is still a Muslim.

Shaykh Nāsir Al-Fahd فك الله أسره said regarding such people, “They have based their opinion regarding Muthābarah upon the foundation of Jahm Ibn Safwān in Irjā' - meaning that they refer the Nullifications of actions and statements back to the affairs of the heart. So they consider the collaborator and supporter of the kuffār against the Muslims of not having committed kufr, until he openly admits that he is pleased with the religion of kufr. So this opinion of theirs implies that if someone attaches himself to Islām, and yet leads the armies of the Crusaders against the Muslims, such a leader does not become a kāfir (according to their deviant opinion).”⁶⁰¹

And then Shaykh Nāsir Al-Fahd فك الله أسره says something that completely uproots the deception of the Followers of Irjā' and Tajabhum. So think upon this closely...

If Muthābarah is a Nullification, but not by itself (Bi Thātibih) - and if it is apostasy only if it is conjoined with “hatred against Islām” and “love for kufr”--- Then it is possible to say that every single action (or statement) is a Nullification of Islām and apostasy! Since if someone scratches his own head, while in his heart he loves kufr - then he has become a kāfir! And not only this- This opinion also includes the Wājibāt (obligatory actions), such as Salāt, and Zakāt, etc. Thus, if someone prays Salāt, while he hates Islām - then his Salāt is a Nullification of Islām, and he has become an apostate for praying Salāt! – And thus, it is also permissible, according to the implication of their views, that Ribā (usury) be listed along with the Nullifications - if you have understood the above examples. Brothers of Tawbīd! This is the reality of the Murji'ah- so fear Allāh!⁶⁰²

So let us read what the Salaf have said, whether or not a Muslim apostatizes if he collaborates with the mushrikīn against the Muslims while still “loving Islām” and “hating kufr” in his “heart”.

⁶⁰⁰ “Ad-Durar As-Saniyyah” (7/79-80)

⁶⁰¹ Refer to “Waqafāt Ma'a Al-Waqafāt” by Shaykh Nāsir Al-Fahd. The Shaykh also gives a beautiful example regarding these Qusūriyyah. He points out that just as the Qubūriyyah do not make Takfīr for calling out to the dead saints, unless the caller believes in his heart that the saint can benefit or harm; Similarly, the Qusūriyyah do not make Takfīr for Muthābarah, unless the collaborator in his heart loves kufr or hates Islām. Both are Murji'ah, who refer the Nullifying actions of Islām, the back to the unseen (ghayb) affairs of the heart.

⁶⁰² O Brethren! If you have not understood this - then read this again slowly- for when you do understand this, you will realize the evil wickedness of the Jahmī-styled Murji'ah. For example, other actions which are Nullifications of Islām, like slaughtering for other than Allāh. Take the Qubūriyyah, they will say that if it is done intending kufr, then it is kufr; but if it is not done for kufr, then it is not kufr. But according to Ahl As-Sunnah, both actions, Muthābarat al-kuffār and Thabb Li-Ghayrillāh are Nullifications of Islām - regardless of the affairs of the heart.

So Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn 'Abdillāh رحمه الله said, "Know, may Allāh have mercy upon you, that: If a person displays *Muwāfaqah*⁶⁰³ with the mushrikān regarding their *Dīn*⁶⁰⁴ -- out of Khanf from them,⁶⁰⁵ *Mudārāh*⁶⁰⁶ towards them, or *Mudābanah*⁶⁰⁷ to repel their evil: then verily, he is a kāfir just like them, even if he despises their religion and hates them, and loves Islām and the Muslims."⁶⁰⁸

Imām Hamad Ibn 'Atīq رحمه الله said, "Indeed, assisting the mushrikān against the Muslims (Muthābarah), and revealing to them the hidden plans of the Muslims, or defending them with speech, or being pleased with what (shirk) they are upon- each one of these is a Nullification; Thus whosoever does any of these- without being under Ikrāh - then he is a murtadd (apostate) - even if he hates the kuffār, and loves the Muslims."⁶⁰⁹

And also read carefully the words of the Imām that have preceded, "That he harmonizes with them externally (with speech and actions), while being against them internally (hating them in the heart). And this is further divided into two categories..."

And again Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn 'Abdillāh رحمه الله said, "Then He (Most High) informed that the reason for this kufr and eternal punishment - is not because they believed in shirk; nor because of ignorance about Tawhīd; nor because of hatred for the Dīn; nor because of love for kufr --- Rather, the reason is merely because of a bit from the bits of the Dunyā (worldly life), which he preferred above the Dīn and the Pleasure of the Lord of the Worlds.

So He said,

"That is because they loved and preferred the life of this world over that of the Hereafter. And Allāh does not guide the kāfirīn."^{610, 611}

So these should be enough evidences for he whom Allāh wants to guide to Tawhīd and Hanifīyyah.

2) The Invention of Ubaykān and His Abuse of the Hadīth of Hātib⁶¹²

⁶⁰³ Muwāfaqah: harmony, compliance, agreement.

⁶⁰⁴ In this context, Dīn is meant as "way of life" or "desires"; and Imām Hamad Ibn 'Atīq An-Najdī رحمه الله in his book "Sabil An-Najāti Wal-Fikāk" clarifies this with many evidences.

⁶⁰⁵ Khanf: fear, cowardice.

⁶⁰⁶ Mudārāh: companionship, friendliness, lenience.

⁶⁰⁷ Mudābanah: compromising, flattery, adulation, hypocrisy, deceit.

⁶⁰⁹ "Ad-Difā' 'An Abl As-Sunnah Wal-Ittba'" (31)

⁶¹⁰ Al-Nahl: 107-109

⁶¹¹ Refer to "Ad-Dalā'il", under the Fourteenth Evidence.

⁶¹² It should be kept in mind here that there are two opinions according to Abl As-Sunnah with regards to the action of Hātib رضي الله عنه. The first is that his action was not kufr, and this is the

So then 'Ubaykān brings the Hadīth of Hātib Ibn Abī Balta'ah رضي الله عنه. He claims that the Hadīth "is proof" that Muthābarah is not kufr within itself. Let us quote the Hadīth in full so that we can examine what it contains. And as always, any Verse or Hadīth that the Ahl Al-Bid'ah use to support their claims - the reality is that the Verse or Hadīth is not for them, but rather against them!

Before we mention the entire Hadīth itself, let us present something that 'Ubaykān and the Murji'ah wouldn't want Muslims to know - and that is the contents of the letter itself - since it would refute their argument-⁶¹³ and it is as follows:

"O people of Quraysh! Surely, the Prophet of Allāh, may Allāh send salutations and peace upon him, has already come to you with an army (Jaysb) as the night (sky, i.e. as large as the horizon goes), and it is pouring forth (as fast as) a flooded river. And I swear by Allāh! Even if he were to come to you all alone single-handedly, Allāh will make him conquer you and fulfill His Promise to him. So stare into yourselves (and look for the Truth). And Peace (is upon the followers of the Truth)." ⁶¹⁴ Ibn Hajar later comments, "Hātib was excused because he (wrote) this thinking that there would be no harm in it." ⁶¹⁵

So after you have read this letter, let us go through his incident, as is related on the authority of 'Alī رضي الله عنه,

"The Messenger sent me, Az-Zubayr and Al-Miqdād saying, "Proceed till you reach Rawdhāt-Khākh where there is a lady carrying a letter, and take that (letter) from her."

So we proceeded on our way with our horses galloping till we reached the Rawdhah, and there we found the lady, and we told to her, "Take out the letter."

opinion that is stressed in this book. The other opinion is that his action was kufr, but he didn't disbelieve due to the excuse of Ta'wīl. This is the opinion held by Shaykh Abū Basīr At-Tartūsī, in his book "Qawā'id Fīl-Takfīr" Shaykh 'Abdul-Qādir Ibn 'Abdil-'Azīz فک الله أسره in his book "Al-Jamī' Fī Talab Al-'Ilm Ash-Sharīf", as well as the opinion of Al-Hāfīth Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir Al-'Ulwān فک الله أسره. It was also the opinion of Ibn Hajar Al-'Asqalānī رحمه الله, in "Fat'h Al-Bārī". For a detailed explanation on this opinion, look to the appendix of "Millat Ibrāhīm", from At-Tibyān Publications. So the point is that none of Ahl As-Sunnah used this incident to show the Muthābarah was permissible or not kufr.

⁶¹³ Since the Murji'ah want to claim that Hātib رضي الله عنه really did commit Muthābarah; and if they claim this, then they can also claim that the reason that Hātib did not apostatize is because he did not "love kufr". And this is the foundation of their argument. But the reality is that he did not commit Muthābarah, nor did he ever intend to - but rather it outwardly appeared to be similar to Muthābarah, and the Companions mistakenly thought that he actually collaborated with the kuffār- as you will see...

⁶¹⁴ This letter is recorded by the Amīr of the Mubaddithīn, Al-Hāfīth Ibn Hajar Al-'Asqalānī رحمه الله in "Fat'h Al-Bārī" (7/520).

⁶¹⁵ "Fat'h Al-Bārī" (8/634). So Hātib wrote this letter thinking that it would not harm the Muslims in any way whatsoever. But as you will see, the Murji'ah (since their arguments always are around "what is in the hearts") they claim that Hātib رضي الله عنه knew that it would harm the Muslims, and yet went on with sending the letter. This is indeed slander against the Companions.

She claimed, "I have no letter."

We replied, "Take out the letter, or else we will take off your clothes."

So she took it out of her braid, and we brought the letter to the Messenger.

The letter was addressed from Hātib Ibn Abī Balta'ah to some people from the mushrikīn in Makkah, telling them about what the Messenger intended to do. The Messenger said, "O Hātib! What is this?"

Hātib replied, "O Messenger of Allāh! Do not make a hasty decision about me. I used to be a person not belonging (related) to Quraysh but I was an ally to them from outside and had no blood relation with them, and all the Muhājirīn who were with you, have their kinsmen (in Makkah) who can protect their families and properties. So I liked to do them a favor so that they might protect my relatives as I have no blood relation with them. I did not do this as a kufr, nor to apostatize from my Dīn, nor by being pleased with kufr after Islām." [And in other narrations there is the addition: Verily, I did not betray the Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم,⁶¹⁶ nor out of hypocrisy - for indeed I knew that Allāh would give victory and conquest to His Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم, and that He would complete His Light.⁶¹⁷ ⁶¹⁸

The Messenger said (to his Companions), "He (Hātib) has told you the truth."

Umar said, "O Messenger of Allāh! Allow me to chop off the head of this hypocrite!" [and in other narrations: "O Messenger of Allāh! He has betrayed Allāh, and His Messenger, and the Mu'minīn!", "He has apostatized!", "He is a hypocrite!", "He has violated (you), and assisted your enemies against you!"]⁶¹⁹

⁶¹⁶ Woe to the Murji'ah! They claim that this noble Companion betrayed the Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم. Indeed, these Murji'ah have the characteristics of each deviant group, including that Shi'ah who accuse the Companions of having betrayed the Messenger. Fie upon the Murji'ah! They claim that he knew that it would be of danger towards the Muslims! Dr. Hātīm Ibn 'Ārif, a well-known Qusūrī, claims in his book, "What Hātib did is legally known today as the highest treason (Al-Khiyānat Al-Uthmā)" - even though this Noble Warrior of Badr رضي الله عنه proclaimed, "Verily, I did not betray the Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم". Again, these Murji'ah are nothing but Shi'ah, devising the worst possibilities against the Noble Sahābah, may Allāh be pleased with them all, and save them from the poisonous tongues of today's Murji'ah and Shi'ah.

⁶¹⁷ Shaykh Abū Muhammad Al-Maqdisī فك الله أسره explains this in "Asb-Shihāb Al-Thāqib" as, "These statements mean that he never intended to have helped the mushrikīn against the Muslims."

⁶¹⁸ Narrated by Ahmad and Abū Ya'lā.

⁶¹⁹ Umar رضي الله عنه judged Hātib رضي الله عنه according to his outward actions and the appearances of his actions (sending the letter to the mushrikīn). But Umar رضي الله عنه did not know the reality of Hātib's actions. But the Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم read the actual letter, and also by way of Revelation, was notified of the intentions and reality of Hātib's actions. He صلى الله عليه وسلم was notified that Hātib did not intend to help the mushrikīn even a minute bit - as you will come to see... But Umar رضي الله عنه judged upon him according to the outward appearances - and this is the principle rule regarding the Nullifications of Islām - as was mentioned by Al-Fawzān and Imām Sulaymān رحمه الله. And since no Prophet is amongst us now, none can receive Revelations from

The Prophet said, "He (Hātib) has participated in Badr; and what could tell you, perhaps Allāh looked at those who participated in Badr and said: "O people of Badr (i.e. Muslim warriors of Badr): do what you like, for I have forgiven you." --- End of Hadīth.⁶²⁰

Firstly - it should be mentioned that these Murji'ah, and the rest of the mubtadi'ūn, always examine the Muhkam (clear-cut, decisive) and explain it away with the Mutashābih (vague, indecisive); But as for Ahl As-Sunnah, they always explain the Mutashābih in the light of the Muhkam. And a simple proof that this Hadīth is a Mutashābih is the fact that this Hadīth has been used by the some of the Salaf to issue two contradicting verdicts - Ibn Al-Qayyim رحمه الله has narrated that regarding the execution of a Muslim Jāsūs (spy), some scholars view that he is to be killed, while others view that he is not to be killed and, "And both groups use the incident of Hātib to support their evidence."⁶²¹

So these deviants use this Mutashābih Hadīth to refute the obvious meanings of the clear Verses, Abādīth, and the various Ijmā' that have been mentioned by the People of Knowledge upon the fact that the collaborator is a kāfir and an apostate. And the scholars who related the numerous Ijmā' - Are they not aware of the Hadīth of Hātib, even though it is one of the most well-known Abādīth!?

Secondly - There is no doubt that it is important to know who Hātib رضي الله عنه was, and what type of a person he was.⁶²²

- He was from amongst the best of the Sahābah رضي الله عنهم - from the champions, along with the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, who fought and slew the mushrikīn on the great Day of Badr - which was the first major battle of Islām - and it is called in the Qur'ān,

"The Day of the Criterion"⁶²³

Allāh regarding the affairs of the heart - so it is impermissible to judge according to anything other than the outward actions.

⁶²⁰ Narrated by Al-Bukhārī (3007, 4272, 4890, 6259) Muslim (4550), Abū Dāwūd (3279), At-Tirmithī (3305), Ahmad (3/350), Abū Ya'lā (4/182), Ibn Hibbān in his "Sahīb" (11/121), Al-Bazzār (1/308), and Al-Hākim in "Al-Mustadrak" (4/87).

⁶²¹ Refer to "Zād Al-Ma'ād" (3/422). And just because this Hadīth is used, it does not mean that Hātib رضي الله عنه was a spy. But rather, the outward appearance of his deed seemed as if he was a spy - and thus 'Umar رضي الله عنه wanted to kill him. But the reality of the letter, along with the intention of Hātib (which was notified to the Messenger by way of Revelation), proves that he was not a spy, nor a collaborator...

⁶²² Hātib Ibn Abī Balta'ah رضي الله عنه. He died in the year 30 at Al-Madīnah, at the age of sixty-five. The Khalīfah 'Uthmān Ibn 'Affān رضي الله عنه led his Janāzah. Refer to "Al-Isṭi'āb" by Ibn 'Abdīl-Barr (1/348), and "Al-Isābah" of Ibn Hajar (1/300) for further details.

⁶²³ Refer to the Verse, between the Allies of Allāh and the Allies of the Tāghūt.

- He was also present at the Day of Hudaybiyah.
- No doubt he was amongst those mentioned in the Verse,

“Muhammad is the Messenger of Allāh. And those who are with him are severe against the kuffār, yet merciful among themselves.” ⁶²⁴

- He is also one of those mentioned in the Verse,

“You will not find any people who believe in Allāh and the Last Day, making friendship with those who oppose Allāh and His Messenger—even if they are their fathers, their sons, their brothers, or their kindred. For such (people), He has written Īmān in their hearts...” ⁶²⁵

- That the reality of his action was not Muthābarah, but rather a lesser type of Muwālāh which is a sin. But the external appearance ⁶²⁶ of his deed seemed to the rest of the Companions to be Muthābarah, which was known to everyone as a form of apostasy. And that is why ‘Umar Al-Fārūq رضي الله عنه judged him according to the external appearance of the situation, and said, “O Messenger of Allāh! Allow me to chop off the head of this hypocrite!”
- Hātib رضي الله عنه also knew that the external appearance of his deed seemed like Muthābarah, and he also knew that the reality of his deed was not Muthābarah. That is why he said, “O Messenger of Allāh! Do not make a hasty decision about me... I did not do this as a kufr, nor to apostatize from my Dīn, nor by being pleased with kufr after Islām.” So this proves that he himself knew that his deed would appear to be like Muthābarah.

“...the Day of the Criterion (between Tawhīd and shirk), the Day when the two forces met (at Badr)...” [Al-Anfal: 41].

⁶²⁴ Al-Fat'ib: 29

⁶²⁵ Al-Mujādilab: 22

⁶²⁶ For when it is out in the open that “Hātib wrote a letter to the mushrikīn and informed them that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم is coming with an army”- it seems that he has betrayed the Muslims and helped the mushrikīn - and usually the judgment of apostasy in such a situation is correct. But as you have seen, the reality of Hātib’s letter was not Muthābarah, but rather a lesser form of Muwālāh.

- He had no intention of helping the mushrikīn in their war against the Muslims; ⁶²⁷ and that is why he wrote his letter to ordinary people. But if he had intended to help the kuffār, then he would have wrote and addressed his letter to the commanders and chiefs of the Quraysh.
- Allāh revealed to the Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم that Hātib was truthful in his claim of not having intended to help the kuffār, and that the reality of his deed was not Muthābarah (but rather a lesser degree of Mumālāt). Thus the Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, “He (Hātib) has told you the truth.” And it is not possible for the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم to know this except by way of Revelation.
- And how can it be thought that Hātib, one of the Warriors of Badr, and who was ready, along with the rest of the Companions, to fight the mushrikīn to conquer Makkah- How can it be thought that he would help the people whom he himself was going to kill and fight against very soon - And yet help them against himself (Hātib), the Muslims, and the Prophet of Allāh?!

So after these are cleared, let us once again mention what the People of Irjā' and Tajabbum want to use this Hadīth for: They claim that this Hadīth proves that Muthābarah (collaborating with the kuffār against the Muslims) is not kufr by itself (Bi Thātibi).

