He was cursing me and you remained sitting, and when I refuted him with a little of what he had said you became angry and walked away. The Messenger (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said:

No man opens the door of giving and helping, wanting by that to have good ties, except that Allaah increases him a lot in that.

And no man opens the door to begging and continuously asking from people, wanting to have a lot except that Allaah decreases him a lot due to that.’
