

Shaykh al-Albaanee's Bed

Article taken and slightly adapted from: thealbaani.site

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

In the name of Allaah, the Most Merciful, the Bestower of Mercy

Shaykh Mashoor was asked whether there was an incident that left an impression on him with Shaykh al-Albaanee?

He replied, "There are lots, loads, the one that had a great impact on me was the first time I met him, the first time I met him was when I was in secondary school, and the Shaykh used to go to this house ... where the top floor was a library, so Subhaanallaah, I saw that there was some bedding on the floor, it was the Shaykh's, he would work until he got tired, and when he would get tired he would sleep there, amongst the books—seeing that affected me greatly, it had a very deep effect on me ..."