And this false claim can be refuted from a number of angles, as mentioned by Shaykh Nāsir Al-Fahd فك الله أسره:

- 1) This Hadīth is actually one of the clearest proofs that the collaborator (Muthābir) is indeed an apostate kāfir. And this is manifest due to the following three reasons:

Firstly:

That ‘Umar Al-Fārūq رضي الله عنه said, “O Messenger of Allāh! Allow me to chop off the head of this hypocrite!” So this shows that the belief of the Noble Companions, including ‘Umar رضي الله عنه - was that those who collaborate with the kuffār are indeed apostates and hypocrites. And ‘Umar رضي الله عنه said this only according to the outward appearance of the ⁶²⁷ It is of extreme importance that the brothers realize the difference between intending to help the kuffār, with a deed or statement, against the Muslims --- And desiring the victory of the kuffār against the Muslims. Both things are apostasy within themselves - without even helping the kuffār with even a single coin. The former can happen even if someone “loves” Islām and “hates” the kuffār, while the latter happens only when someone loves kufr over Islām. But both matters are related to the heart, and thus it is impossible to know what is in the heart, except by Revelation - as happened in the case of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم when he affirmed Hātib’s innocence from both of the two, when he said “He (Hātib) has told you the truth”. And it is important to realize that Hātib رضي الله عنه did not ever fall into either of the two. He never intended to help the kuffār against the Muslims with any action or statement- nor did he desire the subjugation of Muslims under the kuffār - and this must be obvious.

action of Hātib رضي الله عنه [which seemed like Muthābarab] - since mankind (except through Revelation) is not able to know the inward realities of the heart.⁶²⁸

Question: If Muthābarab was only a major sin (and not apostasy) like drinking wine, fornication, etc- Then why did the Sabābah desire to kill Hātib (based upon his outward actions)?

Answer: Because the outward appearance of Hātib's deeds indeed seemed as if he had collaborated with the kuffār - And the Companions رضي الله عنهم differentiated between "collaboration" and "major sins"; meaning that they viewed "collaboration" as apostasy.⁶²⁹

Secondly:

⁶²⁸ And this is why when the Murji'ab stipulate that unless the collaborator loves kufir, or hates Islām - the Shuyukh (specifically Al-Fawzān) said regarding them, "And yet, there exists another group who says, "No matter what they do or say, they shouldn't be ruled upon as kuffār or mushrikīn, until what is in their hearts is known."

Yā SubhānAllāh! O Allāh! Glory be to You! Are we the ones who know what is in their hearts, or is it Allāh?" So Yā Subhānallāh! How are we supposed to know if the collaborators "love" Islām?? And if the Murji'ab say "Ask him- and if he says that he loves Islām and hates kufir- then we must accept his verbal claim." And according to this stipulation, then every single apostate murtadd could save themselves by claiming "But I love the Muslims and hate kufir!!" And this refutation is clear from the statement of 'Umar رضي الله عنه that you will see, about what he said about judging people upon their apparent actions, even if they claim that their hearts are upon Islām.

⁶²⁹ And this also shows that when 'Umar رضي الله عنه said "Allow me to chop off the head of this hypocrite!", the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did not get angry at him and rebuke him, nor did he call him a "Takfir" nor "Khārijī"- as the Qusūriyyah today label the Muwāhhidīn - but the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم only said, "He (Hātib) has participated in Badr; and what could tell you, perhaps Allāh looked at those who participated in Badr and said, "O People of Badr: do what you like, for I have forgiven you." Ibn Al-Qayyim رحمه الله commented in this regard, while mentioning the benefits (Fawā'id) derived from this Hadīth, "And also (this Hadīth proves) that when someone describes a person with Nifāq and Kufir incorrectly, yet out of anger and pride for the Sake of Allāh, His Messenger, and His Dīn - and not for his mere whims and desires - Then such a person has not committed any kufir, nor even any sin; Rather, he will be rewarded for his righteous intention. And this is contrary to the People of Desires and Innovations - because they do Takfir and Tabdī' (declaring some one to be an innovator) for the mere sake of their whims and desires; yet these people themselves are more deserving of being made Takfir of and made Tabdī' of." Refer to "Zād Al-Ma'ād" (3/372). And then compare this with what today's Murji'ab do - declaring every Hanīf who does Takfir of the Tawāghīt as "Khawārij". And Imām Abā Batīn رحمه الله said, "So whosoever mistakenly, yet out of pride and anger for the Sake of Allāh - declares a person to be a kāfir, or fāsiq, or munāfiq- then it is hoped that Allāh will pardon him; just as 'Umar رضي الله عنه said regarding Hātib رضي الله عنه, exclaiming that he is a munāfiq; and this (Takfir out of pride and anger for the Sake of Allāh) was done by other Sabābah also, and even other than the Sabābah (many of the Salaf) ... And the claim of the ignorant people "You are doing Takfir of Muslims"- whoever says this has not understood Islām nor Tawhīd; Rather, what is apparent regarding this ignorant person is that his Islām is invalid. For whosoever does not prohibit (Inkāar) the actions which the mushrikūn are doing today, and doesn't see it as evil - then he is not a Muslim." Refer to "Majmū'at Al-Rasā'il Wal-Masā'il An-Najdiyyah" (1/654-655). So compare these statements to the whims of the Murji'ab, and then maybe you will understand why the Salaf such as Ibn Kathīr رحمه الله described them as the "king-pleasers"...

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did not say that 'Umar رضي الله عنه was wrong in his general judgment upon the appearance of such a deed (Muthābarah) - But since Hātib رضي الله عنه did not commit Muthābarah, he could not be subjected to such a verdict. And the proof that Hātib رضي الله عنه did not commit Muthābarah is in the saying of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "He (Hātib) has told you the truth (i.e. he did not collaborate with the mushrikīn)." Nor did the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم accuse 'Umar رضي الله عنه of being a Takfūrī nor a Khārijī (since 'Umar was correct in his ruling upon someone who actually commits Muthābarah - but he was only wrong in thinking that Hātib رضي الله عنه committed Muthābarah).⁶³⁰

Thirdly:

That Hātib رضي الله عنه himself also knew that the outward appearance of his deed seemed like Muthābarah. And this is why he said, "O Messenger of Allāh! Do not make a hasty decision about me... I did not do this as a kuffr, nor to apostatize from my Dīn, nor by being pleased with kuffr after Islām." And also he clarified that he never intended to help the kuffār, "Verily, I did not betray the Messenger,"- And he mentioned the reality of his letter. So this proves that the external appearance seemed like Muthābarah, and that Muthābarah necessitates apostasy and kuffr, and treachery. But since the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم found out, through reading the letter itself, and Revelation from Allāh, he said "He (Hātib) has told you the truth (i.e. he did not assist with the mushrikīn against the Muslims)."

Question: If Muthābarah (collaboration with the kuffār) was not apostasy and kuffr, but rather only a major sin (kabīrah) [as the Murjī'ah claim] - Then why did Hātib say, "I did not do this as a kuffr, nor to apostatize from my Dīn, nor by being pleased with kuffr after Islām."

Answer: Because he knew that his letter outwardly seemed to be Muthābarah, which was known to everyone as kuffr and apostasy - and not as a kabīrah like adultery.

- 2) That Hātib رضي الله عنه only collaborated with the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم against the kuffār. And he assisted the Muslims with his own self, flesh, blood, wealth, speech, and advice- in all the expeditions and battles; he was from those were present at Badr and Hudaybiyah, and those people are in Jannah. And he aided the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم in this same campaign to conquer Makkah also. He went out as a Mujāhid along with the rest of the Companions رضي الله عنهم, with his own self and wealth - only to wage Jihād against the mushrikīn. Thus, how can it be claimed that he cooperated and collaborated with the mushrikīn against the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم? And along with all this, that letter that he wrote- It was not of any form of Muthābarah against the Muslims, for indeed he himself was soon about to fight against the kuffār. And he was certain that the Muslims would be victorious- as he said, "Indeed I knew that Allāh would give victory and conquest to His Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم".
- 3) And the letter itself [as has preceded]. So there is nothing in there that can be said that he collaborated with mushrikīn. But rather, he showed a lesser form of Muwālāh, showing them kindness by calling them to accept Islām- and this was done in the form of a letter sent to his relatives. Thus, he had disobeyed the Prophet by sending such a letter to them, since they were in the midst of the mushrikīn - and this is a kabīrah (major sin) which is pardoned since he had participated in the Battle of Badr. And Ibn Hajar explained that, “Hātīb was excused because he (wrote) this thinking that there would be no harm in it.”⁶³¹ And Hātīb himself said, “Indeed I knew that Allāh would give victory and conquest to His Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم.” So there is an enormous difference between someone who is certainly sure that his letter will never be of any benefit towards the kuffār in their war against the Muslims - and between someone who spies for the kuffār, collaborates with them and cooperates with them in such things that would benefit their Crusade against the Muslims.

So let us read again a portion of that letter - “And I swear by Allāh! Even if he were to come to you all alone single-handedly, Allāh will make him conquer you and fulfill His Promise to him. So stare into yourselves (and look for the Truth). And Peace (is upon the followers of the Truth).”⁶³² So obviously he was not collaborating with the mushrikīn, but rather giving Da'mah, and advising them to repent from shirk, and warning them of the consequences of remaining upon *shirk*⁶³³ - which is a far cry from Muthābarah. But the only reason he did this is because of his kindness and compassion for his relatives which were in the midst of the mushrikīn. And thus Allāh revealed these Verses regarding Hātīb and his Mumālāh and act of kindness towards them,

“O you who believe! Do not take My enemies and your enemies as Awliyā', showing affection towards them, while they have disbelieved in what has come to you of the Truth, and have driven out the Messenger and yourselves (from your homeland) because you believe in Allāh your Lord! If you have come forth to do Jihād in My Cause and to seek My Good Pleasure (then do not take these kuffār and mushrikīn as your friends). You show friendship to them in secret, while I am All-Aware of what you conceal and what you reveal. And whosoever of you (Muslims) does that, then he has gone (far) astray from the Straight Path.”⁶³⁴

⁶³¹ “Fat'h Al-Bārī'” (8/634). No doubt, if he thought that he was revealing the secret strategies of the Muslims to the kuffār, and that the letter would help the kuffār against Muslims- and yet went on with sending his letter- No doubt that this would be considered as riddah.

⁶³² Refer to “Fat'h Al-Bārī'” (7/520).

⁶³³ And this is apparently what was meant by Hātīb رضي الله عنه - after examining his other statements to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and also in the letter - when he said, “So I liked to do them a favor so that they [may become Muslims and] might protect my relatives as I have no blood relation with them.”

⁶³⁴ Al-Mumtahinah: 1

And after all this, let us point out two different affairs (Masā'il) contained in this incident; and it is extremely important to differentiate between the two –

- 1) The ruling upon Muthābarah
- 2) The ruling upon the action of Hātib رضي الله عنه

Some people mix the two up - and they claim that since Hātib رضي الله عنه did not get declared as a murtadd or a munāfiq, that means also that anyone who spies and collaborates with the kuffār are hence also free of riddah and nifāq - And this is a grave mistake. This Ta'wil of theirs is incorrect because they have assumed that Hātib actually did commit Muthābarah- But the reality is that he did not do Muthābarah (but rather a lesser type of Mumālāb).⁶³⁵

And regarding this Shaykh Nāsir Al-Fahd said, “This is like when a man was found along with a woman in seclusion, in a suspicious place - And one of the Sabābah asked the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, “O Messenger of Allāh! Let me stone this adulterer (Zānī)!” So then the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم asked the (accused) man (regarding what he did), and he replied, “I did not commit adultery, but rather I only did such and such” - things which are in reality less than adultery.

So those who study this Hadīth would be able to derive two matters from it:

Firstly- That the ruling upon the married adulterer is stoning (to death), since the Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم did not reprimand the Companion who requested to stone (whom he presumed was an adulterer due to his outward appearance) - [which necessitates that the Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم tacitly agreed with the Companion].

Secondly- The fact that the man did not commit adultery, for when he revealed the reality of his actions, it became clear that it was less than adultery [and thus the stoning was not carried out upon him].

Thus, whoever negates the ruling of stoning the adulterer based upon the negation of adultery from this man- Then such a person has mixed up two separate matters.”⁶³⁶

And this is what the Murji'ah have done with the Hadīth of Hātib رضي الله عنه.

⁶³⁵ The correct opinion regarding the letter of Hātib رضي الله عنه is that it was not Muthābarah - which is a nullification of Islam; But rather his letter was a form of the lesser types of Mumālāt, which is a major sin, which is wiped out due to his participation in Badr, as the Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, “He (Hātib) has participated in Badr; and what could tell you, perhaps Allāh looked at those who participated in Badr and said, “O People of Badr (i.e. Badr Muslim warriors): do what you like, for I have forgiven you.” But if Hātib رضي الله عنه actually committed Muthābarah, then the rule is that the Nullifications invalidate all righteous deeds, and that includes participation in the Battle of Badr; Thus, it is impossible to say that the letter of Hātib رضي الله عنه was Muthābarah. And the correct view is that it was only a major sin, Mumālāt (not Tawallī) to the kuffār.

⁶³⁶ Refer to “Al-Waqaf Ath-Thāniyah”, in “Waqafāt Ma'a Al-Waqafāt”.

So the first issue is Muthābarah: And there is no difference of opinion among the Salaf that collaborating with the kuffār against the Muslims - even if he loves Islām and hates kufr in his heart - is indeed riddah, kufr, and nifāq akbar. It is a matter of Ijmā'. Regarding the Verse “And if any amongst you takes them as Awliyā', then surely he is one of them” [Al-Mā'idah: 51] - Al-'Allāmah Ibn Hazm رحمه الله said, “It is correct that this Verse is only to be taken literally, meaning that he is a kāfir from the group of the kuffār, and this is the truth, not even two Muslims will disagree on this issue.”⁶³⁷

The second issue is the action of Hātib رضي الله عنه: The outward appearance (Thābir) seemed like “collaboration with the kuffār against the Muslims”. And that is why the Companions wanted to strike his neck, because they knew that any collaborator [Muthābir] was a munāfiq and murtadd. But when the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم asked Hātib regarding the actual deed itself, he replied that he had not collaborated with the kuffār saying, “I did not do this as a kufr, nor to apostatize from my Dīn, nor by being pleased with kufr after Islām... Verily, I did not betray the Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم, nor out of hypocrisy- for indeed I knew that Allāh would give victory and conquest to His Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم, and that He would complete His Light.” So he negated Muthābarah from himself, since he knew that his actions appeared as if they were Muthābarah. But if he had thought that his actions seemed only like major sins [and this is what the Murji'ah claim], then he would not have said that. [Again]- He only said those statements because he knew that the external appearance of his actions would seem as if he had collaborated - and he wanted to clarify that he never intended to give any help to the kuffār against the Muslims.

Shaykh Abū Muhammad Al-Maqdisī أسره الله says, “And how beautiful was the methodology of Imām Al-Bayhaqī رحمه الله in his “Sunan” when he labeled the chapter in which the he placed the Hadīth of Hātib رضي الله عنه, “Chapter: The Muslim Who [without the intention of harm] Showed the musbrikin the Secret of the Muslims” (9/146); and after that he made a separate chapter, “Chapter: The Spy for the Enemies” (9/147), in which he mentioned the Hadīth of Salamah Ibn Al-Akwa' رضي الله عنه.”⁶³⁸ So this shows that Hātib رضي الله عنه did not spy for the kuffār, nor did he intend to help the kuffār with even a finger against the Muslims.

And it should be mentioned again that “loving kufr” is apostasy within itself, even if the person is sitting within his home and not harming a single Muslim. Rather, even if he is out ⁶³⁷ Refer to “Al-Muballā'” (11/138).

⁶³⁸ Refer to “Ash-Shibāb Ath-Thāqib”. The Hadīth is as such in “Fat'h Al-Bārī” (6/168) - “One of the “eyes of the musbrikin” [spies] came and sat with the Companions, spoke a little, and then later left. So the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم ordered, “Find him and kill him”. Salamah Ibn Al-Akwa' رضي الله عنه said, “So I killed him, and then the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم seized his belongings.” Shaykh Abū Jandal (Fāris Az-Zahrānī) Al-Azdī أسره الله comments, “So this is a Sabābī who killed this spy and seized his belongings, not in a battle nor in a war, but rather as in a narration in Al-Bukhārī, “Salamah met up with the spy when he was resting his camel - and then Salamah killed the spy, and returned riding upon the camel.” For a detailed research into this topic, refer to the book by the Shaykh, “Tabrīdh Al-Mujāhidīn Al-Abtāal 'Alā Ihyā' Sunnat Al-Ighthiyāl”. So the verdict is apparently clear - the difference between the one who really cooperates with the kuffār [this spy], and the one who did not cooperate with the kuffār in any way [Hātib رضي الله عنه].

assisting the Muslims against the kuffār, and yet “loves kufṛ” in his heart- then he is still a kāfir and a munāfiq. And this is a Nullification from the internal affairs in the heart (Kufṛ I'tiqādī). And this cannot be known unless someone at least verbally admits this, or by Revelation from Allāh.

And as for Muthābarah, cooperating with the mushrikīn against the Muslims, with any type of collaboration - then this is a Nullification from the external affairs of the actions (Kufṛ 'Amalī)- and this is judged upon from the outward actions. So these are two different types of Nullifications. Let this be clarified more - Desiring the victory of kufṛ over Islām is a Nullification, whether or not any action is done against the Muslims, or to help the kuffār. Similarly, Muthābarah (collaboration) is a Nullification, whether or not the collaborator “loves Islām”, or “hates kufṛ”. One is a Nullification through I'tiqād, while the other is a Nullification is through A'māl. And whosoever brings both together, loves kufṛ and Muthābarah - then such a person has fallen into two Nullifications, and all these are apostates.

And if still the Murji'ah stipulate that the heart has to “love the kuffār” or “hate the Muslims” for Muthābarah to actually be apostasy - Then it will be replied that only Allāh knows what is within a person's heart, and whether or not the person “loves kufṛ”, or “hates Islām” - since these are matters of the Ghayb (the Unseen affairs). As Allāh says,

“Verily, Allāh is the All-Knower of the Unseen (Ghayb) of the Heavens and the Earth. Verily! He (Alone) is the All-Knower of that which is in the breasts.”⁶³⁹

And He also says,

“(He Alone) is the All-Knower of the Unseen; and He reveals to none His Unseen- Except to a Messenger whom He has chosen.”⁶⁴⁰

And this is what 'Umar Ibn Al-Khattāb رضي الله عنه meant when he said, “Indeed the people used to be judged according to the Revelation during the time of Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم; and indeed the Revelation has come to an end. So now we only judge you according to whatever the Thābir (external appearance) of your actions is. So whosoever appears to be righteous (Muslim), then we will give him safety and befriend him - and we have no obligation regarding the affairs of his heart (such as love, hatred, Istiblāl), and only Allāh will judge his heart. And whosoever appears to be evil (kāfir, murtadd), then we will not give him

⁶³⁹ Fātir: 38

safety, nor will we trust him - even if he says [verbally] that his heart is righteous (Muslim).”⁶⁴¹

And this is why Shaykh Al-Fawzān said regarding the Murji'ah, “And, yet, there exists another group who say, “No matter what they do or say, they shouldn't be ruled upon as kuffār or mushrikīn, until what is in their hearts is known.”

Yā Subhān Allāh! O Allāh! Glory be to You! Are we the ones who know what is in their hearts, or is it Allāh?

We are only supposed to judge according to the Thawābir (apparent/external); as for the Bawātin (hidden/internal), then that is not known to anyone except Allāh Alone.

Thus, anyone who acts with shirk will be considered as a mushrik and treated as a mushrik - until he repents to Allāh and grasps Tawhīd firmly. Likewise, anyone who acts with Tawhīd will be accepted and treated as a Muslim- as long as he doesn't do anything that nullifies Tawhīd.”⁶⁴² And according to the Qur'ān, Sunnah, and Ijmā' of the Salaf - Muthābarah is a Nullification of Islām- and not even two Muslims would disagree.

