What is the meaning of the hadeeth about performing wudoo properly during times when it is difficult to do so?

Shaykh Uthaymeen (رَحِمَهُ اللَّهُ)<sup>1</sup> was asked, “What is the meaning of the hadeeth about performing wudoo properly during times when it is difficult to do so and waiting for prayer after prayer?” So he replied, “Performing wudoo properly during times when it is difficult to do so...”<sup>2</sup> means that a person performs his wudoo in the most complete manner during days when it is cold and likewise after each prayer he waits for the next whether that is in the mosque or after the mosque. And that his heart is connected to the prayer such that when he completes one he waits for the next, so his heart is always connected to the prayer.”<sup>3</sup>
