بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

The Imaam of Yemen, Muqbil ibn Haadee al-Waadee’i, said about al-Albaanee, may Allaah have mercy on them both, “He has no peer in this era. And it should be known that Shaykh Naasirud-Deen al-Albaanee, may Allaah the Most High protect him, has knowledge/learning [from what he has had access to] which no one else does, and reference works became available to him which no-one else had. Many a reference is not available to us, so we have to quote it from the books of Shaykh Naasirud-Deen al-Albaanee, referencing it back to him. So may Allaah reward him well on behalf of [what he has done for] Islaam.”¹