Shaykh Muhammad Ibn 'Abdil-Latīf Al Ash-Shaykh رحمه الله clarifies, “And the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, “Whosoever joins the mushrik and lives with him- then he is indeed just like him.” It should not be thought that anyone who merely stays with and lives with the mushrik is a kāfir; Rather, what is intended (by this Hadīth) is that whoever is incapable of exiting from the midst of the mushrikīn, and they force him to go out with them (to fight the Muslims), then the ruling regarding him is the same regarding them (the mushrikīn), in the permissibility in killing (him) and seizing his wealth- but the ruling is not the same in his Takfīr (he is not a kāfir).

But if he goes out with the kuffār to fight the Muslims, out of greed (for the worldly benefits) or due to his own choice (without being coerced); or helps them physically or with his wealth - then there is no doubt in the fact that the ruling regarding his kufūr is the same as the mushrikīn.”⁶⁴³

So Know- O Brother of Islām! That those Murji'ah desire exactly this: To claim that none can do Takfīr of a collaborator (anyone who perpetrates the Eighth Nullification) ever in this world, and Allāh will judge these people according to their hearts; and that whosoever does ⁶⁴¹ Recorded by Al-Bukhārī in his “Sahīb” in the chapter “Kitāb Ash-Shahādāt” (2498). So if someone cooperates with the kuffār against the Muslims- even if he claims that “he loves Islām” and “hates kufūr”, then we cannot believe him, and we will deal with him as an apostate. And if they wage war against the Brigades of Tawhīd, and fight to save the lives of the Zionist Crusaders - then they will be dealt with exactly as their Crusading brethren would be dealt with - even if they claim “we love Tawhīd, and hate the cross”. Similarly, if they refuse to rule with the Shari'ah, they will be dealt as a murtadd and kāfir- even if they claim with their mouths “we don't say that our own legislations are Islamicly Halāl”- although indeed they have declared it to be Legally Permissible- and this is what the Salaf meant when they stipulated “Istihlāl”.

⁶⁴² Refer to the Shaykh's Sharh of “Kashf Ash-Shubūhāt”.

⁶⁴³ “Ad-Durar As-Saniyyah” (8/456-457), and “Majmū'at Ar-Rasā'il Wal-Masā'il” (2/135).

Takfīr of the collaborator based only upon Muthābarah, then such a person is a Takfīrī, and Khārījī - and this includes all the Imāms and scholars that have been mentioned.⁶⁴⁴ And as Dr. Hātim Ibn 'Ārif, one of the heads of the Murji'ah, said, "And since Takfīr for Alliance and Disavowal is based in the feelings in the heart, and these feelings are not known by anyone except Allāh- indeed it is not possible to declare this (collaborator) as a kāfir... unless he openly announces that he loves the religion of the kuffār."⁶⁴⁵

So after all that has been understood so far: Some questions must be asked –

- Was Hātib رضي الله عنه a spy for the Crusaders, spying on the Muslims- and reporting back to the Crusaders? Then compare with the collaborators of today...
- Was he working for the Crusaders against the Hunafā? Then compare with the collaborators of today...
- Was he fighting alongside the Crusaders against the Brigades of Tawhīd? Then compare with the collaborators of today...
- Was he helping the Crusaders with any type of assistance? Then compare with the collaborators of today...
- Was he imprisoning, torturing, killing, slandering, and "smoking out" the Brigades of Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم, because he was "afraid" of the kuffār- and then dare to claim to "love Muhammad" and "hate kuffr"? Then compare with the collaborators of today...
- Did he think that his actions would harm the Muabbidīn in any way? Then compare with the collaborators of today...
- Was he defending the Crusaders for any worldly purpose? Then compare with the collaborators of today...
- Was he committing Muthābarah for the sake of "fear"? Then compare with the collaborators of today...
- Did he prefer the life of this world rather than the Hereafter? Then compare with the collaborators of today...
- Did he seek honor, power, and glory with the enemies of Allāh? Then compare with the collaborators of today...

Is it then honest to degrade this noble Mujāhid of Badr, Hātib رضي الله عنه, to the level of those who are perpetrating the above mentioned things- as 'Ubaykān has done? For indeed, all of the above are excused from apostasy according to the "cutting-edge" three-division invention of 'Abdul-Mufsid, since they are "equivalent" to Hātib رضي الله عنه. Wallāhi - None but a heretic would slander this noble Companion with such comparisons.

⁶⁴⁴ Rather it includes every single scholar, since every single scholar agreed that anyone who commits Muthābarah is an apostate: "The 'Ulamā' of Islām are united upon the fact that whosoever aids the kuffār against the Muslims, or collaborates with them with any type of assistance- then that person is a kāfir just like them," stated by Shaykh Ibn Bāz رحمه الله "Majmū' Fatāwā Ibn Bāz" (1/274).

⁶⁴⁵ This was claimed by this head of the Qusūrīyyah in his book "Al-Walā' Wal-Barā' Bayn Al-Samābah Wal-Ghulw", a book full of slanders against the Companion of Badr, and other things which would please the eyes of the Rawāfidh and the slaves of the Crusaders. So this statement is completely against the the Hadīth of 'Umar رضي الله عنه, and the Ijmā' of the Salaf.

3) Ubaykān's Abuse of the Hadīth of Abū Jandal

He also mentions the Hadīth regarding the Day of Hudaybiyah, but he does not mention the entire ordeal, he only mentions this much,

“And whoever has deeply fathomed the way of the Prophet (sallallaahu alaihi wasallam) with the Mushriks and his dealings with them, the meanings of those texts will become clear to him, and carefully observing (what is in them) in order to bring about benefits, and giving them consideration in order to repel the harms. And this was when the Prophet (sallallaahu alaihi wasallam) was conciliating with the Mushriks of Quraish in al-Hudaibiyyah for the period of 10 years, and he allowed them to remain in Makkah upon their Shirk and to desecrate the House (the Ka’bah) with their Shirk, and placing of idols (therein). And the treaty also comprised what has come in the Saheeh of al-Bukharee, and its text is, “So when Suhail (from the Mushrikeen) did not agree except with that condition the Prophet wrote to him agreeing to that condition and returned Abu Jandal (from the Muslims) to his father Suhail bin ‘Amr. Thenceforward the Prophet returned everyone who came to him in that period (of truce) even if he was a Muslim.”

And if a Ruler after the Prophet (sallallaahu alaihi wasallam) was to do something like that, and returned and submitted the Muslims to the Kuffar, then some of those ascribing themselves to knowledge would have judged him with disbelief and apostasy.”

So this is the claim of ‘Ubaykān with his own words; and he tries to say that submitting a Muslim into the hands of the Crusaders is okay, and this implies that Muthābarah is okay also - in his claim. But here is the ordeal as is narrated in the texts,

“...Then Suhayl Ibn ‘Amr [this is when he was a mushrik, before he had embraced Islām] said, “We also stipulate that you should return to us [to Makkah] whoever comes to you [to Madīnah] from us [leaves us], even if he embraced your Dīn.”

The Muslims said, “Glorified be Allāh! How will such a person be returned to the mushrikīn after he has come to us as a Muslim?”

While they were in this state, Abū Jandal [a Muslim] the son of Suhayl Ibn ‘Amr came from the valley of Makkah staggering with his shackles and fell down amongst the Muslims.

Suhayl said, “O Muhammad! This is the very first term with which we make peace with you [i.e. you shall return Abū Jandal, my son, to me].”

The Prophet said, “The peace treaty has not been written yet.”

Suhayl said, “I will never allow you to keep him.”

The Prophet said, “Yes, do.”

He said, “(No) I won’t (let you keep him).”

Then finally the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم agreed.

Abū Jandal رضى الله عنه said, “O Muslims! Will I be returned to the mushrikīn, though I have come as a Muslim? Don't you see how much I have been tortured by a mighty torture for the Sake of Allāh Alone!?”

When asked by the Companions why the Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم agreed, he replied, “One who goes away from us (apostatizes) to join the kuffār- then may Allāh keep him far away (from us)! And one who comes to join us from them (and is returned back) - Allāh will provide him with an opening and escape.”

When the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم returned to Al-Madīnah, Abū Basīr, a new Muslim from those who escaped from the Quraysh, came to him.

The kuffār sent two delegates to find and capture Abū Basīr. So they came and said (to the Prophet), “Abide by the promise you gave us [that you would return any Muslim escapee back to us].” So, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم handed Abū Basīr over to them.

They took him out (of Al-Madīnah) till they reached Thul-Hulayfah, where they dismounted to eat some dates they had with them.

Abū Basīr said to one of them, “By Allāh! O you [delegate], I see you have such an excellent and beautiful sword!”

So that delegate drew it out (of the sheath) and said, “By Allāh, it is very beautiful, isn't it! And I have tried it many times [killed many people with it].”

Abū Basīr رضى الله عنه said, “Let me have a look at it.” And when he let him hold it, Abū Basīr killed him with the sword.

Then the second man of the two delegates ran away till he came to Madīnah and entered the Masjid running. When the Messenger saw him he said, “This man appears to have been frightened.” When he reached the Prophet, he said, “By Allāh! My friend has been murdered [by Abū Basīr] and I was about to be murdered too!”

Abū Basīr رضى الله عنه also came and said, “O Prophet of Allāh! By Allāh, Allāh has made you fulfill your obligations by your returning me to them (i.e. the kuffār), but Allāh has saved me from them.”

The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم exclaimed, “Woe his mother! What an excellent war kindler he would be! If only he had supporters!”

When Abū Basīr رضى الله عنه heard that he understood that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم would return him to them again, so he set off till he reached the seashore. Later, Abū Jandal Ibn Suhayl escaped from the kuffār and joined Abū Basīr.

So whenever a man from Quraysh embraced Islām, he would go to Abū Basīr. And this kept on continuing, till they had formed a strong and mighty camp. And whenever they heard about a caravan of Quraysh heading towards Asb-Shām - they stopped it, attacked them, killed them all, and seized their wealth and properties.”⁶⁴⁶

So this is the incident of Abū Jandal and Abū Basīr, may Allāh be pleased with them both.

But what does ‘Ubaykān say? Let us dissect this segment of his invention...

“And whoever has deeply fathomed the way of the Prophet (sallallaahu alaihi wasallam) with the Mushriks and his dealings with them, the meanings of those texts will become clear to him ... And this was when the Prophet (sallallaahu alaihi wasallam) was conciliating with the Mushriks of Quraish in al-Hudaibiyah for the period of 10 years, and he allowed them to remain in Makkah upon their Shirk and to desecrate the House (the Ka’bah) with their Shirk, and placing of idols (therein).”

So apparently the only thing that ‘Ubaykān understands from the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and the treaty at Hudaybiyah, is that:

- 1) he allowed the kuffār to remain in Makkah upon their shirk
- 2) to desecrate the House of Allāh with their shirk
- 3) and placing idols in the House of Allāh

And obviously ‘Ubaykān did not see any harm in describing the Prophet of Allāh with such terms as “allowing the desecration of the House of Allāh” and “allowing shirk”- Subhān Allāh! Are these descriptions truly befitting to the Messenger of Allāh صلى الله عليه وسلم?

So it is apparent that ‘Ubaykān and his Murji’ah cult, and the regime that they work for - It is obviously of no surprise from their words, that they view it okay today for the regime to let the Crusaders do these things also - and they ascribe this view to the Prophet, may Allāh bless him and keep him safe from the tongues of the Murji’ah. So when you understand this - O Son of Ibrāhīm - then you will realize why they also let the Crusaders occupy the Two Sacred Masjids today - and it is possible they also believe that they are doing a “Sunnah”.⁶⁴⁷

Maybe Ubaykān would have been better off holding his mouth shut- As Allāh orders, ⁶⁴⁶ This is a well-known Hadīth, narrated in both Al-Bukhārī and Muslim.

⁶⁴⁷ The land regarding which Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم commanded, “Expel the Jews and Christians from the Arabian Peninsula”; so if Muhammad ﷺ commanded such (to expel the all the kuffār) - then what about those who beg the hostile armies of the Crusaders to occupy the Arabian Peninsula - and at the same time claim that it is a “Sunnah” to let these kuffār occupy the Two Sacred Masjids? The Hadīth is recorded by Al-Bukhārī (3053, 3152), Muslim (1551, 1637, 1767), At-Tirmithī (1606), Ahmad (1/195, 10/144), Ad-Dārimī (2/306), Al-Bukhārī in “At-Tārikh Al-Kabīr” (4/57), Al-Bayhaqī in “Al-Kubrā” (18750), and “Al-Muwatta” of Mālik (3/88), “As-Silsilah As-Sahīhah” (1132). Narrated from ‘Abdullāh Ibn ‘Abbās رضي الله عنهما.

“And whoever honours the sacred things of Allāh, then that is better for him with his Lord.” ⁶⁴⁸

And maybe ‘Ubaykān didn’t know that not even a month passed after Hudaybiyah, but that the Prophet of Allāh and the Companions were preparing to conquer Khaybar, and eradicate the last stronghold of the Jews in Arabia; and a year afterwards, he sent an expedition to fight the Romans at Mu’tah; and he sent envoys with Da’wah to the various rulers of that era? Has ‘Ubaykān purposely not mentioned that the military strength of the Muslims multiplied manifold within this period? So we leave it up to the brothers to decide whether or not the reason for agreeing to Hudaybiyah was to “allow” the three abominable things mentioned by ‘Ubaykān, or that the Hudaybiyah was actually a wisdom revealed to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم from Allāh, and a stratagem that returned back to strike at the necks of the mushrikīn and Quraysh.

Then he goes on to comment after briefly mentioning the name of Abū Jandal, “And if a Ruler after the Prophet (sallallaahu alaihi wasallam) was to do something like that, and returned and submitted the Muslims to the Kuffar, then some of those ascribing themselves to knowledge ⁶⁴⁹ would have judged him with disbelief and apostasy.” ⁶⁵⁰

So read this statement of his twice, thrice, even twenty times - as many times as you need to, so that you do not forget it; until you realize what these words imply: Clear Istihlāl (consent, permission) of “submitting a Muslim into the hands of the kuffār” - let alone the fact that they have no shame in even saying that it is okay to “submit a Mujāhid into the hands of the kuffār”.

And Ahl As-Sunnah reply to such claims with, “This Hadīth (of Abū Jandal) is one of the clearest evidences against them, and very strong in refuting their evil. And it can be answered from the following angles:

Firstly:

The fact that the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم returned the Muslims to the kuffār - this is a matter that was specific to him only- and it is not permissible for any person other than him. And the proof that this was specific to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم only, is the saying which appears in the Hadīth, “And one who comes to join us from them (and is returned back) - Allāh will provide him with an opening and escape.” ⁶⁵¹ And obviously, this cannot be known except by Revelation. And since none after the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم can know that Allāh would

⁶⁴⁸ Al-Hajj: 30

⁶⁴⁹ In Shā’ Allah - it will soon be clear who is actually “ascribing himself” to knowledge...

⁶⁵⁰ O Hunafā’! These despicable Qusūriyyah are attempting to claim that Muthābarah is not apostasy by claiming that the Prophet of Allāh صلى الله عليه وسلم perpetrated it too! And Allāh declares,

“And your Lord is never forgetful.” [Maryam: 64].

⁶⁵¹ Recorded in “Sahīh Muslim” (1784), on the authority of Anas, under the chapter regarding the Day of Hudaybiyah.

grant an escape route to those returned to the kuffār- this will be counted as Muthābarah. And that is why Ibn Hajar said regarding the treaty, “It was a miracle (Mu'jizah) from the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.”⁶⁵²

And similarly Ibn Hazm رحمه الله says, while refuting those who try to use this Hadīth as a “proof” for the permissibility of returning a Muslim to the kuffār- “The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did not return even one Muslim to the kuffār during that period, except after Allāh notified him that they would not be put to tribulation with regard to their Dīn, nor their properties, and that they would undoubtedly be liberated...[And then he mentions the Hadīth “Allāh will provide him with an opening and escape”]... And indeed Allāh described His Messenger as,

“Nor does he speak of his own desire. It is only a Revelation revealed.”⁶⁵³

So He has confirmed to us that the statement of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم regarding that whosoever left the Quraysh and came to him as a Muslim, that (after he would return him back) “Allāh will provide him with an opening and escape”- and this was a Revelation from Allāh, and this is correct without a doubt ... And such a thing is not known to anyone after the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم.”⁶⁵⁴

And Ibn Al-‘Arabī⁶⁵⁵ رحمه الله, the Mufasssīr and Faqīh, said, “And as for his agreement to return the Muslims back to the kuffār, then this is not permissible for anyone after the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم. But Allāh only made it permissible for His Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم because of the deep wisdom within it, and the benefit that was in it (with regards to the various Jihāds and conquests).”⁶⁵⁶

Secondly:

And for the sake of argument, let us incorrectly assume that it was not a specific action meant only for the Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم. Then even yet, it would only be permissible for someone who was in a position and situation like the Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم to agree to such terms. Someone who was doing the same as the Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم - with regards to his Jihād against the kuffār, his spreading of Islām, his care for the Da'wah, his establishment of the Shari'ah of Allāh and governing with it, his firmness in Hostility and Hatred against the mushrikīn and Tāghūt, and such excellent qualities.

⁶⁵² Refer to “Fat'h Al-Bārī” (5/433).

⁶⁵³ An-Najm: 4-5

⁶⁵⁴ Refer to “Al-Ihkām” (5/26).

⁶⁵⁶ Refer to “Abkām Al-Qur'an” (4/1789).

For indisputably- Unlike the apostate collaborators of today, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم never accepted the stipulation of Suhayl Ibn 'Amr with the intention to harm the Mujāhidīn, nor as a proposal against the Mujāhidīn, nor because he was “attached to his throne” and “loved the worldly seductions”, nor to “strengthen relations and ties” with the kuffār of Makkah, nor to make a “coalition” with them- And indeed Allāh (Most High) preserved His Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم from such evil.

Rather, the Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم only accepted those stipulations because of a great wisdom which Allāh had revealed to him- Because he knew that it would be of great benefit to the Jihād and Mujāhidīn, and it would give them the time to wage Jihād against many kuffār, and enable him to give Da'wah to new places and spread the Dīn of Islām, and for him to conquer Khaybar, exterminating the Jews of Arabia once and for all, and sending out many more expeditions, and he wrote to the kings and governors of Persia and Byzantine calling them to Islām, and many other obvious beneficial things for the Dīn and Muwāhidīn. So if there is such a person in such a situation today, then let us see...

Thirdly:

When the Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم agreed to this stipulation, he wasn't [and never ended up] making an “alliance” with the kuffār agreeing to wage a war against the Mujāhidīn [Abū Basīr and his faction] under the name of “terrorism”, nor did he make a “pledge” to them to “capture the terrorists”; On the contrary, he never “denounced” the Mujāhidīn, rather he allied with the Mujāhidīn, and he promised that Allāh would bestow upon them an opening and escape, and he used to pray for their well-being, and he declared Barā'ah from the kuffār, and he declared Barā'ah from anyone who went away from the Muslims to the kuffār, and he never assisted the kuffār against the faction of Abū Basīr.

