Taken from Silsilah Ahadeeth As-Saheehah

1- 205 – On the authority of Aboo Hurairah (رضي الله عنه)<sup>1</sup>, on the authority of Messenger of Allaah (صلى الله عليه وسلم)<sup>2</sup> that he said: ‘I order you with three and I prohibit you from three; I order you to worship Allaah and not to associate anyone with Him. Hold together to the Rope of Allaah and do not separate. Obey the one whom Allaah places as a ruler over you. And I prohibit you from gossip, asking too many questions and wasting wealth.’

No. 685

2- 206 -On the authority of Jaabir bin Sulayman or Saleem that he said:

‘I came to the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) while he was sitting with his Companions (رضي الله عنهم)<sup>3</sup>, I asked: ‘Which one of you is the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم)? Either the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) gestured to himself or the people motioned to him.

He was sitting with his knees against his chest with a garment and its trimming had covered his feet.

I said: ‘O Messenger of Allaah! I am ignorant about things so teach me.’

The Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said: ‘Fear Allaah - Azza wa Jal<sup>4</sup> -, do not scorn any good deed even if you pour from a bucket into a vessel for the person who serves drinks.

Beware of arrogance! Indeed Allaah - Tabarak wa Ta’ala<sup>5</sup> - does not love arrogance. If a person curses you and disgraces you with something which he knows about you, then do not disgrace him with something you know about him, so you will have his reward and he will have his sin. Don’t you dare ever curse anyone.’

No.770

3- 208 – On the authority of Jaabir (رضي الله عنه) in a narration ascribed to the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم): ‘The most beloved of food to Allaah is that which many hands partake of.’

No.895

<sup>2</sup> (صلى الله عليه وسلم) May the peace and blessings of Allaah be upon him

<sup>3</sup> (رضي الله عنهم) (rad iyallahu `anhum) May Allaah be pleased with them

<sup>5</sup> Hallowed and The Most High

Ahadeeth pertaining to behaviour and seeking permission

4- 209 – On the authority of Ibn Umar (رضي الله عنه) who said: ‘A man came to the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said: ‘O Messenger of Allaah! Which of the people are the most beloved to Allaah and which of the actions are most beloved to Allaah?’

The Messenger of Allaah (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said: ‘The most beloved of the people to Allaah are the most beneficial for the people. The most beloved of actions to Allaah (عزوجل)<sup>6</sup> are to cause happiness to reach a Muslim, to relieve him from a hardship, to settle a debt for a Muslim or to repel hunger from him. For me to walk with a brother in order to assist him is more beloved to me than to make ‘Itikaf in this Masjid (Masjid al-Madinah) for a month.

Whoever holds back his anger then Allaah hides his mistakes. Whoever suppresses his anger – even though he is not scared to show it, but withholds due to the truth – Allaah fills his heart with hope on the day of Judgement.

Whoever walks with his brother to assist him with a need until he has helped him completely, then Allaah plants his feet firmly on the day people will not stand firmly. Indeed bad behaviour spoils good actions, just as vinegar spoils honey.’

No. 906

5- The Messenger (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said: ‘If a noble person comes from a people, then be generous to him.’

No. 1205

6- On the authority of Jaabir bin Abdullaah (رضي الله عنه) in a narration ascribed to the Prophet: ‘If a person speaks to you about something after which you leave, then you have been entrusted with that speech.’

No. 1090

7- 234- On the authority of Aboo Hurairah (رضي الله عنه) who said: The Messenger of Allaah (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said: ‘If one of you enters upon his Muslim brother and he feeds him from his food, then you should eat and not ask about it. And if he pours him a drink from his drink, then he should drink from his drink and not ask about it.’

No.627

8- 235 – The Messenger (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said: ‘If you see those who praise you, throw dirt in their faces.’

No.912

9- 268 – On the authority of Hisham on the authority of his father (رضي الله عنه) that ‘Aaishah, the Mother of The Believers (رضي الله عنها)<sup>7</sup>, said to the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم): O Messenger of Allaah! All your women have a kuniya<sup>8</sup> except me! So the Messenger of Allaah (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said: ‘Take a kuniya by virtue of your son Abdullaah – i.e. Ibn Zubayr, you are Umm Abdullaah.’

Then he said: ‘She was called Umm Abdullaah until she died and she had never given birth to a child.’

10- 269 – On the authority of Shaqeeq who said: Abdullaah (رضي الله عنه) said Labbayik<sup>9</sup> while on the mountain of Safa. Then he said: ‘O tongue! Say good so you can benefit and remain silent so you are safe before you fall into regret.

They said: ‘O Aboo Abdurrahmaan! Is this something you yourself say or did you hear it?’

He said: ‘No, rather I heard the Messenger of Allaah (صلى الله عليه وسلم) say: ‘Most of the mistakes of the son of Adam are due to his tongue.’

No. 534

11- 274 – On the authority of Aboo Hurairah (رضي الله عنه) that the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said: ‘O Allaah, indeed I make a pledge to You which I won’t break. Indeed I am a human being; so any believer who I harmed, reviled, cursed or punished; make that as prayer for him, Zakaat and a means of being close to You on the Day of Judgement.’

No. 3999

12- 275 – On the authority of Jaabir bin Abdullaah (رضي الله عنه) who said: ‘The Messenger of Allaah (صلى الله عليه وسلم) came to visit us in our house and saw a man with dishevelled hair who had crudely parted it. Then he said: ‘Could this person not find that which will straighten his hair?!’

He saw another man with a dirty garment. So he said: ‘Could this person not find any water with which he could wash his garment?!’

No.493

13- 276 – On the authority of Ibn Umar (رضي الله عنه) in a narration ascribed to the Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم): ‘Jibreel ordered me to put older people first.’