Fourthly:

Abū Basīr رضي الله عنه murdered the delegate. And according to the Quraysh, this entailed two things- a) He had disturbed the peace between them and the Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم, and b) it was viewed as a crime to kill delegates (according to custom) no matter what. Yet along with this, the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم never “condemned the terrorism” of Abū Basīr, nor did he “disapprove” of his actions, nor was he “distressed” by his actions, nor did he “declare himself free” from the actions of Abū Basīr رضي الله عنه, nor did the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم label Abū Basīr as a “wanted murderer”, nor did he say that Abū Basīr was “endangering and threatening our treaty” [since the treaty between the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and the Quraysh did not apply to Abū Basīr and his faction].⁶⁵⁷

⁶⁵⁷ Ibn Qudāmah Al-Maqdisī رحمه الله said, “We can only grant them security for those who are in Dār Al-Islām, those who are under the authority of the (Muwāhid, Hanīf, Muslim) Imām (not the mushrik kāfir murtadd Taghūt). But as for those who are not under the authority of the Imām, and those who are not in Dār Al-Islām, then this treaty does not apply to them. And this is why Abū Basīr killed the delegate, and yet the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم did not forbid this nor reprimanded this action. And when Abū Basīr, Abū Jandal and their faction... cut off the routes of the kuffār (of trade), and slew from them whomever they slew, and confiscated their properties and wealth- the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم

Fifthly:

The Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم did not cooperate with the second delegate that survived and ran to Al-Madīnah, even after he complained that his partner had been murdered by Abū Basīr رضي الله عنه. Nor did the Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم order the Muslims to “find and capture” Abū Basīr and “escort” him to the mushrikīn. So the Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم only kept to the terms that he promised, and he did not do anything more than that. And this can never be considered as Muthābarah from him.

Sixthly:

The Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said to Abū Basīr رضي الله عنه, “Woe his mother! What an excellent war kindler he would be! If only he had supporters!” And in another narration “If only he had some men!” Al-Hāfīth Ibn Hajar رحمه الله explains, “This indicated to Abū Basīr that he should escape lest he should be returned to the mushrikīn, and it also showed that when the Muslims (in Makkah) hear it (this order from the Prophet), that they should join Abū Basīr.”⁶⁵⁸

Seventhly:

Abū Basīr and Abū Jandal and their Mujāhidīn went off to the coast of Arabia, and they began killing any kāfir caravan they saw, and they then took their wealth and possessions—and never did the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم “denounce” or “criticize” or “condemn in the strongest terms” these attacks led by Abū Basīr رضي الله عنه and Abū Jandal رضي الله عنه.

Eighthly:

The Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم never cooperated (let alone collaborated) with the kuffār to stop Abū Basīr’s faction. And never did he “promise to smoke out” Abū Basīr’s “terrorist network”. Nor did the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم ever help the kuffār with anything to harm Abū Basīr’s network. Allāh preserved His Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم from committing such evil.

Ninthly:

Rather, the evidences prove that the Messenger of Allāh was satisfied with the attacks of Abū Basīr and Abū Jandal against the kuffār. And this is obvious from these points:

- a) He did not criticize Abū Basīr for killing and seizing the sword of the kāfir delegate. And indeed if he disliked these actions, then he would have at least told him to stop doing such things, for it is his Prophetic Obligation to warn from every evil; and since he did not warn Abū Basīr, he must have considered his actions as righteous deeds and a form of Jihād.

صلى الله عليه وسلم did not prohibit these, nor did he ever tell them to return the wealth that they seized.” Refer to “Al-Mughni” (8/646).

⁶⁵⁸ “Fath Al-Bari” (5/350).

- b) The statement of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, "Woe his mother! What an excellent war kindler he would be! If only he had supporters!" And Ibn Hajar's explanation has preceded.
- c) The Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم never sent anyone to tell Abū Basīr and Abū Jandal to stop assaulting the Quraysh (with whom he had just signed a treaty with), nor did he ever prohibit them from engaging in such attacks. And if he had viewed them as being mistaken in their decision to attack the Quraysh, then he would have at least prohibited them from attacking the kuffār- and had the Prophet prohibited them, then they would have immediately stopped their attacks; and since he didn't forbid them, this means that he was pleased with their tactics and actions.

Ibn Hazm رحمه الله explained, "So this was Abū Basīr and Abū Jandal and the Muslims who were with them (on the seashore). They had spilled the blood of the Quraysh, those who were upon a treaty with the Messenger of Allāh - and they took their wealth and properties, yet the Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم did not forbid them from doing such, nor were they (Abū Basīr and Abū Jandal and their Mujāhidīn) considered as sinners by doing such. And no doubt that the Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم was perfectly capable of forbidding them (had he wished), and if he had forbidden them, they wouldn't have attacked the Quraysh (but the Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم purposely didn't forbid them, thus showing that it was righteous to attack them)." ⁶⁵⁹

And we end these words regarding Abū Jandal رضي الله عنه and Abū Basīr رضي الله عنه with some excellent words from Imām 'Abdur-Rahmān Ibn Hasan Ibn Muhammad Ibn 'Abdīl-Wahhāb رحمه الله; when he said refuting a deviant:

"And with which text - and with which evidence do you say that Jihād is not obligatory except with an Imām to follow?! This is indeed a slander against the Dīn- and this is equivalent to forsaking the Path of the Mu'minīn! And the evidences that destroy this claim are too many to mention! And just one example (to mention) would be the generality (Umūm) of the commandment to wage Jihād and the encouragement towards it, and the threat for not waging Jihād; as Allāh (Most High) has said,

"And if Allāh did not prevent one set of people by means of another, the world would indeed be full of corruption." ⁶⁶⁰

And also,

⁶⁵⁹ Refer to "Al-Ihkām" (5/126).

⁶⁶⁰ Al-Baqarab: 251

“And if Allāh did not prevent one set of people by means of another, monasteries, churches, synagogues, and Masājid, wherein the Name of Allāh is mentioned much, would surely have been pulled down.” ⁶⁶¹

So every single person who wages Jibād in the Path of Allāh, then he has indeed obeyed Allāh and fulfilled that which Allāh has obligated upon him. And an Imām cannot actually be an Imām, except by (establishing) Jibād. ⁶⁶² Not because there can be no Jibād except with an Imām, ⁶⁶³ rather the truth is the opposite of what you have claimed, ⁶⁶⁴ O you... [Then he goes on to bring many evidences]... So the facts and evidences that refute such a claim are many, combined from the Qur'ān, Sunnah, Siyar (biographies), history, and the People of Knowledge with proof and Āthār - to such an extent that it is not obscure to even the imbecile.

And as Abū Basīr came as a Mubājir (emigrant), and then the Quraysh wanted the Messenger to return him back to them, since they had agreed to such a stipulation at Hudaybiyah. So they sent out for him, and then he killed (one of) the two delegates who came to get him, and then he went to the seashore; and when the Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم heard about him, he exclaimed, “Woe his mother! What an excellent war kindler he would be! If only he had supporters!” And Abū Basīr (and his faction of Mujāhidīn) attacked the caravans of the Quraysh when they headed towards Ash-Shām, and the caravans were taken and killed. So they were in a separate war against the Quraysh, without the Messenger of Allāh, since he had a treaty with them - and the entire story is long. But did the Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم say, “You are wrong in your war against the Quraysh, since you don’t have an Imām”? Subhān Allāh! How destructive indeed ignorance is upon the ignorant! And refuge is sought with Allāh from opposing the Truth using ignorance and evil.” ⁶⁶⁵

⁶⁶¹ Al-Hajj: 40

⁶⁶³ In the manuscript it is -Li annahu- and this must be a grammatical mistake; But Shaykh Nāsir Al-Fahd فك الله أسره says in “At-Tibyān” that the correct grammar would actually be -Lā Annahu-.

⁶⁶⁴ Earlier in the letter he said, “If they (Ibn Nubhān and his followers) are asked ‘Whose Math’hab are you upon?’ and ‘Who said this before you?’, they will not be able to reply with a valid answer. And one of these (heresies) that we have heard regarding them, is that they claim that there is no Jibād except with an Imām, and thus if there is no Imām, then there can be no Jibād. This claim of theirs necessitates the forsaking of Jibād and opposing the Dīn of Allāh, and it necessitates that disobedience to Allāh is permissible...” And we hear this frequently from the Qusūriyyah, Jahmiyyah, and Murji’ah today, screaming “No Jibād, No Jibād! Only study Tawhīd, but never dare act upon it or attempt to establish it- or else you are Khawārij!” So who are the ones who are working for the kuffār?

⁶⁶⁵ Refer to “Ad-Durar As-Saniyyah” (8/199-200).

And then 'Ubaykān goes on to claim that he has followed the principles laid down by the Salaf, saying, "And the Jurists of the Ummah and the Rabbānee Scholars, they abide by the legal principles when they issue verdicts..."

Maybe it should be asked, "What principle led Ubaykān to revolutionize the verdicts of the Rabbānī (pious and knowledgeable) scholars regarding Muthābarah - Regarding which they all abided by the fact that "no two Muslims would disagree" that it is apostasy?"

And then 'Ubaykān says, "So my advice to the Muslims generally and to the students of knowledge specifically is that they withhold from the causes of separation between the Muslims, because this is from that which serves (the interests) of the enemies who lie in wait, and it is upon them to strive to unite the word, and to unite the ranks, He, the Most High, said, "And hold fast, all of you together, to the Rope of Allāh, and be not divided among yourselves." (Āli Imran 3:103)."

Is Tawhid, Hanīfiyyah, Millat Ibrāhīm, Jihād against the mushrikān and murtaddīn, and declaring Barā'ah from the Tāghūt- Are these the "causes of separation" that 'Ubaykān is referring to?

Does he not understand the Verse he himself is quoting? Hold fast to the Rope of Allāh; Is Allāh speaking about Tawhid, Qur'ān and Sunnah; or does it actually mean "Hold on to Muthābarah, apostasy, fabricated man-made legislations, collaboration with the Crusaders against the Mujāhidīn, deception, and bid'ah inventions"!

And then he says "because this is from that which serves (the interests) of the enemies who lie in wait..."! Yā Subhān Allāh!! Are the ones who follow the Qur'ān, Sunnah, Ijmā', Hanīfiyyah - those who act upon Tawhid, wage Jihād against the Crusaders and apostates- those who firmly believe that Collaboration with the kuffār [Muthābarah] is indeed apostasy, and indeed the Eighth Nullification of Islām, the ones who are waging Jihād against the enemies of Allāh and everyone that collaborates with them... Are these the ones serving the enemies of Allāh? Or are the ones serving the kuffār the ones claiming that it is okay to perpetrate Muthābarah?!

Indeed it is an era, where Sunnah has become Bid'ah, Tawhid has become kufur, and Bid'ah has become Sunnah, and kufur is regarded as Tawhid...

And then we realize what the Salaf meant when they said, "There is nothing stranger than the Sunnah- and yet even stranger than that, is he who truly follows it." ⁶⁶⁶

And we finally ask 'Ubaykān and the Qusūriyyah one question with regard to their love for the perpetrators of Muthābarah:

⁶⁶⁶ Refer to his book, "Kashf Al-Kurbah Fī Wasf Hāl Abl Al-Ghurbah" (28-29).

“Lo! You are those who have argued for them in the life of this world- But who will argue for them on the Day of Resurrection against Allāh, or who will then be their defender?”⁶⁶⁷

⁶⁶⁷ Refer to An-Nisā': 105-109

The Muwahhidūn are Not *Khawārij*⁶⁶⁸

Today we see some of the Shuyūkh of Tawhīd, such as Imām Hamūd Ibn 'Uqlā' Ash-Shu'aybī رحمه الله , Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Nāsir Al-'Ulwān فک الله أسره , Shaykh 'Abdul-Qādir Ibn 'Abdil-'Azīz فک الله أسره , Imām 'Abdullāh Ibn 'Abdir-Rahmān As-Sa'd, Shaykh 'Alī Ibn Khudhayr Al-Khudhayr فک الله أسره , Shaykh Nāsir Ibn Hamad Al-Fahd فک الله أسره , Shaykh Ahmad Ibn Hamūd Al-Khālīdī فک الله أسره , Shaykh Abū Qatādah Al-Fīlastīnī حفظه الله , Shaykh Abū Muhammad 'Āsim Al-Maqdisī فک الله أسره , Shaykh Abū Basīr At-Tartūsī حفظه الله , Shaykh Hāmid Ibn 'Abdillāh Al-'Alī فک الله أسره , Shaykh Abū Jandal Fāris Az-Zahrānī Al-Azdī فک الله أسره , Shaykh 'Abdullāh Ibn Muhammad Ar-Rashūd حفظه الله , Shaykh Abū 'Abdir-Rahmān Sultān Al-'Utaybī Al-Atharī رحمه الله , Shaykh 'Umar 'Abdur-Rahmān فک الله أسره , and many others - may Allāh preserve them all and strengthen them with His Help; Each one of them are labeled as Khārijī and Takfīrī by their enemies. And as it will become apparent to the reader - In Shā' Allāh - that this is nothing but a reiteration of the false propaganda of the enemies of the Da'wah of Najd. And In Shā' Allāh, the reader will become aware of the following things regarding Shaykh Muhammad Ibn 'Abdil-Wahhāb رحمه الله:

- 1) His enemies also labeled him and the Da'wah as "Khawārij".
- 2) The mushrikūn said that "Takfīr" was their method of thinking (fīkr).
- 3) They were accused of spilling the blood of Muslims.

While the above three were false propaganda against the People of Tawhīd, the next ones are true.

- 4) The Imāms of the Da'wah of Najd made Takfīr of the apostate rulers and revolted against them.
- 5) The foreign kuffār, such as the Europeans, helped and instigated the apostates against the Da'wah of Najd.

So listen to what the mushrikūn propagated to hinder the ignorant from the Da'wah of reviving Tawhīd...

1) Accused of being Khawārij

A deceitful mushrik said, "Just like the Khawārij took the Verses which were regarding the kuffār and applied them upon the Muslims, these Wahhābīs took the Verses regarding the kuffār and turned them against all the Muslims of the world." (Kashf An-Niqāb 'An 'Aqā'id Ibn 'Abdil-Wahhāb, 80).

⁶⁶⁸ The lies and fabrications of the kuffār against the Da'wah of Najd, which are mentioned in this section, are taken from the famous book which refutes those fabrications, "Da'awā Al-Munāwī'im". A must read book for anyone who wants to know the truth behind the false propaganda against the Muwahhidūn, instigated by the Zionists and the Crusaders. But the book mistakenly says that the Imāms of Najd did not declare Takfīr against the Ottomans. And the reason why many people hide this fact is obvious- so that no Takfīr can be made on the "Ottomans" of today.

So these mushrikīn described the followers of the Salafī Da'wah as being Khawārij. And indeed, those who are upon the same Da'wah today, they are also being labeled as Khawārij - just as their predecessors (Salaf) were labeled.

A Rāfidhī mushrik deceivingly accuses the Imāms of the Da'wah of Najd as, “They are no different from the Khawārij regarding the matter of Takfīr.” (Hāthibī Hiya Al-Wahhābiyyah, 70).

Another heretic accused, “They were like the Khawārij, making Takfīr of anyone who commits a sin.” (Tārīkh Al-Mathāhib Al-Islāmiyyah, 1/236).

2) Accused of being Takfīrī

And we have also been labeled as “Takfīrī” by the despicable Followers of Irjā' and Tajābbuhum. And this is but a repetition of another allegation which the enemies of Tawhīd propagated against the Da'wah:

“And if you are asked as to ‘What is the Math'hab of the Wahhabis’ and ‘What is their goal’- then answer them with one short reply which would completely and perfectly answer both questions- “Takfīr of all Muslims”. (Al-Fajr As-Sādiq, 64).

Another misguided heretic accuses, “Verily, their Math'hab is Takfīr.” (Tabyīn Al-Haqq Was-Sawāb, 8).

3) Accused of killing Muslims

And a Rāfidhī mushrik said, “What is the matter with this man (Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdīl-Wahhāb)? He has killed thousands of Muslims who say “There is none worthy of being worshipped except Allāh; And Muhammad is the Messenger of Allāh”, and give charity, and fast, and do pilgrimage to the Sacred House of Allāh. Rather, he has also killed children and women for no crime or aggression. And yet he claims that he is from the Muwahhidūn, and that all the Muslims are apostates.” (Fasl Al-Khitāb Fī Naqdh Mā Qālahu Ibn ‘Abdīl-Wahhāb, 33).

And another shameless liar said, “Some ‘Ulamā have nicknamed the Da'wah of Wahhābism as - the Da'wah of Bloodshed.” (Al-Haqā'iq Al-Islāmiyyah, 16).

Another Rāfidhī said, “Indeed the Wahhābīs are the people who cause tremors (Zalāzīl) and tribulations (fitan).” (Al-Barāhīn Al-Jaliyyah, 71).

Rather it is a “Sunnab” of the Pharaohs, past and present, to distort the reality. As Fir'awn himself said regarding the Muwahhidūn, “Leave me to kill Mūsā, and let him call his Lord (to stop me from killing him)! I fear that he may change your Dīn, or that he may cause mischief to appear in the land!”

669

And listen to what the Murji'ah propagate against the Muwabbidūn of today. Does it differ from what the musbrikūn fabricated against Imām Muhammad Ibn 'Abdil-Wahhāb?

And we answer the lies and fabrications of the People of Tajabbum with the same answer with which the Imāms of Najd replied:

Imām 'Abdul-Latīf Ibn 'Abdir-Rahmān رحمه الله said, “And indeed many musbrikūn in this era have erred- they assume that those who do Takfīr upon people who pronounce the Two Testimonies (Shahādātayn), they assume that such people are Khawārij - But this is not the truth. Rather, pronouncing the Two Testimonies is not a barrier from making Takfīr upon someone- it is only a barrier from the one who realizes its meaning, and acts upon its requisites, and purifies all his Tbādab for Allāh Alone, and does not commit any shirk with Allāh- so the Two Testimonies only benefit such a person.”⁶⁷⁰

Imām 'Abdur-Rahmān Ibn Hasan رحمه الله said, “So whenever we say, “None should be worshipped except Allāh, none should be called upon except Allāh, absolute hope and trust should not be placed in anyone except Allāh” and similar things for all the various types of Tbādab which is not meant for anyone except Allāh Alone; and when we say that whosoever directs Tbādab to other than Allāh, then he is a kāfir and musbrik- they come and shout to us “You are upon bid'ah, you have made Takfīr upon the Ummah of Muhammad, you are Khawārij, you are innovators.”⁶⁷¹

⁶⁶⁹ Ghāfir: 26

⁶⁷⁰ “Ad-Durar As-Saniyyah” (12/263)

⁶⁷¹ “Ad-Durar As-Saniyyah” (11/448-449).

“And when it is said to them “Come to what Allāh has sent down, and to the Messenger”, you see the hypocrites turn away from you with aversion.” [An-Nisā': 61].

And today also, when we say to those whom we hope are our brethren in Tawhīd, “Come, let us govern with the Kitāb and Sunnah”- they turn away and label us as Khawārij. They forget (purposely) that Allāh forbid committing shirk in His Judgment,

“And He makes none to share in His Decision and His Rule.” [Al-Kahf: 26].

Even though Allāh swore,

“But no, By your Lord- they do not believe, until they make you (O Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم) judge in all disputes in between them, and they find in themselves no resistance against your decisions, and accept with full submission.” [An-Nisā': 65].

When asked “Do you declare Muslims to be kuffār due to sins?” The Imāms replied, “This is not our position. Rather, this is the opinion of the Khawārij, those who do Takfīr upon sins. And we never declare anyone to be a kāfir due to a sin. Rather, we only pronounce Takfīr upon whoever does the Mukaffirāt sins, like committing shirk by worshipping someone along with Allāh, or to slaughter to other than Him, or taking an oath for other than Him, or fearing other than Him, or hoping from other than Him, or trusting in other than Him- for these things are all types of Tbādab, according to the texts of the Qur'ān.”⁶⁷²

Imām ‘Abdullāh Ibn Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdīl-Wahhāb رحمه الله said, “And as for those who fabricate lies against us in order to hide the Truth, and disguise the Truth as falsehood, by claiming that we unrestrictedly make Takfīr of all people in this era, and also of everyone else after the 6th century, except those who follow us; and that we don’t accept the pledge of anyone until they admit that they were mushrikīn, and that their parents died upon shirk... These claims have no faces [truth]- rather, these are all like superstitions... And our answer to these allegations is

“Glory be to You (O Allāh)! This is a great lie!”⁶⁷³

So whosoever narrates such regarding us, or attributes these statements to us, then he has indeed fabricated deceptions. But whosoever witnesses our situation, and attends our gatherings, and realizes that which is with us- then he will definitely know that everything which they have fabricated against us, is the propaganda of the enemies of the Dīn and the brothers of the Shayātīn, in order to make mankind run away from obedience of Allāh, run away from sincerity for Allāh, run away from singling out Allāh with Tbādab, and to fall into the various types of shirk - that which Allāh has announced that He shall not forgive, but will forgive everything other than it. And it is our belief that those who perpetrate the various types of major sins, like murdering a Muslim without right, committing adultery, taking usury, drinking intoxicants- and even if they do these things multiple times, we believe that the perpetrator is not expelled from the fold of Islām, nor will he be in the Abode of Retribution (Hell) for eternity- that is of course, with the condition that he dies as a Muabbid who singled out Allāh with all types of Tbādab (not committing shirk in any type).”⁶⁷⁴

“As for their lies and fabrications, like their claim that we make Takfīr of everyone, and make Hijrah to us an obligation even if someone is able to openly manifest his Dīn [through Barā'ah and Hostility and Hatred], and that we declare anyone who does not fight against the mushrikīn to be kāfir - and besides these fabrications there are countless folds of the same thing. And all these are deceptions and fabrications, only to block people from the Dīn of Allāh and His Messenger.”⁶⁷⁵

⁶⁷² “Ad-Durar As-Saniyyab” (8/204). And similarly, the Muabbidūn do not do make Takfīr for sins- Rather they only make Takfīr for the Nullifications.

⁶⁷³ An-Nūr: 16

⁶⁷⁴ “Al-Hadyah As-Saniyyab” (40). A point to ponder over for those who make shirk in Tabakum and Ruku' and Tā'ah to the Tāghūt.

⁶⁷⁵ “Majmū' Mu'allafāt Ash-Shaykb” (3/11)

The Imām also said, “And as for the saying that we make Takfir of the general masses (of Muslims), then that is from the fabricated propaganda of the enemies of Allāh, those who want to halt mankind from entering into Islām. And we say: Glory be to You (O Allāh)! This is a great lie! ^{676, 677}

4) The Shaykh did Takfir of the Hukkām (rulers, leaders) of his time. ⁶⁷⁸

The disciples of the Da'wab of Tawhid entered into Hijāz, Yemen, Ihsā', 'Irāq, and Ash-Shām. ⁶⁷⁹ And they attacked Karbalā (in 1217), and besieged Damascus - and all these, without argument, were part of the Ottoman Empire.

And the statements of the Imāms of the Salafī Da'wab were all united in their verdicts that the Ottoman Empire was Dār Al-Harb (Land of War and kufir), except those towns and villages that answered to the Da'wab of Tawhid.

And the Da'wab of the Shaykh رحمه الله was a Da'wab towards pure Islām, and war against shirk and its people; and one of the greatest nations that was spreading shirk at that time was the Ottoman Empire. And you- O who has tasted the sweetness of Tawhid - shall confirm exactly that after reading the following testimonies... ⁶⁸⁰

⁶⁷⁶ An-Nūr: 16

⁶⁷⁷ “Majmū' Mu'allafāt Ash-Shaykh” 5/100

⁶⁷⁹ Refer to “Ad-Dawlab Al-'Uthmāniyyah” (1/20), and “Unwān Al-Majid” (1/97 and afterwards).

⁶⁸⁰ Shaykh Nāsir Al-Fahd فكه الله أسره writes, “And whosoever ponders over the Ottoman Empire... Two things will become apparent 1) Its spreading of shirk, and 2) Its war against Tawhid... Under the 'Abbāsiyyah, Sufism began to spread, but it was still as a segregated faction of society. But under the Ottoman Empire's shadow, it became the main religion of the society... And they spread these sects into Central Asia... Some apologetic people claim that the war between the Ottomans and the Da'wab of Salafīyyah was a political war, but that is not the truth. Rather, it was a war of 'Aqidah, which began when the scholars of the grave-worshippers issued the verdict [to crusade against the Muslims], see “Hashiyat Ibn 'Ābidn” (4/262). And in a letter sent by the Imāms to the Ottoman rulers [i.e. the Wulātul-Amr], “The shrines of kufir and shirk are manifest in your empire; like domes upon the graves, and lighting lamps upon them, and decorating them with curtains, and visiting them in manners which have not been legislated by Allāh nor His Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم, and taking them as places of celebration, and begging its inhabitants to answer your prayers, settle your affairs, and relieve your troubles; this along with abandoning the Fara'idh (obligations) of the Dim, like the Five Salāwāt. Whosoever wants to pray Salāt, does- but if they don't, then nothing happens to them. And similarly Zakāt... our ears and eyes are full of what is happening in your lands, such as Ash-Shām, 'Irāq, Egypt, and many other places.” (Ad-Durar As-Saniyyah 1/382)... And then there is Prince Solomon the Legislator (Al-Qānūnī), he ruled for about 46 years. When he entered Baghdad, he built a mausoleum over the grave of Abū Hanifah, and erected a dome upon it (so that he can be worshipped), and he used to visit the sacred places of the Shi'ab, and built monuments for them, see “Ad-Dawlab Al-'Uthmāniyyah: Dawlab Islāmiyyah” (1/25), and “Tārikh Ad-Dawlab Al-'Alīyyah” (223). And he was famous with the name “The Legislator” because he was the first to insert European laws into the lands of the Muslims and make them active in the courts. See “Tārikh Ad-Dawlab Al-

a) Imām Sa'ūd Ibn 'Abdil-'Azīz رحمه الله

In a letter that he sent to the governors of the Ottomans, “And as for your claim (against us), “You have revived the fitnah of making Takfīr of the Muslims who face the Qiblah, and fighting against a people who believe in Allāh and the Last Day”- so we reply to you: We have already told you that we do not make Takfīr due to sins, rather, we only fight whosoever commits shirk, and sets up rivals with Allāh; calling upon them as they call upon Allāh, sacrificing for them as they sacrifice for Allāh, making oaths for them as they make oaths for Allāh, fearing them as they fear Allāh, and pleading for help from them during times of hardship and seeking assistance from them, and not fighting against the idols and Qibāb which are erected upon the graves which have been taken as objects of worship along with Allāh. So if you are truthful in your claim that you people are upon Islām and are following the Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم - then annihilate those idols completely, and level them to the ground, and repent to Allāh from all of your shirk and heresies... But if you remain in this condition of yours, and do not repent to Allāh from the shirk that you all are upon, and do not obligate (upon yourselves) the Dīn of Allāh with which He sent His Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم, and if you do not forsake your shirk, heresies, and superstitions- we will never cease fighting against you until you return to the only correct religion, the Dīn of Allāh.”⁶⁸¹

b) Imām Sulaymān Ibn 'Abdillāh Al Ash-Shaykh رحمه الله

When the Turks (Ottomans) invaded the lands of the Muabbidīn, Shaykh Sulaymān رحمه الله compiled the book “Ad-Dalā'il”. This book is about the riddah and kufīr of those who help and aid the Ottomans against the Muabbidīn - even if the collaborators are not upon their religion of shirk, and even if they “hate the kuffār”. And he described the Ottoman army as “the soldiers of shirk and the Qibāb and its people”.⁶⁸² And in this book he makes Takfīr of every treacherous Muslim who assists the Ottoman armies, let alone making Takfīr of the Ottomans themselves!

c) Imām 'Abdul-Latīf Ibn 'Abdir-Rahmān Ibn Hasan رحمه الله

'Alīyyab” (177, 198 and afterwards)... And thus whosoever claims that the Ottoman Empire was a Muslim Empire, then they have lied. And an even greater slander is when they call this an “Islāmic Khilāfah”!! And know- O Brother- that no one claims that the Empire was Islāmic, except two types of people, A) Either a misguided heretic who thinks that shirk is Islām, or B) An ignorant person who doesn't know the affairs of this Empire.” Then the Shaykh notes, “Just because the Ottoman Empire was a kāfir Empire, this doesn't mean that every single person in it was a kāfir. Like the two sons of the Imām, Husayn and 'Abdullāh, said رحمه الله, “It is possible to rule that a certain village is kāfir and that its people are kuffār, and have the same rulings as the kuffār - and at the same time - not every specific individual is a kāfir.” “Majmū' Ar-Rasā'il” (1/44).” For example today, America is a kāfir Country, but this does not necessarily mean that every person living in America is a kāfir. For further knowledge about this Takfīr of the “Characteristic” and of the “Individual”, refer to “Takfīr Al-Mu'ayyin” of Imām Is'hāq Al Ash-Shaykh رحمه الله.

⁶⁸¹ “Ad-Durar As-Saniyyab” (7/397)

⁶⁸² Refer to the beginning of “Ad-Dalā'il”.

The Shaykh wrote a long poem describing the condition of the Ottoman Empire, a part of which is:

“Rather they are even with the laws of the Christians governing,
Without a proof which has come from Al-Qur'ān.
So see the rivers of kufr exploding,
For it has flooded over the Shari'ah of Ar-Rahmān.”⁶⁸³

d) Imām Hamad Ibn 'Atīq An-Najdī رحمه الله

This Imām رحمه الله and Imām 'Abdul-Latīf Ibn 'Abdir-Rahmān رحمه الله had exchanged many letters and treatises regarding the Empire, as is found in the seventh and eighth volumes of “Ad-Durar As-Saniyyab”. And when the infidel Ottoman armies entered the Arabian Peninsula, some of the towns betrayed the Muslims by assisting the Ottomans. And just as Shaykh Sulaymān رحمه الله compiled the book “Ad-Dalā'il” a generation before, regarding Muthāharah (assisting the kuffār against the Muslims) and helping the Ottomans against the Muwaḥhidīn- likewise Imām Hamad compiled another book, which he named “Sabīl An-Najātī Wal-Fikāki Min Muwālāt Al-Murtaddīn Wa Ahlil-Isbrāk”. Literally “The Path of Salvation and Freedom Against Allegiance with the Apostates and Mushrikīn”.⁶⁸⁴ And in this book, just like Shaykh Sulaymān in “Ad-Dalā'il”, he makes Takfīr of every treacherous Muslim who assists the Ottoman armies, let alone the Ottomans themselves!

e) Shaykh 'Abdullāh Ibn 'Abdil-Latīf Āl Ash-Shaykh رحمه الله

The Shaykh رحمه الله was asked regarding those who do not do Takfīr of the Ottoman Empire, but only view that they are sinful oppressors, and that their spoils of war are Harām (to be taken) since they are Muslims. He replied, “Those who do not realize the kufr of the Empire, and don't differentiate between the Empire and the sinful Muslim oppressors- they have not understood the meaning of Lā Ilāh Illā Allāh. So if he believes that the (rulers of the) Empire are Muslims- then he is even worse and more severe. And this is exactly what is ⁶⁸³ Brothers are requested to read the entire poem, for it reveals the sickening nature of that kingdom. It can be found in (7/187-194) of “Ad-Durar As-Saniyyab”, and (1/197-206) of “Tathkirat Ulī An-Nubā”.

⁶⁸⁴ The name of this book has become famous with this title; But there are reasons to believe that the original name of this book had instead of “Ahlil-Isbrāk” (mushrikīn) at the end, it actually had “Al-Atrāk” (The Turks). Thus the title was actually “The Path of Salvation and Freedom Against Allegiance with the Apostates and the Turks.”

Firstly: In the Tabqāq of “Sabīl An-Najātī” by Shaykh Al-Furyān رحمه الله, it is mentioned that this title is with “the Turks” in some of the original manuscripts.

Secondly: In the book itself, Imām Hamad رحمه الله after mentioning the entire Verse “And if any amongst you takes them as Awliyā, then surely he is one of them”, he says, “Likewise, whosoever does any Tawallī to the Turks, then he is a Turk. And whosoever does any Tawallī to the Persians (Rawāfidh), then he is a Persian.” And Allāh Knows Best.

(called) “doubting the kufr of those who commit kufr”.⁶⁸⁵ And whosoever assists them with any type of support against the Muslims, then this is obvious apostasy⁶⁸⁶ (riddah sarībah).”⁶⁸⁷

f) Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Sahnān رحمه الله

The Shaykh said in a poem:

“And what is said of the Turks, those who describe them with kufr;
Then that is the truth, for they are the most disbelieving of sects;
And their enmity against the Muslims, and their evilness,
Exceeds and surpasses the deviancy of all the other religions;
And whosoever does any Tawalli to them, then he is just like them,
And there is no doubting his *Takfir*⁶⁸⁸ for he who knows the texts;
And whosoever does Muwālāt to them, and inclines towards them,
Then there is no doubting that he is a fāsiq, and he should be in fright...”⁶⁸⁹

g) Shaykh ‘Abdur-Rahmān Ibn ‘Abdil-Latīf Ibn ‘Abdillāh Ibn ‘Abdil-Latīf Al Ash-Shaykh رحمه الله

And let us end this discussion with this statement of the Shaykh, “And it was (widely) known that the Turkish Kingdom was paganistic, its religion was shirk and heresies, and they defended these things.”⁶⁹⁰

6) The foreign kuffār supported the apostates against the Muwahhidīn

It is well-recorded by the historians that the powers from outside the Middle East instigated and supported the apostates against the Muwahhidīn. It is also well-known that the British sent their Captain Forester Sadler to meet with Abraham Pasha,⁶⁹¹ the viceroy of Egypt, to thank and congratulate him for his destruction of the stronghold of the Salafī Da'wab in Ad-Dir'iyyah. The two men also spoke about wiping out the “Wahhābī pirates” around the entire Gulf and helping the British Empire in doing so.⁶⁹²

⁶⁸⁵ The Shaykh is referring to the Third Nullification of Islam, “Whoever does not make Takfir to the mushrikīn, or doubts their kufr, or approves of their Math'hab, he has disbelieved”.

⁶⁸⁶ Since it is one of the Ten Nullifications of Islam. So again this is a clear verdict from the Imam that Muthābarah is “obvious apostasy”.

⁶⁸⁷ “Ad-Durar As-Saniyyah” (8/242 and 10/429)

⁶⁸⁹ “Refer to Diwān Ibn Sahnān” (191).

⁶⁹⁰ “Ulamā' Ad-Da'wab” (56)

⁶⁹¹ 1789-1848. The Greek-born son of Mahomet Ali Pasha (1769-1849). Their native town was Kavala, Greece. Both, father and son, were viceroys representing Egypt on behalf of the Ottoman Sultan, although they were considered to be virtually independent. He inherited the authority over Egypt from his father. Both crusaded against the Salafī Da'wab upon the decree from the Sultan of the Ottoman Empire.

⁶⁹² Refer to the Arabic translation of the travels of Captain Forester Sadler - “Al-Kabtin Furistir Sadlir, Riblah Ibar Al-Jaz'irah Al-'Arabiyyah”. Translated by Anas Ar-Rifā'i.

And historians say that the correspondence letters clearly show that Abraham Pasha and the British Empire were united in their goal to completely annihilate the “Wahhābīs”.⁶⁹³ And the Indian historian, Mas'ūd An-Nadwī, also comes to the same conclusion.⁶⁹⁴

It is obvious from the historic records, that the European kuffār extremely despised “Wahhābism”. And this is why we find that the British labeled any Muslim that opposed them in the Indian sub-continent as a “Wahhābī”.⁶⁹⁵

It should also be mentioned that Abraham Pasha's army had a Frenchman as its Chief of Staff. He was Colonel Séve, who supposedly “converted” to Islām after the Ottoman Empire hired him to train their army according to the “European” method. He then changed his identity to “Suleiman Pasha Al-Faransawī”.

And as it was mentioned before, Abraham Pasha is the one who executed Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn ‘Abdillāh رحمه الله, by ordering his squadron to nail him to a cross, and then fire at him with their bullets until his body was completely torn to pieces.

And it is also of significance that Queen Victoria invited Abraham Pasha to London. And obviously the slave obeys the master; thus when he visited London in 1846, he was thanked for his “heroic campaigns”; and he was received by Queen Victoria as “one of the most prominent military leaders”.

And even Abraham Pasha's father, Mahomet Ali Pasha was famous for his servitude towards his lease-holders in London. One of the English colonialists, Frasier, sent a letter to General Moore saying, “Indeed Mahomet Ali Pasha, the governor of Egypt, has shown great aspiration to place himself under the patronage of the British. So we have promised him that we would relay his proposals to the leaders and commanders of the British Military, that they could later transmit his proposals to the English Government so that they could also have a look at it.”⁶⁹⁶

And researchers in Europe have also discovered some letters and pacts which were exchanged in between Napoleon Bonaparte, the emperor of France, and a senior Ottoman governor, Albāb Al-‘Ālī. These documents speak explicitly regarding the Salafī Da'wah, and the necessity of taking action to repel them, and the threats that the Da'wah posed against the interests of the French in the Middle East.⁶⁹⁷

These facts should be pondered upon by the fellow brethren who are upon Sunnah and Tawhid. They should look at how all these points are consistent with today. Still, the foreign kuffār order the apostate regimes to capture and annihilate the Mumabhidīn. Their Foreign ⁶⁹⁷ Refer to the introduction of Shaykh ‘Atiyyah Sālim رحمه الله to “Al-Imām Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdil-Wahhāb” by Shaykh Ibn Bāz رحمه الله. The researcher was Dr. Ahmad At-Tuwayl, he discovered these papers while preparing his doctorate thesis.

Ministers and Defense Ministers visit the palaces and mansions of the apostates; and likewise, the apostates pay visits to their masters' castles. What do they discuss? They discuss - while having champagne - capturing the Muwahhidīn, killing them, spying on them, assassinating them, deporting them, and “cracking down” on them. They discuss every type of Tawallī and Mawālāt and riddah that they can possibly think of.

So O Brother of Tawhid! Think about these points mentioned above, and ask yourself:

Which “Wahhābīs” are falsely being accused of being Khawārij?
Which “Wahhābīs” are falsely being accused of making Takfīr of Muslims?
Which “Wahhābīs” are falsely being accused of spilling the blood of Muslims?
Which “Wahhābīs” appropriately do Takfīr of the apostate rulers?
Which “Wahhābīs” are the kuffār and apostates uniting together all over the world to fight against?

The exact same things that the Qubūriyyah (grave-worshippers) accused the Muwahhidīn with; today the Qusūriyyah (palace-worshippers) accuse the Muwahhidīn of the exact same things.

“And verily they were about to frighten you (O Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم) so much as to drive you out from it (the land)... And you will not find any alteration in Our Sunnah (rule or way).”⁶⁹⁸

Just like the Ottomans propagated that the Imāms of the Da'wah of Najd were rebelling against Muslim rulers- today the apostate rulers claim that the Muwahhidūn are rebelling against Muslim rulers.

And just like the scholars of the Ottoman grave-worshippers issued verdicts saying that it is obligatory to kill and fight the Muslims whom they labeled as Khawārij- today's palace-worshippers claim that is obligatory to kill the Muwahhidīn since they are also Khawārij.

Just like the Muwahhidūn opposed making Takfīr of Muslims, and only made Takfīr of apostates, but yet were labeled as Khawārij- today the Muwahhidūn are labeled as Khawārij, even though they prohibit calling Muslims kuffār, and only make Takfīr of apostates.

Just like the Da'wah of Najd prohibited revolting against a Muslim ruler, even if they are oppressors, but yet the apostates falsely propagated that they were rebelling against the Muslim rulers- today the Muwahhidūn prohibit revolting against the Muslim rulers, but still the apostate regimes claim that they are revolting against Muslim regimes.

Just like the Qubūriyyah (grave-worshippers) Ottoman scholars labeled the Muwahhidīn as “Wahhābiyyīn”- the Qusūriyyah (palace-worshippers) scholars of Irjā' and Tajabbum label the Muwahhidīn as “Irbābiyyīn” (terrorists).

⁶⁹⁸ Al-Isrā': 75-77

Just like the apostates and kuffār propagated that a British spy “inspired and taught” Shaykh Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdil-Wahhāb رحمه الله - today the Murji'ah propagate that the Shuyūkh of Tawhid are being stirred and instigated by hidden Zionists who have infiltrated.⁶⁹⁹ They think that such fabricated childish propaganda will make Muslims abandon their courageous and forbearing ‘Ulamā’ who speak the truth in the face of these murtadd Tawāghūt.

Just as the Pashas begged the English and French Empires to help them against the Muwahhidīn- today the apostate rulers beg the Americans and British to provide them with assistance against the Muwahhidīn.

Just as the British Queen summoned Pasha to her after he destroyed the capital of the Muslims, to congratulate him- today the Zionists and Crusaders speak well of their slaves whenever they “clamp down on Wahhābism”, and if the Crusaders are in a good mood, the apostates get to visit their white palaces.

Just like the Ottoman scholars preferred to take the British and French as their Anliyā', rather than the “Wahhābiyyīn”- today the Followers of Irjā' and Tajabhum prefer to take the Crusaders as their Anliyā', rather than the “Irbābiyyīn”.

Just like... and just like... and just like...

Just like the Muslims were upon Haqq in their Jihād against the grave-worshipping Ottoman Empire- today the Salafīyyah are upon Haqq in their Jihād against the apostate regimes.

And if you are able to realize that the *shirk*⁷⁰⁰ of the Ottomans was in worshipping the graves of righteous people like Abū Ayyūb Al-Ansārī رضي الله عنه, Abū Hanīfah, and ‘Abdul-Qādir Al-Jilānī; and then you see today’s apostate regimes worshipping their gods (Alīhal) Bush, Blair, Putin, and Sharon- the same swine and apes which declared a Zionist Crusade against Islām and Millat Ibrāhīm, and dared to say that they would “smoke” the Muwahhidīn “out of their holes”; if you are able to grasp this- then you would also be able to understand that these apostate regimes of today are more worthy of Takfīr and more deserving of being fought than the Ottoman grave-worshippers. Wallāhu Al-Musta'ān.

There are some Verses which can be used to describe the condition of these People of Irjā' and Tajabhum.

“Mighty is the word that comes out of their mouths. They utter nothing but a lie.”⁷⁰¹

And we say to the People of Irjā' and Tajabhum, as is in the Verse, ⁶⁹⁹ Their psychological warfare uses this type of “reverse psychology” method. Muslims should beware of their deceit.

⁷⁰⁰ The shirk of the Ottomans also included shirk in Tabākum to the Tawāghūt, by replacing the Sharī'ah. Refer to the poem of Imām ‘Abdul-Latīf Ibn ‘Abdir-Rahmān رحمه الله.

⁷⁰¹ Al-Kahf: 5

“And sit not on every road, threatening, and hindering from the Path of Allāh those who have Īmān in Him, and seeking to make it crooked.”⁷⁰²

And this is what all the followers of the Messengers face, as Allāh has clarified,

“So We have appointed for every Prophet enemies- Shayātīn among humans and the Jinn, inspiring one another with adorned speech as a delusion. If your Lord had so willed, they would not have done it- so leave them and their fabrications.”⁷⁰³

But Allāh promises,

“They want to extinguish the Light of Allāh with their mouths- But Allāh refuses except that His Light should be perfected, even though the kāfirūn hate it.”⁷⁰⁴

The Salaf Regarding Revolting Against the kāfir Ruler ⁷⁰⁵

It is recorded in Sahih Al-Bukhārī and Sahih Muslim, on the authority of 'Ubādah Ibn As-Sāmīt, "The Messenger of Allāh صلى الله عليه وسلم called us, so we gave Bay'ah to him. So from what he took upon us was that we offer Bay'ah upon listening and obeying, during our eagerness or reluctance and in our difficult times and in our easy times and favoring (the commands) instead of our own (desires), and that we would not dispute the authority from its people.' He said, 'Unless you see an open disbelief (Kufr), for which you have an evidence from Allāh about it.'" ⁷⁰⁶

Imām An-Nawawī said, "Al-Qādhib 'Iyādh said, "The scholars have formed a consensus that the leadership (Imāmah) is not to be contracted to a disbeliever (Kāfir) and that if disbelief (Kufr) comes from him, then he is to be removed... So if disbelief (Kufr) and changing the legislation (Shara') or innovation (Bid'ah) comes from him, then he has left the status of authority and his (right) of obedience falls and it becomes obligatory upon the Muslims to rise up against him and remove him and set up a just Imām, if that is possible for them. Then if that is not possible, except for a group (Tā'ifah), ⁷⁰⁷ then it is obligatory upon them (i.e. a group) to rise up and remove the disbeliever (Kāfir). And that is not obligatory concerning the innovator, unless they assume that they are able (to do so). Then if the inability is confirmed, then the uprising is not obligatory, but the Muslims must make Hijrah away from his land to other than it, and flee with his religion." ⁷⁰⁸

Al-Hāfiṭh Ibn Hajar Al-'Asqalānī رحمه الله said, "Ad-Dāwūdī said that, "The scholars are (united) regarding that the oppressive [Muslim] rulers, if it is possible to remove them without fitnah (war), then it is obligatory (Wājib); but if it involves fitnah (war), then it is obligatory to be patient. And some scholars view that it is not permissible to put a fāsiq (oppressor) into rulership if he is as such from the beginning; but if he was put into position while he was righteous, and then later committed oppression- then the scholars have differed regarding revolting against such a (fāsiq) ruler, but the correct opinion is that it is forbidden. But as for the ruler committing kufr, then it is obligatory (Wājib)." ⁷⁰⁹

Ibn Hajar رحمه الله also narrates from the Salaf, "The Fuqahā' (scholars) are united in Ijmā' regarding the obligation of obeying a sinful (Muslim Muwaḥhid) ruler, and that Jihād with him (against the kuḥfār) is valid, and that obeying him is better than revolting against him, and ⁷⁰⁵ This section is based upon a chapter from the book of Shaykh Abū Suhayb 'Abdil-'Azīz's book, "Aqḥwāl Al-'A'immaḥ Wad-Du'āt Fī Bayān Riddati Man Baddal Ash-Shari'ah Min Al-Hukkam Wat-Tughāb".

⁷⁰⁶ This is the wording of Al-Bukhārī (7055, 7056).

⁷⁰⁸ "Sahih Muslim Bi Sharh An-Nawawī" (12/229)

⁷⁰⁹ Refer to "Fat'h Al-Bārī" (13/10). See how the scholars of the Salaf differentiated between revolting against a Muslim oppressor, and between a kāfir Taghut ruler.

spilling the blood of many... And the scholars have not exempted any from this obligation (of obeying the rulers) except if the ruler perpetrates clear kufr- in such a case, it is not permissible to obey the ruler in that matter (of kufr)- on the contrary, it is obligatory (Wājib) to wage Jihād against him, for whosoever is capable of doing so.”⁷¹⁰

And Shaykh Al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah رحمه الله said regarding the rulers who do not take Jizyah (tax) from the Jews and Christians, and forbid Jihād against the kuffār, “So any group that refuses to do these, even if they accept (the obligation of) these, they are to be fought. And I have no knowledge of any difference of opinion regarding this.”⁷¹¹

So it is obviously clear from these scholars that they differentiated between revolting against a fāsiq oppressive ruler and a Mubtadi' - and some scholars stipulated that with the “ability to remove him without fitnah”. As Al-Qādhī ‘Iyādh رحمه الله said, “And that is not obligatory concerning the innovator, unless they assume that they are able (to do so),” and Ad-Dāwūdī رحمه الله said, “The scholars are (united) regarding that the oppressive [Muslim] rulers, if it is possible to remove them without fitnah (war), then it is obligatory (Wājib)”.

But as for the ruler who commits kufr, they not only made it permissible, they were united upon the obligation of removing him, even if it involves bloodshed.⁷¹²

As Ibn Hajar said, “But as for the ruler committing kufr, then it is obligatory (Wājib),” and “Except if the ruler perpetrates clear kufr- in such a case, it is not permissible to obey the ruler in that matter (of kufr)- on the contrary, it is obligatory (Wājib) to wage Jihād against him, for whosoever is capable of doing so.”

And Al-Qādhī ‘Iyādh said, “Then if that is not possible, except for a group (Tā'ifah) then it is obligatory upon them (i.e. a group) to rise up and remove the disbeliever (Kāfir)...”

So can it fairly be said that those who wage Jihād against the kāfir Tāghūt - that such people are “Khawārij”? Even though the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم described the real Khawārij as:

“They will kill the Followers of Islām, and let go of the Followers of the Idols.”⁷¹³

So who are the ones that kill, slaughter, imprison, spy against, torture, wage war against, capture and hand over the Warriors of Tawhid into the hands of the Zionists and Crusaders? Who are the ones who help the Crusaders massacre millions of defenseless Muslims around the entire globe; and continue to provide a refuge for the Crusaders upon the Peninsula of ⁷¹³ Refer to “Thilāl Al-Jannab Takbrīj As-Sunnab” (910) by Ibn Abī ‘Āsim رحمه الله, classified as “Sahīb” by Shaykh Nāsir Al-Albānī رحمه الله. Also narrated similarly by Al-Bukhārī رحمه الله in “Kitāb Al-Anbiyā” (3166). Also narrated by Muslim, An-Nasā’ī, Abū Dāwūd and Ahmad. All from Abū Sa’īd Al-Khudrī رضي الله عنه.

Muhammad ﷺ ⁷¹⁴ Who are the ones that are not merely “letting go” of the mushrikīn, but rather they are taking each and every measure to ensure the safety of the Zionists and Crusaders upon the Peninsula of Muhammad ﷺ Who are the people killing the Muslims in order to please the kuffār in the White Palace? Who are the people that are waging a war side-by-side with the Crusaders against the Mujāhidīn? Who are the ones who would kill anyone in order to satisfy the thirst of the Zionists and Crusaders ⁷¹⁵ - and yet they dare claim to be Muslims? Who are the ones that take Jizyah from the Muslims, and give donations to the Zionists and Crusaders? Who are the ones that feel safe next to a Crusader, ⁷¹⁶ but threatened next to a Mujāhid? ⁷¹⁷ And maybe it will become clear to you who the real Khawārij are...

⁷¹⁴ The same Peninsula which was once the sanctuary of the Prophets Ibrāhīm and Muhammad ﷺ, the land of the fearless Sabābah رضي الله عنهم; the land from where the Warriors of Islām marched and brought the Roman and Persian Empires to their knees- from where it conquered from Spain to China, from Morocco to Indonesia; the land which was the Land protecting the Muslims, waging Jihād against the Tawāghit, and assisting all Muslims everywhere on earth against the kuffār, while sheltering the Mujāhidīn... Today, this is the same land from where Zionist jets and Crusader bombers and missiles are launched from, blowing apart weak Muslim children, women, and the elderly; today it is the same land from where the Armies of the Cross launch their operations against the Muslim lands... To such a degree, that there is no jet/bomber that attacked Iraq, except that it came from the Arabian Peninsula; Today, this land is the sanctuary of the Zionist Crusaders, and from here they launch Crusades against the Mujāhidīn... So O Brother of Tamūd! Will you blindly-follow your leaders and scholars against the textual evidences- Or will you obey Allāh, your Lord, when He says, “So Take hold of them, and kill them wherever you find them, and take neither friends nor helpers from them... So take hold of them and kill them wherever you find them. In their case, We have provided you with a clear warrant against them.” [An-Nisā': 89-91]; Will you not obey your Prophet ﷺ; when he said in his last will, “Expel the Jews and Christians from the Arabian Peninsula.”? Or will you still claim that the Muḥabbidīn are Khawārij?

⁷¹⁵ Who are the ones that kill dozens of Muslims for every single kāfir Crusader captured by the Mujāhidīn- and they run as fast as they can to “free” the captured Crusaders; Who are the ones which are helping seize the sincere Mujāhidīn to quench the thirst of the Zionist Crusaders, and then they send them to be humiliated at the hands of the Crusaders within their dungeons and prisons? Who are the ones who are not only unbothered by the fact that millions of Muslims are being slaughtered- rather they are even collaborating with the Crusaders to massacre the Muslims? So maybe it will be apparent for you...

⁷¹⁶ And who are the ones who feel safe next to the Zionist Crusaders; the same satanic armies who rape the Muslimāt in Chechnya, Bosnia, Kashmir, Philippines, Indonesia, Afghanistan, Turkistan, and 'Irāq? These apostate regimes who feel safer and more “protected” next to the same Zionist Crusaders who tie Muslims with a dog-leash and perform evil deeds with them, and torture them? And these murtaddīn go to visit these Zionist Crusaders in their White Palaces, congratulating them for their operations against the Muslims...

⁷¹⁷ And who are the ones who would never sit next to a Mujāhid from Kashmir or Chechnya; they never visit the brethren who are trying their utmost to protect the Muslimāt and their children from the atrocities of the Crusaders? Yet, who are the ones that are attacking and killing the armies of the Cross and idolatry- trying to establish Tamūd and abolish shirk? Then ask yourself- who are the ones that run-away from these noble brethren and seek refuge with the Crusaders? Who are the ones that kill and help kill (Muthabarab) the noble Brethren of Jihād who protect the Muslimāt and their children? So think deeply...

Millat Ibrāhīm

The Obstacles ⁷¹⁸

Allāh (Most High) tells us,

“It may be that you dislike a thing, yet Allāh brings through it a great deal of good.”
⁷¹⁹

Indeed, Allāh says,

“Does mankind think that they will be left alone because they say, “We believe”- and they will not be tested? And We indeed tested those who were before them. And Allāh will certainly make it known, those who are truthful, and He will certainly make it known those who are liars.” ⁷²⁰

Shaykh Abū Muhammad Al-Maqdisī فك الله أسره said:

“Know! may Allāh keep you and us firm upon His Straight Path: this disavowal (Barā'ah) and enmity ('Adāmah) which is required by the Millah of Ibrāhīm, and its announcement and declaration to the people of disbelief (kufr) and their gods- it requires much, much hardship and struggle...

So do not think that this Path is decorated with roses and attractiveness, or that it is surrounded with tranquility and gentleness. On the contrary, it is - and I swear by Allāh - surrounded on all sides with difficulty and trials; But its ending is in luxurious musk, soothing provision, Gardens of Rayhbān, and Rabb Ghayr Ghadhbān, a Lord who is not angry.

And we do not wish to put trials on ourselves, nor on the Muslims, but the trials are from the Sunnah of Allāh, the Powerful, the Majestic, along this path, by which He differentiates between the vile and the good; as it is the path, which the People of Desires and Authority

⁷¹⁹ An-Nisā': 19, also refer to the Verse,

“Jihād is ordained for you (Muslims), though you dislike it, and it may be that you dislike a thing which is actually good for you, and it may be that you like a thing that is actually bad for you. Allāh knows, but you know not.” [Al-Baqarab: 216].

⁷²⁰ Al-'Ankabūt: 2-3

(Sultān) can not be pleased with due to its direct clash against their current positions. And it is a clear disavowal (Barā'ah) towards their deities and their manifestations of shirk. But other than this path, you will mostly find its people living luxuriously and inclining towards this worldly-life (Dunyā). And you will not see traces of these trials upon them because a person is only tested according to the level of his Dīm. So the most severely tested people are the Prophets, then nearest (in level) and then the nearest (in level).⁷²¹

And the followers of the Millah of Ibrāhīm are the most severely tested people because they follow the methodology of the Prophets in the Da'wah unto Allāh. As Warāqah Ibn Nawfal⁷²² said to the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, “No man has ever come with the likes of what you came with except that he was taken as an enemy.”⁷²³ So if you see, in our time, those who claim to call to the likes of what the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم used to call to and upon the likes of his path, and he claims to be upon his methodology, yet he is not taken as an enemy by the People of Falsehood and Authority (Sultān), and instead he is calm and relaxed in their midst - then examine his condition. He is either astray from the path; he has not come with the likes of what the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم came with and he took crooked paths,⁷²⁴ or he is a liar in his claim and he clothes himself in what he is not fit to clothe himself with. This could either be due to following desires and from seeking the pleasure of every opinionated person's whims,⁷²⁵ or due to the worldly-life (Dunyā), which he hopes to attain (a position in), such as being a spy or an eye (i.e. watcher, working) for the People of Authority (Sultān) against the People of the Dīm.

Yes, verily the Millah of Ibrāhīm holds one accountable for much. But it is connected with the victory of Allāh and the Great Success (Al-Fawz Al-Kabīr). And with it, the people are split into two groups; the group of faith (Īmān) and the group of disbelief (kufūr) and transgressions (fusūq) and disobedience ('isyān). And through it, it becomes clear who actually are the Allies of The Most Merciful (Ar-Rahmān), the allies of the Shaytān. Such was the Da'wah of the Prophets and the Messengers.

⁷²¹ Referring to the Hadīth narrated by At-Tirmithī, in which the Messenger of Allāh صلى الله عليه وسلم was asked which of the people are the most severely tested. He said, “The Prophets, then nearest (in level) and then the nearest (in level). The man will be tested according to his religion. So if there is firmness in his religion, his tests will be harsher. And if there is weakness in his religion, his tests will be in accordance to the amount (i.e. strength) of his religion. So the tests will not leave the slave until it leaves him walking on the Earth without any mistakes (i.e. sins) upon him.” Shaykh Al-Albānī, may Allāh be merciful to him, classified it “Hasan Sabīh” in “Sabīh Sunan At-Tirmithī” (1956) and “Sabīh” with a different phrasing in “Sabīh At-Targhib” (3402) as well as “Sabīh Al-Jāmi” (992) and (993). And in “Silsilat Al-Ahādīth As-Sabīhah”, he said, “Its chain is good.” (143).

⁷²² Warāqah Ibn Nawfal was the cousin of Khadijah Bint Khuwaylid, the first wife of the Messenger of Allāh.

⁷²³ Narrated by Al-Bukhārī.

⁷²⁴ Such as various Sūfiyyah who travel from country to country, Dār Al-Harb to Dār Al-Harb- they claim that they are following the Prophets صلى الله عليه وسلم - yet not a single Crusader opposes them. And the reason is because the kuffār know very well that these Sūfiyyah are doing more harm to Islam, Tawhid, and Jihad, rather than benefit.

⁷²⁵ Such as the Jahmi-styled Murji'ah- those who view it okay to sell the Hereafter for a miserable worldly price- as long as their “hearts are okay”.

They did not have these sick conditions, which we live with today from everything being all mixed up between the righteous with the unrighteous or the cozying-up to or the sitting of the bearded people along with the people of transgression (fīsq) and corruption (fujūr) and their honoring them and holding them above or ahead of the people of righteousness (Birr) and piety (Taqwā), despite the fact that those people openly show hatred and enmity towards the Dīn by several different means. Rather, the Da'wahs of the Prophets were clear disavowal (Barā'ah) from their people who turned away from the Legislation of Allāh, with open hostility towards their false deities, not compromising nor cozying-up nor compromising with them regarding the Legislation of Allāh...

Therefore, if you have understood the Millah of Ibrāhīm with a clear understanding, and you have come to know that it was the methodology of the Messengers and their followers and that it is the path to victory and success and happiness in both abodes (i.e. this life and the hereafter), then you must know afterwards, with certain knowledge, that the transgressors (Tughbāt) in every era will never be satisfied with it. Rather, they fear this great Millah and are frightened by it and they are keen and enthusiastic in eliminating it and removing it from the selves of the callers (Du'āt) via numerous paths and methods.⁷²⁶ As he, the Most High, informed (us) about them, from a long time ago when He said in Sūrat Al-Qalam, while it is from the Makkan Period:

“They wish that you would compromise with them, so they (too) could compromise with you.”⁷²⁷

So they wish that the callers (Du'āt) would take other than it (i.e. this Millah) from amongst the crooked paths.”⁷²⁸

Indeed this path is decorated only with hardships, afflictions, fire, torture, emigration, war, imprisonment, and martyrdom in this world. And in the Hereafter, a meeting with the Prophets صلى الله عليه وسلم, the Companions رضي الله عنهم, and a glance at the Face of Allāh (Most High).

And of the Prophets who walked this path, let your eyes see what they went through,

“(Ibrāhīm said), “Fie upon you! And upon that which you worship, besides Allāh! Have you then no sense!” They said “Burn him, and help your gods- if you are willing to take action.”⁷²⁹

⁷²⁶ As Allāh has said:

“And they will never cease fighting you until they turn you back from your Dīn (Islām), if they can.” [Al-Baqarah: 217].

⁷²⁷ Al-Qalam: 9

⁷²⁸ Refer to the book “Millat Ibrāhīm” by Shaykh Al-Maqdisī فك الله أسره.

“They said: Build for him a furnace, and throw him into the blazing fire!”⁷³⁰

“So nothing was the answer of his people, except that they said, “Kill him or burn him!”⁷³¹

And this, all for only following Hanīfyyah. Shaykh Muhammad Ibn ‘Abdil-Latīf Ibn ‘Abdir-Rahmān رحمه الله said, “And this is the meaning of “Ith’bār Ad-Dīn” (Proclaiming the Dīn), as opposed to the claims of the ignorant, those who think that if they are let to pray Salāt, read the Qur’ān and do voluntary Nawāfil, then such a person has proclaimed the Dīn - but this claim is an evil saying. For indeed, one who displays Hostility to the mushrikīn and declares Barā’ah from them, he will not be allowed to stay in the midst of the kuffār; Rather, they will either kill him, or expel him if they are able to. As Allāh has mentioned,

“And those who committed kufri, said to their Messengers: Surely, we shall drive you out of our land, or you shall return to our religion.”⁷³² ...

And the Hostility between the Messengers صلى الله عليهم وسلم and their peoples only became more intense after they mocked their gods, insulted their religion, and ridiculed their ideals.”⁷³³

And as the Companions of the Cave, those who followed the Millat Ibrāhīm, said to each other,

“Indeed, if they overcome you- they will stone you (to death), or turn you back to their religion; and in that case, you will never be successful.”⁷³⁴

And as the kuffār said to Prophet Shu’ayb عليه السلام,

⁷²⁹ Al-Anbiyā’: 67-68

⁷³⁰ As-Sāffāt: 97

⁷³¹ Al-‘Ankabūt: 24

⁷³² Ibrāhīm: 13

⁷³³ Refer to “Ad-Durar As-Saniyyah” (8/207), the section on Jihād.

⁷³⁴ Al-Kahf: 20

“We shall certainly drive you out, O Shu'ayb, and those who have believed with you, from our town- or else you (all) shall return to our religion.” He replied, “Even though we hate it!?”⁷³⁵

So see how this Prophet of Allāh replied back in the faces of the kuffār who were threatening him! Which only reminds us of the ordeal of the noble Companion, Bilāl رضي الله عنه; when the kuffār used various methods of torture upon him, and then laid an enormous boulder upon his chest in the scorching heat of the desert, and ordered him to say words of kufr, how he kept on saying “One! One!” - And they kept on torturing him like this, yet he only replied, just like Shu'ayb عليه السلام, “I swear by Allāh! If I knew a word that would enrage you even more, then I would be saying it right now!”⁷³⁶

So this is indeed how the paths of all the Hunafā' are.

Shaykh Muhammad Ibn Ahmad Al-Hafathī رحمه الله said, “And think upon what the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and his Companions were upon between the beginning of the Prophethood and the Hijrah; and to what they were calling to, and what they were prohibiting. The Verses of the Qur'ān were descending for ten years, and the people were either accepting it, or rejecting it. And there was Alliance (Muwālāt) and Hostility (Mu'ādāt) based upon who believes or disbelieves- and mankind was only upon this for ten years. Whosoever obeyed the Messenger and followed him, then he was the Muwahhid with salvation; and whosoever disobeyed and disregarded him, then he was a destroyed mushrik. And in these ten years, there was no such obligation as Salāt nor Siyām (fasting), let alone the other duties from the obligations of Islām (later on); nor was there any prohibition of the kabā'ir (major sins) for which there would be Hudūd (punishment). And in such a condition many people died from both parties (of Tawhīd and shirk) - a party in Jannah, and another in the Fire. So if you think upon this deeply- O Brother - you will see a manifest benefit.”⁷³⁷

And Shaykh Hamad Ibn 'Atīq رحمه الله said, “Many people may assume that as long one is able to utter the Two Testimonies (Shahādātayn) and pray the five prayers while not being turned away from the Mosque, that he has openly proclaimed his Dīn, even if he is in the midst of the mushrikīn, or in the lands of the apostates (murtaddīn), but this is a disgusting mistake.

Know, that the kufr has types and categories according to the various causes of kufr (Mukaffirāt). And every assembly (Tā'ifah) from the assemblies of kufr is famous for (at least) one type of it. And the Muslim has not openly proclaimed his Dīn until he opposes every assembly (Tā'ifah) in whatever (kufr) it is famous for, while clearly declaring his enmity towards it and his disavowal (Barā'ah) from it.

So whoseever's kufr is in the form of shirk, then “Proclaiming the Dīn” in front of him requires manifesting Tawhīd, and prohibiting shirk and warning from it. And whoseever's kufr is in the form of rejecting the Prophethood, then “Proclaiming the Dīn” in front of him requires manifesting that Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم is the Messenger of Allāh, and to call those people to blindly-follow him and not anyone else. And whosever's kufṛ is in the form of "Abandoning Salāt", then "Proclaiming the Dīn" requires performing Salāt in front of him, and ordering him to pray Salāt. And whosever's kufṛ is in the form of alliance (Mumālāt) to the kuffār, and obedience to them, then "Proclaiming the Dīn" requires to show Hostility and Enmity to him, and to declare Barā'ah from the mushrikīn." ⁷³⁸

⁷³⁵ Al-A'raf: 88

⁷³⁶ Refer to “Tafsīr Ibn Kathīr” (4/525).

⁷³⁷ Refer to the book “Darajāt As-Sā'idīn”.

And Imām 'Abdur-Rahmān Ibn Hasan رحمه الله said after he mentioned the various tortures that the Sahābah رضي الله عنهم went through, like 'Abdullāh Ibn Huthāfah رضي الله عنه, and Bilāl رضي الله عنه, and many others, "So this was the condition of the Companions of the Messenger, and what they met of the severe torments at the hands of the mushrikīn. So how are these Sahābah رضي الله عنهم compared to those who, when tested (in fitnah), they hurry to bātil, and they place themselves there, and they kiss them, and turn their backs upon the Truth, and they show affection to the kuffār and flatter them, and they incline towards them and praise them?! They are as Allāh has said,

"And if the enemy had entered from all sides (of the city), and they had been urged to fitnah (apostasy), they would surely have committed it - and they would have hesitated thereupon but little." ⁷³⁹

And we ask Allāh to make us firm upon Islām, and we seek refuge from the misguidance of fitnah, that which is apparent and that which is hidden. And it is well-known that had those who became Muslim and believed in the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and that which he came with- if they had not declared Barā'ah from shirk and the mushrikīn, and had not insulted their religion and mocked their gods - then they would not have gone through such types of torture and torment." ⁷⁴⁰

So such people who are at battle with bātil, striving for Tawhīd, and are threatened with assassination or torture, yet do not have a place to do Hijrah to, then they have an excellent example in the Companions of the Cave, who left their families and land to a distant cave inside a mountain; and yet another excellent example in the People of the Ditch, those who were burnt alive for the sake of their 'Aqīdah and Tawhīd, and they did not compromise nor hesitate; and yet another excellent example in the Companions of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, those who emigrated, waged Jihād, and they killed and were killed,

"But Sufficient is your Lord as a Guide and Helper." ⁷⁴¹

⁷³⁹ Al-Abzāb: 14

⁷⁴⁰ "Ad-Durar As-Saniyyah" (8/124), from the section on Jihād.

⁷⁴¹ Al-Furqān: 31

“Certainly, there has been in them an excellent example for you to follow- for those who look forward to (Meeting with) Allāh and the Last Day.”⁷⁴²

But at the end of this path, indeed their lies Al-Fawṣ Al-Kabīr.

“And those who committed kufṛ, said to their Messengers: Surely, we shall drive you out of our land, or you shall return to our religion. So their Lord revealed to them: Truly, We shall destroy the Thālimīn- and indeed, We shall make you dwell in the land after them. This is for him who fears standing before Me (on the Day of Resurrection) and also fears My threat.”⁷⁴³

“They said: ‘Build for him a furnace, and throw him into the blazing fire!’ So they plotted a plot against him- but We made them the lowest. And he (Ibrāhīm) said: Verily, I am going to my Lord- He will guide me!”⁷⁴⁴

“Or do you think that you will enter Paradise without such (trials) as came to those who passed away before you? They were afflicted with severe poverty and ailments, and were so shaken that even the Messenger and those who had Īmān along with him said, “When (will come) the Help of Allāh?” Yes! Certainly, the Help of Allāh is near!”⁷⁴⁵

And this is exactly what we see today, from our Shuyūkh who are raising the banner of Tawḥīd above the heads of the Tawāghūt, proving clearly as the Prophet Yūsuf عليه السلام said,

“O my Lord! Prison is dearer to me than that to which they invite me!”⁷⁴⁶

⁷⁴² Al-Mumtahinab: 6

⁷⁴³ Ibrāhīm: 13-14

⁷⁴⁴ As-Sāffāt: 97-99

⁷⁴⁵ Al-Baqarab: 214

⁷⁴⁶ Yūsuf: 33

Indeed, prison, torture and martyrdom are more beloved to the Muwabbidīn than the so called “freedom”, “nationalism”, and fabricated man-made legislations, and Muwālāt with the enemies of Allāh.

And those who walk this Path will increasingly find themselves saying,

“And O my people! How is it that I call you to salvation, while you call me to the Fire!? You invite me to commit kufr against Allāh, ⁷⁴⁷ and to commit shirk with Him ⁷⁴⁸ which I have no knowledge of; And I invite you to the All-Mighty, the Oft-Forgiving! No doubt you call me to one who cannot grant me my request in this world nor in the Hereafter. And our return will be to Allāh, and the arrogant shall be the denizens of the Fire! And you will (then) remember what I am telling you (now), and I leave my affair to Allāh. Verily, Allāh is the All-Seer of the slaves.” ⁷⁴⁹

“And they were not commanded, except that they should worship none but Allāh, sincerely, as Hunafā', and establish Salāt and give Zakāt. And that is the Right Religion.” ⁷⁵⁰

And Allāh has clarified plainly for those who are willing to become Hunafā':

“There has indeed been an excellent example for you in Ibrāhīm and those with him, when they said to their people: ‘Verily, we are free from you and whatever you worship besides Allāh. We have disbelieved in you ⁷⁵¹ and there has emerged between us and you, hostility and hatred forever, until you believe in Allāh Alone’.” ⁷⁵²

⁷⁴⁷ Such as assisting the kuffār against the Muslims... Muthābarab...

⁷⁵⁰ Al-Bayyinab: 5

⁷⁵¹ Kafarnā Bikum. It can be translated as “We have rejected you” or also “We have disbelieved in you”. This Verse is used as Dalil by the Imāms of Ahl Al-Sunnah Wal-Jamā'ah to do Takfir of the musbrikīn.

⁷⁵² Al-Mumtahinab: 4

So expect what the Mumabhidūn had tasted at the hands of the Tawāghūt, when they threatened to the Mumabhidūn who followed Mūsā عليه السلام,

“So I will surely cut off your hands and feet from opposite sides, and I will surely crucify you on the trunks of trees- and you shall surely know which one of us [I Fir'awn, or Allāh the Ilāh of Mūsā] can give the most severe and more lasting torment.”⁷⁵³

So reply - O Slave of Allāh - just as your Pious Predecessors replied in front of the faces of the Tawāghūt,

“No problem! Surely, to our Lord (Allāh) we are to return.”⁷⁵⁴

And you - O Hanīf - must be prepared to answer as your Salaf from the Mumabhidūn answered,

“We do not prefer you over what has come to us of the Clear Signs, and He Who created us. So decree whatever you desire to decree, for you can only decree (regarding) this life of the world. Verily we have believed in our Lord, that He may forgive us our faults.”⁷⁵⁵

And for these two factions - one of Tawhīd, and the other of Tāghūt, Allāh has said,

“Verily, whosoever comes to his Lord as a Mujrim (mushrik), then surely for him is Hell, wherein he will neither die nor live. But whosoever comes to Him as a Mu'min, and has done righteous deeds- for such are the high ranks; Everlasting Gardens of Eden, under which rivers flow, wherein they will abide forever: And such is the reward of those who purify themselves.”⁷⁵⁶

And Allāh orders us to announce to those who oppose this Mighty Dīn,

⁷⁵³ TāHā: 71

⁷⁵⁴ Asb-Shu'arā': 50

⁷⁵⁵ TāHā: 72-73

⁷⁵⁶ TāHā: 74-76

“Say: Nothing shall ever happen to us, except what Allāh has ordained for us. He is our Protector- and in Allāh let the Mu'minin put their trust. Say: Do you wait for us except one of the two best things (martyrdom or victory); While we await for you either that Allāh will afflict you with a punishment from Himself, or at our hands. So wait- we too are waiting with you.”⁷⁵⁷

So this is Millat Ibrāhīm - who is willing to stride upon its Path?

And your Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, *“There will never cease to be a group from my Ummah fighting upon the command of Allāh (Most High), overpowering their enemies. They will not be harmed by those who oppose them until the Hour comes upon them and they are upon that.”*⁷⁵⁸

So,

“Salām be upon Ibrāhīm!”⁷⁵⁹

O Allāh! Shower peace and blessings upon Muhammad and his family, as you sent peace and blessings on Ibrāhīm and his family. Āmīn.

⁷⁵⁷ At-Tawbah: 51-52

⁷⁵⁸ Recorded by Muslim (247, 1037), similar in Ibn Hibbān (16/220), and Abū Nu'aym in “Al-Hilyab” (2/289), and many others. Also refer to the entire chapter “Lā Taḥāl Tā'ifab...” within “Kitāb Al-Imārāt” in “Sabīh Muslim”. And also, Ibn Battah's “Al-Ibānāt” (190-200). Also narrated by Abū Dāwūd and Ahmad. ⁷⁵⁹ As-Sāffāt: 109

Conclusion

And just as Shaykh Sulaymān Āl Ash-Shaykh رحمه الله said under the Eighteenth Evidence, “So He (Most High) informed that if murtaddūn exist, then definitely there will also exist Mujāhidīn, Lovers (of Allāh), and Beloved (by Allāh). And He described them as being humble and modest towards the Mu'minūn; and tough, harsh, and severe against the kāfirīn.” Thus many of our brethren of Tawhīd, the noble Mujāhidīn, are fighting against these apostates of today...

Shaykh Al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah رحمه الله narrates from Imām 'Abdullāh Ibn Al-Mubārak and Imām Ahmad Ibn Hanbal that they said, “If the people disagree (Iktilāf) regarding anything, then look at what the *Mujāhidūn*⁷⁶⁰ say - since the Truth is with them; because Allāh says,

“As for those who wage Jihād in Us (for Our Cause), We will surely guide them to Our Paths.”⁷⁶¹

So after it has become clear in plain words that those who perpetrate Muthābarah, such people are murtaddūn, kāfirūn- then let us know what is the obligation regarding such apostates, lest the ignorant come back screaming “Neo-Khawārij”. Let us present a treatise written by some of the students of Shaykh Al-Islām Muhammad Ibn 'Abdīl-Wahhāb رحمه الله:

“Al-Hamdulillāh, and we praise and thank Him... It has reached us that some people are confused as to waging Jihād against those who claim to be Muslims- Is this Jihād legislated or not?

So we respond, and success is from Allāh: This Jihād is legislated (Mashrū') for a number of reasons:

- 1) One of them is “rebellious against the (Muslim, Muwābbid) ruler of the Muslims”. So whosoever rebels against the (Muslim, Muwābbid) ruler, then it is obligatory upon the entire Ummah to wage Jihād against them...⁷⁶²

⁷⁶⁰ The actual word used is “Abl Al-Thughūr”. It is possible that a specific Mujāhid may err and be in mistake, but it is not possible for the entire Tā'ifah (group) of Jihād to be united upon error.

⁷⁶¹ Al-Ankabūt: 69. Refer to “Majmū' Al-Fatāwā” (28/442).

⁷⁶² It should be remembered that the ruler has to be at least a Muslim who acts firmly upon Tawhīd and does not commit any kufr - so it is still obligatory to listen to such a ruler even if he is sinful or oppressive - as long as he does not do any kufr. But as for those who legislate their own laws, disregarding the Legislation of Allāh, then as Shaykh Sulaymān Ibn Sahmān رحمه الله said, “Thus, if the village and the city were to wage war against each other, till the point that they all die - This would undoubtedly be better than setting up a Taghūt upon earth, governing in contradiction to the Shari'ah of Islam, the legislation with which Allāh sent His Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم.” [Ad-Durar As-Saniyyah 10/509-511].

- 2) The second matter which requires Jihād against whosoever perpetrates it, is “not performing Takfīr of the mushrikīn”, or doubting their Takfīr, because this is from the Nullifications of Islām, and it invalidates it. And the proof for this is the statement of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم, “Whosoever says, “None is worthy of being worshipped, except Allāh”, and disbelieves in whatsoever is worshipped other than Allāh, then his wealth and blood are protected, and his reckoning is with Allāh.”⁷⁶³ So he has attached the safety of one’s life and property with two affairs, 1) The statement “Lā Ilāh Illā Allāh”, and 2) disbelief in whatsoever is worshipped other than Allāh.⁷⁶⁴ Thus, the blood and wealth of a person is not protected unless he fulfills both stipulations. Firstly, the statement “Lā Ilāh Illā Allāh,” and the goal is its meaning, not merely its recitation; and its meaning is the singling out of Allāh with every type of Tbādab. And the second stipulation is “disbelieving in that which is worshipped other than Allāh”, and this implies making Takfīr of the mushrikīn, and declaring Barā’ab from them and whatsoever they worship along with Allāh. So whosoever does not do Takfīr of the mushrikīn of the Turkish Kingdom [Ottoman Empire],⁷⁶⁵ and the grave-worshippers, those who worship saints, and forsake the Tawhīd of Allāh, and disguise the Sunnah as a *Bid’ah*⁷⁶⁶ - then such a person (who doesn’t do Takfīr upon them) is a kāfir just like them- even if he hates and despises the religion of the grave-worshippers, and loves Islām and the Muslims⁷⁶⁷ ...
- 3) The third matter that obligates (Wājib) waging Jihād against whosoever commits it, is Muthāharah, and assisting the mushrikīn against the Muslims, whether physically or through speech, or through the heart (loving them), or through wealth- then such a person is kāfir outside of Islām.⁷⁶⁸ So whosoever aids the mushrikīn against the Muslims, or gives the mushrikīn some money with which they ⁷⁶³ Narrated by Muslim in his “Sabīl” (23).

⁷⁶⁴ And this includes what Allāh says,

“Have you seen those (hypocrites) who claim that they believe in that which has been sent down to you, and that which was sent down before you, and they wish to go for judgment (in their disputes) to the Tāghūt while they have been ordered to reject them. But Shaytān wishes to lead them far astray.” [An-Nisā’: 60].

⁷⁶⁵ And similarly today, those who do not make Takfīr of the grave-worshipping regimes (not to mention secular) such as Egypt, Sudan, Pakistan, Bangladesh, etc. And also when the Saudi regime lets a dome of shirk exist right upon the Prophet of Tawhīd صلى الله عليه وسلم - and people come and scream aloud various invocations which contain clear and obvious shirk and kufr. And this is regarding the same shirk that the Murji’ab are willing to speak against, but why do they not make Takfīr of such regimes then? So if this is how they are with the grave-worshippers- Then it is obvious why they refrain from making Takfīr of the “Alive and Dangerous” Tawāghūt, such as the United Nations, Fahd, Musharraf, Hosni, Sharon, etc...

⁷⁶⁶ This includes those who disguise Tawhīd as if it was “Takfīriyyab”, and disguise shirk as if it was “Salafīyyab”.

⁷⁶⁷ So yet again, another refutation of the already disabled invention of ‘Ubaykān- but this is neither the time nor the place...

⁷⁶⁸ Note how he separated each of the words with “or”- meaning that any of those stipulations can make a person into a “kāfir outside of Islām”. And this is another refutation against the Murji’ab...

can benefit in their war against the Muslims - through his own choice (and not through coercion) - then such a person is a kāfir.

As Shaykh Muhammad Ibn 'Abdil-Wahhāb رحمه الله said, "The Eighth Nullification of Islām: Helping the kuffār and cooperating with them against the Muslims. As Allāh (Most High) has said,

"And if any amongst you takes them (kuffār) as Awliyā',⁷⁶⁹ then surely he is one of them (kuffār)."⁷⁷⁰

So whosoever fits any of these descriptions which nullify Islām, or forbids any of the manifest symbols of Islām,⁷⁷¹ or abstains from instituting a manifest law from the Shari'ah, then Jihād is to be waged against them until they accept it and apply it.

And so by this, it will become clear to you that doing Jihād against these people is from the most virtuous *Jihāds*⁷⁷² - but none will be able to realize this fact except the wisest people. But as for those who have no wisdom at all, then they do not believe in any Jihād except against the worshippers of statues only - but as for those who pronounce the Two Testimonies, then those ignorant people do not view any Jihād against them. And this matter has become complicated to even the best men in this era. As 'Umar رضي الله عنه said to Abū Bakr رضي الله عنه, "How is it that you will fight mankind? Even thought the Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "I have been ordered to fight the people, until they testify that "There is none worthy of being worshipped, except Allāh". So if they say this, then their blood and property are protected from me, except for its (the Kalimah's) rights"??⁷⁷³ So then Abū Bakr رضي الله عنه replied, "Indeed Zakāt is from its (the Kalimah's) rights. And I swear by Allāh, if they were to refrain from giving a young she-goat that they used to give during the time of the Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم - then I would fight them for that."⁷⁷⁴

So this proves that whosoever refrains from a right (requisite)⁷⁷⁵ from the rights of Islām, then Jihād is obligatory (Wājib) against him, and this Jihād is one of the most virtuous deeds. And the only one that would be able to truly realize this, is he who is from amongst the wisest and most knowledgeable of mankind, so he should praise Allāh for that blessing. And ⁷⁶⁹ Allies, Supporters, Protectors, Friends, Helpers, etc.

⁷⁷⁰ Al-Mā'idah: 51

⁷⁷¹ And indeed, Jihād is one of the most open manifestations of Islām, and it is its highest peak. So remember what the Imām says regarding those who consider this Harām...

⁷⁷² So much for the silencing of the murmurings of the Qusūriyyah - those who say it is "Harām" to do Jihād against the apostate rulers; Yet the Imāms of the Da'nab of Najd clearly say it is the "most virtuous" Jihād, and also "Wājib" upon the Muslims...

⁷⁷³ Recorded by Al-Bukhārī in his "Sahīb" (1399), Muslim in his "Sahīb" (33, 35), At-Tirmithī (3341), Ibn Mājah (3928).

⁷⁷⁴ Refer to "Sahīb Al-Bukhārī", "Kitāb Istitābat Al-Murtaddīn".

⁷⁷⁵ And it is known that showing friendship, alliance, love, assistance, and all types of Muwālāb to fellow Mu'minīn is a requisite for Islām. So whosoever does the opposite- and shows every type of Muwālāb to the kuffār, then he has forsaken the Dīn of Allāh, and apostatized.

the evidence that only the wisest people would be able to grasp this, is the discussion between Abū Bakr and 'Umar.

Abū Bakr رضي الله عنه understood that waging Jihād against them is the Truth, even though they uttered the Two Testimonies and abandoned *shirk*⁷⁷⁶ - but 'Umar رضي الله عنه did not understand this, until Abū Bakr رضي الله عنه explained it to him.

And the 'Ulamā', may Allāh have mercy upon them, counted this as one of the virtues of Abū Bakr; So this is enough for whosoever intended to find the Truth. But as for those whose hearts have been blinded by whims and desires, then there is no chance in him.

Wa Lā Hawla Wa Lā Quwwata Illā Billāh Al-'Alīyy Al-'Athīm. Wa Huwa Hasbunā Wa Ni'ma Al-Wakīl. Wal-Hamdu Lillāhi Rabbil-'Ālamīn. Wa Sallallāhu 'Alā Nabīyyinā Mubammad, Wa Ālihi Wa Sabbīhi Wa Sallam."⁷⁷⁷

And Imām 'Abdul-Latīf Ibn 'Abdir-Rahmān Ibn Hasan رحمه الله said, "And the most virtuous means by which to become nearer to Allāh is through despising His enemies, the mushrikīn, hating them, being hostile against them, and waging Jihād against them; and only through this can a slave of Allāh be saved from Tawallī to the kuffār against the Mu'mīnīn. But if he doesn't do this, then he has befriended them to the extent that he is with them. So be cautious and vigilant for that which destroys Islām and uproots its foundation."⁷⁷⁸

Shaykh Al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah رحمه الله explained the Verse,

"You see many of them taking the kuffār as their Awliyā'. Evil indeed is that which their own selves have sent forth before them; for that (reason) Allāh's Wrath fell upon them, and in torment they will abide forever. And had they believed in Allāh, and in ⁷⁷⁶ So this shows that even if someone doesn't commit shirk, but commits Muthābarah, then Jihād is obligatory against him. As Imām Muhammad Ibn 'Abdil-Wahhāb رحمه الله said, "Indeed a human has no valid Dīn nor Islām, even if he singles out Allāh (for every Tbādah) and abandons shirk - unless he is hostile against the mushrikīn, and displays to them Hatred and Enmity; just as Allāh said, "You will not find any people who believe in Allāh and the Last Day, making friendship with those who oppose Allāh and His Messenger..." (Refer to "Ad-Durar As-Saniyyah" 8/113). And he also said, "Know! That the evidences for performing Takfīr of a righteous Muslim after he commits shirk, or goes with the mushrikīn against the Muabbidīn - even if he does not commit any shirk - from the Words of Allāh, His Messenger, and from all the scholars, are so many that they are innumerable." "Ad-Durar As-Saniyyah" (10/8).

⁷⁷⁷ Refer to "Ad-Durar As-Saniyyah" (9/290-293).

⁷⁷⁸ "Ad-Durar As-Saniyyah" (9/24)

the Prophet, and in what has been revealed to him- they would have never taken them (the kuffār) as Awliyā'. But many of them are fāsiqūn.”⁷⁷⁹

So he then explains, “So this proves that the Īmān, as is mentioned here, is nullified by taking the kuffār as Awliyā'. And it shows that Īmān and “taking them as Awliyā'” cannot be together in a heart. And whosoever takes them as Awliyā', then he has not fulfilled the required Īmān, from the Īmān in Allāh, His Messenger, and that which was sent down upon him. And similar to this Verse is the Verse,

“Do not take the Jews and Christians as Awliyā'. They are but Awliyā' of each other. And if any amongst you takes them as Awliyā', then surely he is one of them.”⁷⁸⁰

So Allāh clarifies in the first Verse that those who take them as Awliyā' are not Mu'minīn- and in this Verse He clarifies that those who take them as Awliyā' are actually one of them (of the kuffār). So one Verse of the Qur'an clarifies the other.”⁷⁸¹

And Al-Hāfiẓ Ibn Al-Qayyim رحمه الله said, “And Allāh (Most High) has judged - and there is no judgment better than His - that whosoever does Tawallī to the Jews and Christians, then he is indeed one of them,

“And if any amongst you takes them as Awliyā', then surely he is one of them.”⁷⁸²

So if the collaborators with the kuffār are one of the kuffār, according to the text of the Qur'an, then they have the same rulings as the kuffār. And this is a general ruling, but it becomes more specific - Whosoever does Tawallī to them, and follows their desires after he was a Muslim, then he is not to be accepted, nor is Jizyah to be taken from him; rather, it is either that he returns to Islām, or he faces execution, for he is a murtadd according to the texts and Ijmā'.”⁷⁸³

And whosoever wishes to delve further into this affair, then let him read the following books:

- “Sabīl An-Najāh Wal-Fikāk Min Muwālāt Al-Murtaddīn Wa Abl Al-Isbrāk”. Literally “The Path of Salvation and Freedom Against Befriending the Apostates and Mushrikīn.” This book, along with “Ad-Dalā'il”, are the only books by the Salaf (Pious Predecessors) dedicated specifically to address the matter of Muthābarah. This book is written by Imām Hamad Ibn ‘Atīq رحمه الله.

- “Iqtidbā' As-Sirāt Al-Mustaqīm Fī Mukhālafat As'hāb Al-Jahīm”. Literally “Walking the Straight Path Regarding Opposing the Denizens of the Fire.” Written by Shaykh Al-Islām Ibn Taymiyyah رحمه الله.
- “Amthaq 'Urā Al-Imān” Literally “The Firmest Handhold of Imān.” Regarding the obligation and virtues of Alliance to the Mu'minīn, and loyalty to them, and loving them, and aiding them. Written by Imām Sulaymān Ibn 'Abdillāh Āl Ash-Shaykh رحمه الله (author of “Ad-Dalā'il”).
- The various letters and treatises contained in “Ad-Durar As-Saniyyah”, especially volumes 8, 9, and 10.
- “Tuhfat Al-Ikhwān: Bimā Jā'a Fil-Muwālāt Wal-Mu'ādāt Wal-Hijrān”. Literally “A Gift to the Brothers regarding that Which Has Come About Loyalty, Hostility and Emigration.” Compiled by the Imām Hamūd At-Tuwayjirī رحمه الله.
- “Al-Walā' Wal-Barā' Fī Al-Islām”. Literally “Loyalty and Disavowal in Islām.” Written by Shaykh Muhammad Al-Qahtānī. (Also available in English).
- “Al-Muwālāt Wal-Mu'ādāt”. Literally “Alliance and Hostility.” Written by Shaykh Muḥmās Al-Jul'ūd. A must-read book for anyone searching for more regarding this topic.
- “At-Tibyān Fī Kufr Man A'āna Al-Amrikān (Part One and Two)”. Literally “The Exposition Regarding the Disbelief of the One That Assists the Americans.” Written by the imprisoned Shaykh Nāsir Al-Fahd فاك الله أسره. A precious research into this subject, and a must-read for anyone who wants to know about Muthābarah in this era. This has been translated into English by At-Tibyān Publications.
- “Al-Haqq Wal-Yaqīn Fī 'Adāwat At-Tughāt Wal-Murtaddīn: Min Kalām A'immat Ad-Da'wah An-Najdiyyah”. Literally “The Truth and Certainty Regarding the Hostility Against the Tawāghūt and Apostates: Selected from the Words of the Imāms of the Da'wah of Najd.” By the martyred Shaykh Abū 'Abdir-Rahmān Sultān Al-'Utaybī Al-Atharī رحمه الله.
- “Al-Walā' Wal-Barā': 'Aqīdah Manqūlah Wa Wāqī' Maḥqūd'”. Literally “Loyalty and Disavowal: A Creed Present in the Texts But Absent in Action.” Written by the Shaykh Ayman Ath-Thawāhirī حفظه الله.
- “Millat Ibrāhīm: Wa Da'wat Al-Anbiyā' Wal-Mursalīn”. Literally “The Religion of Ibrāhīm”. Written by Shaykh Abū Muhammad Al-Maqdisī فاك الله أسره. A wonderful book which is also a must-read. Also available from At-Tibyān Publications in English.

And Imām Muhammad Ibn 'Abdīl-Wahhāb رحمه الله said, “And mention to them that it is an obligation (wājib) upon a man to teach his family and children to Love for the Sake of Allāh, and Hate for the Sake of Allāh, and to make Alliance for the Sake of Allāh, and to be Hostile for the Sake of Allāh; just as he teaches them how to do Wudhū' (ablution) and pray Salāt. Because undoubtedly, there is no validity of a person's Salāt, nor his Islām, until he has valid Alliance and Hostility.”⁷⁸⁴ ⁷⁸⁴ Refer to “Ar-Rasā'il Ash-Shakhsīyyah” (322).

And the Messenger of Allāh صلى الله عليه وسلم said, “Indeed the firmest handhold of Īmān is Loving for the Sake of Allāh, and Hating for the Sake of Allāh.”⁷⁸⁵

And Ibn ‘Abbās رضي الله عنهما said, “Whosoever Loves for the Sake of Allāh, and Hates for the Sake of Allāh, and is Hostile for the Sake of Allāh, and makes Alliance for the Sake of Allāh- then he has reached the Protection of Allāh with that.”⁷⁸⁶

And for those Qusūriyyah who might later try to twist the meanings of the scholars, and try to refute the clear texts of the Kitāb and Sunnah and Ijmā' - Are they but opening the doors to Muthāharah, and displaying “green-lights”?

And Imām Hamad Ibn ‘Atīq رحمه الله said, “And as for Hostility against the kuffār and mushrikīn- Then know that Allāh (Most High) has obligated it and has severely stressed upon it; and He has forbidden alliance with them, and He has been severely harsh in warning against it; And this is to such a degree, that there exists no commandment in the Book of Allāh with more evidences and more clarity – other than the obligation for Tawbūd and the forbiddance of shirk.”⁷⁸⁷

And we should repeat what Shaykh Sulaymān Āl Ash-Shaykh رحمه الله said:

And the evidences regarding this are many - and this should be sufficient for whomsoever Allāh wishes to guide.

But as for the one for whom Allāh wishes fitnah and misguidance for, then it is just as He (Most High) said,

“Truly! Those, against whom the Word (Wrath) of your Lord has been justified, will not be believe - Even if every Āyah came to them - until they see the Painful Torment.”⁷⁸⁸

So let us end, In Shā' Allāh- with the warning from of Allāh:

⁷⁸⁵ Recorded by Ahmad (4/286), Ibn Abī Shaybah in “Kitāb Al-Īmān” (110), At-Tayālasī (747), Ibn Abī Ad-Dunyā in “Al-Ikhwān” (1). This phrasing has been declared as “Dha'īf”, but strong due to all its chains, as mentioned by Al-Albānī in “As-Silsilah As-Sahībah” (998) and in “An-Nasīb” 240, as well as other places. He did authenticate a similar phrasing: “The firmest handhold of Īmān is Allegiance for the Sake of Allāh, Enmity for the Sake of Allāh, Loving for the Sake of Allāh, and Hating for the Sake of Allāh 'Aẓza Wa Jall.” Authenticated by Al-Albānī in “Sahīh Al-Jāmi” (2539).

⁷⁸⁶ Narrated in “Ad-Durr Al-Mantūr” (8/87).

⁷⁸⁷ Refer to “Sabīl An-Najāh” (31).

⁷⁸⁸ Yūnus: 96-97

“O you who believe! Take no the kāfirīn as Awliyā' instead of the Mu'minīn. Do you wish to offer Allāh a manifest proof against yourselves?”⁷⁸⁹

And all praise and thanks are due to Allāh Alone. And may He send salutations upon the Messenger, and his family, and his Companions.
